Then * gathered vnto him the Pharises, and certaine of the Scribes which came from Ierusalem.

2 And when they sawe some of his disciples eate meate with ‖ common [a] handes,

(that is to say vnwashen) they complained.

3 (For the Pharises and all the Iewes, except they wash their hands [b] oft, eate not, holding the tradition of the Elders.

4 And when they come from the market, except they wash, they eate not: and many other things there bee, which they haue taken vpon them to obserue, as the washing of cups, and [c] pots, and of braken vessels, and of tables.)

5 Then asked him the Pharises and Scribes, Why walke not thy disciples according to the tradition of the Elders, but eate ‖ meate with vnwashen hands?

6 Then he answered & saide vnto them, Surely * Esai hath prophesied well of you, hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoureth me with their [d] lips, but their heart is farre away from me.

7 But they worship mee in vaine, teaching for doctrines the [e] commandements of men.

8 For ye lay the commandement of God apart, and obserue the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and of cups, and many other such like things ye do.

9 And he sayd vnto them, Well ye reiect the commandement of God, that ye may obserue your owne tradition.

10 For Moyses sayd, * Honour thy father and thy mother: and, * Whosoeuer shal curse father or mother, let him [f] die the death.

12 So yee suffer him no more to doe any thing for his father, or his mother, 13 Making the word of God of none authoritie, by your tradition which ye haue ordeined: and ye do many such like things.

14 * Then he called the whole multitude vnto him, and sayd vnto them, Hearken you all vnto me, and vnderstand.

19 Because it entreth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, which is the purging of all meates?

20 Then he sayd, That which commeth out of man, that defileth man.

h Or, against them.

15 And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were amased, and ranne to him, and saluted him.

16 Then hee asked the Scribes, What dispute you ‖ among your selues?

b When the spirit commeth vpō him, he teareth him with inward sorow and pangs, as in a colike a man feeleth such griefe, as if his bowels were rent asunder.

17 And one of the companie answered, and sayd, Master, I haue brought my sonne vnto thee, which hath a dumbe spirit:

18 And wheresoeuer hee taketh him, hee b teareth him, and hee foameth, and gnasheth his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast him out, and they could not.

i It seemeth that this man deserued not so sharp an answere: but Christ speaketh in his person to the Pharises which were stubburne and desperate.

19 Then he answered him, and sayd, i O faithlesse generation, how long now shall I be with you? Howe long nowe shall I suffer you? Bring him vnto me.

20 So they brought him vnto him: and assoone as the spirit sawe him, hee tare him, and he fell downe on the ground, wallowing and foming.

21 Then he asked his father, How long time is it since he hath bin thus? And he said, Of a childe.

22 And oft times he casteth him into the fire, and into the water, to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, helpe vs, and haue compassion vpon vs.

k The Lord is euer ready to helpe vs, so that we put him not backe through our incredulitie.

23 And Iesus sayde vnto him, If k thou canst beleeue it, all things are l possible to him that beleeueth.

l All things that are agreeable to the will of God, shall be granted to him that beleeueth: for faith seeketh nothing that is contrary to his will, or that is not reuciled in his worde.

24 And straightway the father of the childe cryed with teares, sayd, Lord, I beleeue: helpe my m vnbeliefe.

m That is, the feeblenesse, and imperfection of my faith.

25 When Iesus saw that the people came running together, hee rebuked the vncleane spirit, saying vnto him, Thou dumbe and deafe spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him.

26 Then the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out, and [n] hee was as one dead, in so much that many said, He is dead.

27 But Jesus tooke his hande, and lift him vp, and he rose.

28 And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him secretly, Why could we not cast him out?

29 And hee said vnto them, This kinde can by no other meanes come forth, but by [o] prayer and fasting.

30 ¶ * And they departed thence, and went through Galile, and he would not that any should haue knowen it.

31 For he taught his disciples, and sayd vnto them, The sonne of man shall be deliuered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him, but after that he is killed, he shall rise againe the third day.

32 But [p] they vnderstoode not that saying, and were afraide to aske him.

33 * After hee came to Capernaum: and when he was in the house, hee asked them, What was it that yee disputed among you by the way?

34 And they held their peace: for by the way they reasoned among themselues, who should be the chiefest.

35 And hee sate downe, and called the twelue, and sayd to them, If any man desire to be first, the same shall bee last of all, and seruant vnto all.

36 And he tooke a little child, and set him in the middes of them, and tooke him in his armes, and said vnto them, 37 Whosoeuer shall receiue one of such little children in my Name, receiueth mee: and whosoeuer receiueth mee, receiueth not [q] mee, but him that sent me.

38 ¶ * Then Iohn answered him, saying, Master, wee sawe one casting out deuils by thy Name, which followeth not vs, and wee forbade him, because he followeth vs not.

39 * But Jesus sayde, Forbid him not: for there is no man that can doe a ‖ miracle by my Name, that can lightly speake euill of mee.

40 For whosoeuer is not [r] against vs, is on our part.

41 * And whosoeuer shall giue you a cup of water to drinke for my Names sake, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say vnto you, he shall not lose his reward.

42 * And whosoeuer shall offende one of these little ones, that beleeue in mee, it were better for him rather, that a milstone were hanged about his necke, and that hee were cast into the sea.

43 * Wherefore, if thine [s] hand cause thee to offende, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life maymed, then hauing two hands, to go into hell, into the fire that neuer shall be quenched,

44 * Where their [t] worme dieth not, and the fire neuer goeth out.

45 Likewise, if thy foote cause thee to offende, cut it off: it is better for thee to goe halt into life, then hauing two feete to bee cast into hell, into the fire that neuer shall be quenched,

46 Where their worme dieth not, and the fire neuer goeth out.

47 And if thine eye cause thee to offende, plucke it out: it is better for thee to goe into the kingdome of God with one eye, then hauing two eyes, to be cast into hell fire,

48 Where their worme dieth not, and the fire neuer goeth out.

49 For euery man shall be [u] salted with fire: and * euery sacrifice shalbe salted with salt.

50 * Salt is good: but if the [x] salt bee vnsauerie, wherewith shall it be seasoned? Haue salt in your selues, and haue peace one with another.

4 And they said, Moses suffered to write a bill of diuorcement, and to put her away.

5 Then Jesus answered, and sayde vnto them, For the hardnesse of your heart hee wrote this precept vnto you.

6 But at the [a] beginning of the creation, * God made them male and female.

7 * For this cause shall man leaue his father and mother, and cleaue vnto his wife.

8 And they twaine shall be one ‖ flesh: so that they are no more twaine, but one flesh.

9 * Therefore, what God hath coupled together, let not man separate.

10 And in the house his disciples asked him againe of that matter.

11 And he sayd vnto them, * Whosoeuer shall put away his wife and marrie another, [b] committeth adulterie against her.

12 And if a woman put away her husband, and bee married to another, she committeth adulterie.

13 ¶ * Then they brought little children to him, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them.

14 But when Jesus sawe it, hee was displeased, and sayde to them, Suffer the little children to come vnto mee, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdome of God.

15 Verely I say vnto you, Whosoeuer shall not receiue the kingdome of God as [c] a little child, he shall not enter therein.

19 Thou knowest the commandements, * Thou shalt not commit adulterie. Thou shalt not kill. Thou shalt not steale. Thou shalt not beare false witnesse. Thou shalt hurt no man. Honour thy father and mother.

20 Then he answered, and sayd to him, Master, all these things I haue obserued from my youth.

f That is, he approoued certaine good seede that was in him, which gaue him a little motion.

21 And Jesus beheld him, and f loued him, and said vnto him, One thing is lacking vnto thee, Goe and g sell all that thou hast, and giue to the poore, and thou shalt haue treasure in heauen, and come, follow me, and take vp the crosse.

g He toucheth his maladie and sore, which before he felt not.

22 But hee was sad at that saying, and went away sorrowfull: for he had great possessions.

23 And Jesus looked round about, and said vnto his disciples, How hardly doe they that haue riches, enter into the kingdome of God!

24 And his disciples were astonied at his wordes. But Jesus answered againe, and said vnto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches, to enter into the kingdome of God!

29 Jesus answered, and sayde, Verely I say vnto you, there is no man that hath forsaken house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands for my sake and the Gospels, 30 But he shall receiue an hundreth folde nowe at this present: houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands with k persecutions, and in the world to come eternall life.

31 * But many that are l first, shalbe last, and the last, first.

32 ¶ * And they were in the way going vp to Jerusalem, and Jesus went before them, and they were amazed, and as they followed, they were afraide, and Jesus tooke the twelue againe, and beganne to tell them what thinges should come vnto him,

33 Saying, Behold we goe vp to Jerusalem and the Sonne of man shall be deliuered vnto the hie Priests, and to the Scribes, and they shall condemne him to death, and shall deliuer him to the Gentiles, 34 And they shal mocke him, and scourge him, and spit vpon him, and kill him: but the third day he shall rise againe.

35 ¶ * Then James and John the sonnes of Zebedeus came vnto him, saying, Master, we would that thou shouldest doe for vs that that we desire. *Matth.*20.20, 36 And he sayd vnto them, What would ye I should doe for you?

37 And they sayde to him, Grant vnto vs, that we may sit one at thy right hand, and the other at thy left hand in thy glory.

38 But Jesus said vnto them, Ye knowe not what ye aske. Can yee m drinke of the cup that I shall drinke of, and be baptized with the baptisme that I shall be baptized with?

m Can you be partakers of my crosse and afflictions?

39 And they said vnto him, We can. But Jesus sayd vnto them, Yee shall drinke in deede of the cup that I shall drinke of, and be baptized with the baptisme wherewith I shalbe baptized:

40 But to sit at my right hand, and at my left, is not n mine to giue, but it shalbe giuen to them for whom it is prepared.

41 And when the ten heard that, they began to disdaine at James and John.

42 But Jesus called them vnto him, and saide to them, * Yee knowe that they which delite to beare rule among the Gentiles, haue domination ouer them, and they that bee great among them, exercise authoritie ouer them. Luke 22.25.

43 But it shall o not bee so among you: but whosoeuer will be great among you, shal be your seruant.

o Christ would not that his disciples and ministers should beare rule as worldly gouernours doe.

q The more that Satan resisteth vs, the more our faith ought to increase.

49 Then Jesus stood still, and commanded him to bee called: and they called the blinde, saying vnto him, Be of good comfort: arise, he calleth thee.

50 So he threwe away his cloke, and rose, and came to Jesus.

51 And Jesus answered, and sayd vnto him, What wilt thou that I doe vnto thee? And the blinde sayd vnto him, Lord, that I may receiue sight.

52 Then Jesus sayd vnto him, Goe thy way: thy faith hath saued thee. And by and by he receiued his sight, and followed Jesus in the way.

2 And ſayd vnto them, a Go your wayes into that towne that is ouer againſt you, and aſſoone as ye ſhall enter into it, ye ſhall finde a colt bound, whereon neuer man ſate: loole him, and bring him.

3 And if any man ſay vnto you, Why doe ye this? Say that the Lord hath neede of him, and ſtraightway hee will ſend him hither.

4 And they went their way, and found a colt tyed by the doore without, in a place where two wayes mette, and they looſed him.

5 Then certain of them that ſtood there, ſayd vnto them, What doe yee looſing the colte?

6 And they ſayd vnto them as Ieſus had commanded them. So they let them goe.

12 * And on the morow when they were come out from Bethania, hee was e hungrie.

13 And ſeeing a figge tree a farre off, that had leaues, hee went to ſee if hee might find any thing thereon: but when hee came vnto it, he found nothing but leaues: for the time of figs was not yet.

f This was to declare howe much they diſpleaſe God, which haue but an outward ſhew and appearance without fruite, 14 Then Ieſus anſwered, and ſayd to it, f Neuer man eate fruite of thee hereafter while the world ſtandeth: and his diſciples heard it.

15 ¶ And they came to Ieruſalem, and Ieſus went into the Temple, and began to caſt out them that ſolde and bought in the Temple, and ouerthrewe the tables of the money changers, and the ſeates of them that ſold doues.

Mat.21.19,20.

20 ¶ * And in the morning as they paſſed by, they ſawe the figge tree dryed vp from the rootes.

21 Then Peter remembred, and ſayd vnto him, Maſter, behold, the figge tree which thou curſedſt, is withered.

22 And Ieſus anſwered, and ſayde vnto them, Haue h faith in God.

h Chriſt taketh occaſion to inſtruct them of the vertue of faith.

23 For verely I ſay vnto you, that whoſoeuer ſhall ſay vnto this mountaine, Take thy ſelfe away, and caſt thy ſelfe into the ſea, and ſhall not wauer in his heart, but ſhall beleeue that thoſe things which he ſaith ſhall come to paſſe, whatſoeuer he ſaith, ſhall be done to him.

Matth.7.7. luke 11.9.

i Hee teacheth vs not hereby to aske whatſoeuer ſeemeth good in our fantaſies: for our prayer muſt be grounded on faith, and our faith vpon the word of God.

Iſa.5.1. iere.2.21. mat.21.33. luke 20.9.

AND he began to ſpeake vnto them in parables, * A certaine man planted a vineyard, and compaſſed it with an hedge, and digged a pit for the a wineyeſſe, and built a towre in it, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a ſtrange country.

a The Greeke word ſignifieth the veſſell or fat, which ſtandeth vnder the wine-preſſe to receiue the iuyce or liquor.

2 And at a time, he ſent vnto the husbandmen, a ſeruant, that hee might receiue of the husbandmen of the fruite of the vineyard.

3 But

3 But they tooke him, and beat him, and sent him away emptie.

4 And againe, he sent vnto them another seruant, and at him they cast stones, and brake his head and sent him away shamefully handled.

5 And againe, hee sent another, and him they slewe, and many other, beating some, and killing some.

6 Yet had he one sonne, his deere beloued: him also he sent the last vnto them, saying, They will reuerence my sonne.

7 But the husbandmen sayde among themselues, This is the heire: come let vs kill him, the inheritance shall be ours,

8 So they tooke him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.

9 What shall then the Lord of the vineyard doe? He [b] will come and destroy these husbandmen, and giue the vineyarde to others.

10 Haue yee not read so much as this scripture? * The stone which the builders did refuse, is made the head of the corner.

11 This [c] was done of the Lord, and it is marueilous in our eyes.

12 Then they went about to take him, but they feared the people: for they perceiued that hee spake that parable against them: therefore they left him, and went their way.

13 ¶ * And they sent vnto him certaine of the Pharises, and of the Herodians that they might take him in his talke.

14 And when they came, they sayde vnto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou considerest not the [d] person of men, but teachest the [e] way of God truely, Is it lawfull to giue tribute to Cesar, or not?

15 Should wee giue it or should wee not giue it? But he knewe their hypocrisie, and sayd vnto them, [f] Why tempt ye me? Bring me a peny, that I may see it.

16 So they brought it, and he sayd vnto them, Whose is this image and superscription? and they sayd vnto him, Cesars.

17 Then Jesus answered, and sayd vnto them, * Giue to Cesar the things that are Cesars, and to God, those that are Gods: and they marueiled at him.

18 ¶ * Then came the Sadduces vnto him, (which say there is no resurrection) and they asked him, saying,

19 Master, * Moses wrote vnto vs, If any mans brother die, and leaue his wife, and leaue no children, that [g] his brother should take his wife, and raise vp seede vnto his brother.

20 There were seuen brethren, & the first tooke a wife, and when he died, left no issue:

21 Then the second tooke her, and he died, neither did he yet leaue issue, & the third like wise.

22 So seuen had her, and left no issue: last of all the wife died also.

23 In the resurrection then, when they shall rise againe, whose wife shall shee be of them? for seuen had her to wife.

24 Then Jesus answered, and sayd vnto them, Are yee not therefore deceiued, because yee know not the Scriptures, neither the power of God?

25 For when they shall rise againe from the dead, neither men marrie, nor wiues are married, but are [h] as the Angels which are in heauen.

26 And as touching the dead, that they shall rise againe, haue yee not read in the booke of Moses, how in the bush God spake vnto him, saying, I * am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the [i] liuing. Ye are therefore greatly deceiued.

28 ¶ * Then came one of the Scribes, that had heard them disputing together, and perceiuing that he had answered them well, he asked him, Which is the first commandement of all?

29 Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandements is, * Heare, Israel, the Lord our God is the onely Lord.

30 Thou shalt therefore loue the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soule, & with all thy [k] mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandement.

31 And the second is [l] like, that is, Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe. There is none other commandement greater then these.

32 Then the Scribe sayd vnto him, Well Master, thou hast sayd the trueth, that there is one God, and that there is none but hee.

33 And to loue him with all the heart, and with all the vnderstanding, and with all the soule, and with all the strength, and to loue his neighbour as himselfe, is more then all burnt [m] offrings and sacrifices.

34 Then, when Jesus sawe that hee answered discreetly, hee sayd vnto him, Thou [n] art not farre from the kingdome of God. And no man after that durst aske him any question.

35 ¶ * And Jesus answered and sayd teaching in the Temple, How say the Scribes that Christ is the Sonne of Dauid?

36 For Dauid himselfe sayd by the [o] holy Ghost, * The Lord sayd to my Lord, Sit at my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy foote stoole.

36 Then Dauid himselfe calleth him Lord: by what meanes is he then his Sonne? and much people heard him gladly.

38 * Moreouer hee sayd vnto them in [p] his doctrine, Beware of the Scribes, which loue to goe in long [q] robes, and loue salutations in the markets, 39 And the chiefe seates in the Synagogues, and the first roomes at feasts.

40 Which * deuoure widowes houses, [r] euen vnder a colour of long prayers. These shall receiue the greater damnation.

41 * And as Jesus sate ouer against the treasure, hee beheld how the people cast money [s] to the treasurie, and many rich men cast in much.

AND *as he went out of the Temple, one of his disciples saide vnto him, Master, see what stones, and what buildings are here.

2 *Then Iesus answered and sayd vnto him, Seest thou these great buildings? there shall not bee left one stone vpon a stone, that shall not be throwen downe.

3 And as he sate on the mount of olines, ouer against the Temple, Peter, & James, and Iohn, and Andrew asked him secretly, 4 Tell vs, when shall these things bee, and what shall bee the signe when all these things shall be fulfilled?

5 And Iesus answered them, & began to say, *a Take heed least any man deceiue you.

6 For many shall come in my name, saying, I [b] am Christ, and shall deceiue many.

7 Furthermore when yee shall heare of warres, and rumours of warres, bee yee not troubled: for such things must needes bee: but the end shall not be yet.

8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdome against kingdome, and, there shal bee earthquakes in diuers quarters: & there shall be famine and troubles: these are the beginnings of sorrowes.

9 But take yee heede to your selues: for they shal deliuer you vp to the Councils, and to the Synagogues: yee shall be beaten, and brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a [c] testimoniall vnto them.

10 And the Gospel must first be published among all nations.

11 *But when they leade you, and deliuer you vp, take yee [d] no thought afore, neither premeditate [e] what yee shall say: but whatsoeuer is giuen you at the same time, that speake: for it is not ye that speake, but the holy Ghost.

12 Yea, and the brother shall deliuer the brother to death, and the father the sonne, and the children shall rise against their parents, and shall cause them to die.

13 And ye shalbe hated of all men for my Names sake: but whosoeuer shal endure vnto the ende, he shalbe saued.

14 *Moreouer, when ye shall see the abomination of desolation (spoken of by *Daniel the Prophet) [f] (standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth, consider it) *then let them that be in Iudea, flee into the mountaines, 15 And let him that is vpon the house, not come downe into the house, neither enter therein, to fetch any thing out of his house.

16 And let him that is in the fielde, not turne backe againe vnto the things which he left behinde him, to take his clothes.

17 Then wo shalbe to them that are with [h] childe, and to them that giue sucke in those dayes.

18 [i] Pray therefore that your flight bee not in the winter.

19 For there shall bee in those dayes such tribulation, as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created vnto this time, neither shall be.

20 And except that the Lord had shortened those dayes, no [||] flesh should bee saued: but for the elects sake, which he hath chosen, he hath shortened those dayes.

21 Then *if any man say to you, Loe, here is Christ, or, Lo, he is there, beleeue it not.

22 For false Christs shal arise, & false prophets, and shall shew signes and wonders, to deceiue, if it were [k] possible, the very elect.

23 But take yee heede: beholde, I haue shewed you all things [l] before.

24 ¶ Moreouer *in those dayes, after that tribulation, the Sunne shal waxe darke, and the Moone shall not giue her light, 25 And the [m] starres of heauen shall fall: & the powers which are in heauen, shall shake.

26 And then shall they see the Sonne of man comming in the cloudes, with great power and glory.

27 *And hee shall then sende his Angels, and shall gather together his elect from the foure winds, and from the vtmost part of the earth to the vtmost part of heauen.

28 Now learne a parable of the fig tree. When her bough is yet tender, and it bringeth foorth leaues, yee know that sommer is neere.

29 So in like maner, when yee see these things come to passe, know that the kingdom of God is neere, euen at the doores.

30 Verily I say vnto you, that this [n] generation shall not passe, till all these things bee done.

31 Heauen and earth shall passe away, but my words shall not passe away.

32 But of that [o] day & houre knoweth no man, no, not the Angels which are in heauen, neither the [p] Sonne himself, saue the Father.

33 *Take heed: watch, and pray: for yee know not when the time is.

34 For the Sonne of man is as a man going into a strange country, & leaueth his house, and giueth authoritie to his seruants, and to euery man his worke, and commandeth the porter to watch.

35 [q] Watch therefore, (for yee knowe not when the master of the house will come, at euen, or at midnight, at the cocke crowing, or in the dawning)

36 Least if hee come suddenly, hee should finde you sleeping.

37 And those things that I say vnto you, I say vnto all men, Watch.

5 Of Zacharias, and Elisabet. 11 The Angel sheweth him of the nativitie of Iohn Baptist. 20 His incredulitie is punished. 28 The talke of the Angel and Mary. 46 Her song. 57 The birth, circumcision, and graces of Iohn. 68 Zacharias giueth thankes to God, and prophesieth.

FOrasmuch as many haue taken in hand to set foorth the storie of those things whereof wee are fully perswaded,

2 a As they haue deliuered them vnto vs, which from the beginning sawe them their selues, and were ministers of the b word, a Meaning, the Apostles with whom he was conuersant.

b Or of ỹ thing: and it may be referred either to Christ, or to the Gospel: and hereby is meant, that they were the ministers of Christ, who is called the word: or ministers of the word, that is to say, of the Gospel: & this commendeth the authoritie of his doctrine, seeing he receiued it of the Apostles.

3 It seemed good also to me (most noble Theophilus) allsoone as I had searched out perfectly all things from the beginning, to write vnto thee thereof from point to point,

4 That thou mightest acknowledge the certaintie of those things, whereof thou hast bene instructed.

5 ¶ In the time of c Herode King of Iudea, there was a certaine Priest named Zacharias, of the d course of Abia: and his wife was of the e daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabet.

c The sonne of Antipater.

d Reade 1. Chro. 24.10.

e By her father: for by her mothers line she was of the house of Dauid.

6 Both were f iust before God, and walked in all the commaundements and g ordinances of the Lord, without reproofe.

f This perfection or iustice is iudged by the fruits and outward appearance, and not by the cause: which onely commeth of Gods free mercy through Christ.

7 And they had no childe, because that Elisabet was barren: and both were well stricken in age.

8 And it came to passe, as he executed the Priests office before God, as his course came in order, 9 According to the custome of ỹ Priests office, his lot was to h burne incense, when he went into the i Temple of the Lord.

g The Greeke word signifieth, iustification, whereby is meant the outward obseruation of the ceremonies commaunded by God.

h That is, the euening and morning sacrifice, according to the Law.

10 And the whole multitude of the people were without in prayer, * while the incense was burning.

11 Then appeared vnto him an Angel of the Lord standing at the right side of the Altar of incense.

12 And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, and feare fell vpon him.

13 But the Angel sayd vnto him, Feare not, Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard, and thy wife Elisabet shall beare thee a sonne, and thou shalt call his name k Iohn.

14 And thou shalt haue ioy and gladnes, and many shall reioyce at his birth.

15 For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, & shal neither drinke wine, nor l strong drinke: and hee shall bee filled with the holy Ghost, euen from his mothers wombe.

16 * And many of the children of Israel shall he turne to their Lord God.

17 * For hee shall goe m before him in the spirite and power of Elias, to turne the hearts of the n fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisedome of the iust men, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.

18 Then Zacharias sayd vnto the Angel, Whereby shall I knowe this? For I am an olde man, and my wife is of a great age.

19 And the Angel answered, & sayd vnto him, I am o Gabriel that stande in the presence of God, & am sent to speake vnto thee, and to shew thee these good tidings.

20 And behold, thou shalt be dumbe, and not bee able to speake, vntill p the day that these things bee done, because thou beleeuedst not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season.

i The Temple was deuided into three parts: the first was the body of the Temple called Atrium, where the people was: the second called Sanctum, where the Priestes and Leuites were: and the third'e Sanctum Sanctorum, into the which the hie Priest entred once a yeere to sacrifice. *Exod. 30.7. o Which signifieth, the strength or soueraignrie of God.

21 Now the people waited for Zacharias, and marueiled that hee taried so long in the Temple.

22 And when he came out, hee could not speake vnto them: then they perceiued that he had seene a vision in the Temple: for hee made signes vnto them, and remayned dumme.

23 And it came to passe, when the dayes of his office were fulfilled, that hee departed q to his owne house.

24 And after those dayes, his wife Elisabet conceiued, and hid her selfe fiue moneths, saying, 25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with mee, in the dayes wherein he looked on mee, to take from me r my rebuke among men.

26 ¶ And in the sixt moneth, the Angel Gabriel was sent from God vnto a citie of Galile, named Nazaret, 27 To a virgin affianced to a man whose name was Ioseph, of the house of Dauid, and the virgins name was Marie.

28 And the Angel went in vnto her, and sayde, ‖ Haile thou that art ‖ freely beloued: the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women.

29 And when she sawe him, she was troubled at his saying, and thought what maner of salutation that should be.

30 Then the Angel said vnto her, Feare not, Marie: for thou s hast found fauour with God.

31 * For loe, thou shalt conceiue in thy wombe, and beare a sonne, and shalt call his name IESVS.

32 He shall be great, and shall bee called the Sonne t of the most High, and the Lorde God shall giue vnto him the throne of his father Dauid.

33 * And hee shall reigne ouer the house of Iacob for euer, and of his kingdome shall be none ende.

34 Then sayde Marie vnto the Angel, u How shall this bee, seeing I knowe not man?

35 And the Angel answered, and sayd vnto her, The holy Ghost shall come vpon thee, and the power of the most High shall ouershadowe thee: therefore also that y holy thing which shall be borne of thee, shall bee called the Sonne of God.

36 And behold, thy z cousin Elisabet, shee hath also conceiued a sonne in her olde age: and this is her sixt moneth, which was called barren.

37 For with God shall nothing be vnpossible.

38 Then Mary said, Behold, the seruant of the Lord: be it vnto mee according to thy word. So the Angell departed from her.

39 ¶ And Mary arose in those dayes, and went into the hill countrey with haste to a a citie of Iuda, 40 And entred into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elisabet.

41 And it came to passe, as Elisabet heard the salutation of Marie, the babe b sprang in her belly, and Elisabet was filled with the holy Ghost.

42 And she cryed with a loud voyce, and sayd, Blessed art thou among women, because c the fruite of thy wombe is blessed.

43 And whence commeth this to me, that the mother of my Lorde should come to me?

44 For loe, assoone as the voyce of thy salutation sounded in mine eares, the babe sprang in my belly for ioy.

45 And blessed is shee that beleeued: for those things shall bee performed, which were tolde her d from the Lord.

46 Then Mary sayd, My e soule magnifieth the Lord.

47 And my spirite reioyceth in God my Sauiour.

48 For hee hath looked on the ‖ poore degree of his seruant: for beholde, from henceforth shall all ages call f me blessed.

49 Because he that is mighty, hath done for me great things, and holy is his Name.

50 And his g mercie is from generation to generation on them that feare him.

51 * Hee hath shewed strength with his arme: * hee hath scattered the proude in the h imagination of their hearts.

52 Hee hath put downe the mighty from their seates, and exalted them of low degree.

53 * He hath filled the hungry with good things, and sent away the rich emptie.

54 * He hath vpholden Israel his seruant, being mindefull of his mercie, 55 * (As hee hath spoken to our fathers, to wit, to Abraham, and his ‖ seede) for euer.

56 ¶ And Marie abode with her about three moneths: after, shee returned to her owne house.

57 ¶ Now Elisabets time was fulfilled, that she should be deliuered, and she brought forth a sonne.

58 And her neighbours, i cousins heard tell howe the Lorde had shewed his great mercie vpon her, and they reioyced with her.

59 And it was so that on the eight day they came to circumcise the babe, and called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.

60 But his mother answered, and sayde, Not so, but he shall be called Iohn.

61 And they said vnto her, There is none of thy kinred, y is named with this name.

62 Then they made signes to his father, how he would haue him called.

63 So hee asked for writing tables, and wrote, saying, His name is Iohn, and they marueiled all.

64 And his mouth was opened immediatly, and his tongue loosed, and hee k spake and praysed God.

65 Then feare came on all them that dwelt neere vnto them, and all these words were noysed abroad throughout all the hill countrey of Iudea.

66 And all they that heard them, layde them

z Notwithstanding that Elisabet was married to one of the tribe of Leui, yet shee was Maries cousin, which was of the stocke of Dauid. 2 (This first b taxing was made when Cyrenius was gouernour of Syria.)

3 Therefore went all to be taxed, euery man to his owne citie.

4 And c Ioseph also went vp from Galile out of a citie called Nazaret, into Iudea, vnto the citie of * Dauid, which is called Beth-lehem (because hee was of the house and linage of Dauid,)

5 To be taxed with Mary that was giuen him to wife, which was with childe.

43 And had finiſhed the dayes thereof, as they returned, the childe Ieſus remayned in Ieruſalem, and Ioſeph knewe not nor his mother, 44 But they ſuppoſing that hee had bene in the company, went a dayes iourney, and ſought him among their kinſefolke, and acquaintance.

45 And when they founde him not, they turned backe to Ieruſalem, and ſought him.

46 And it came to paſſe three dayes after that they founde him in the Temple, ſitting in the middes of the ‖ doctours, both hearing them, and aſking them queſtions.

47 And all that heard him were aſtonied at his vnderſtanding, and anſweres.

48 So when they ſawe him, they were amaſed, and his mother ſayde vnto him, Sonne, why haſt thou thus dealt with vs? beholde, thy father and I haue ſought thee with heauie hearts.

49 Then ſayd hee vnto them, Howe is it that ye ſought me? t knew ye not that I muſt go about my fathers buſineſſe?

t Our duetie to God is to be preferred before father and mother.

50 But they u vnderſtoode not the wordе that he ſpake to them.

u For his vocation was not yet manifeſtly knowen.

51 Then he went downe with them, and came to Nazaret, and was ſubiect to them: and his mother kept all theſe ſayings in her heart.

52 And Ieſus increaſed in wiſedome, and ſtature, and in fauour with God and men.

CHAP. III.

* 3 The preaching, baptiſme, and priſonment of Iohn. 15 Hee is thought to bee Chriſt. 21 Chriſt is baptized. 23 His age, and genealogie.

NOwe in the fifteenth yeere of the reigne of Tiberius Ceſar, Pontius Pilate being gouernour of Iudea, and a Herode being Terrarch of Galile, and his brother Philip Terrarch of Iturea, and of the countrey of Tracontis, and Lyſanias the Tetrarch of Abilene, a This was the ſonne of Herode called the great. Acts 4.6.

2 (* When Annas and Caiaphas were the hie b Prieſts) the word of God came vnto Iohn, the ſonne of Zacharias, in the wildernеſſe.

b There could be by Gods law but one ſacrificer at once: but becauſe of the troubles that then reigned, the office was ſo mangled by reaſon of ambition and briberie, that both Caiaphas and Annas his father in law had it diuided betweene them. Matth.3.2. marke 1.4. Iſa.40.3. iohn 1.23.

3 * And hee came into all the coaſtes about Iordan, preaching the baptiſme of repentance for the remiſſion of ſinnes,

4 As it is written in the booke of the ſayings of Eſaias the Prophet, which ſaith, * The voyce of him that crieth in the wildernes is, Prepare ye the way of the Lord: make his paths ſtraight.

5 Euery c valley ſhall be filled, and euery mountaine, and hil ſhall be brought low, and crooked things ſhalbe made ſtraight, and the rough wayes ſhall be made ſmooth.

c All impediments ſhall be taken away, which ſhould hinder the way of God, or of ſaluation, ſo that the way ſhall be plaine by Chriſt to lead vs vnto God.

6 And ‖all fleſh ſhall ſee the d ſaluation of God.

7 Then ſayde he to the people that were come out to be baptized of him, * O ‖ generations of vipers, who hath forewarned you to flee from the wrath to come?

d That is, the Meſſias ſhalbe reueiled to the world. Matth.3.7.

8 Bring foorth therefore fruites worthy amendment of life, and beginne not to ſay with your ſelues, Wee haue Abraham to our father: for I ſay vnto you, that God is able of theſe ſtones to raiſe vp children vnto Abraham.

9 Nowe alſo is the e axe layde vnto the roote of the trees: therefore euery tree which bringeth not forth good frutte, ſhalbe hewen downe, and caſt into the fire.

e The vengeance of God is at hand. Iames 2,15. 1 Iohn 3.17.

10 ¶ Then the people aſked him, ſaying, What ſhall we doe then?

11 And he anſwered, and ſayd vnto them, * He f that hath two coates, let him part with him that hath none: and he that hath meate, let him doe likewiſe.

f He willeth that the rich helpe the poore according to their neceſſity.

12 Then came there g Publicanes alſo to be baptized, and ſaid vnto him, Maiſter, what ſhall we doe?

g Whole office was to receiue the tribute and tolles.

13 And hee ſayde vnto them, Require no more then that which is appointed vnto you.

14 The ſouldiers likewiſe demaunded of him, him, saying, And what shall we doe? And he sayd vnto them, Doe violence to no man, neither accuse any falsely, and bee content with your wages.

15 As the people wayted, and all men mused in their hearts of John, if he were not the Christ, Matth. 3. 11. marke 1. 8. iohn 1. 26. act. 1. 5. & 2. 4. and 11. 16. and 19. 4.

16 John answered, and said to them all, * I in deede h baptize you with water, but one stronger then I commeth, whose shoes latchet I am not worthy to vnloose: he will baptize you with the holy Ghost, and i with fire.

17 * Whose fanne is in his hand, and he will make cleane his flooze, and will gather the wheate into his garner, but the chaffe will he burne vp with fire that neuer shall be quenched.

18 Thus then exhorting with many other things, he preached vnto the people.

19 * But when k Herode the Tetrarch was rebuked of him for Herodias his brother Philips wife, & for all the euils which Herode had done, 20 He added yet this aboue all, that he shut vp John in prison.

21 * Nowe it came to passe, as all the people were baptized, & that Iesus was baptized & did pray, that the heauen was opened:

22 And the holy Ghost came downe in a bodily shape like a doue vpon him, and there was a voyce from heauen, saying, Thou art my beloued Sonne: in thee I am well pleased.

23 ¶ And Iesus himselfe began to be about thirtie yeere of age, being as men supposed the sonne of l Joseph, which was the sonne of Eli,

24 The sonne of Matthat, the sonne of Leui, the sonne of Melchi, the sonne of Janna, the sonne of Joseph,

25 The sonne of Mattathias, the sonne of Amos, the sonne of Naum, the sonne of Esli, the sonne of Nagge, 26 The sonne of Naath, the sonne of Mattathias, the sonne of Semei, the sonne of ‖ Joseph, the sonne of Juda,

27 The sonne of Joanna, the sonne of Rhesa, the sonne of Zorobabel, the sonne of Salathiel, the sonne of Neri, 28 The sonne of Melchi, the sonne of Addi, the sonne of Cosam, the sonne of Elmodam, the sonne of Er,

29 The sonne of ‖ Jose, the sonne of Eliezer, the sonne of Jorim, the sonne of ‖ Matthat, the sonne of Leui, 30 The sonne of Simeon, the sonne of Juda, the sonne of Joseph, the sonne of Jonan, the sonne of Eliacim,

31 The sonne of Melea, the sonne of ‖ Mainan, the sonne of Mattatha, the sonne of Nathan, the sonne of Dauid, 32 The sonne of Jesse, the sonne of Obed, the sonne of Booz, the sonne of Salmon, the sonne of Naasson, 33 The sonne of Aminadab, the sonne of Aram, the sonne of Elrom, the sonne of Phares, the sonne of Juda, 34 The sonne of Jacob, the sonne of Isaac, the sonne of Abraham, the sonne of Thara, the sonne of Nachor, 35 The sonne of Saruch, the sonne of Ragau, the sonne of Phalec, the sonne of Eber, the sonne of Sala, 36 The sonne of Cainan, the sonne of Arphaxad, the sonne of Sem, the sonne of Noe, the sonne of Lamech, 37 The sonne of Mathusala, the sonne of Enoch, the sonne of Jared, the sonne of Maleleel, the sonne of Cainan, 38 The sonne of Enos, the sonne of Seth, the sonne of Adam, the sonne m of God.

Not that Adam was § Sonne of God by generation, but by creation, in the which sense God also calleth himselfe Father, Deu. 32. 6, 18, 19.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Iesus is led into the wildernesse to be tempted, 13 He ouercommeth the deuill, 14 He goeth into Galile, 16 Preacheth at Nazaret, and Capernaum. 22 The Iewes despise him. 38 He commeth into Peters house, and healeth his mother in law. 41 The deuils acknowledge Christ. 43 He preacheth thorow the cities.

AND Iesus full of the holy Ghost, returned from Jordan, and was led by the spirit into the wildernesse, Matth. 4. 1. marke 1. 12.

2 * And was there fortie dayes tempted of the deuill, and in those dayes a he did eate nothing: but when they were ended, he afterward was hungry.

a This fast was miraculous, to confirme the Gospel, & ought no more of men to be followed then the other miracles that Christ did. Deut. 8. 3. matth. 4. 4.

3 Then the deuill said vnto him, If thou be the Sonne of God, commaund this stone that it be made bread.

4 But Iesus answered him, saying, It is written, * That man shall not liue by bread onely, but by euery b word of God.

b That is, by the ordinance, and prouidence of God.

5 Then the deuill tooke him vp into an high mountaine, and shewed him all the kingdomes of the worlde, ‡ in the twinckling of an eye.

‡ Greeke, in a moment of time.

6 And the deuill sayd vnto him, All this power will I c giue thee, and the glory of those kingdomes: for that is deliuered to me: and to whomsoeuer I will, I giue it:

c Satan promiseth that which he cannot giue, thinking thereby that he might deceiue the more craftily: for he is but prince of the world by permission, and hath his power limited.

7 If thou therefore wilt ‖ worship mee, they shall be all thine.

‖ Or, fall downe before me.

8 But Iesus answered him, and sayde, ‡ Hence from me, Satan: for it is written, * Thou shalt worship the Lord thy d God, and him alone shalt thou serue.

‡ Greeke, goe behind me. Deut. 6. 13. and 10. 20.

9 Then he brought him to e Jerusalem, and set him on a pinacle of the Temple, and said vnto him, If thou be the Sonne of God, cast thy selfe downe from hence.

d Christ sheweth that all creatures ought onely to worship and serue God.

10 For it is written, * That he will giue his Angels charge ouer thee to keepe thee:

11 And with their handes they shall lift thee vp, least at any time thou shouldest dash thy foote against a stone.

12 And Iesus answered, and sayde vnto him, It is said, * Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

Deut. 6. 13. and 10. 20.

13 And when the deuill had ended all the tentation, he departed frō him f for a season.

e This declareth how hard it is to resist the tentations of Satan: for hee giueth not ouer for twise or thrise putting backe. Psal. 91. 11, 12. Deut. 6. 16.

f It is not ynough, twise or thrise to resist Satan: for he neuer ceaseth to tempt: or if he relent a little, it is to the ende that hee may renew his force, and assaile vs more sharpely.

14 ¶ And Iesus returned by the power of the Spirit into Galile: and there went a fame of him throughout all the region round about.

Or, Iosech.
Or, Iesui.
Or, Matthe.
Or, Menna.

15 For he taught in their Synagogues, and was honoured of all men.

Matth.13.54. marke 6.1. iohn 4.43.

16 * And he came to Nazaret, where he had bene brought vp, and (as his custome was) went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood vp to reade.

17 And there was deliuered vnto him the booke of the Prophet Esaias: and when he had opened the booke, he found the place, where it was written,

Esa. 61.1.

18 * The Spirit of the Lord is vpon me, because he hath g anointed me, that I should preach the Gospel to the poore: he hath sent me, that I should heale the broken hearted, that I should preach deliuerance to the captiues, and recouering of sight to the blind, that I should set at libertie them that are bruised, g That is, endued with graces.

19 And that I should preach the h acceptable yeere of the Lord.

h He alludeth to the yeere of Iubile, which is mentioned in the law, whereby this great deliuerance was figured.

20 And he closed the booke, and gaue it againe to the minister, and sate downe: and the eyes of all that were in the Synagogue were fastened on him.

i They approued and commended what soeuer he sayd.

21 Then he beganne to say vnto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your eares.

22 And all i bare him witnesse, and wondered at the gracious words, which proceeded out of his mouth, and sayd, Is not this Iosephs sonne?

k Bestowe thy benefites vpon them, which appertaine more vnto thee.

Iohn.4.44.

23 Then he sayd vnto them, Ye will surely say vnto mee this prouerbe, Physition, k heale thy selfe: Whatsoeuer we haue heard done in Capernaum, doe it here likewise in thine owne countrey.

l Their infidelitie stayed Christ from working miracles.

1. Kings 17.9. iames 5.17.

24 And he sayd, Verely I say vnto you, * No l Prophet is accepted in his owne countrey.

m He sheweth by examples, that God oft times preferreth the strangers to them of the household.

25 But I tell you of a trueth, many widowes were in Israel in the dayes of * Elias, when heauen was shut three yeeres and sixe moneths, when great famine was throughout all the land, n Because they perceiued that the grace of God should be taken from them and giuen to others.

2 King.5.14.

26 But vnto none of them was Elias sent, saue into Sarepta, a citie of Sidon, vnto m a certaine widowe.

o And escaped miraculously out of their hands: for his houre was not yet come.

27 Also many lepers were in Israel, in the time of * Eliseus the Prophet: yet none of them was made cleane, sauing Naaman the Syrian.

Matth.4.13. marke 1.21. Matth.7.29. marke 1.22.

28 Then all that were in the Synagogue, whē they heard it, were filled n with wrath, 29 And rose vp, and thrust him out of the citie, and led him vnto the edge of the hill, whereon their citie was built, to cast him downe headlong.

p Full of dignitie and maiestie, which touched the heart of the auditours, and caused them to beare reuerence to his words.

30 But he passed o through the mids of them, and went his way, q That is, the motion of the deuil, or that was tormented with a very deuill.

31 ¶ * And came downe into Capernaum a citie of Galile, and there taught them on the Sabbath dayes.

32 * And they were astonied at his doctrine: for his word was p with authoritie.

33 And in the Synagogue there was a man which had a q spirit of an vncleane deuill, which cryed with a loud voyce, 34 Saying, Oh, what haue wee to doe with thee, thou Iesus of Nazaret? art thou come to destroy vs? I know who thou art, euen the holy one of God.

35 And Iesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. Then the deuill throwing him in the middes of them, came out of him, and hurt him not.

36 So feare came on them all, and they spake among themselues, saying, What thing is this? for with authoritie and power he commandeth the foule spirits, and they come out.

37 And the fame of him spread abroad throughout all the places of the countrey round about.

38 ¶ * And hee rose vp, and came out of the Synagogue, and entred into Simons house. And Simons wiues mother was taken with a great feuer, and they required him for her.

Matth.8.14. marke 1.30.

39 Then he stoode ouer her, and rebuked the feuer, and it left her: and immediatly she arose, and ministred vnto them.

40 Nowe when the sunne was downe, all they that had sicke folkes of diuers diseases, brought them vnto him, and he layd his handes on euery one of them, and healed them.

41 * And deuils also came out of many, crying, and saying, r Thou art the Christ, the Sonne of God: but hee rebuked them, and suffered them not to say that they knew him to be the Christ.

Marke 1.34.

r The deuils are constrained to confesse Christ to be the Sonne of God, and yet it doeth nothing auaile them, because it commeth not of faith.

42 And when it was day, hee departed, and went foorth into a desert place, and the people sought him, and came to him, and kept him, that hee should not depart from them.

43 But hee sayd vnto them, Surely I must also preach the kingdome of God to other cities: for therefore am I sent.

44 And he preached in the Synagogues of Galile.

CHAP. V.

1 Christ preacheth out of the ship. 6 The great draught of fish. 10 Certaine Disciples are called. 12 He cleanseth the Leper. 18 He healeth the man of the palsie. 27 He calleth Matthew the customer, 30 Eateth with sinners, 34 And excuseth hu, as touching fasting.

THen * it came to passe, as the people preased vpon him to heare the worde of God, that he stoode by the lake of Gennesaret,

Matth. 4.18. marke 1.16.

2 And sawe two ships stand by the lake side, but ſ fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

3 And a hee entred into one of the ships which was Simons, and required him that he would thrust off a litle from the land: and he sate downe, and taught the people out of the ship.

a To the intent that he might not be throng of the preasse, and also that he might the better be heard.

4 ¶ Nowe when he had left speaking, he sayde vnto Simon, Launch out into the deepe, and let downe your nettes to make a draught.

5 Then Simon answered, and said vnto him, b Master, we haue trauelled all night, and haue taken nothing: neuertheless at thy c word I will let downe the net.

b The word signifieth him that is made ruler ouer any thing.

c He sheweth his prompt obedience to Christs commandement.

6 And when they had so done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes, so that their net brake.

7 And they beckened to their partners, which which were in the other shippe, that they should come and helpe them, who came then, and filled both the shippes, that they did sinke.

d They were so laden that they almost sunke.

8 Nowe when Simon Peter sawe it, he fell downe at Iesus knees, saying, Lord, goe from me: for I am a sinfull man.

e The feeling of Gods presence maketh afraid.

9 For hee was vtterly astonied, and all that were with him, for the draught of fishes which they tooke.

10 And so was also Iames and Iohn the sonnes of Zebedeus, which were companions with Simon. Then Iesus sayde vnto Simon, Feare not: from henceforth thou shalt catch men.

f He appointeth him to the office of an Apostle.

11 And when they had brought the ships to land, they forsooke all, and followed him.

Matth.8.2. marke 1,40.

12 ¶ *Nowe it came to passe, as hee was in a certaine citie, beholde, there was a man full of leprosie, and when hee sawe Iesus, hee fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lorde, if thou wilt, thou canst make mee cleane.

13 So hee stretched foorth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will, bee thou cleane. And immediatly the leprosie departed from him.

14 And hee commaunded him that hee should tell it no man: but goe, sayeth hee, and shew thy selfe to the Priest, and offer for thy cleansing, as *Moses hath commanded, for a witnesse vnto them.

g Hereby he sheweth them that he would not transgresse the law, and that they should be inexcusable, who seeing the miracle wrought, would not beleeue Christ.

Leuit.14.4.

15 But so much more went there a fame abroad of him, and great multitudes came together to heare, and to bee healed of him of their infirmities.

16 But he kept himselfe apart in the wildernesse, and prayed.

17 ¶ And it came to passe, on a certaine day, as hee was teaching, that the Pharises and doctours of the Lawe sate by, which were come out of every towne of Galile, and Iudea, and Ierusalem, and the power of the Lord was in him to heale them.

Matth.9.2. marke 2,3.

18 *Then behold, men brought a man lying in a bed, which was taken with a palsie, and they sought meanes to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in, because of the preasse, they went vp on the house, and let him downe through the tiling, bed and all, in the middes before Iesus.

20 And when he sawe their faith, he sayd vnto him, Man, thy sinnes are forgiuen thee.

h Christ toucheth the principall cause of all our euils.

21 Then the Scribes and the Pharises beganne to thinke, saying, Who is this that speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgiue sinnes, but God onely?

22 But when Iesus perceiued their thoughts, hee answered, and sayd vnto them, What thinke you in your hearts?

i Forasmuch as his diuinitie was sufficiently shewed by this miracle, he gaue them hereby to vnderstand that he had power to forgiue sinnes.

23 Whether is easier to say, Thy sinnes are forgiuen thee, or to say, Rise and walke?

24 But that ye may know that the Sonne of man hath authoritie to forgiue sinnes in earth, (he sayde vnto the sicke of the palsie) I say vnto thee, Arise: take vp thy bed, and goe to thine house.

25 And immediatly hee rose vp before them, and tooke vp his bed whereon hee lay, and departed to his owne house, praysing God.

26 And they were all amased, and praysed God, and were filled with feare, saying, Doubtlesse we haue seene ‖ strange things to day.

‖ Or, aboue our expectation.

27 ¶ *And after that hee went foorth and saw a Publicane named ‖ Leui, sitting at the receite of custome, and sayde vnto him, Follow me.

Matth.9.9. marke 2.14.

28 And hee left all, rose vp, and followed him.

29 Then Leui made him a great feast in his owne house, where there was a great company of Publicanes, and of other that sate at table with him.

30 But they that were Scribes & Pharises among them, murmured against his disciples, saying, Why eate ye and drinke ye with Publicanes and sinners?

k Which seeme to be righteous, and yet are but hypocrites.

Matth.9.14. marke 2.18.

31 Then Iesus answered, and sayde vnto them, They that are whole, neede not the Physician, but they that are sicke.

32 *I came not to call the k righteous, but sinners to repentance.

1.*Tim.*1,15.

33 ¶ *Then they said vnto him, Why do the disciples of Iohn fast often, and † pray, and the disciples of the Pharises also, but thine eate and drinke?

† Greeke, make prayers.

34 And he sayd vnto them, Can yee make the l children of the wedding chamber to fast, as long as the bridegroome is with them?

l The friends and familiars of Christ: and hereby Iesus Christ declareth that he will not burden his, before that he hath made them able to beare.

35 But the dayes will come euen when the bridegroome shal bee taken away from them: then shall they fast in those dayes.

m Reade Matth. 9.17.

36 Againe hee spake also vnto them a parable, No man putteth a piece of a new garment into an olde vesture: for then the newe renteth it, & the piece taken out of the new, agreeth not with the old.

n He admonisheth them not to trust too much to their owne sense or iudgement: nor, because they haue accustomed themselues to one thing, to condemne another which is better.

37 *And no man powreth new wine into olde vessels: for then the newe wine will breake the vessels, and it will runne out, and the vessels will perish.

38 But newe wine must bee powred into new vessels: so both are preserued.

39 And no man that *drinketh old wine, straightway desireth new, for hee saith, The olde is better.

CHAP. VI.

3 Christ standeth in his disciples defence and his owne, as touching the breach of the Sabbath. 13 After watching and prayer he electeth his Apostles. 18 He healeth and teacheth the people. 20 He sheweth who are blessed. 27 To loue our enemies. 37 Not to iudge rashly. 41 And to auoyd hypocrisie.

AND *it came to passe on the second a Sabbath, after the first, that he went through the corne fields, and his disciples plucked the eares of corne, and did eate, and rubbe them in their hands.

Matth.12.1. marke 2.23.

a Those feastes which conteined many dayes, as the Passeouer, & the feast of Tabernacles, had two Sabbaths: the first day of the feast, and the last.

2 And certaine of the Pharises said vnto them, Why do ye that which is not lawful to do on the Sabbath dayes?

3 Then Iesus answered them, and said, *Haue yee not read this, that Dauid did when hee himselfe was an hungred, and they which were with him,

4 How hee went into the house of God, and tooke, and ate the shew bread, and gaue also to them which were with him, which was not lawfull to eate, but for the *Priests onely?

5 And he said vnto them, The Sonne of man is [b] Lord also of the Sabbath day.

6 ¶ * It came to passe also on another Sabbath, that he entred into the Synagogue and taught, and there was a man whose right hand was dried vp.

7 And the Scribes and Pharises watched him, whether hee would heale on the Sabbath day, that they might finde an accusation against him.

8 But hee knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Arise, and stand vp in the mids. And he arose and stood vp.

9 Then sayde Iesus vnto them, I will aske you a question, Whether is it lawfull on the Sabbath dayes to do good or to do euil? to saue [j] life, or to destroy it?

10 And hee beheld them all in compasse, and saide vnto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And hee did so, and his hand was restored againe, as whole as the other.

11 Then they were filled ful of madnesse, and communed one with another, what they might doe to Iesus.

12 ¶ And it came to passe in those dayes, that hee went into a mountaine to pray, and spent the night in prayer to God.

13 * And when it was day, hee called his disciples, and of them hee chose [c] twelue, which also he called [d] Apostles.

14 (Simon whom he named also Peter, and Andrew his brother, Iames and Iohn, Philip and Bartelemew:

15 Matthewe, and Thomas: Iames the sonne of Alpheus, and Simon called Zelous:

16 Iudas Iames brother, and Iudas Iscariot, which also was the traitour.)

17 Then he came downe with them, and stoode in a [g] plaine place, with the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Iudea, and Ierusalem, and from the sea coast of Tyrus and Sidon, which came to heare him, and to bee healed of their diseases:

18 And they that were vexed with foule spirits, and they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there went vertue out of him, and healed them all.

20 ¶ * And he lifted vp his eyes vpon his disciples, and saide, Blessed be yee [e] poore: for yours is the kingdome of God.

21 * Blessed are ye that hunger nowe: for yee shall bee satisfied. Blessed are yee that * weepe now: for ye shall laugh.

22 * Blessed are yee when men hate you, and when [f] they separate you, and reuile you, & put out your name as euil, for the Sonne of mans sake.

23 Reioyce ye in that day, and be [g] glad: for beholde, your reward is great in heauen: for after this maner their fathers did to the Prophets.

24 * But woe be to you that are [h] rich: for ye haue receiued your consolation.

25 * Woe be to you that are full: for yee shal hunger. Woe be to you that now [i] laugh: for ye shall waile and weepe.

26 Woe be to you when all [k] men speake well of you: for so did their fathers to the false prophets.

27 ¶ * But I say vnto you which heare, Loue your enemies: doe well to them which hate you.

28 Blesse them that curse you, and pray for them which hurt you.

29 * And vnto him that [l] smiteth thee on the one cheeke, offer also the other: * and him that taketh away thy cloake, forbid not to take thy coat also.

30 Giue to euery man that asketh of thee: and of him that taketh away thy goods, [m] aske them not againe.

31 * And as ye would that men should do to you, so do ye to them likewise.

32 * For if yee loue them which loue you, what thanke shal ye haue? for euen the [n] sinners loue those which loue them.

CHAP. VII.

2 Hee healeth the captaines seruant. 11 Hee rayseth vp the widowes sonne from death to life. 19 He answereth the disciples whom Iohn Baptist sent vnto him. 24 Hee commendeth Iohn, 31 And reproueth the Iewes for their vnfaithfulnesse 36 He eateth with the Pharise. 37 The woman washeth his feete with her teares, and he forgiueth her sinnes.

WHen * he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, he entered into Capernaum.

Matth. 8.5.

2 And a certaine a Centurions seruant was sick and readie to die, which was deare vnto him.

a It might be that this captaine did lie with his garison in Capernaum.

3 And when he heard of Iesus, hee sent vnto him the Elders of the Iewes, beseeching him that he would come and heale his seruant.

4 So they came to Iesus, and besought him instantly, saying that hee was worthy that he should doe this for him.

5 For he loueth, said they, our nation, and he hath built vs a bSynagogue.

b In building them a Temple for their assemblies, he shewed his zeale towards the true seruice of God.

6 Then Iesus went with them: but when hee was now not farre from the house, the Centurion sent friends to him, csaying vnto him, Lord, trouble not thy selfe: for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter vnder my roofe.

c The friendes speake to Iesus in the captaines name.

7 Wherefore, I thought not my selfe worthy to come vnto thee: but dsay the word, and my seruant shalbe whole.

d Or, command by a word onely that it so be.

8 For I like wise am a man set vnder authoritie, and haue vnder me souldiers, and I say vnto one, Goe, and he goeth: and to another, Come, and he commeth: and to my seruant, Doe this, and he doeth it.

9 When Iesus heard these things, hee marueiled at him, and turned him, and sayd to the people that followed him, I say vnto you, I haue not found so e great faith, no not in Israel.

e He commendeth this heathen captaine because he assureth himselfe vpon Christs word alone, 10 And when they that were sent, turned backe to the house, they found the seruant that was sicke, whole.

11 And it came to passe the day after, that he went into a citie called f Nain, and many of his disciples went with him, and a great multitude.

f Which was a towne of Galile in the tribe of Issachar, not far from Tiberias.

12 Now when he came neere to the gate of the citie, behold, there was a dead man carried out, who was the onely begotten sonne of his mother, which was a widowe, and much people of the citie was with her.

13 And when the Lord sawe her, hee had compassion on her, and said vnto her, Weepe not.

14 And he went and touched the ‖ coffin, (and they that bare him, stood still) and he sayd, g Yong man, I say vnto thee, Arise.

15 And hee that was dead, sate vp, and began to speake, and he deliuered him to his mother.

g Christ calleth those things that are not, as if they were, and giueth life to them that be dead.

16 Then there came a feare on them all, and they glorified God, saying, A great Prophet is raised vp among vs, and God hath h visited his people.

h That is, to establish and restore them.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Iudea, and throughout al the region round about.

18 ¶ And the disciples of Iohn shewed him of all these things.

19 So Iohn called vnto him two certain men of his disciples, and sent them to Iesus, saying, Art thou i he that should come, or shal we waite for another?

i To wit, the Messias, and redeemer.

20 And when the men were come vnto him, they said, Iohn Baptist hath sent vs vnto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come, or shall we waite for another?

21 And at that time hee cured many of their sicknesses and plagues, and of euill spirites, and vnto many blinde men he gaue sight.

22 And Iesus answered and sayde vnto them, Go your wayes and shew Iohn k what things ye haue seene and heard: that the blind see, the halt goe, the Lepers are cleansed, the deafe heare, the dead rise again, & the ‖poore receiue the Gospel.

k He declareth by the vertues & power that were in him, that he was the Christ.

‖ Or, the Gospel is preached to the poore.

23 And blessed is he, that shal not be l offended in me.

l Such as feele their owne miseries and wretchednesse.

24 And when the messengers of Iohn were departed, he began to speake vnto the people, of Iohn. What went ye out into the wildernesse to see? A reed shaken with the winde?

25 But what went ye out to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and liue delicately, are in kings courts.

26 But what went ye forth to see? A Prophet? yea, I say vnto you, and greater then a Prophet.

27 This is hee of whom it is written, * Behold, I send my ‖messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

m Read Matth. 11.7. *Mal.*3.1.

‖ Or, Angel.

28 For I say vnto you, there is no greater Prophet then Iohn, among them that are ‖begotten of women: neuertheless, he that is the least in the kingdom of God, is greater then he.

‖ Or, borne.

29 Then all the people that heard, & the Publicanes * iustified God, being baptized with the n baptisme of Iohn.

n They praysed him as iust, faithfull, good and mercifull, so that the fruit of their baptisme appeared in them.

o This word comprehendeth the whole doctrine that Iohn taught, 30 But the Pharises and the expounders of the Law despised the counsell of God q against themselues, and were not baptized of him.

31 * And the Lord said, Whereunto shall I liken the men of this generation? & what thing are they like vnto?

32 They are like vnto children sitting in the market place, and crying one to another, and saying, r We haue piped vnto you, and ye haue not danced: we haue mourned to you, and ye haue not wept.

33 For Iohn Baptist came, neither eating bread, nor drinking wine: and ye say, He hath the deuill.

34 The Sonne of man is come, and eateth and drinketh: and ye say, Behold, a man which is a glutton, and a drinker of wine, a friend of Publicanes and sinners.

35 But wisedome is s iustified of all her children.

36 ¶ * And one of the Pharises desired him that he would eate with him: & he went into the Pharises house, and sate downe at table.

37 And beholde, a woman in the citie, which was a sinner, when she knewe that Iesus sate at table in the Pharises house, she brought a box of ointment.

38 * And she stood at his feete behind him weeping, and began to wash his feete with teares, and did wipe them with the haires of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.

39 Nowe when the Pharise which bade him, saw it, he spake within himselfe, saying, If this man were a prophet, he would surely haue knowen who, and what maner of woman this is which toucheth him: for she is a sinner.

40 And Iesus answered, and sayd vnto him, Simon, I haue somewhat to say vnto thee. And he said, Master, say on.

41 There was a certaine lender which had two debters: the one ought fiue hundred pence, and the other fiftie.

42 When they had nothing to pay, hee forgaue them both. Which of them therefore, tell me, will loue him most?

43 Simon answered, and sayde, I suppose that hee, to whom hee forgaue most. And he sayde vnto him, Thou hast truely iudged.

44 Then hee turned to the woman, and said vnto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, and thou gauest me no water to my feete: but thee hath washed my feete with teares, and wiped them with the haires of her head.

45 Thou gauest me no kisse: but she since the time I came in, hath not ceased to kisse my feete.

46 Mine head with oyle thou didst not anoint: but she hath anointed my feete with ointment.

47 Wherefore I say vnto thee, Many sinnes are forgiuen her: for she t loued much. To whom a little is forgiuen, he doeth loue a little.

48 And he sayd vnto her, Thy sinnes are forgiuen thee.

49 And they that sate at table with him, began to say within themselues, Who is this that euen forgiueth sinnes?

50 And he sayd to the woman, Thy faith hath saued thee: goe in x peace.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Christ with his Apostles goe from towne to towne, and preach. 3 The women minister vnto them of their goods. 5 He sheweth the parable of the seede. 21 He telleth who is his mother and his brother. 24 He stilleth the raging of the lake. 27 He deliuereth the possessed. 33 The deuils enter into the herde of swine. 41 He healeth the sicke woman, and Iairus daughter.

AND it came to passe afterward, that he himself went thorough euery citie & towne, preaching, and publishing the kingdome of God, and the twelue were with him.

2 And certaine women which were healed of euill spirits, and infirmities, as * Mary which was called Magdalene, out of whom went seuen deuils,

3 And Ioanna the wife of Chuza Herods steward, and Susanna, and many other which a ministred vnto || him of their substance.

4 * Now when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of all cities, he spake by a parable.

5 A sower went out to sow his seede, and as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and it was troden vnder foote, and the foules of heauen deuoured it vp.

6 And some fell on the stones, and when it was sprung vp, it withered away, because it lacked moistnesse.

7 And some fell among thornes, and the thornes sprang vp with it, and choked it.

8 And some fel on good ground, & sprang vp and bare fruit, an hundreth fold. And as he said these things, he cryed, He that hath eares to b heare, let him heare.

9 Then his disciples asked him, demanding what parable that was.

10 And he sayde, Vnto you it is giuen to know the secrets of the kingdom of God, but to other men c parables, that when * they see, they should not see, and when they heare, they should not vnderstand.

11 * The parable is this, The seed is the word of God.

12 And they that are beside the way, are they that heare: afterwarde commeth the deuill, and taketh away the worde out of their hearts, least they should beleeue, and be saued.

13 But they that are on the stones, are they which when they haue heard, receiue the word with ioy: but they haue no roots, which for a while d beleeue, but in the time of tentation goe away.

14 And that which fell among thornes, are they which haue heard, and e after their departure are choked with cares, and with riches, & voluptuous liuing, and bring foorth no fruit.

22 ¶ *And it came to passe on a certaine day, that he went into a shippe with his disciples, and hee sayd vnto them, Let vs goe ouer vnto the other side of the lake. And they launched forth.

23 And as they sailed, he fell i asleepe, and there came downe a storme of winde on the lake, and they were filled with water, and were in ieopardy.

24 Then they went to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, Master, wee perish. And he arose, and rebuked the winde, and the waues of water: and they ceased, and it was calme.

25 Then he said vnto them, Where is your faith? and they feared, and wondred among themselues, saying, Who is this that commandeth both the windes & water, and they obey him?

26 ¶ *So they sailed vnto the region of the Gadarenes, which is ouer against Galile.

27 And as hee went out to lande, there mette him a certaine man out of the citie, which had a deuill long time, and hee ware no clothes, neither abode in house, but in the graues.

28 And when he saw Iesus, he cryed out, and fell downe before him, and with a lowd voice sayd, What haue I to doe with thee, Iesus the sonne of God, the most high? I beseech thee k torment me not.

29 For he commanded the foule spirit to come out of the man: (for ‖ oft times he had caught him: therefore hee was bound with chaines, and kept in fetters: but he brake the bandes, and was l caried of the deuill into wildernesses.)

30 Then Iesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he sayd, m Legion, because many deuils were entred into him.

31 And they besought him, that he would not command them to go out into the n deep.

32 And there was there by, an herde of many swine, feeding on an hil, and the deuils besought him, that hee would suffer them to enter into them. So he suffered them.

33 Then went the deuils out of the man, and entred into the swine: and the herd was carried with violence from a steepe downe place into the lake, and was choked.

34 When the herdemen saw what was done, they fled: and when they were departed, they told it in the citie and in the countrey.

35 Then they came out to see what was done, and came to Iesus, and found the man, out of whome the deuils were departed, sitting at the feete of Iesus, clothed, and in his right minde: and they were afraid.

36 They also which saw it, told them by what meanes he that was possessed with the deuill was healed.

37 Then the whole multitude of the countrey about the Gadarenes, besought him, that hee would depart from them: for they were taken with a great feare: and he went into the ship, and returned.

38 Then the man, out of whom the deuils were departed, besought him that hee might bee with him: but Iesus sent him away, saying, 39 o Returne into thine owne house, and shew what great things God hath done to thee. So he went his way, and preached throughout all the p citie, what great things Iesus had done vnto him.

40 ¶ And it came to passe when Iesus was come againe, that the people receiued him: for they all waited for him.

41 ¶ *And beholde, there came a man named Iairus, and he was the ruler of the q synagogue, who fell downe at Iesus feet, and besought him that hee would come into his house.

44 When she came behinde him, she touched the r hemme of his garment, and immediately her issue of blood stanched.

45 Then Iesus sayd, Who is it that hath touched mee? When euery man denied, Peter sayde and they that were with him, Master, the multitude thrust thee, and tread on thee, and sayest thou, Who hath touched mee?

46 And Iesus sayd, Some one hath touched mee: for I perceiue that vertue is gone out of me.

47 When the woman saw that she was not hidde, shee came trembling, and fell downe before him, and tolde him before all the people, for what cause shee had touched him, and howe shee was healed immediately.

50 When Iesus heard it, hee answered him, saying, Feare not: beleeue onely, and she shalbe made whole.

51 And when he went into the house, hee suffered no man to go in with him, saue Peter, and James, and Iohn, and the father and mother of the maide.

52 And all wept, and sorowed for her: but he sayd, Weepe not: for she is not u dead, but sleepeth.

11 But when the people knew it, they followed him: and he receiued them, and spake vnto them of the kingdome of God, and healed them that had need to be healed.

12 * And when the day began to weare away, the twelue came, and sayd vnto him, Send the people away, that they may go into the townes and villages round about, and lodge, and get meat: for we are here in a desert place.

13 But hee sayde vnto them, d Giue yee them to eate. And they sayde, Wee haue no moe but fiue loaues and two fishes, except wee should goe, and buy meate for all this people.

d Christ forsaketh not them that follow him, but sendeth them sufficient reliefe.

14 For they were about fiue thousand men. Then hee sayd to his disciples, Cause them to sit downe by fifties in a company.

15 And they did so, and caused all to sit downe.

16 Then he tooke the fiue loaues, and the two fishes, and looked vp to heauen, & e blessed them, and brake, & gaue to the disciples, to set before the people.

17 So they did all eate, and were satisfied: and there was taken vp of that remained to them, twelue baskets full of broken meate.

Matth. 16.13. marke 8.27.

19 They answered, and sayde, Iohn Baptist: and others say, Elias: and some say, that one of the olde Prophets is risen againe.

20 And he sayd vnto them, But whom say ye that I am? Peter answered, and sayd, The Christ of God.

21 And he warned, & commanded them, that they should tell f that to no man, 28 * And it came to passe about an eight dayes after those wordes, that he tooke Peter and Iohn, and Iames, and went vp into a mountaine to pray.

Matth. 17.2. marke 9.2.

29 And as hee prayed, the fashion of his countenance was changed, and his garment was white and glistered.

30 And behold, two men talked with him, which were Moses and Elias, 31 Which appeared in glory, and tolde of his i departure, which he should accomplish at Ierusalem.

i That is, what issue he should haue, and how he should die.

32 But Peter and they that were with him, him, were heavie with sleepe, and when they awoke, they saw his glorie, and the two men standing with him.

33 And it came to passe as they departed from him, Peter sayd vnto Jesus, Master, it is good for vs to be here: let vs therefore make three tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias, and wist not what he sayd.

34 While hee thus spake, there came a cloud, and *overshadowed them, & they feared when they were entring into the cloud.

35 *And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloued Sonne, heare him.

36 And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone: and they kept it close, and told no man in [1] those dayes any of those things which they had seene.

37 ¶ And it came to passe, on the next day, as they came downe from the mountaine, much people met him.

38 *And beholde, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, behold my sonne: for he is all that I haue.

39 And loe, a spirit taketh him, & suddenly he crieth, and he teareth him, that he foameth, and with much paine departeth from him, when he hath bruised him.

40 Now I haue besought thy disciples to cast him out, but they could not.

41 Then Jesus answered, and sayd, m O generation faithlesse, and crooked, how long now shal I be with you, and suffer you? bring thy sonne hither.

42 And whiles he was yet comming, the deuill rent him, and tare him: and Jesus rebuked the vncleane spirit, & healed the child, and deliuered him to his father.

43 ¶ And they were all amased at the mightie power of God: and while they all woondred at all things, which Jesus did, he sayd vnto his disciples, 44 ‡Marke these wordes diligently: for it shall come to passe, that the sonne of man shall be deliuered into the hands of men.

45 But they n vnderstood not the word: for it was hid from them, so that they could not perceiue it: and they feared to aske him of that word.

46 ¶ *Then there arose a disputation among them, which of them should bee the greatest.

47 When Jesus sawe the thoughtes of their hearts, hee tooke a little childe, and set him by him, 48 And sayd vnto them, oWhosoeuer receiueth this little childe in my Name, receiueth me: and whosoeuer shall receiue me, receiueth him that sent me: for he that is least among you all, he shall be great.

49 ¶ *And Johan answered, and sayd, Master, we saw one casting out deuils in thy Name, and we forbad him, because hee followeth thee not with vs.

50 Then Jesus sayde vnto him, Forbid ye him not: for he that is not against vs, *is with vs.

51 ¶ And it came to passe, when the p dayes were accomplished, that hee should be receiued vp, he setled himselfe fully to goe to Jerusalem, 52 And sent messengers before him: and they went and entered into a towne of the Samaritanes, to prepare him lodging.

53 But they would not receiue him, because his q behauiour was, as though hee would go to Jerusalem.

54 And when his disciples, James and Johan, saw it, they said, Lord, wilt thou that wee commaund that fire come downe from heauen, and consume them, euen as *Elias did?

55 But Jesus turned about, and rebuked them, and sayd, Ye know not of what r spirit ye are.

56 For the Sonne of man is not come to destroy mens liues, but to saue them. Then they went to another towne.

57 ¶ And it came to passe that as they went in the way, *a certeine man sayd vnto him, I will follow thee, Lord, whithersoeuer thou goest.

58 And Jesus sayd vnto him, The s foxes haue holes, and the birds of the heauen haue nests, but the Sonne of man hath not whereon to lay his head.

59 But he sayd vnto another, Follow me. And the same sayd, Lord, suffer me first to go and t bury my father.

60 And Jesus sayd vnto him, *Let the dead bury their dead: but goe thou & preach the kingdome of God.

61 Then another said, I will follow thee, Lord: but let me first go bid them farewell, which are at mine house.

62 And Jesus sayde vnto him, No man that putteth his hand to the plough, and *looketh backe, is apt to the kingdome of God.

16 ¶ * He that heareth you, heareth me: and he that deſpiſeth you, deſpiſeth me: and hee that deſpiſeth mee, deſpiſeth him that ſent me.

17 ¶ And the ſeuenty turned againe with ioy, ſaying, Lord, euen the deuils are ſubdued to vs through thy name.

18 And he ſayd vnto them, I ſaw m Satan, like lightning, fall downe from heauen.

19 Beholde, I giue vnto you power to tread on ſerpents, and ſcorpions, and ouer all the power of the enemy, and nothing ſhall hurt you.

20 Neuertheleſſe, in this reioyce not, that the ſpirits are ſubdued vnto you: but rather reioyce, becauſe your names are written in heauen.

21 ¶ That ſame houre reioyced Jeſus ‖ in the ſpirit, and ſayd, I confeſſe vnto thee, Father, Lord of heauen and earth, that thou haſt hidde theſe things from the n wiſe and learned, and haſt reuealed them to babes: euen ſo, Father, becauſe it ſo pleaſed thee.

22 Then hee turned to his diſciples, and ſayd, All things are o giuen me of my Father: and p no man knoweth who the Sonne is, but the Father: neither who the Father is, ſaue the q Sonne, and he to whom the Sonne will reueale him.

23 ¶ And he returned to his diſciples, and ſayd ſecretly, * Bleſſed are the eyes which ſee that ye ſee.

24 For I tell you that many Prophets and Kings haue deſired to ſee thoſe things which ye ſee, and haue not ſeene them: and to heare thoſe things which ye heare, and haue not heard them.

25 ¶ * Then beholde, a certeine expounder of the Law ſtood vp, and tempted him, ſaying, Maiſter, what ſhall I doe, to inherit eternall life? Matth.22.35. marke 12.28.

26 And he ſayd vnto him, What is written in the Law? how readeſt thou?

27 And he anſwered, r ſayd, * Thou ſhalt loue thy Lord God with all thine heart, and with all thy ſoule, and with all thy ſtrength, and with all thy thought, * and thy neighbour as thy ſelfe. Deut.6.5. Leuit.19.18.

28 Then he ſayd vnto him, Thou haſt anſwered right: this doe, and thou ſhalt liue.

29 But hee willing to ‖ iuſtifie himſelfe, ſayde vnto Jeſus, Who s is then my neighbour? ‖ Or, to approoue himſelfe as iuſt.

30 And Jeſus anſwered, and ſayd, A certeine man went downe from Jeruſalem to Jericho, and fell among theeues, and they robbed him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leauing him halfe dead.

31 And by t chance there came downe a certeine u Prieſt that ſame way, and when he ſaw him, he paſſed by on the other ſide.

32 And likewiſe alſo a Leuite, when hee was come neere to the place, went and looked on him, and paſſed by on the other ſide.

33 Then a certeine x Samaritane, as he iourneyed, came nere vnto him, and when he ſaw him, he had compaſſion on him, 34 And went to him, and bound vp his wounds, and powred in oile and wine, and put him on his owne beaſt, and brought him to an inne, and made proviſion for him.

35 And on the morrow when he departed, hee tooke out y two pence, and gaue them to the hoſte, and ſayd vnto him, Take care of him, and whatſoeuer thou ſpendeſt more, when I come againe, I will recompenſe thee.

36 Which nowe of theſe three, thinkeſt thou, was neighbour vnto him that fell among the theeues?

37 And he ſayd, He that ſhewed mercy on him. Then ſayd Jeſus vnto him, Goe, z and do thou likewiſe.

38 ¶ Now it came to paſſe as they went, that he entred into a certeine towne, and a certeine woman named Martha, receiued him into her houſe.

39 And ſhee had a ſiſter called Marie, which alſo ſate at Jeſus feet, and heard his preaching.

40 But Martha was combred about much ſeruing, and came to him, and ſayd, Maiſter, doeſt thou not care that my ſiſter hath left me to ſerue alone? bid her therefore that ſhe helpe me.

41 And Jeſus anſwered, and ſayd vnto her, Martha, Martha, thou careſt and art a troubled about many things:

42 But one thing is needfull, Mary hath choſen the good part, a which ſhall not be taken away from her.

2 He teacheth his disciples to pray. 14 He driueth out a deuil, 15 And rebuketh the blasphemous Pharises. 28 He preferreth the spiritual cousinage. 29 They require signes and tokens. 37 He eateth with the Pharise, & reproueth the hypocrisie of the Pharises, Scribes and hypocrites.

AND so it was, that as hee was praying in a certaine place, when hee ceased, one of his disciples sayde vnto him, Master, teach vs to pray, as Iohn also taught his disciples.

Matth.6.9.

2 *And he said vnto them, When ye pray, say, Our Father, which art in heauen, hallowed be thy Name: Thy kingdome come: Let thy will bee done euen in earth as it is in heauen:

‖ Or, pardon.

5 ¶ Moreouer he said vnto them, [b] Which of you shall haue a friend, and shall goe to him at midnight, and say vnto him, Friend, lend me three loaues?

[b] By this similitude he teacheth vs that we ought not to be discouraged, if wee obtaine not incontinently that which wee demand.

6 For a friende of mine is come ‖ out of the way to me, and I haue nothing to set before him:

‖ Or, in passing by the way.

7 And he within should answere and say, Trouble me not: the doore is now shut, and my children are with mee in bed: I cannot rise and giue them to thee.

8 I say vnto you, Though he would not arise, and giue him, because he is his friende, yet doubtlesse because of his ‖ importunitie, he would rise, and giue him as many as hee needed.

10 For euery one that asketh, receiueth: and he that seeketh, findeth: and to him that knocketh, it shall be opened.

Matth.7.9.

11 *If a sonne shall aske bread of any of you that is a father, will he giue him a stone? or if he aske a fish, will hee for a fish giue him a serpent?

12 Or if he aske an egge, will he giue him a scorpion?

13 If yee then which are euill, can giue good giftes vnto your children, howe much more shall your heauenly father giue [c] the holy Ghost to them, that desire him?

c The chiefest thing that wee can desire of God, is his holy Spirit.

14 ¶ Then he cast out a deuil which was dumbe: and when the deuil was gone out, the dumbe spake, and the people wondered.

15 But some of them sayde, Hee casteth out deuils through Beelzebub the chiefe of the deuils.

16 And others tempted him, seeking of him a signe from heauen.

17 But he knew their thoughts, and sayd vnto them, *Euery kingdome deuided against it selfe, shall be desolate, and an house deuided against an house, falleth.

Matth.12.25. mar.3.24,25.

18 So if Satan also bee deuided against himselfe, howe shall his kingdome stand, because yee say that I cast out deuils through Beelzebub?

19 If I through Beelzebub cast out deuils, by whome doe your [d] children cast them out? Therefore shall they bee your iudges.

d That is to say, your coniurers.

20 But if I by the [e] finger of God cast out deuils, doubtlesse the kingdome of God is come vnto you.

e The finger of God is taken for the vertue and power of God. And the vertue of the Father and the Sonne is the holy Ghost: for so Matthew doth interpret this place.

21 When a strong man armed keepeth his [f] palace, the things that he possesseth are in ‖ peace.

25 And when he commeth, hee findeth it swept and [i] garnished.

45 ¶ Then answered one of the expounders of the Lawe, & sayd vnto him, Master, Thus saying thou puttest vs to rebuke also.

46 And he sayd, Woe be to you also, ye interpreters of the Lawe: for yee * lade men with burdens grieuous to bee borne, and yee your selues touch not the burthens with one of your fingers.

47 Woe be to you: for yee s builde the sepulchres of the Prophets, and your fathers killed them.

48 t Truely ye beare witnesse, and allow the deedes of your fathers: for they killed them, and ye u builde their sepulchres.

49 Therefore said the wisedome of God, I will sende them Prophets and Apostles, and of them they shall slay and ‖persecute,

50 That the blood of all the Prophets, shed from the foundation of the worlde, may be required of this generation, 51 From the blood of * Abel vnto the blood of * Zacharias, which was slaine betweene the Altar and the Temple: verily I say vnto you, it shalbe required of x this generation.

52 Woe be to you, interpreters of the Law: for yee haue y taken away the key of knowledge: ye entred not in your selues, and them that came in, ye forbade.

53 And as he said these things vnto them, the Scribes and Pharises began to vrge him sore, and to prouoke him to speake of many things, 54 Laying wayte for him, and seeking to catch some thing of his mouth, whereby they might accuse him.

CHAP. XII.

1 Christ commandeth to auoide hypocrisie. 4 That we should not feare man but God. 5 To confesse him

Name, 10 Blasphemy against the Spirit. 14 Not to passe our vocation. 15 Not to giue our selues to couetous care of this life, 32 But to righteousnesse, almes, watching, patience, wisedome and concord.

IN * the meane time, there gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, so that they trode one another: and he began to say vnto his disciples first, Take heede to your selues of the leauen of the Pharises, which is hypocrisie.

Matth.16.5,6. marke 8.14.

2 * For there is nothing couered, that shal not be reuealed: neither hid, that shall not be knowen.

Matth.10.26. marke 4.22.

3 Wherefore whatsoeuer ye haue spoken in darkenesse, it shall bee heard in the light: and that which yee haue spoken in the eare, in secrete places, shall bee preached on the a houses.

a Openly that all men may heare.

4 * And I say vnto you, my friends, Be not afrayd of them that kill the body, and after that are not able to doe any more.

Matth.10.28.

5 But I will forewarne you, whom yee shall feare: feare him which after hee hath killed, hath power to cast into hell: yea, I say vnto you, him feare.

6 Are not fiue sparrowes bought for two farthings, and yet not one of them is forgotten before God?

Chap.9.26. matt. 10.32. marke 8. 38. 2.tim.2.12.

b He that shall resist against the word of God purposely, and against his conscience.

7 Yea, and all the haires of your head are numbred: feare not therefore: ye are more of value then many sparrowes.

Matth.10.19, marke 13.11.

8 * Also I say vnto you, Whosoeuer shal confesse me before men, him shall the sonne of man confesse also before the Angels of God.

c Bee not so doubtfull that you should bee discouraged or distrust.

9 But he that shall denie me before men, shall be denied before the Angels of God.

‖Or, moment.

10 And whosoeuer shall speake a worde against the Sonne of man, it shall bee forgiuen him: but vnto him, that b shall blaspheme the holy Ghost, it shall not bee forgiuen.

d Christ chiefly came to be iudged, and not to iudge: notwithstanding he willeth the Christians to be iudges and decide controuersies betwixt their brethren, 1.Cor.6.1.

11 * And when they shall bring you vnto the Synagogues, & vnto the rulers & princes, take no c thought how, or what thing ye shall answere, or what shall ye speake.

e Christ cõdemneth the arrogancie of the rich worldlings, who as though they had God locked vp in their coffers and barnes, set their whole felicitie in their goods, not considering that God gaue them life, and also can take it away when hee will.

12 For the holy Ghost shall teach you in the same ‖ houre, what ye ought to say.

‖Or, season.

13 And one of the company sayde vnto him, Master, bid my brother deuide the inheritance with me.

14 And hee sayd vnto him, Man, who made me a d iudge, or a deuider ouer you?

Eccles.11.19.

15 ¶ Wherefore hee sayd vnto them, Take heede and beware of couetousnesse: e for though a man haue abundance, yet his life standeth not in his riches.

16 And he put forth a parable vnto them, saying, The ‖ ground of a certaine rich man brought forth fruits plentously.

17 Therefore he thought with himselfe, saying, What shall I doe, because I haue no roume where I may lay vp my fruits?

18 And he sayd, This will I doe, I will pull downe my barnes, and build greater, and therein will I gather all my fruits, and my goods.

19 And I will say to my soule, Soule, * thou hast much goods layde vp for many yeeres: liue at ease, eate, drinke, and take thy pastime.

20 But

20 But God sayde vnto him, O foole, this night will they fetch away thy soule from thee: then whose shall those things bee which thou hast prouided?

21 So is he that gathereth riches to him selfe, and is not rich in [l] God.

f To depend onely on his prouidence, knowing that he hath ynough for all. Mat.6.25. 1.pet.5.7. psal.55.22.

22 And he spake vnto his disciples, Therefore I say vnto you, * Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eate: neither for your body, what ye shall put on.

23 The life is more then meate: and the body more then the raiment.

g He exhorteth vs to cast our care on God, and to submit our selues to his prouidēce.

24 [g] Consider the rauens: for they neither sowe nor reape: which neither haue storehouse nor barne, and yet God feedeth them: howe much more are yee better then fowles?

25 And which of you [m] taking thought, can adde to his stature one cubite?

26 If yee then be not able to doe the least thing, why take yee thought for the remnant?

b The liberalitie of God, which shineth in the herbes & floures, surmounteth all that man can doe by his riches or force.

27 [b] Consider the lilies how they growe: they labour not, neither spinne they: yet I say vnto you, that Salomon himselfe in all his royaltie was not clothed like one of these.

28 If then GOD so clothe the grasse which is to day in the fielde, and to morrow is cast into the ouen, how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith?

29 Therefore aske not what ye shall eat, or what yee shall drinke, neither [n] stand in doubt.

Or, make discourses in the aire.

30 For all these things the people of the worlde seeke for: and your father knoweth that ye haue neede of these things.

i Which are but necessaries, and are common as well to the wicked men as to the godly.

31 But rather seeke yee after the kingdome of God, [i] and all these things shall be ministred vnto you.

k Which is the chiefest thing that can be giue, and therfore you cannot want those things which are of lesse importance. Matt.6.20. 1.Pet.1.13.

32 Feare not, little flocke: for it is your fathers pleasure, to giue you the [k] kingdome.

33 ¶ * Sell that ye haue, and giue almes: make you bagges, which ware not olde, a treasure that can neuer faile in heauen, where no thiefe commeth, neither mothe corrupteth.

34 For where your treasure is, there will your hearts be also.

l Be in a readinesse to execute the charge which is committed vnto you.

35 ¶ * Let your loynes be [l] girded about, and your lights burning, m Because they did vse long garments, the maner was to girde or truse them vp when they went about any businesse. Matth.24.43. reuel.16,15.

36 And yee your selues like vnto men that waite for their master, when hee will returne from the wedding, that when hee commeth and knocketh, they may open vnto him immediatly.

37 Blessed are those seruants, whom the Lord when he commeth, shall finde waking: verely I say vnto you, hee will [m] girde himselfe about, and make them to sit downe at table, and will come forth, and serue them.

38 And if hee come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and shall finde them so, blessed are those seruants.

39 * Nowe vnderstand this, that if the good man of the house had knowen at what houre the thiefe would haue come, he would haue watched, and would not haue suffered his house to be digged through.

40 Be ye also prepared therefore: for the Sonne of man will come at an houre when ye thinke not.

41 Then Peter sayd vnto him, Master, tellest thou this parable vnto vs, or euen to all?

42 And the Lord said, Who is a faithfull steward, and wise, whom the master shall make ruler ouer his houshold, to giue them their [n] portion of meate in season?

n The portion of seruants euery moneth was foure peckes of corne, as Donatus writeth in Phormio.

43 Blessed is that seruant, whom his master when hee commeth, shall finde so doing.

44 Of a trueth I say vnto you, that hee will make him ruler ouer all that he hath.

45 But if that seruant say in his heart, My Master doeth deferre his comming, and shall begin to smite the seruants, and maydens, and to eat and drinke, [o] to be drunken, 46 The master of that seruant will come in a day when hee thinketh not, and at an houre when hee is not ware of, and will cut him off, and giue him his portion with the vnbeleeuers.

o Therefore ignorance is inexcusable.

47 ¶ And that seruant that knewe his masters will, and prepared not himselfe, neither did according to his will, shalbe beaten with many stripes.

48 But he that knewe it not, and yet did commit things [o] worthy of stripes, shall bee beaten with fewe stripes: for vnto whomsoeuer [p] much is giuen, of him shall bee much required, and to whome men much commit, the more of him will they aske.

p To whom God hath giuen many graces.

49 ¶ I am come to put fire on the earth, and what is my desire, if it bee [q] already kindled?

q The Gospel is as a burning fire most vehement, which maketh a change of things through all the world.

50 Notwithstanding I must bee [r] baptized with a baptisme, and howe am I grieued, till it be ended?

r If there bee great troubles and alterations vpon the earth, which things come not by the proprietie of the Gospel, but through the wickednesse of man.

51 * Thinke yee that I am come to giue peace on earth? I tell you, nay, but rather debate, 52 For from henceforth there shall be fiue in one house deuided, three against two, and two against three.

53 The father shall bee deuided against the sonne, and the sonne against the father: the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother: the mother in lawe against her daughter in lawe, and the daughter in lawe against her mother in lawe.

54 ¶ * Then said he to the people, When you see a cloud rise out of the West, straightway yee say, A showre commeth: and so it is.

55 And when yee see the South winde blowe, yee say, that it will bee hotte: and it commeth to passe.

56 Hypocrites, yee can discerne the face of the earth, and of the skie: but why discerne ye not this time?

57 Yea, and why iudge yee not of your selues what is right?

58 ¶ * While thou goest with thine aduersarie to the ruler, as thou art in the way, giue diligence in the way, that thou mayest bee [t] deliuered from him, least hee bring thee to the iudge, and the iudge deliuer thee to the tayler, and the tayler cast thee into prison. Matth.5.25.

t Though it be to thy losse and hindrance.

59 I tell thee, thou shalt not depart thence, till thou hast payed the vtmost mite.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The cruelnie of Pilate. 2 Wee ought not to condemne all to bee wicked men which suffer. 3 Christ exhorteth to repentance. 11 He healeth the crooked woman. 15 answereth to the master of the Synagogue. 18 By diuers similitudes hee declareth what the kingdome of God is, 23 also that the number of them which shalbe saued, is small. 33 Finally he sheweth that no worldly policie or force can let the worke and counsell of God.

THere were certeine men present at the same season, that shewed him of the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had [a] mingled with their owne sacrifices.

2 And Iesus answered, and sayde vnto them, Suppose yee, that these Galileans were [b] greater sinners then all the other Galileans, because they haue suffered such things?

3 I tell you, nay: but except [c] ye amend your liues, ye shall all likewise perish.

4 Or thinke you that those eighteene, vpon whom the towre in [d] Siloam fell, and slew them, were ‖ sinners aboue all men that dwell in Ierusalem?

5 I tell you, nay: but except yee amend your liues, ye shall all likewise perish.

6 ¶ He spake also this parable, A certaine man had a figge tree planted in his vineyard: and hee came and sought fruite thereon, and found none.

7 Then said he to the dresser of his vineyard, Beholde, [e] this three yeeres haue I come and sought fruite of this fig tree, and finde none: [f] cut it downe: why keepeth it [g] also the ground barren?

8 And he answered, and sayd vnto him, Lorde, let it alone this yeere also, till I dig round about it, and doung it.

9 And if it beare fruite, well: if not, then after thou shalt cut it downe.

10 ¶ And he taught in one of the Synagogues on the Sabbath day.

11 And beholde, there was a woman which had a [h] spirite of infirmitie eighteene yeeres, and was [i] bowed together, and could not lift vp her selfe in any wise.

12 When Iesus saw her, he called her to him, and sayd to her, Woman, thou art ‖ loosed from thy disease.

13 And hee layde his handes on her, and immediatly shee was made straight againe, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the Synagogue answered with indignation, because that Iesus had healed on the Sabbath day, and sayde vnto the people, There are sixe dayes in which men ought to worke: in them therefore come & bee healed, and not on the Sabbath day.

15 Then answered him the Lorde, and sayde, Hypocrite, doeth not eche one of you on the Sabbath day loose his oxe or his asse from the stall, and leade him away to the water?

16 And ought not this daughter of Abraham whom Satan had bound, loe, eighteene yeeres, be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath day?

17 And when he said these things, all his aduersaries were ashamed: but all the people reioyced at all the excellent things that were done by him.

18 ¶ * Then said he, What is the [k] kingdome of God like? or whereto shall I compare it?

19 It is like a graine of mustard seede, which a man tooke and sowed in his garden, and it grew, and waxed a great tree, and the fowles of the heauen made nestes in the branches thereof.

20 ¶ And againe he saide, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdome of God?

21 It is like leauen, which a woman tooke, and hid in three peckes of flour, till all was leauened.

22 ¶ * And hee went through all cities and townes, teaching, and iourneying towards Ierusalem.

23 Then said one vnto him, Lorde, are there few that shall be saued? And he sayde vnto them, 24 * [l] Striue to enter in at the straight gate: for many, I say vnto you, will seeke to enter in, and shall not be able.

25 When the good man of the house is risen vp, and hath shut to the doore, and yee begin to stand without, and to knocke at the doore, saying, Lord, Lord, open to vs, and he shall answere and say vnto you, I knowe you not whence ye are,

26 [m] Then shall ye begin to say, We haue eaten and dronke in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streetes.

27 But he shall say, I tell you, I knowe you not whence yee are: * depart from mee, all yee workers of iniquitie.

28 There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when yee shall see Abraham & Isaac and Iacob, and all the Prophets in the kingdome of God, and your selues thrust out at doores.

29 Then shal come many from the [n] East, and from the West, and from the North, and from the South, and shall sit at table in the kingdome of God.

30 * And beholde, [o] there are last, which shall be first, and there are first, which shall be last.

31 The same day there came certaine Pharises, and sayd vnto him, Depart and goe hence: for Herode will kill thee.

32 Then sayd he vnto them, Goe ye & tell that fox, Beholde, I [p] cast out deuils, and will heale still to day, and to morow, and the third day I shall be ‖ perfected.

33 Neuertheless I must walke to day, and to morow, and the day following: for it cannot bee, that a Prophet [q] should perish out of Ierusalem.

34 * [r] O Ierusalem, Ierusalem, which killest the Prophets, and stonest them that are sent to thee, howe often would I haue gathered thy children together, as the hen gathereth her broode vnder her wings, and yee would not!

45 Beholde, your [s] house is left vnto you

[a] He murdered them as they were sacrificing: & so their blood was mingled with the blood of the beasts which were sacrificed.

[b] For the Iewes tooke occasion hereby to condemne them, as most wicked me.

[c] Hee warneth them, rather to consider their owne estate, then to reproue other mens.

‖ Or, debters.

[e] By this similitude is declared y great patience that God vseth towards sinners in looking for their amendement: but this delay availeth them nothing, when they still remaine in their corruption.

[f] We see our state, if we bring not forth fruite.

[g] For both it is vnfruitful it selfe, and doth hurt to the grouׂd where it groweth.

[h] Whom Satan had striken with a disease, as the spirite of couetousnesse is that spirite, that maketh a man couetous.

[i] As they are whose sinewes are shrenke.

‖ Or, set at liberty out of Satans bands.

[k] By these similitudes he sheweth the increase, whereby God augmenteth his kingdome contrary to all mens opinions.

Matth.9.35. marke 6.6. Matth.7.13.

[l] We must indeuour, and cut off all impediments which may let vs.

[m] He warneth the Iewes, that they depriue not themselues by their owne negligence, of that saluation, which was offered vnto them.

[o] Christ cutteth off the vaine confidence of the Iewes, who gloried, in that, that God had chosen them for his people: yet they obeyed him not according to his word.

[p] Neither the enuie of the Pharises, who would haue him put in feare of Herode, nor yet any policie of man could stay him from that office which God had enioyned him.

[q] Meaning, a litle while.

[r] By Christes death we are made perfect for euer.

‖ Or, make an end.

[s] He noteth their malice, which by all meanes sought his death more then did the tyrant of whom they willed him to beware. Matth.23.37. t Christ forewarneth them of the destruction of the Temple, and of their whole policie, desolate:

u When your owne conscience shall reproue you, and cause you to confesse that which you denie, which shall be when you shall see me in my maiesty.

desolate: 35 verily I tel you, ye shal not see me vntil the time come that ye shal say, u Blessed is he that commeth in the name of the Lord.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 Iesus eateth with the Pharise, 4 Healeth the dropsie vpon the Sabbath, 8 Teacheth to be lowly, and to bid the poore to our table, 15 He telleth of the great Supper. 28 Hee warneth them that will follow him, to lay their account before, what it will cost them. 34 The salt of the earth.

AND it came to passe, that when he was entred into the house of one of the chiefe Pharises on the Sabbath day, to [*] eate bread, they watched him.

[*] Or, take his refection.

2 And behold, there was a certaine man before him, which had the dropsie.

3 Then Iesus answering, spake vnto the expounders of the Lawe, and Pharises, saying, Is it lawfull to heale on the Sabbath day?

4 And they held their peace. Then hee tooke him, and healed him, and let him go,

5 And answered them, saying, Which of you shall haue an asse, or an oxe fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the Sabbath day?

6 And they could not answere him again to those things.

7 ¶ He spake also a parable to the ghests, when hee marked howe they chose out the chiefe roomes, and sayd vnto them, a He reproueth their ambition, which desire to sit in the highest places.

8 a When thou shalt bee bidden of any man to a wedding, set not thy selfe downe in the chiefest place, least a more honourable man then thou, be bidden of him,

9 And he that bade both him and thee, come, and say to thee, Giue this man roome, and thou then begin with shame to take the lowest roome.

Prou. 25. 5. Chap 18. 14. matth. 23. 12.

10 * But when thou art bidden, goe, and sit downe in the lowest roome, that when he that bade thee, commeth, hee may say vnto thee, Friend, sit vp higher: then shalt thou haue worship in the presence of them that sit at table with thee.

b Christ reprehendeth onely the blinde affection of man, which regardeth nothing but a worldly recompense.

11 * For whosoeuer exalteth himselfe, shall be brought low, and he that humbleth himselfe, shall be exalted.

Prou. 3. 9, 27, 28. Iob 4 7. Matth. 22, 2. Reuel. 19. 9.

12 ¶ Then b sayd he also to him that had bidden him, * When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbors, least they also bid thee againe, and a recompense be made thee.

c He casteth the Iewes in the teeth with their ingratitude, which would not eate of those holy meates of Gods word, which was presented vnto them, and whereunto they were bid a long time before.

13 But when thou makest a feast, call the poore, the maimed, the lame, and the blind, 14 And thou shalt bee blessed, because they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt bee recompensed at the resurrection of the iust.

15 ¶ Nowe when one of them that sate at table, heard these things, hee sayd vnto him, Blessed is he that eateth bread in the kingdome of God.

16 Then sayd he to him, * c A certaine man made a great supper, and bade many,

17 And sent his seruant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come: for all things are now readie.

18 But they all with one minde began to make excuse: The first sayde vnto him, I haue bought a farme, and I must needes go out and see it: I pray thee haue me excused.

19 And another sayd, I haue bought fiue yoke of oxen, and I goe to proone them: I pray thee haue me excused.

20 And another sayd, I haue married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

21 So that seruant returned, and shewed his master these things. Then was the good man of the house angry, and sayd to his seruant, d Goe out quickly into the places and streetes of the citie, and bring in hither the poore, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blinde.

d Here is signified the calling of the Gentiles.

22 And the seruant sayd, Lord, it is done as thou hast commaunded, and yet there is roome.

e God wil rather receiue al the rascall people of the world to his banquet, then them which are vnthankfull.

23 Then the master sayd to the seruant, Goe out into the e high wayes, and hedges, and f compell them to come in, that mine house may be filled.

f This compulsion commeth of the feeling of the power of Gods word, after that his word hath bene preached. Mat. 10. 37. and 16, 24.

24 For I say vnto you, that none of those men which were bidden, shall taste of my supper.

25 Nowe there went great multitudes with him, and hee turned and sayde vnto them, g That is, he that casteth not off all affections and desires which draw vs fom Christ, Chap. 9. 23. matt. 16. 24 mar. 8. 34.

26 * If any man come to me, and g hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his owne life also, he cannot be my disciple.

h He that will professe the Gospell, must diligently consider what his profession requireth, and not rashly take in hand so great an enterprise, neither yet when he hath taken it in hand, in any case forsake it.

27 * And whosoeuer beareth not his crosse, and commeth after me, cannot be my disciple.

28 For which of you minding to build a tower, sitteth not downe before, and h counteth the cost, whether hee haue sufficient to perfourne it,

29 Lest that after he hath layd the foundation, and is not able to perfourne it, all that behold it, begin to mocke him, 30 Saying, This man began to build, and was not able to make an end?

31 Or what king going to make warre against another king, sitteth not downe first and taketh counsell, whether he be able with tenne thousand, to meete him that commeth against him with twentie thousand?

32 Or els while he is yet a great way off, hee sendeth an ambassage, and desireth conditions of peace.

33 So likewise, whosoeuer he be of you that i forsaketh not all that he hath, hee can not be my disciple.

i He that is not perswaded to leaue all at euery houre to bestowe himselfe frankly in Gods seruice. Matth. 5. 13. marke 9. 50.

34 * Salt is good: * but if salt haue lost his sauour, wherewith shall it be k salted?

k If they that should season others, haue lost it themselues, where should a man recouer it?

35 It is neither meet for the land, nor yet for the dunghill, but men cast it out. He that hath eares to heare, let him heare.

[k] Or, seasoned.

CHAP. XV.

1 The Pharises murmure because Christ receiueth sinners, 4 The louing mercie of God is openly set foorth in the parable of the hundreth sheepe. 7 Ioy in heauen for one sinner. 12 Of the prodigall sonne.

THen resorted vnto him al the Publicanes and sinners, to heare him.

2 Therefore the Pharises and Scribes murmured, saying, He receiueth sinners, and eateth with them.

3 Then spake hee this parable to them, saying,

Matth. 18. 12. 4 What man of you hauing an hundreth sheepe, if he lose one of them, doeth not leaue ninetie and nine in the wildernesse, and goe after that which is lost, vntill he find it?

5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders with ioy.

6 And when he commeth home, hee calleth together his friends and his neighbours saying vnto them, Reioyce with mee: for I haue found my sheepe, which was lost.

7 I say vnto you, that likewise ioy shall be in heauen for one sinner that conuerteth, more then for ninetie and nine [a] iust men, which needе none amendement of life.

8 Either what woman hauing tenne [b] pieces of siluer, if she lose one piece, doeth not light a candle, and sweepe the house, and seeke diligently till she find it?

9 And when shee hath found it, she calleth her friendes, and neighbours, saying, Reioyce with me: for I haue found the piece which I had lost.

10 Likewise I say vnto you, there is ioy in the presence of the Angels of God, for one sinner that conuerteth.

11 ¶ He sayd moreouer, A certaine man had two sonnes.

12 And the younger of them sayd to his father, Father, giue mee the [c] portion of the goods that falleth to me. So he diuided vnto them his substance.

13 So not long after, when the younger sonne had gathered all together, hee tooke his iourney into a farre [d] country, and there hee wasted his goods with [d] riotous liuing.

14 Nowe when hee had spent all, there arose a great dearth throughout that land, and he began to be in necessitie.

15 Then he went and claue to a citizen of that country, and hee sent him to his farme, to feede swine.

16 And hee would faine haue filled his belly with the huskes, that the swine ate: [e] but no man gaue them him.

17 Then he came to himselfe, and sayd, Howe many hyred seruantes at my fathers haue bread ynough, and I die for hunger!

18 I will rise and goe to my father, and say vnto him, Father, I haue sinned against [f] heauen, and before thee, 19 And am no more worthy to bee called thy sonne: make me as one of thy hyred seruants.

20 So hee arose, and came to his father, and when he was yet a great way off, his father sawe him, and had compassion, and came and fell on his necke, and kissed him.

21 And the sonne sayde vnto him, [b] Father, I haue sinned against heauen, and before thee, and am no more worthy to bee called thy sonne.

22 Then the father sayd to his seruants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand, and shooes on his feete, 23 And bring the fat calfe, and kill him, and let vs eate and be merry.

24 For this my sonne was dead, and is aliue againe: and hee was lost, but hee is found. And they began to be merry.

25 Nowe the [i] elder brother was in the fielde, and when hee came and drewe neere to the house, he heard melodie, and dauncing, 26 And called one of his seruants, and asked what those things meant.

27 And he sayd vnto him, Thy brother is come, and thy father hath killed the fatted calfe, because hee hath receiued him safe and sound.

28 Then he was angry, and would not go in: therefore came his father out and intreated him.

29 But hee answered and sayd to his father, Loe, these many yeeres haue I done thee seruice, neither brake I at any time thy commandement, and yet thou neuer gauest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends.

30 But when this thy sonne was come, which hath deuoured thy goods with harlots, thou hast for his sake killed the fat calfe.

31 And he sayd vnto him, [k] Sonne, thou art euer with mee, and all that I haue, is thine. It was meete that wee should make merry, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is aliue againe: and he was lost, but he is found.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Christ exhorteth his to wisdome and liberalitie by the example of the steward. 13 None can serue two masters. 14 He reproueth the couetousnes and hypocrisie of the Pharisees. 16 Of the ende and force of the Law. 18 The holy state of marriage. 19 Of the rich man, and Lazarus.

AND hee sayde also vnto his disciples, [a] There was a certaine rich man, which had a steward, and hee was accused vnto him, that he wasted his goods.

2 And he called him, and sayd vnto him, Howe is it that I heare this of thee? Giue an accounts of thy stewardship, for thou mayest be no longer steward.

3 Then the steward sayd within himselfe, What shall I doe? for my master will take away from me the stewardship. I can not dig, and to beg I am ashamed.

4 I know what I will do, that when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receiue me into their houses.

5 Then called hee euery one of his masters detters, and sayd vnto the first, Howe much owest thou vnto my master?

6 And he sayd, An hundreth measures of oyle. And he sayd to him, Take thy writing, and sit downe quickly, and write fiftie.

7 Then sayd he to another, Howe much owest thou? And hee sayde, An hundreth measures a Which iustifie themselues, and know not their owne faults.

b The word is, drachm, which is somewhat more in value then fiue pence of old sterling money, and was equall with a Romane penie.

c This declareth that we ought not to desire to haue our portion separate from God, except we will lose all.

d The Greeke worde signifieth so to waste all, that a man reserueth nothing to himselfe.

e For no man had pitie vpon him.

f That is, against God.

g God preuenteth vs and heareth our groninges before we cry to him.

h He was touched with the feeling of his sinne, and therefore was ashamed thereof, and heauie in heart.

i God reproueth the enuie of such as grudge when God receiueth sinners to mercy.

k Thy part which art a Iew, is nothing diminished by that, that Christ was also killed for the Gentiles: for he accepteth not the person, but feedeth indifferently all them that beleeue in him, with his body and blood to life euerlasting.

a Christ teacheth hereby, that likewise as he which is in authoritie and hath riches, if he get friends in his prosperitie, may be relieued in his aduersitie: so our liberalitie towards our neighbour shall stand vs in such stead at the day of iudgement, that God will accept it as done vnto him.

measures of wheate. Then he sayd to him, Take thy writing, and write fourescore.

8 And the Lord commended [b] the vniust stewarde, because hee had done wisely. [c] Wherefore the children of this world are in their generation wiser then the children of light.

9 And I say vnto you, Make you friends [c] with the riches of iniquitie, that when yee shall want, they may receiue you into euerlasting habitations.

10 Hee that is faithfull in the least, he is also faithfull in much: and he that is vniust in the least, is vniust also in much.

11 If then yee haue not bene faithfull in [d] the wicked riches, who will trust you in the true treasure?

12 And if yee haue not bene faithfull in [e] another mans goods, who shall giue you that which is [f] yours?

13 * No seruant can serue two masters: for either he shall hate the one, and loue the other: or els he shall leane to the one, and dispise the other. Ye cannot serue God and riches.

14 All these things heard the Pharises also which were couetous, and they [g] mocked him.

15 Then he said vnto them, Ye are they which [h] iustifie your selues before men: but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men, is abomination in the sight of God.

16 * The Law and the Prophets endured vntill John: and since that time the kingdome of God is preached, and euery man [i] preaseth into it.

17 * Now it is more easie that heauen and earth should passe away, then that one title of the law should fall.

18 ¶ * Whosoeuer putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adulterie: and whosoeuer marieth her that [k] is put away from her husband, committeth adulterie.

19 ¶ There was a [l] certaine rich man, which was clothed in purple, and fine linnen, and fared well and delicately euery day.

20 Also there was a certaine begger named Lazarus, which was layed at his gate full of sores, 21 And desired to be refreshed with the crummes that fell from the rich mans table: yea, and the dogs came and licked his sores.

22 And it was so that the begger died, and was caried by the Angels into [m] Abrahams [n] bosome. The rich man also died and was buried.

23 And being in hell in torments, he lift vp his eyes, and sawe Abraham afarre off, and Lazarus in his bosome.

24 Then he cried and said, Father Abraham, haue mercie on mee, and send Lazarus that he may dip the tip of his [o] finger in water, and coole my tongue: for I am tormented in this flame.

25 But Abraham said, [p] Sonne, remember that thou in thy life time receiuedst thy ‖ pleasures, and likewise Lazarus ‖ paines: now therefore is he comforted, and thou art tormented.

26 Besides all this, betweene you and vs there is a great ‖ gulfe set, so that they which would go from hence to you, cannot, neither can they come from thence to vs.

27 Then he sayd, I pray thee therefore father, that thou wouldest send him to my fathers house, 28 (For I haue fiue brethren) that he may testifie vnto them, least they also come into this place of torment.

29 Abraham said vnto him, They haue Moses and the [q] Prophets: let them [r] heare them.

30 And he sayd, Nay, father Abraham: but if one come vnto them from the dead, they will amend their liues.

31 Then he sayd vnto him, If they heare not Moses and the Prophets, neither will they be perswaded, though one rise from the dead againe.

[b] God who doth here represent the master of the house, doeth rather commend the prodigall waste of his goods, and the liberal giuing of the same to the poore, then the straite keeping and hoarding of them.

[c] That is, either wickedly gotten, or wickedly kept, or wickedly spent: and hereby we be warned to suspect riches, which for the most part are an occasion to their possessors of great wickednesse.

[d] They which cannot well bestow worldly goods, will bestow ill spirituall treasures: and therefore they ought not to be committed vnto them.

[e] As are riches and such like things, which God hath giuen, not for your selues onely, but to bestow vpon others.

[f] Christ calleth the gifts which he giueth vnto vs, ours.

[k] That is, which is not lawfully diuorced.

[l] By this story is declared, what punishment they shall haue, which liue deliciously and neglect the poore.

[m] As the fathers in the old lawe, were sayd to be gathered into the bosome of Abraham, because they receiued the fruite of the same with him: so in the new Testament we say that the members of Christ are ioyned to their head, or gathered vnto him.

[n] Whereby is signified that most blessed life, which they that die in the faith that Abraham did, shall enioy after this world.

[o] Christ describeth spirituall things by such maner of speech, as is most proper to our vnderstanding: for our soules haue neither fingers nor eyes, neither are they thirstie, or speake: but the Lord, as it were in a table, painteth forth the state of the life to come, as our capacitie is able to comprehend it.

[p] In calling him sonne, he tanteth his vaine boasting, who in his life vanted himselfe to be the sonne of Abraham: warning vs also hereby how little glorious titles auaile. ‖ Or, good things. ‖ Or, euill things. ‖ Or, swallowing pit.

[q] Which declareth that it is too late to be instructed by the liuely word of God.

[r] As faith commeth by Gods word, so is it maintained by the same. So that we neither ought to looke for Angels from heauen, or the dead to confirme vs therein, but onely the word of God is sufficient to life euerlasting.

CHAP. XVII.

2 Christ teacheth his disciples to auoyd occasions of offence, 3 one to forgiue another. 5 Wee ought to pray for the increase of faith. 6 Hee magnifieth the vertue of faith, 10 and sheweth the vnabilitie of man, 11 healeth ten lepers, 20 speaketh of the latter dayes, and of the end of the world.

THen sayd he to the disciples, * It cannot be auoyded, but that offences will come, but woe be to him by whom they come.

2 It were better for him that a great millstone were hanged about his necke, and that he were cast into the sea, then that hee should [a] offend one of these little ones.

3 ¶ Take heed to your selues: if thy brother trespasse against thee, rebuke him: and if he repent, forgiue him.

4 * And though hee sinne against thee [b] seuen times in a day, and seuen times in a day turne againe to thee, saying, It repenteth me, thou shalt forgiue him.

5 ¶ And the Apostles said vnto the Lord, Increase our faith.

6 And the Lord sayd, * If ye had faith, as much as is [c] a graine of mustard seede, and should say vnto this mulberie tree, [d] Plucke thy selfe vp by the roots, and plant thy selfe in the sea, it should euen obey you.

Matt. 18.7. mar. 9 42.

[a] That is, to turne him backe from the knowledge of God, and his saluation.

Matth. 18.21.

[b] That is, many times: for by a certaine number he meaneth an vncertaine.

Matth. 17.20.

[c] That is, if they had neuer so litle of pure and perfite faith.

[d] Meaning, they should do wonderfull and incredible things.

7 ¶ Who is it also of you, that hauing a seruant plowing or feeding cattell, would say vnto him by and by, when he were come from the field, Goe, and sit downe at table?
8 And would not rather say to him, *Dresse wherewith I may sup, and gird thy selfe, and serue me, till I haue eaten and dronken, and afterward eate thou, and drinke thou?
9 Doeth he thanke that seruant, because hee did that which was commanded vnto him? I trow not.
10 So likewise ye, when ye haue done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are f vnprofitable seruants: wee haue done that which was our dutie to doe.
11 ¶ And so it was when he went to Ierusalem, that he passed thorow the mids of Samaria and Galile.
12 And as he entred into a certaine towne, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stoode afarre off.
13 And they lift vp their voyces and said, Iesus, Master, haue mercie on vs.
14 And when he sawe them, he sayd vnto them, *Goe, shewe your selues vnto the g Priests. And it came to passe, that as they went, they were cleansed.
15 Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned backe, and with a loud voyce praysed God, 16 And fell downe on his face at his feet, and gaue him thanks: and he was a Samaritane.
17 And Iesus answered, & said, Are there not ten cleansed? but where are the h nine?
18 There are none found that returned to giue God praise, saue this stranger.
19 And he said vnto him, Arise, Goe thy way, thy faith hath made thee whole.
20 ¶ And when hee was demaunded of the Pharises, when the kingdome of God should come, he answered them, and sayde, The kingdome of God commeth not i with obseruation.
21 Neither shall men say, Loe here, or loe there: for beholde, the kingdome of God is k within you.
22 And hee sayd vnto the disciples, The dayes will come, when ye shall desire to see l one of the dayes of the Sonne of man, and ye shall not see it.
23 *Then they shall say to you, Beholde here, or beholde there: but goe not thither, neither follow them.
24 For as the lightning that lighteneth out of the one part vnder heauen, shineth vnto the other part vnder heauen, so shall the Sonne of man be in his m day.
25 But first must he suffer many things, and be reprooued of this generation.
26 *And as it was in the n dayes of Noe, so shall it be in the dayes of the Sonne of man.
27 They ate, they dranke, they married wiues, & gaue in mariage vnto the day that Noe went into the Arke: & the flood came, and destroyed them all.
28 *Likewise also, as it was in the dayes of Lot: they ate, they dranke, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built,
29 But in the day that Lot went out of Sodome, it rained fire and brimstone from heauen, and destroyed them all.
30 After these ensamples shall it be in the day when the Sonne of man shalbe reuealed.
31 At that day, he that is vpon the *house, and his stuffe in the house, let him not come downe to take it out: and hee that is in the field likewise, let him not turne backe to that he left behinde.
32 *Remember Lots wife.
33 *Whosoeuer will seeke to saue his soule, shall lose it: and whosoeuer shall lose it, p shall get it life.
34 *I tell you, in that night there shall be two in one q bed: the one shall bee receiued, and the other shall be left.
35 Two women shall be grinding together: the one shalbe taken, and the other shal be left.
36 Two shall be in the field: one shall be receiued, and another shall be left.
37 And they answered, and saide to him, Where, Lord? And hee sayde vnto them, *r Wheresoeuer the body is, thither will also the Eagles resort.

should stay vs. *Matth.*24.28. r Nothing can hinder the faithfull to bee ioyned to their head Iesus Christ: for they shall gather vnto him, as the rauening birds about a carion.

2 By the example of the widowe, and the Publicane, Christ teacheth how to pray, 15 By the example of children, he exhorteth to humilitie. 18 Of the way to be saued, and what things let. 21 The reward promised to his, 31 and of the crosse. 35 The blinde man receiueth sight.

AND *he spake also a parable vnto them, to this ende, that they ought alwayes to pray, and not to a waxe faint,
2 Saying, There was a Iudge in a certaine citie, which feared not God, neither reuerenced man.
3 And there was a widowe in that citie, which came vnto him, saying, ¶ Doe me iustice against mine b aduersarie.
4 And hee would not for a time: but afterward he sayd with himselfe, Though I feare not God, nor reuerence man,
5 Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will doe her right, lest at the last she come and make me weary.
6 And the Lord sayd, Heare what the vnrighteous iudge sayeth.
7 Nowe shall not God auenge his elect, which cry day and night vnto him, yea, though c he suffer long for them?
8 I tell you he will auenge them quickly: but when the Sonne of man commeth, shall he find faith on the earth?
9 ¶ He spake also this parable vnto certaine which trusted in themselues that they were iust, and despised other,
10 Two men went vp into the Temple to pray: the one a Pharise, and the other a Publicane.
11 The Pharise d stood and prayed thus with himselfe, O God, I thanke thee that I am not as other men, extortioners, vniust, adulterers, or euen as this Publicane.

13 But the Publicane standing afarre off, would not lift vp so much as his e eyes to heauen, but smote his breast, saying, God be mercifull to me a sinner.

14 I tell you, this man departed to his house iustified, ‖rather then the other: *For euery man that exalteth himselfe, shall bee brought low, and he that humbleth himselfe, shall be exalted.

15 ¶ *They brought vnto him also f babes, that hee should touch them. And when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them.

16 But Jesus called them vnto him, and said, Suffer the babes to come vnto mee, and forbid them not: for of b such is the kingdome of God.

17 Verily I say vnto you, Whosoeuer receiueth not the kingdome of God, as a babe, he shall not enter therein.

18 *Then a certaine ruler asked him, saying, Good master, what ought I to do, to inherite eternall life?

19 And Jesus sayde vnto him, Why callest thou mee k good? none is good, saue one, euen God.

20 Thou knowest the commandements, *Thou shalt not commit adultery: Thou shalt not kill: Thou shalt not steale: Thou shalt not beare false witnesse: Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And hee sayde, All these haue I kept from my youth.

22 Now when Jesus heard that, hee sayd vnto him, Yet lackest thou one thing, Sell al that euer thou hast, and distribute vnto the poore, and thou shalt haue treasure in heauen, and come follow me.

23 But when hee heard those things, hee was very heauie: for hee was marueilous rich.

24 And when Jesus saw him sorrowfull, hee sayde, With what difficultie shall they that haue riches enter into the kingdome of God?

25 Surely it is easier for a ‖camell to goe through a needles eye, then for a rich man to enter into the kingdome of God.

26 Then sayde they that heard it, And who then can be saued?

27 And he sayde, The things which are vnpossible with men, are l possible with God.

28 ¶ *Then Peter sayde, Loe, wee haue left all, and haue followed thee.

29 And he sayde vnto them, Verily I say vnto you, there is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children for the kingdome of Gods sake, 30 Which shall not receiue m much more in this worlde, and in the worlde to come life euerlasting.

31 ¶ *Then Jesus tooke vnto him the twelue, and sayd vnto them, Beholde, we goe vp to Jerusalem, and all things shall be fulfilled to the Sonne of man, that are written by the Prophets.

32 For hee shall bee delimered vnto the Gentiles, and shall bee mocked, and shall bee spitefully intreated, and shall be spitted on,

33 And when they haue scourged him, they will put him to death: but the third day he shall rise againe.

34 But they vnderstoode none of these things, and this saying was hid from them, neither perceiued they the things, which were spoken.

35 ¶ *And it came to passe, that as he was come neere vnto Jericho, a certaine blinde man sate by the way side begging. Matt.20.29. mark.10.46.

36 And when hee heard the people passe by, he asked what it meant.

37 And they sayd vnto him, that Jesus of Nazareth passed by.

38 Then he cried, saying, Jesus the sonne of Dauid, haue mercy on me.

39 And they which went before, rebuked him, that hee should holde his peace, but hee cried much more, O n Sonne of Dauid, haue mercy on me.

40 And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be brought vnto him. And when he was come neere, he asked him, 41 Saying, What wilt thou that I doe vnto thee? And he said, Lord, that I may receiue my sight.

42 And Jesus said vnto him, Receiue thy sight: thy faith hath saued thee.

43 Then immediately hee receiued his sight, and followed him, o praising God: and all the people when they saw this, gaue praise to God.

2 Behold, there was a man named Zaccheus, which was the chiefe receiuer of the tribute, and he was rich.

3 And hee sought to see Jesus, who hee should bee, and could not for the preasse, because he was of a low stature.

4 Wherefore hee ran before, and climed vp into a wilde figge tree, that hee might see him, for he should come that way.

5 And when Jesus came to the place, hee looked vp and saw him, and sayd vnto him, Zaccheus, come downe at once: for to day I must abide at thine house.

6 Then he came downe hastily, and receiued him ioyfully.

7 And when all they sawe it, they murmured, saying, that hee was gone in to lodge with a ‖sinfull man.

8 And Zaccheus stood forth, and said vnto the Lord, Beholde, Lorde, the halfe of my goods I giue to the poore: and if I haue taken from any man by ‖forged cauillation, I restore him foure fold.

9 Then Jesus sayd vnto him, This day is saluation come vnto this a house, forasmuch as hee is also become the b sonne of Abraham.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy piece hath increased fiue pieces.

19 And to the same he said, Bee thou also ruler ouer fiue cities.

20 So the other came and sayd, Lord, behold thy piece, which I haue layd vp in a napkin.

21 For I feared thee, because thou art a straite man, thou takest vp that thou laydest not downe, and reapest that thou didst not sowe.

22 Then he said vnto him, Of thine owne g mouth will I iudge thee, O euill seruant. Thou knewest that I am a straite man, taking vp that I laid not downe, and reaping that I did not sowe.

23 Wherefore h then gauest not thou my money into the banke, that at my comming I might haue required it with vantage?

27 Moreouer, those mine enemies, which would not that I should reigne ouer them, bring hither, and slay them before me.

28 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, hee went foorth i before, ascending vp to Ierusalem.

29 * And it came to passe, when hee was come neere to Bethphage, and Bethania, beside the mount which is called the mount of Olines, hee sent two of his disciples, 30 Saying, Goe yee to the towne which is before you, wherein assoone as yee are come, yee shall finde a colt tyed, whereon neuer man sate: loose him, and bring him hither.

31 k And if any man aske you, why yee loose him, thus shall ye say vnto him, Because the Lord hath need of him.

32 So they that were sent, went their way, and found it as he had said vnto them.

33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof sayde vnto them, Why loose ye the colt?

34 And they sayd, The Lord hath neede of him.

35 ¶ * So they brought him to Iesus, and they cast their garments on the colt, and set Iesus thereon.

36 And as hee went, they spread their clothes in the way.

37 And when hee was nowe come neere to the going downe of the mount of Olines, the whole multitude of the disciples beganne to reioyce, and to praise God with a loude voyce, for all the great workes that they had seene, 38 Saying, Blessed be the King that commeth in the Name of the Lorde: l peace in heauen, and glory in the hiest places.

39 Then some of the Pharises of the company sayd vnto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.

40 But he answered and said vnto them, I tell you, that if these shoulde holde their peace, the stones would cry.

41 ¶ * And when he was come neere, hee beheld the city, and wept for it, 42 Saying, m O if thou haddest euen knowen at the least in this thy day n those things, which belong vnto thy peace! but now are they o hid from thine eyes.

43 For the dayes shall come vpon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compasse thee rounde, and keepe thee in on euery side, 44 And shall make thee euen with the ground, and thy children which are in thee, and they shall not leaue in thee a stone vpon a stone, because thou knewest not the time of thy p visitation.

45 ¶ * He went also into the Temple, and began to cast out them that solde therein, and them that bought, 46 Saying vnto them, It is written, * Mine house is the house of prayer, * but yee haue made it a denne of theeues.

47 And he taught q dayly in the Temple. And the hie Priestes & the Scribes, and the chiefe of the people sought to destroy him.

48 But they coulde not finde what they might do to him: for all the people q hanged vpon him when they heard him.

CHAP. XX.

4 Christ stoppeth his aduersaries mouthes by another question, 9 sheweth their destruction by a parable, 22 The authoritie of princes, 27 The resurrection, and his diuine power, 46 He reproueth the ambition of the Scribes.

AND * it came to passe, that on one of those dayes, as hee taught the people in the Temple, and preached the Gospell, the hie Priestes and the Scribes came vpon him with the Elders, Matth. 21. 23. mark. 11. 27. 28.

2 And spake vnto him, saying, Tell vs by what what authoritie thou doest these things, or who is he that hath giuen thee this authoritie?

3 And he answered and said vnto them, I also will aske you one thing: tell me therefore:

a By Baptisme he comprehendeth al Iohns ministerie, who bare witnesse to Christ.

4 The a baptisme of Iohn, was it from heauen, or of men?

5 And they reasoned within themselues, saying, If wee shall say, From heauen, he will say, Why then beleeued yee him not?

6 But if we shal say, Of men, all the people will stone vs: for they be perswaded that Iohn was a prophet.

7 Therefore they answered, that they could not tell whence it was.

b By this meanes he made them ashamed and astonished. Matt. 21. 33. mar. 12. 1. isa. 5. 1. ier. 2. 21.

8 Then Iesus said vnto them, b Neither tell I you by what authoritie I doe these things.

c The Iewes were as Gods plants, and his owne grafting. d God committed his people to the gouernours and priests. e He raised vp prophets, 9 ¶ Then began he to speake to the people this parable, * A certaine man planted a c vineyard, and d let it foorth to husbandmen: and went into a strange countrey, for a great season.

10 And at a time he sent a e seruant to the husbandmen, that they should giue him of the fruite of the vineyard: but the husbandmen did beate him, and sent him away emptie.

11 Againe he sent yet another seruant: and they did beate him, and foule intreated him, and sent him away emptie.

12 Moreouer, he sent the third, and him they wounded, and cast out.

13 Then sayd the Lord of the vineyard, What shall I doe? I will send my beloued Sonne: it may be that they will doe reuerence, when they see him.

14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned with themselues, saying, This is the heire: come, let vs kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What shall the Lord of the vineyard therefore doe vnto them?

16 He will come and destroy these husbandmen, and will giue out his vineyard to others. But when they heard it, they sayd, God forbid.

17 ¶ And he beheld them, & said, What meaneth this then that is written, * The stone that the builders refused, that is made the head f of the corner?

Psa. 118. 22. isa. 28. 16. acts. 4. 11. rom. 9. 33. 1. pet. 2. 7.

f For by it the building is ioined together, and made strong.

18 g Whosoeuer shal fall vpon that stone, shal be broken: and on whomsoeuer it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

g They that stumble & fal on Christ, thinking to oppresse him, shal be ouerthrowen themselues and destroyed. Matt. 22. 16. mar. 12. 13.

19 Then the hie Priests and the Scribes the same houre went about to lay hands on him: (but they feared the people) for they perceiued that he had spoken this parable against them.

20 * And they h watched him, and sent foorth spies, which should faine themselues iust men to take him in his talke, and to deliuer him vnto the power and authoritie of the gouernour.

h They waited for a conuenient time and place,

21 And they asked him, saying, Master, we know that thou sayest, & teachest right, neither doest thou accept mans person, but teachest the way of God truely.

22 Is it i lawfull for vs to giue Cesar tribute, or no?

i They thought it vnlawfull to pay to a prince being an infidel, that which they were wont to pay to God in his Temple. Rom. 13. 17.

23 But he perceiued their craftinesse, and sayd vnto them, Why tempt ye me?

24 Shew me a peny. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and sayd, Cesars.

25 Then he said vnto them, * k Giue then vnto Cesar the things which are Cesars, and to God those which are Gods.

k The duetie which we owe to Princes, letteth nothing that which is due vnto God. Matth. 22, 23. Mar. 12. 18. Deut. 25. 5.

26 And they could not reprooue his saying before the people: but they marueiled at his answere, and held their peace.

27 * Then came to him certaine of the Sadducees, (which deny that there is any resurrection) and they asked him, 28 Saying, Master, * Moses wrote vnto vs, If any mans brother die hauing a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise vp seede vnto his brother.

29 Now there were seuen brethren, and the first tooke a wife, and hee died without children.

30 And the second tooke the wife, and he died childelesse.

31 Then the third tooke her: and so likewise the seuen died, and left no children.

32 And last of all, the woman died also.

33 Therefore at the resurrection, whose wife of them shall she bee? for seuen had her to wife.

l In this place he calleth all them children of this world which remaine in ỹ same: or els matrimony should not seeme to appertaine to the children of God, as that wicked mõster Pope Cyrcius taught, against the manifest Scriptures.

34 Then Iesus answered, and sayd vnto them, The l children of this world marrie wiues, and are maried.

m Since mariage is ordeined to maintein and increase mankind, when we shall be immortall, it shall not be in any vse.

35 But they which shall be counted worthy to enioy that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry wiues, neither are maried.

n For although the wicked rise againe, yet that life is but death and an eternall destruction. Exod. 3. 6.

36 m For they can die no more, forasmuch as they are equall vnto the Angels, and are the sonnes of God, n since they are the children of the resurrection.

o Of them which are not, but of them which are.

37 And that the dead shall rise againe, euen * Moyses shewed it beside the bush, when he sayd, The Lord is the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Iacob.

38 For he is not the God of the o dead, but of them which liue: p for all liue vnto him.

p The immortalitie of the soule cannot be separated from the resurrection of the body, whereof here Christ properly speaketh. Matth. 22. 44. mar. 12. 35. Psal. 110. 1.

39 Then certaine of the Pharises answered, and said, Master, thou hast well sayd.

40 And after that, durst they not aske him any thing at all.

41 ¶ * Then said hee vnto them, How say they that Christ is Dauids sonne?

42 And Dauid himself saith in the booke of the Psalmes, * The Lorde sayde vnto my Lord, sit at my right hand, 43 Till I shall make thine enemies thy footestoole.

44 Seeing, Dauid called him Lord, how is he then his q sonne?

q For the sonne is not Lord of his father, and therefore it followeth that Christ is God. Chap. 22. 42. matth. 23. 6. mar. 12, 38.

45 ¶ Then in the audience of all the people, he said vnto his disciples,

46 * Beware of the Scribes, which desire to goe in long robes, and loue salutations in the markets, and the highest seates in the Synagogues, and the chiefe roomes at feastes:

47 Which deuoure widowes houses, euen vnder a colour of long praying: these shall receiue greater damnation.

CHAP. XXI.

3 Christ commendeth the poore widow. 6 He forewarneth the destruction of Ierusalem. 8 Of false teachers. 9 Of the tokens and troubles to come. 27 Of the end of the world, 37 & of his daily exercise.

Mar.12.41.

AND * as he beheld, he saw the rich men, which cast their gifts into the treasurie,

2 And he sawe also a certaine poore widow, which cast in thither two mites,

3 And he said, Of a trueth I say vnto you, that this poore widow hath cast in more then they all.

a God esteemeth not the gift or almes by the quantitie or value, but by the heart and affection.

4 a For they all haue of their superfluitie cast into the offerings of God: but shee of her penurie hath cast in all the liuing that she had.

Chap.19.43,44. matt.24.1. mar.13.8.

5 * Now as some spake of the Temple, how it was garnished with goodly stones, and with ‖ consecrate things, he sayd,

‖ Or, gifts.

6 Are these the things that ye looke vpon? the dayes wil come, wherin a stone shall not be left vpon a stone, that shall not bee throwen downe.

7 Then they asked him, saying, Master, but when shal these things bee? & what signe shall there be when these things shall come to passe?

Ephes.5.6. 2.thes.2.3.

b Christ then maketh answere of that which was more necessary for them, and not to the question they demanded.

8 * And he sayd, b Take heede that yee be not deceiued: for many will come in my Name, saying, I am Christ, and the time draweth neere: follow yee not them therefore.

Matth.24.7. mar.13.8.

9 And when yee heare of warres and seditions, be not afrayd: for these things must first come, but the end followeth not by and by.

c This their sufferance shal both be a geater confirmation to the Gospel, & also by their constancie the tyranny of their enemies shall at length be manifest before God and man.

10 Then said he vnto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdome against kingdome.

Chap.12.12. matt.10.19. mar.13.11.

11 * And great earthquakes shal be in diuers places, and hunger, and pestilence, and fearefull things, and great signes shall there be from heauen.

d For though they were so impudent to resist, yet trueth euer gaineth the victorie.

12 But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, deliuering you vp to the Synagogues, & into prisons, and bring you before kings and rulers for my Names sake.

Matth.10.30.

e That is, liue ioyfully & blessedly euen vnder the crosse.

Mat.24.15. mar. 13.14. dan.9.27.

14 * Lay it vp therefore in your hearts, that ye premeditate not what yee shall answere.

15 For I will giue you a mouth, and wisdom, where against all your aduersaries shal not be able to speake, nor d resist.

16 Yea, ye shall be betrayed also of your parents, and of your brethren, and kinsmen, and friends, and some of you shall they put to death.

17 And ye shal be hated of all men for my Names sake.

18 * Yet there shall not one haire of your heads perish.

19 By your patience e possesse your soules.

20 ¶ * And when ye see Ierusalem beseged with souldiers, then vnderstand that the desolation thereof is neere.

21 Then let them which are in Iudea, flee to the mountaines: and let them which are in the middes thereof, depart out: and let not them that are in the countrey, enter therein.

22 For these be the dayes of vengeance, to fulfill all things that are written.

23 But wo be to them that are with child, and to them that giue sucke in those dayes: for there shall be great distresse in this land, and f wrath ouer this people.

f Gods wrath against this people shall appeare by the calamities & plagues wherewith he will punish them.

24 And they shall fall on the edge of the sword, and shall be led captiue into all nations, and Ierusalem shall be troden vnder foote of the Gentiles, vntill the g time of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

g He meaneth their iniquities to receiue likewise their punishment afterward.

25 * Then there shall be signes in the Sunne & in the Moone, and in the Starres, and vpon the earth trouble among the nations, with perplexitie: the sea and the waters shall roare.

Isa.13.10.ezek. 32.7. mat.24.29. mar.13.24.

26 And mens hearts shall faile them for feare, & for looking after those things which shall come on the world: for the powers of heauen shalbe shaken, 27 And then shall they see the Sonne of man come in a cloud, with power and great glory.

28 And when these things begin to come to passe, then looke vp, & lift vp your heads: * for your h redemption draweth neere.

Rom.8.23.

h The effect of that redemption which Iesus Christ hath purchased, shall then fully appeare.

29 And he spake to them a parable, Behold the fig tree, and all trees, 30 When they now shoot foorth, ye seeing them, know of your owne selues, that Sommer is then neere.

31 So likewise yee, when yee see these things come to passe, know ye that the kingdome of God is neere.

32 Verely I say vnto you, This age shal not i passe, till all these things be done.

i For all these things came within fifty yeres after.

33 Heauen and earth shall passe away, but my words shall not passe away.

34 Take heede to your selues, lest at any time your hearts be oppressed with surfetting and drunkennes, and cares of this life, and lest that day come on you at vnwares.

35 For as a k snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.

k To catch and intangle them, whersoeuer they be in the world.

36 Watch therefore, and pray continually, ‖ that ye may be counted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to passe, and that yee may stand before the Sonne of man.

‖ Or, that ye may be made worthy.

37 ¶ Nowe in the day time he taught in the Temple, and at night he went out, and abode in the mount that is called the mount of Oliues.

38 And all the people came in the morning to him, to heare him in the Temple.

CHAP. XXII.

4 Conspiracie against Christ. 7 They eate the Passeouer. 19 The institution of the Lords Supper. 24 They striue who shall be greatest, and he reproueth them. 42 He praieth vpon the mount. 47 Iudas treason. 54 They take him, & bring him to the hie Priests

2 And the hie Priests & Scribes sought how they might kill him: for they feared the people.

3 Then entred Satan into Iudas, who was called Iscariot, and was of the number of the twelue.

4 And he went his way and communed with the hie Priestes and b captaines, howe he might betray him to them.

5 So they were c glad, and agreed to giue him money.

6 And he consented and sought opportunitie to betray him vnto them, whē the people were away.

7 ¶ * Then came the day of vnleauened bread when the Passeouer d must be sacrificed.

Matth.26.17. mar.14.13.

11 And say vnto the goodman of the house, The master sayth vnto thee, Where is the lodging where I shall eate my Passeouer with my disciples?

f Hee meaneth that this is ỹ last time ỷ he would be conuersant with them as he was before, or so eate with them.

12 Then hee shall shew you a great high chamber trimmed, there make it ready.

Matth.26.26. mar.14.22. 1.cor.11.24.

g The bread is a true signe, and an assured testimony that the body of Iesus Christ is giuen for the nourriture of our soules: likewise the wine signifieth that his blood is our drinke to refresh and quicken vs euerlastingly.

15 Then he sayd vnto them, I haue earnestly desired to eate this Passeouer with you before I suffer.

16 For I say vnto you, f Hencefoorth I will not eate of it any more, vntill it bee fulfilled in the kingdome of God.

17 And he tooke the cup, g gaue thanks, and sayd, Take this, and diuide it among you.

18 For I say vnto you, I will not drinke of the fruit of the vine, vntill the kingdome of God be come.

19 * And hee tooke bread, and when hee had giuen thanks, he brake it, and gaue to them, saying, g This is my bodie, which is giuen for you: doe this in the remembrance of me.

h This signe of ỹ new couenant which is established & ratified by Christs blood.

42 Saying, Father, if thou wilt, take away this q cup from me: neuertheless, not my will, but thine be done.

r The word signifieth that horror that Christ had conceiued, not onely for feare of death, but of his Fathers iudgement and wrath against sinne.

43 And there appeared an Angell vnto him from heauen, comforting him.

44 But being in an r agonie, hee prayed more earnestly: and his sweate was like drops of blood, trickling downe to the ground.

49 Nowe when they which were about him, saw what would follow, they sayd vnto him, Lord, shall we smite with sword?

50 And one of them smote a seruant of the hie Priest, and stroke off his right eare.

51 Then Iesus answered and sayd, Suffer them thus farre: and he touched his eare, and healed him.

52 Then Iesus sayd vnto the hie Priests, and captaines of the Temple, & the Elders which were come to him, Bee yee come out as vnto a theefe with swords and staues?

53 When I was dayly with you in the Temple, ye stretched not forth the handes against me: but this is your very houre, and the † power of darkenesse.

56 And a certaine maid beheld him as he sate by the fire, and hauing well looked on him, sayd, This man was also with him.

57 But he denied him, saying, Woman I know him not.

58 And after a little while, another man saw him, and sayd, Thou art also of them. But Peter sayd, Man, I am not.

59 And about the space of an houre after, a certaine other affirmed, saying, Verely euen this man was with him: for he is also a Galilean.

60 And Peter sayd, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately while he yet spake, the cocke crewe.

61 Then the Lord turned backe, and looked vpon Peter: and Peter remembred the word of the Lord, how he had sayd vnto him, * Before the cocke crow, thou shalt denie me thrise.

Matth.26.34. iohn 13.38.

62 And Peter went out, and wept bitterly.

63 ¶ And the men that held Iesus, mocked him, and strooke him.

64 And when they had blindfolded him, they smote him on the face, and asked him, saying, † Prophesie who it is that smote thee.

65 And many other things blasphemously spake they against him.

66 * And assoone as it was day, the Elders of the people, and the hie Priests and the Scribes came together and led him into their Councel, 67 Saying, ‖ Art thou the Christ? tell vs. And he sayd vnto them, If I tell you, yee will not beleeue it, 68 And if also I aske you, ye will not answere me, nor let me goe.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 Iesus is brought before Pilate and Herode. 18 Of Barabbas. 26 Of Simon the Cyrenean. 27 The women make lamentation. 33 Christ crucified, 34 He prayeth for his enemies. 40 He conuerteth the theefe and many others at his death, 53 And is buried.

THen * the whole multitude of them arose, and led him vnto a Pilate.

Matth.22.21, marke 12.17.

a Who was the chiefe gouernor, and had the examination of matters of life and death. Matth.27.11. mar.15.2. iohn.18.23.

2 And they began to accuse him, saying, We haue found this man peruerting y people, and forbidding to pay tribute to Cesar, saying, That he is Christ a king.

3 * And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the king of the Iewes? And he answered him, and sayd, Thou sayest it.

4 Then sayd Pilate to the hie Priests, & to the people, I find no fault in this man.

5 But they were the more fierce, saying, He moueth the people, teaching throughout all Iudea, beginning at Galile, euen to this place.

6 Now when Pilate heard of Galile, hee asked whether the man were a Galilean.

7 And when he knew that he was of Herodes iurisdiction, hee b sent him to Herode, which was also at Ierusalem in those dates.

b To rid his hands, and to gratifie Herod.

8 And when Herod saw Iesus, hee was exceedingly glad: for he was c desirous to see him of a long season, because he had heard many things of him, and trusted to haue seene some ‖ signe done by him.

c Of a certaine curiositie.

9 Then questioned he with him of many things: but he answered him d nothing.

d For Christ came not to defend himselfe, neither yet would please the vaine curiositie of this tyrant,

10 The hie Priests & e Scribes stood forth, and accused him vehemently.

‖ Or, band or traine.

11 And Herode with his ‖ men of warre despised him, and mocked him, and arayed him in f ‖ white, and sent him againe to Pilate.

e Commonly this was a vobe of honour or excellencie: but it was giuen to Christ in mockage.

‖ Or, in bright colour.

12 And the same day Pilate and Herode were made friends together: for before they were enemies one to another.

13 ¶ Then Pilate called together the hie Priests, and the rulers, and the people,

14 * And sayd vnto them, Ye haue brought this man vnto me, as one that peruerteth the people: and behold, I haue examined him before you, and * haue found no fault in this man, of those things wherein ye accuse him:

Matth.27.23. marke 15.14. Iohn 18.38. and 19.4.

‖ Or, by him.

15 No, nor yet Herode: for I sent you to him: & loe, nothing worthy of death is done ‖ to him.

16 I will therefore chastise him, and let him loose.

17 (For of g necessitie hee must haue let one loose vnto them at the feast.)

f For the Romanes had giuen such franchise and liberties to the Iewes, which was but a tradition, and not according to the word of God.

18 Then all the multitude cried at once, saying, Away with him, and deliuer to vs bs Barabbas:

19 Which for a certeine insurrection made in the citie, and murther, was cast in prison.

20 Then Pilate spake againe to them, willing to let Iesus loose.

21 But they cried, saying, Crucifie, crucifie him.

g The Iudge giueth sentence with Christ, before he condemneth him, whereby plainly appeareth Iesus innocencie, 22 And he sayd vnto them the third time, But what euill hath he done? I finde no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him loose.

23 But they were instant with loud voices, and required that he might be crucified: and the voices of them, & of the high Priests preuailed.

24 So Pilate gaue sentence that it should be as they required.

25 And he let loose vnto them him that for insurrection and murther was cast into prison, whom they desired, and deliuered Iesus to do with him what they would.

Matth.27.32. mar.15.21.

26 ¶ * And as they led him away, they caught one Simon of Cyrene, comming out of the field, and on him they layed the crosse, to beare it after Iesus.

27 And there followed him a great multitude of people, and of women, which women bewailed and lamented him.

28 But Iesus turned backe vnto them, and sayd, ‖ Daughters of Ierusalem, weepe not for me, but weepe for your selues, and for your children.

‖Or, women of Ierusalem.

29 For behold, the dayes will come, when men shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that neuer bare, and the paps which neuer gaue sucke.

Isa.2.19 hose.10, 8.reuel.6.16. 1.Pet.4.17.

30 Then shall they beginne to say to the mountaines, * Fall on vs: and to the hilles, Couer vs.

h If the innocent be thus handled, what shall the wicked man bee? Matth.27.38. mar.15.27.iob, 19.18.

31 * For if they doe these things to a b greene tree, what shall be done to the drie?

‖Or, the place of sculles.

32 * And there were two others, which were euill doers, led with him to be slaine.

i Whom God hath before all others appointed to be the Messias: otherwise the Scriptures calleth them the elect of God, whom hee hath chosen before all beginning to life euerlasting.

33 And when they were come to the place which is called ‖ Caluarie, there they crucified him, and the euill doers: one at the right hand, and the other at the left.

34 Then sayd Iesus, Father, forgiue them: for they know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots.

35 And the people stood, and beheld: and the rulers mocked him with them, saying, He saued others: let him saue himselfe, if he be the Christ, the i Chosen of God.

36 The souldiers also mocked him, and came and offered him k vineger, k Mixt with myrrhe and gall to hasten his death.

37 And sayd, If thou be the King of the Iewes, saue thy selfe.

38 And a superscription was also written ouer him, in l Greeke letters, and in Latine, and in Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE IEWES.

l That the thing might be knowen to all nations, because these three langueges were most common.

39 ¶ And one of the euill doers, which were hanged, railed on him, saying, If thou be the Christ, saue thy selfe and vs.

m The condemnatiō which thou now suffrest, causeth it thee not to feare God?

40 But the other answered, and rebuked him, saying, m Fearest thou not God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?

41 We are in deed righteously heere: for we receiue things worthy of that wee haue done: but this man hath done nothing amisse.

42 And hee sayd vnto Iesus, Lord, remember mee, when thou commest into thy kingdome.

43 Then Iesus sayd vnto him, Verily I say vnto thee, to day shalt thou be with me in Paradise.

44 ¶ And it was about the n sixth houre: and there was a darknesse ouer all the land, vntill the ninth houre.

n Whichwas mid-day.

45 And the Sunne was darkened, and the vaile of the Temple rent thorowe the middes.

46 And Iesus cried with a loud voice, and sayd, * Father into thine hands I commend my spirit. And when he thus had said, he gaue vp the ghost.

Psal.31.5.

47 ¶ Now when the ‖ o Centurion saw what was done, hee glorified God, saying, Of a iuretie this man was iust.

o The Romane captaine, who had charge ouer an hundred men.

48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, smote their breasts and returned.

49 And all his acquaintance stood afarre off, and the women that followed him from Galile, beholding these things.

50 ¶ * And beholde, there was a man named Ioseph, which was a Counseller, a good man and a iust.

Matth.27.57. mar.15.43.ioh. 19.38.

51 Hee did not consent to the counsell and deed of them, which was of Arimathea, a citie of the Iewes: who also himselfe p waited for the kingdome of God.

p He looked for the redeemer, by whom all should be restored.

52 Hee went vnto Pilate, and asked the bodie of Iesus, 53 And tooke it downe, and wrapped it in a linnen cloth, and layd it in a tombe hewen out of a rocke, wherein was neuer man yet layed.

54 And that day was the q Preparation, and the Sabbath drew on.

q When mē prepared all things ready for the feast.

55 And the women also that followed after, which came with him from Galile, beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was layed.

r That is, began the same euening.

56 And they returned, and prepared odours, and ointments, and rested the Sabbath day, according to the commandement.

CHAP. XXIIII.

1 The women come to the graue. 13 Christ appeareth vnto the two disciples that goe toward Emmaus. 36 Hee standeth in the midst of his disciples, and openeth their vnderstanding in the Scriptures. 47 He giueth them a charge. 51 He ascendeth vp to heauen. 52 His disciples worship him, 53 and of their dayly exercise.

NOw the * a first day of the weeke early in the morning, they came vnto the sepulchre, and brought the odours, which they had prepared, and certeine women with them.

a Which was the first day after the first Sabbath of the feast.

2 And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre,

3 And went in, but found not the body of the Lord Iesus.

4 And it came to passe, that as they were amazed thereat, behold, b two men suddenly stood by them in shining vestures.

b Two Angels in forme of men.

5 And as they were afrayed, and bowed downe downe their faces to the earth, they sayd to them, Why seeke ye him that liueth, among the dead?

6 He is not here, but is risen: remember
Chap.9.22.matt. 17.23.mar.9.31. * how he spake vnto you, when he was yet in Galile, 7 Saying, that the Sonne of man must be deliuered into the handes of sinfull men, and be crucified, & the third day rise againe.

8 And they remembred his words,

9 And returned from the sepulchre, and tolde all these things vnto the eleuen, and to all the remnant.

10 Nowe it was Mary Magdalen, and Ioanna, and Mary the mother of Iames, and other women with them, which tolde these things vnto the Apostles.

11 But their words seemed vnto them, as a fained thing, neither beleeued they them.

12 Then arose Peter, and ranne vnto the sepulchre, and looked in, and saw the linnen clothes layed by themselues, and departed woondering in himselfe, at that which was come to passe.

Marke 16.12. 13 ¶ * And beholde, two of them went that same day to a towne which was from Ierusalem about c threescore furlongs, called Emmaus.

14 And they d talked together of all these things that were done.

15 And it came to passe, as they communed together, and reasoned, that Iesus himselfe drew nere, and went with them.

16 But their eyes e were holden, that they could not know him.

17 And he sayd vnto them, What maner of communications are these that yee haue one to another as ye walke, and are sad?

18 And the one (named Cleopas) answered, and sayde vnto him, Art thou onely a f stranger in Ierusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to passe therein in these dayes?

19 And hee sayd vnto them, What things? And they sayd vnto him, Of Iesus of Nazaret, which was a Prophet mighty in deed and in word before God, and all the people, 20 And how the high Priests and our rulers deliuered him to be condemned to death, and haue crucified him.

21 But we g trusted that it had beene hee that should haue deliuered Israel, and as touching all these things, to day is the third day that they were done.

22 Yea, and certeine women among vs made vs astonied, which came early vnto the sepulchre.

23 And when they found not his bodie, they came, saying, that they had also seene a vision of Angels, which sayd that he was aliue.

24 Therefore certeine of them which were with vs, went to the sepulchre, and found it euen so as the women had sayd, but him they saw not.

25 Then he sayd vnto them, h O fooles, and slowe of heart to beleeue all that the Prophets haue spoken, 26 Ought not Christ to haue suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?

27 And he began at i Moyses, and at all the Prophets, and interpreted vnto them in all the Scriptures the things which were written of him.

28 And they drew neere vnto the towne which they went to, but he k made as though he would haue gone further.

29 But they constreined him, saying, Abide with vs: for it is towards night, and the day is farre spent. So he went in to tary with them.

30 And it came to passe, as he sate at table with them, he tooke the bread, l and gaue thanks, and brake it, and gaue it to them.

31 Then their eyes were opened, and they knew him: but hee was taken out of their sight.

32 And they sayd betweene themselues, Did not our hearts burne within vs, while he talked with vs by the way, and when hee opened to vs the Scriptures?

33 And they rose vp the same houre, and returned to Ierusalem, and found the eleuen gathered together, and them that were with them, 34 Which sayde, The Lorde is risen in deed, and hath appeared to Simon.

35 Then they tolde what things were done in the way, and how he was knowen of them in m breaking of bread.

36 ¶ * And as they spake these things, Iesus himselfe stood in the middes of them, and sayd vnto them, Peace be to you.

37 But they were abashed and afrayed, supposing that they had seene a spirit.

38 Then he sayd vnto them, Why are ye troubled? and wherefore doe doubts arise in your hearts?

39 Beholde mine handes and my feete: for it is I my selfe: handle mee, and see: for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as yee see me haue.

40 And when hee had thus spoken, hee shewed them his hands and feet.

41 And while they yet beleeued not for ioy, and woondred, he sayd vnto them, Haue ye here any meat?

42 And they gaue him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an hony combe.

43 And hee tooke it, and did eate before them.

44 And he sayd vnto them, These are the wordes, which I spake vnto you while I was yet with you, That all must be fulfilled which are written of mee in the ℓ lawe of Moyses, and in the Prophets, and in the Psalmes.

45 Then opened he their vnderstanding, that they might vnderstand the scriptures,

46 And sayd vnto them, Thus is it written, & thus it behooued Christ to suffer, and to rise againe from the dead the third day, 47 And that repentance, and remission of sinnes should be preached in his Name among all nations, beginning at Ierusalem.

48 Now ye are witnesses of these things.

49 And behold, I will send the * promise of my Father vpon you: but tarie yee in the citie of Ierusalem, n vntill ye be indued with power from an high.

50 Afterward he led them out into Bethania, c Which is about seuen miles and an halfe.

d Hereby appeareth that they had faith, although it was weake.

e This declareth that we can neither see, nor vnderstand till God open our eyes.

f For the thing was so notorious, y all men might haue knowen it.

g They vnderstood not yet what was the deliuerance that Iesus Christ purchased for vs, but looked for some worldly prosperity.

h Infidelitie is reproued.

i Christ onely is the interpreter of the Scriptures: for both the beginning and end thereof directeth vs to him, because he is the Sauiour that is promised.

k Because Christ did both shut their eyes and open them, hee woulde keepe them in suspense till his time came to manifest himselfe vnto them.

CHAP. I.

1.14. 17 The diuinitie, humanitie, and office of Ieſus Chriſt. 15 The teſtimony of Iohn. 39 The calling of Andrew, Peter, &c.

IN ‖ the beginning was the Word, and the Worde was with a God, and that Worde was God.
2 The ſame was b in the beginning with God.
3 All things were made by it, and c without it was made nothing that was made.
4 In it was d life, and the life was the e light of men.
5 And the light ſhineth f in the darkneſs, and the darkneſſe comprehended it not.
6 ¶* There was a man ſent from God, whoſe name was Iohn.
7 The ſame came for a witneſſe, to beare witneſſe of the light, that all men through him might beleeue.
8 Hee was not that light, but was ſent to beare witneſſe of the light.
9 That was the true light, which lighteth euery man that‖ commeth into the world.
10 He was in the world, and the world was* made by him: and the world g knew him not.
11 He came vnto h his owne, and his owne receiued him not.
12 But as many as receiued him, to them hee gaue i power to bee the ſonnes of God, euen to them that beleeue in his Name, 13 Which are borne not of blood, nor of the will of the flеſh, nor of the will of man, but of God.
14 And the Word was made k flеſh, and dwelt among vs, (& we ſaw the glory thereof, as the glory of the onely begotten Sonne ‖of the Father) *full of grace and trueth.
15 ¶ Iohn bare witneſſe of him, & cryed, ſaying, This was he of whom I ſayd, Hee that commeth after me, is preferred before me: for he was ‖before me.
16 And of his fulneſſe haue all we receiued, and l grace for grace.
17 For the Law was giuen by Moſes, but grace and trueth came by Ieſus Chriſt.
18 *No man hath ſeene God at any time: the only begotte Sonne, which is in the m boſome of the Father, he hath n declared him.
19 ¶ Then this is the record of Iohn, when the Iewes ſent Prieſtes and Leuites from Ieruſalem, to aſke him, Who art thou?
20 And he confeſſed and denied not, and ſayd plainely, I* am not the Chriſt.
21 And they aſked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And he ſaid, I am not. Art thou the o Prophet? And he anſwered, No.
22 Then ſayd they vnto him, Who art thou, that wee may giue an anſwere to them that ſent vs? what ſayeſt thou of thy ſelfe?
23 He ſayd, I* am the voyce of him that crieth in the wildernеſſe, Make ſtraight the way of ỹ Lord, as ſaid the Prophet Eſaias.
24 Now they which were ſent, were of the Phariſes.
25 And they aſked him, & ſayd vnto him, Why baptizeſt thou then, if thou be not the Chriſt, neither Elias, nor the Prophet?
26 Iohn anſwered them, ſaying, I baptize with water: but there is one among you, whom ye know not.
27 * He it is that cõmeth after me, which is preferred before me, whoſe ſhoo latchet I am not worthy to vnlooſe.
28 Theſe things were done in Bethabara beyond Iordan, where Iohn did baptize.
29 ¶ The next day Iohn ſeeth Ieſus coming vnto him, & ſayth, Behold the Lambe of God, which taketh away the p ſinne of the world.
30 This is he of whom I ſayd, After me commeth a man, which is preferred before me: for he was before me.
31 And I knewq him not: but becauſe he ſhould be declared to Iſrael, therefore am I come, baptizing with water.
32 So Iohn bare record, ſaying, I ſaw * the Spirit come downe from heauen, like a doue, and it abode vpon him.
33 And I knew him not: but he that ſent me to baptize with water, he ſayd vnto me, Vpon whom thou ſhalt ſee the Spirit come downe, and tarie ſtil on him, that is he which baptizeth with the r holy Ghoſt.
34 And I ſaw, and bare record, that this is the Sonne of God.
35 ¶ The next day, Iohn ſtood againe, and two of his diſciples:
36 And he beheld Ieſus walking by, and ſayd, Behold the t Lambe of God.
37 And ỹ two diſciples heard him ſpeake, and followed Ieſus.
38 Then Ieſus turned about, and ſawe them followe, and ſaide vnto them, What ſeeke ye? And they ſayd vnto him, Rabbi, (which is to ſay by interpretation, Maſter) u where dwelleſt thou?
39 He ſaid vnto them, Come & ſee. They came and ſawe where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the x tenth houre.

Christ turneth the water into wine. 14 He driueth the buyers and sellers out of the Temple. 19 He forewarneth his death and resurrection. 23 He conuerteth many, and distrusteth man.

AND the third day was there a mariage in Cana a towne of Galile, and the mother of Iesus was there.

2 And Iesus was called also, and his disciples vnto the mariage.

3 Now when the wine failed, the mother of Iesus sayd vnto him, They haue no wine.

4 Iesus sayd vnto her, Woman, what haue I to doe with thee? mine houre is not yet come.

5 His mother sayde vnto the seruants, Whatsoeuer he sayth vnto you, doe it.

6 And there were set there sixe waterpots of stone, after the maner of the *purifying of the Iewes, conteining two or three ‖ᵇfirkins apiece.

7 And Iesus sayd vnto them, Fill the waterpots with water. Then they filled them vp to the brimme.

8 Then hee sayd vnto them, Draw out now, and beare vnto the ‖ gouernour of the feast. So they bare it.

9 Now when the gouernour of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, (for hee knewe not whence it was: but the seruants, which drewe the water, knewe) the gouernour of the feast called the bridegrome,

10 And sayd vnto him, All men at the beginning set foorth good wine, and when men haue well drunke, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept backe the good wine vntill now.

11 This beginning of ‖miracles did Iesus in Cana a towne of Galile, and shewed foorth his glory: and his disciples beleeued on him.

12 After that hee went downe into Capernaum, he and his mother, and his ‖brethren, and his disciples: but they continued not many dayes there.

13 For the Iewes Passeouer was at hand. Therefore Iesus went vp to Ierusalem.

14 *And hee found in the Temple those that sold oxen, and sheepe, and doues, & changers of money, sitting there.

15 Then he made a scourge of small cords, and draue them all out of the Temple with the sheepe & oxen, and powred out the changers money, and ouerthrew the tables,

16 And sayd vnto them that sold doues, Take these things hence: make not my Fathers house an house of merchandise.

17 And his disciples remembred, that it was written, *The ᶜzeale of thine house hath eaten me vp.

18 Then answered the Iewes, and sayd vnto him, What ‖signe shewest thou vnto vs, that thou doest these things?

19 Iesus answered and sayde vnto them, *Destroy this Temple, and in three dayes I will raise it vp againe.

20 Then said the Iewes, Fortie and sixe yeeres was this Temple a building, & wilt thou reare it vp in three dayes?

21 But hee spake of the Temple of his ᵈbody.

22 Assoone therefore as he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembred that hee thus sayd vnto them: and they beleeued the Scripture, and the worde which Iesus had sayd.

23 Now when hee was at Ierusalem at the Passeouer in the feast, many beleeued in his Name, when they sawe his miracles which he did.

24 But Iesus *did not commit himselfe vnto them, because he knew them all,

25 And had no need that any should testifie of man: for he knew what was in man.

5 Iesus answered, Verily, verily I say vnto thee, except that a man be borne of [c] water and of the Spirite, hee cannot enter into the kingdome of God.

6 That which is borne of the flesh, is flesh: and that that is borne of the spirit, is spirit.

7 Marueile not that I sayd to thee, Ye must be borne againe.

8 The [d] wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it commeth, and whither it goeth: so is euery man that is borne of the Spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered, and sayd vnto him, How can these things be?

10 Iesus answered, and sayd vnto him, Art thou a teacher of Israel, and [e] knowest not these things?

11 Verily, verily I say vnto thee, wee speake that wee [f] know, and testifie that wee haue seene: but ye [g] receiue not our witnesse.

12 If when I tell you [h] earthly things, yee beleeue not, how should ye beleeue, if I shall tell you of heauenly things?

13 For no man ascendeth vp to heauen, but he that hath descended from heauen, the Sonne of man which is in [i] heauen.

14 * And as Moses lift vp the serpent in the wildernesse, so must the Sonne of man be [k] lift vp,

15 That whosoeuer beleeueth in him, should not perish, but haue eternall life.

16 * For God so loued the world, that he hath giuen his onely begotten Sonne, that whosoeuer beleeueth in him, should not perish, but haue euerlasting life.

17 * For God sent not his Sonne into the worlde, that hee should [l] condemne the world, but that the world through him might be saued.

18 Hee that beleeueth in him, shall not be condemned: but hee that beleeueth not, is condemned already, because he beleeueth not in the Name of the onely begotten Sonne of God.

19 * And this is the [m] condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loued darkenesse rather then light, because their deedes were euil.

20 For euery man that euil doeth, hateth the light, neither commeth to light, least his deedes should be reproued.

21 But hee that doeth [o] trueth, commeth to the light, that his deedes might bee made manifest, that they are wrought ‖according to God.

22 ¶ After these things came Iesus and his disciples into the ‖lande of Iudea, and there taried with them, and *baptized.

23 And Iohn also baptized in Enon, beside Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized.

24 For Iohn was not yet cast into prison.

25 Then there arose a question betweene Iohns disciples and the Iewes, about [q] purifying.

26 And they came vnto Iohn, and sayde vnto him, Rabbi, [r] hee that was with thee beyond Iordan, to whom * thou barest witnesse, beholde, he baptizeth, and all men come to him.

27 Iohn answered, and sayde, A man can receiue nothing, except it be giuen him from heauen.

28 Yee your selues are my witnesses, that *I sayde, I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before him.

29 Hee that hath the bride, is the bridegrome: but the friende of the bridegrome which standeth and heareth him, reioyceth greatly, because of the bridegromes voyce. This my ioy therefore is fulfilled.

31 He that is come from on high, is aboue all: hee that is of the [u] earth, is of the earth, and speaketh of the earth: hee that is come from heauen, is aboue all.

32 And what hee hath seene and heard, that hee testifieth: but no man receiueth his testimonie.

33 Hee that hath receiued his testimonie, hath sealed that *God is true.

34 For he whom God hath sent, speaketh the wordes of God: for God giueth him not the Spirit by [x] measure.

35 The Father loueth the Sonne, and hath * giuen all things into his hand.

36 * He that beleeueth in the Sonne, hath euerlasting life, and hee that obeyeth not the Sonne, shall not see life, but the wrath of God abideth on him.

3 In the which lay a great multitude of sicke folke, of blind, halt, and withered, waiting for the mouing of the water.
4 For an Angel went downe at a certaine season into the poole, and troubled the water: whosoeuer then first, after the stirring of the water, stepped in, was made whole of whatsoeuer disease he had.
5 And a certaine man was there, which had bene diseased eight and thirtie yeeres.
6 When Iesus sawe him lye, and knewe that hee nowe long time had bene diseased, hee sayde vnto him, Wilt thou bee made whole?
7 The sicke man answered him, Sir, I haue no man, when the water is troubled, to put mee into the poole: but while I am comming, another steppeth downe before mee.
8 Iesus sayd vnto him, Rise: [c] take vp thy bed, and walke.
9 And immediatly the man was made whole, and tooke vp his bed, and walked: and the same day was the Sabbath.
10 The Iewes therefore said to him that was made whole, It is the Sabbath day: * it is not lawfull for thee to carry thy bed.
11 He answered them, He that made mee whole, he sayd vnto mee, Take vp thy bed, and walke.
12 Then asked they him, what man is that which saide vnto thee, take vp thy bed, and walke?
13 And hee that was healed, knewe not who it was: for Iesus had conueyed himselfe away from the multitude that was in that place.
14 And after that, Iesus founde him in the Temple, and sayde vnto him, Beholde, thou art made whole: [d] sinne no more, least a worse thing come vnto thee.
15 ¶ The man departed, and tolde the Iewes that it was Iesus, which had made him whole.
16 And therefore the Iewes did persecute Iesus, and sought to slay him, because hee had done these things on the Sabbath day.
17 But Iesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I worke.
18 Therefore the Iewes sought the more to kill him: not onely because he had broken the Sabbath, but sayde also that God was [e] his [f] Father, and made himselfe equal with God.
19 Then answered Iesus, and sayd vnto them, Verily, verily I say vnto you, The Sonne can do nothing of himselfe, saue that hee seeth the Father doe: for whatsoeuer things hee doeth, the same things doeth the Sonne also.
20 For the Father loueth the Sonne, and [g] sheweth him all things, whatsoeuer hee himselfe doeth, and hee will shewe him greater workes then these, that yee shoulde marueile.

12 And when they were satisfied, he sayde vnto his disciples, Gather vp the broken meate which remaineth, that e nothing bee lost.

13 Then they gathered it together, and filled twelue baskets with the broken meate of the fiue barley loaues, which remained vnto them that had eaten.

14 Then the men when they had seene the miracle that Iesus did, sayd, This is of a trueth, the Prophet that should come into the world.

15 When Iesus therefore perceiued that they would come, and take him to make him a f King, hee departed againe into a mountaine himselfe alone.

16 ¶ When euen was nowe come, his disciples went downe vnto the sea, 17 * And entred into a shippe, and went g ouer the sea towardes Capernaum: and now it was darke, and Iesus was not come to them.

18 And the sea arose with a great winde that blew.

19 And when they had rowed about fiue and twentie, or thirtie h furlongs, they sawe Iesus walking on the sea, and drawing nere vnto the ship: so they were afrayd.

20 But he sayde vnto them, It is I: bee not afrayd.

21 Then willingly they receiued him into the shippe: and the ship was by and by at the land, whither they went.

22 ¶ The day following, the people which stood on the other side of the sea, sawe that there was none other shippe there, saue that one, whereinto his disciples were entred, and that Iesus went not with his disciples in the ship, but that his disciples were gone i alone,

23 And that there came other ships from Tiberias nere vnto the place where they ate the bread, after the Lord had giuen thanks.

24 Now when the people saw that Iesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also tooke shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Iesus.

25 And when they had found him on the k other side of the sea, they sayde vnto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

26 Iesus answered them, and sayde, Verily, verily I say vnto you, yee seeke mee not, because ye saw the miracles, but because yee ate of the loaues, and were filled.

27 Labour not for the meate which perisheth, but for the meate that l endureth vnto euerlasting life, which the Sonne of man shall giue vnto you: for him hath * God the Father m sealed.

28 Then sayd they vnto him, What shall we doe, that wee might worke the n workes of God?

29 Iesus answered, and said vnto them, This is the worke of God, that ye beleeue in him, whom he sent.

30 They sayde therefore vnto him, What signe shewest thou then, that wee may see it, and beleeue thee? what doest thou worke?

q God doeth regenerate his elect, and causeth them to obey the Gospel.

38 For I came downe from heauen, not to do mine owne wil, but his wil which hath sent me.

39 And this is the Fathers will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath giuen me, I should lose nothing, but should raise it vp againe at the last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me, that euery man which seeth the Sonne, and beleeueth in him, should haue euerlasting life: and I will raise him vp at the last day.

51 I am the u liuing bread, which came downe from heauen: if any man eate of this bread, hee shall liue for euer: and the bread that I will giue, is my flesh, which I will giue for the life of the world.

52 Then the Iewes stroue among themselues, saying, How can this man giue vs his flesh to eate?

53 Then Iesus said vnto them, Uerily, verily I say vnto you, Except yee eate the flesh of the Sonne of man, and drinke his blood, ye haue x no life in you.

AFter these things, Iesus walked in Galile, and would not walke in Iudea: for the Iewes sought to kill him.

6 Then Iesus said vnto them, My time is not yet come: but your time is alway readie.

7 The world cannot hate you: but mee it hateth, b because I testifie of it, that the workes thereof are euill.

b Why the world hateth Christ.

8 Goe ye vp vnto this feast: I will c not goe vp yet vnto this feast: for my time is not yet fulfilled.

c Christ doeth not vtterly deny that he would go to the feast, but signifieth that as yet he was not fully determined.

9 ¶ These things he sayd vnto them, and abode still in Galile.

10 But assoone as his brethren were gone vp, then went he also vp vnto the feast, not openly, but as it were priuily.

11 Then the Iewes sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?

12 And much murmuring was there of him among the people. Some said, He is a good man: other said, Nay: but he deceiueth the people.

13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him for feare of the d Iewes.

d These were the heads of the people, who did enuy Christ.

14 Now when halfe the feast was done, Iesus went vp into the Temple and taught.

15 And the Iewes marueiled, saying, Howe knoweth this man the ‖ Scriptures, seeing that he neuer learned?

‖ Or, letters.

16 Iesus answered them, and sayd, My doctrine is not e mine, but his that sent me.

e In that, that he is man onely,

17 If any man will doe his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speake of my selfe.

f By this marke we may know whether the doctrine be of God or of man.

18 He f that speaketh of himselfe, seeketh his owne glorie: but he that seeketh his glorie that sent him, the same is true, and no g vnrighteousnesse is in him.

26 And beholde, hee speaketh ‖ openly, and they say nothing to him: doe the rulers knowe in deede that this is the verie Christ?

‖ Or, freely.

27 Howbeit we knowe this man whence he is: but when the Christ commeth, no man shall know whence he is.

28 ¶ Then cried Iesus in the Temple as he taught, saying, Yee k both knowe me, and know whence I am: yet am I not come of my selfe, but he that sent me, is true, whom ye know not.

k He speaketh this, as it were scornefully.

29 But I know him: for I am of him, and he hath sent me.

30 Then they sought to take him, but no man layd handes on him, because his houre was not yet come.

31 Now many of the people l beleeued in him, and said, When the Christ commeth, will he do moe miracles then this man hath done?

l They were well minded to heare him, which preparation is here called (although improperly) faith.

32 The Pharises heard that the people murmured these things of him, and the Pharises and high Priests sent officers to take him.

AND Iesus went into the mount of Oliues.

2 And early in the morning came againe into the Temple, & all the people came vnto him, and he sate downe, and taught them.

3 Then the Scribes and the Pharises brought vnto him a woman taken in adulterie, and set her in the middes,

4 And sayd vnto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 *Now Moses in the Law commanded vs, that such should be stoned: what sayest thou therefore?

6 And this they sayd to tempt him, that they might haue wherof to a accuse him. But Iesus stouped downe, and with his finger wrote on the ground.

7 And while they continued asking him, he lift himselfe vp, and said vnto them, *Let him that is among you without sinne, cast the first stone at her.

8 And againe he stouped downe, and wrote on the ground.

9 And when they heard it, being accused by their owne conscience, they went out one by one, beginning at the eldest euen to the last: so Iesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the middes.

10 When Iesus had lift vp himselfe againe, and sawe no man, but the woman, hee sayde vnto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She sayd, No man, Lord. And Iesus sayde, b Neither doe I condemne thee: goe and sinne no more.

12 Then spake Iesus againe vnto them, saying, I *am the light of the worlde: hee that followeth me, shall not walke in darkenesse, but shall haue the ‖light of life.

13 The Pharises therefore sayde vnto him, Thou beareſt recorde of thy selfe: thy record is not true.

14 *Iesus answered, and said vnto them, c Though I beare record of my selfe, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, & whither I go: but ye cannot tell d whence I come, and whither I goe.

15 Ye iudge after the flesh: e I iudge no man.

16 And if I also iudge, my iudgement is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.

17 And it is also written in your Lawe, *that the testimonie of two men is true.

18 I am f one that beare witnesse of my selfe, and the Father that sent mee, beareth witnesse of me.

19 Then sayde they vnto him, Where is thy Father? Iesus answered, Ye neither knowe mee, nor my Father. If ye had knowen me, ye should haue knowen my Father also.

20 These words spake Iesus in ‖ the treasurie, as he taught in the Temple, and no man layd hands on him: for his houre was not yet come.

21 Then sayde Iesus againe vnto them, I goe my way, and ye shall seeke me, and shall die in your h sinnes. Whither I goe, can ye not come.

22 Then sayde the Iewes, Will hee kill himselfe, because hee sayth, Whither I goe, can ye not come?

23 And he said vnto them, i Ye are from beneath: I am from aboue: ye are of this worlde: I am not of this worlde.

24 I sayde therefore vnto you, That ye shall die in your sinnes: for except yee beleeue, that I am hee, ye shall die in your sinnes.

25 Then sayde they vnto him, Who art thou? And Iesus sayde vnto them, ‖ Euen the same thing that I sayd vnto you k from the beginning.

26 I haue many things to say, and to iudge of you: but hee that sent mee is true, and the things that I haue heard of him, those speake I to the worlde.

27 They vnderstood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then sayd Iesus vnto them, When yee haue l lift vp the Sonne of man, then shall ye m knowe that I am n hee, and that I doe nothing of my selfe, but as my father hath taught me, so I speake these things.

29 For he that sent me is with mee: the Father hath not left mee alone, because I doe alwayes those things that please him.

30 ¶ As he spake these things, many beleeued in him.

31 Then said Iesus to the Iewes which beleeued in him, If yee continue in my word, ye are verily my disciples, 32 And shall knowe the trueth, and the trueth o shall make you free.

33 They answered him, p Wee be Abrahams seede, and were neuer bonde to any man: why sayest thou then, Ye shalbe made free?

34 Iesus answered them, Verily, verily I say vnto you, that whosoeuer committeth sinne, is the *seruant of sinne.

35 And the seruant abideth not in the house for euer: but the Sonne abideth for euer.

36 If the Sonne therfore shall make you free, ye shall be free in deede.

37 I q know that ye are Abrahams seede, but ye seeke to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.

38 I speake that which I haue seene with my Father: and ye doe that which ye haue seene with your father.

CHAP. IX.

1 Of him that was borne blinde. 11 The confession of him that was borne blinde. 39 To what blinde men Christ giueth sight.

AND as Iesus passed by, hee sawe a man which was blind from his birth.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sinne, this man or his parents, that he was borne blind?

3 Iesus answered, * Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents, but that the works of God should be shewed on him.

4 I must worke the workes of him that sent mee, while it is b day: the night commeth, when no man can worke.

5 As long as I am in the world, * I am the light of the world.

6 Assoone as hee had thus spoken, hee c spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and anointed the eyes of the blinde with the clay,

7 And sayd vnto him, Goe wash in the poole of Siloam (which is by interpretation, d Sent) He went his way therefore and washed, and came againe seeing.

8 Now the neighbours and they that had seene him before, when he was blinde, sayde, Is not this he that sate and begged?

9 Some sayde, This is hee: and others said, He is like him: but he himselfe saide, I am he.

10 Therefore they sayd vnto him, Howe were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered, and said, The man that is called Iesus, made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and sayde vnto mee, Goe to the poole of Siloam, and wash. So I went and washed, and receiued sight.

12 Then they saide vnto him, Where is he? He said, I cannot tell.

13 ¶ They brought to the Pharises him that was once blind.

14 And it was the Sabbath day, when Iesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then againe the Pharises also asked him, how he had receiued sight. And he said vnto them, Hee layde clay vpon mine eyes, and I washed, and doe see.

16 Then sayde some of the Pharises, This man is not of God, because hee keepeth not the Sabbath day. Others sayde, How can a man that is a sinner, doe such miracles? and there was a dissention among them.

17 Then spake they vnto the blinde againe, What sayest thou of him, because hee hath opened thine eyes? And he sayd, He is a Prophet.

18 Then the Iewes did not beleeue him (that he had beene blinde, and receiued his sight) vntill they had called the parents of him that had receiued sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your sonne, whom ye say was borne blinde? How doeth he now see then?

20 His parents answered them, and said, We know that this is our sonne, and that he was borne blind:

21 But by what meanes hee nowe seeth, wee knowe not: or who hath opened his eyes, e can wee not tell: hee is olde ynough: aske him: he shall answere for himselfe.

22 These wordes spake his parents, because a God doeth not alwayes punish men for their sinnes.

b When opportunitie & the season serueth. Chap. 1.9. and 8. 12. and 12.35.

c This was not for any vertue that was in the earth, in the spettle, or in the clay, to make one see: but it onely pleased him to vse these signes and meanes.

d Hereby was prefigured the Messias, who should be sent vnto them.

e They durst not speake the trueth for feare they should be excommunicate.

cause they feare the Iewes: for the Iewes had ordained already, that if any man did confesse that hee was the Christ, hee should bee excommunicate out of the Synagogue.

23 Therefore said his parents, He is olde ynough: aske him.

f That is, consider that nothing is hid from God: therefore tell vs the trueth, that God may be glorified thereby, Iosh.7.19. 1.Sam.6.5.

24 Then againe called they the man that had bene blinde, and sayd vnto him, f Giue glory vnto God: we know that this man is a sinner.

g He spake this in mockerie.

25 Then he answered, and said, Whether hee bee a sinner or no, g I can not tell: one thing I know, that I was blinde, and now I see.

h They ought either to driue him from the trueth, or to make him swarue by their oft times examining him: which practise Satans members euer doe obserue in examining the Christians.

26 h Then said they to him againe, What did hee to thee? howe opened hee thine eyes?

27 Hee answered them, I haue tolde you already, and yee haue not heard it: wherefore would you heare it againe? i will ye also be his disciples.

i He derideth their wilfull malice an dignorance.

28 Then checked they him, and said, Be thou his disciple: we be Moises disciples.

29 We know that God spake with Moses: but this man we know not from whence he is.

k They doubted not of his countrey or parents, but of his office and authoritie.

30 The man answered, and saide vnto them, Doubtles this is a meruelous thing, that yee k know not whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.

31 Now ye know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his wil, him heareth he.

l Or, wicked men contemners of God, and such as delight in sinne.

32 Since the worlde began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was borne blinde.

33 If this man were not of God, he could haue done nothing.

34 They answered and sayde vnto him, Thou art altogether borne in sinnes, and doest thou teach vs? so they cast him out.

35 Iesus heard that they had ‖cast him out: and when he had found him, he sayde vnto him, Doest thou beleeue in the Sonne of God?

‖Or, excommunicate him.

36 He answered and sayde, Who is hee, Lord, that I might beleeue in him?

37 And Iesus sayd vnto him, Both thou hast seene him, and he it is that talketh with thee.

38 Then hee sayd, Lord, I beleeue, and m worshipped him.

m As all astonished hee fell downe and worshipped him.

39 And Iesus sayde, I am come vnto n iudgement into this worlde, that they which see not, might see: and that they * which see, might be made blinde.

n Meaning, with rule & authority, to make the poore blinde to see, & the proud seers blinde.

40 And some of ỳ Pharisees which were with him, heard these things, and sayd vnto him, Are we blinde also?

41 Iesus sayde vnto them, If yee were blinde, o yee should not haue sinne: but now ye say, We see: therefore your sinne remayneth.

o You should not be so much in fault.

1 Christ is the true shepheard, and the Doore. 19 Diuers opinions of Christ. 24 Hee is asked if he be Christ. 32 His workes declare that he is God. 34 The Princes called gods.

VErily, verily I say vnto you, Hee that entreth not in by the doore into ỳ sheepefolde, but climeth vp another way, he is a theefe, and a robber.

2 But hee that goeth in by the doore, is the shepheard of the sheepe.

3 To him the porter openeth, and the sheepe heare his voyce, and hee a calleth his owne sheepe by name, and leadeth them out.

a That is, there is mutual agreement and confesse of faith between the pastour and the sheepe.

4 And when he hath sent forth his owne sheepe, he goeth before them, and the sheepe follow him: for they know his voyce.

b He meaneth all the false prophets, who led not mē to Christ but from him.

5 And they wil not follow a stranger, but they flee from him: for they knowe not the voyce of strangers.

c He shalbe sure of his life.

6 This parable spake Iesus vnto them: but they vnderstoode not what things they were which he spake vnto them.

Isa.40.11. Ezek.34.23.

7 Then sayde Iesus vnto them againe, Verely, verily I say vnto you, I am the doore of the sheepe.

d Christ knoweth his because he loueth them, careth and prouideth for them.

8 All, b that euer came before mee, are theeues and robbers: but the sheepe did not heare them.

e As the Father cannot forget him, no more can he forget vs.

9 I am the doore: by me if any man enter in, he shalbe saued, and shall c go in and goe out, and finde pasture.

f In that he loueth and approueth me.

12 But an hireling, and hee which is not the sheepheard, neither the sheepe are his owne, seeth the woolfe comming, and he leaueth the sheepe, and fleeth, and the wolfe catcheth them, and scattereth the sheepe.

13 So the hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheepe.

14 I am the good shepheard, and d know mine, and am knowen of mine.

15 e As the father f knoweth me, so know I the Father: and I lay downe my life for my sheepe.

16 g Other sheepe I haue also, which are not of this fold: them also must I bring, and they shall heare my voyce: and * there shall be one sheepefolde, and one shepheard.

k Which was builded againe after the paterne of that which Salomon builded.

17 h Therefore doeth my Father loue mee, because * I lay downe my life, that I might take it againe.

18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it downe of my selfe: I haue power to lay it downe, and haue power to take it againe: this * commandement haue I receiued of my Father.

19 ¶ There was a diuision againe among the Iewes for these sayings.

20 And many of them sayde, Hee hath a deuill, and is mad: why heare ye him?

21 Other sayd, These are not the wordes of him that hath a deuil: can the deuill open the eyes of the blinde?

22 And it was at Ierusalem the i feast of the * Dedication, and it was winter.

23 And Iesus walked in the Temple, in k Solomons porch.

26 But ye beleeue not: l for ye are not of my sheepe, as I sayd vnto you.

27 My sheepe heare my voice, & I know them, and they follow me, 28 And I giue vnto them eternall life, and they shall neuer perish, neither shall any plucke them out of mine hand.

m Whereby we learne how safely we are preserued against all dangers.

29 My Father which gaue them me, is m greater then all, and none is able to take them out of my Fathers hand.

30 I and my Father are one.

31 * Then the Iewes againe tooke vp stones, to stone him.

Chap. 8. 59.

32 Iesus answered them, Many good workes haue I shewed you from my Father: for which of these workes doe ye stone me?

33 The Iewes answered him, saying, For the good worke wee stone thee not, but for blasphemie, and that thou being a man, makest thy selfe God.

Psal. 82. 6.

34 Iesus answered them, Is it not written in your Law, * I said, ye are n gods?

n Meaning, of princes & rulers, who for their office sake are called gods, and are made here in earth as his Lieutenants: wherefore if this noble title be giuen to man, much more it appertained to him that is the Sonne of God equall with his Father.

35 If hee called them gods, vnto whom the word of God was giuen, and the Scripture cannot be broken, 36 Say ye of him, whom the Father hath sanctified, and sent into the worlde, Thou blasphemest, because I sayde, I am the Sonne of God?

37 If I doe not the workes of my Father, beleeue me not.

38 But if I doe, then though ye beleeue not me, yet beleeue the workes, that yee may know and beleeue that the Father is in mee, and I in him.

39 Againe they went about to take him: but he escaped out of their hands, 40 And went againe beyond Iordan, into the place where Iohn first baptized, and there abode.

o Whereby they gathered that Christ was more excellent then Iohn.

41 And many resorted vnto him, & sayd, Iohn did o no miracle: but all things that Iohn spake of this man, were true.

42 And many beleeued in him there.

CHAP. XI.

43 Christ raiseth Lazarus from death. 47 The hie Priestes and Pharises gather a counsell against him. 50 Caiaphas prophesieth. 54 Christ getteth him out of the way.

AND a certaine man was sicke, named Lazarus of Bethania, the towne of Mary, and her sister Martha.

Chap. 12. 3. matth. 26. 7.

2 (And it was that * Mary which annointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feete with her haire, whose brother Lazarus was sicke.)

a For although he died, yet being restored so soone to life, it was almost no death in comparison.

3 Therefore his sisters sent vnto him saying, Lorde, behold, hee whom thou louest, is sicke.

4 When Iesus heard it, hee sayd, This sicknesse is not a vnto death, but for the glory of God, that the Sonne of God might bee glorified thereby.

5 Now Iesus loued Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 And after hee had heard that hee was sicke, yet abode he two dayes still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that, sayd hee to his disciples, Let vs goe into Iudea againe.

8 The disciples sayd vnto him, Master, the Iewes lately sought to * stone thee, and doest thou goe thither againe?

Chap. 7. 30. & 8. 59. and 10. 31.

9 Iesus answered, Are there not b twelue houres in the day? if a man walke in the day, he stumbleth not, because hee seeth the light of this world.

b He that walketh in his vocation, & hath the light of God for his guide, needeth to feare no dangers. The day also, both summer and winter was with the Iewes deuided into xii. houres.

10 But if a man walke in the night, hee stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things spake hee, and after he sayd vnto them, Our friend Lazarus sleepeth: but I goe to wake him vp.

12 Then sayd his disciples, Lord, if hee sleepe, he c shall be safe.

c They laboured to stay Christ from going into Iudea, as though there had bene no neede.

13 Howbeit, Iesus spake of his death: but they thought that hee had spoken of the ‖ naturall sleepe.

14 Then sayd Iesus vnto them plainely, Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes, that I was not there, that yee may beleeue: but let vs goe vnto him.

16 Then sayd Thomas (which is called d Didymus) vnto his fellow disciples, Let vs also goe, that we may die with him.

d Which signifieth in ourtongue, a twin in birth.

17 Then came Iesus, and found that hee had lyen in the graue foure dayes already.

18 (Now Bethania was neere vnto Ierusalem, about e fifteene furlongs off.)

e Which were almost two mile.

19 And many of the Iewes were come to Martha and Mary to comfort them for their brother.

20 Then Martha, when shee heard that Iesus was comming, went to meete him: but Marie sate still in the house.

21 Then sayd Martha vnto Iesus, Lord, if thou hadst bene here, my brother had not bene dead.

22 But now f I knowe also, that whatsoeuer thou askest of God, God will giue it thee.

f Shee sheweth some faith, which notwithstanding was almost ouercome by her affections.

23 Iesus sayd vnto her, Thy brother shal rise againe.

24 Martha said vnto him, I know that he shall rise againe in the reiurrection at the last day.

25 Iesus sayd vnto her, g I am the resurrection and the life: he that beleeueth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he liue.

g Christ restoreth vs from death to giue vs euerlasting life.

26 And whosoeuer liueth, and beleeueth in me, shall neuer die. Beleeuest thou this?

27 Shee sayd vnto him, Yea, Lord, I beleeue that thou art the Christ the Sonne of God, which should come into the world.

28 Then when she had so sayd, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 And when she heard it, she arose quickly, and came vnto him.

30 For Iesus was not yet come into the towne, but was in the place where Martha met him.

31 The Iewes then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they sawe h Wherein she declared her affection, and reuerence that she bare to Christ.

sawe Marie, that shee rose vp h hastily, and went out, followed her, saying, Shee goeth vnto the graue, to weepe there.

32 Then when Marie was come where Iesus was, and sawe him, shee fell downe at his feete, saying vnto him, Lorde, if thou hadst beene heere, my brother had not beene dead.

33 When Iesus therefore saw her weepe, and the Iewes also weepe, which came with her, he i groned in the spirit, and was troubled in himselfe, i For compassion: for he felt our miseries as though he suffered the like.

34 And sayd, Where haue ye layed him? They sayd vnto him, Lord, come and see.

35 And Iesus k wept.

k We reade not that his affections were so excessiue that he kept no measure, as we doe in our sorowes, ioyes, and other affections.

36 Then sayd the Iewes, Beholde, how he loued him.

37 And some of them sayd, Could not hee, which opened the eyes of the blinde, haue made also that this man should not haue died?

38 Iesus therefore againe groned in himselfe, and came to the graue. And it was a caue, and a stone was layd vpon it.

39 Iesus sayd, Take ye away the stone. Martha the sister of him that was dead, sayd vnto him, Lord, he stinketh already: for he hath been dead foure dayes.

40 Iesus sayd vnto her, Sayd I not vnto thee, that if thou didst beleeue, thou shouldest see the l glory of God?

l That is, a miracle whereby Gods Name should be glorified.

41 Then they tooke away the stone from the place where the dead was layed. And Iesus lift vp his eyes, and sayd, Father, I thanke thee, because thou hast heard me.

42 I knowe that thou hearest mee alwayes, but because of the people that stand by, I sayd it, that they may beleeue that thou hast sent me.

43 As hee had spoken these things, hee cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come foorth.

44 Then he that was dead, came foorth, bound hand and foot with bands, and his face was bound with a napkin. Iesus sayd vnto them, Loose him, and let him go.

45 Then many of the Iewes which came to Marie, and had seene the things which Iesus did, beleeued in him.

46 But some of them went their way to the Pharises, and tolde them what things Iesus had done.

47 Then gathered the high Priests, and the Pharisees a councell, and sayd, What shall we doe? For this man doeth many miracles.

m They resist God, thinking to hinder his worke by their owne policies.

48 If m wee let him thus alone, all men will beleeue in him, and the Romanes will come, and take away both our place, and the nation.

n Or, for that present time.

49 Then one of them, named Caiaphas, which was the high Priest n that same yeere, sayd vnto them, Ye perceiue nothing at all, o God made him to speake, neither could his impietie let Gods purpose, who caused this wicked man euen as he did Balaam, to be an instrument of the holy Ghost.

50 Nor yet doe you consider that it is expedient for vs, that one man die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 This spake he not of himselfe: but being high Priest that same yeere he o prophesied that Iesus should die for the nation:

52 And not for the nation onely, but that hee should gather together in one the children of God, which were scattered.

53 Then from that day forth they consulted together, to put him to death.

54 Iesus therefore walked no more openly among the Iewes, but went thence vnto a country nere to the wildernesse, into a citie called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

55 ¶ And the Iewes Passeouer was at hand, and many went out of the country vp to Ierusalem before the Passeouer, to p purifie themselues.

p Because they thought hereby to make themselues more holy against they should eat the Passeouer: but they were not commanded by God to vse this ceremonie.

56 Then sought they for Iesus, and spake among themselues, as they stoode in the Temple, What thinke ye, that he commeth not to the feast?

57 Nowe both the high Priests and the Pharises had giuen a commandement, that if any man knewe where he were, he should shewit, that they might take him.

4 Then sayd one of his disciples, euen Iudas Iscariot Simons sonne, which should betray him,

5 Why was not this ointment solde for b three hundreth pence, and giuen to the poore?

6 Now hee sayd this, not that hee cared for the poore, but because hee was a theefe, and * had the bagge, and bare that which was giuen. Chap. 13. 29.

7 Then sayd Iesus, Let her alone: against the day of my burying she kept it.

8 For the poore alwayes yee haue with you, but me ye shall not haue alwayes.

9 Then much people of the Iewes knewe that hee was there: and they came, not for Iesus sake onely, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom hee had raised from the dead.

10 The high Priests therefore consulted, that they might put Lazarus to death also, 11 Because that for his sake many of the Iewes went away, and beleeued in Iesus.

12 ¶ * On the morrowe a great multitude that were come to the feast, when they heard that Iesus shoulde come to Ierusalem, Matt. 21. 8. mar. 11. 8. luke 19. 35.

13 Tooke braunches of palme trees, and went forth to meete him, and cryed, c Hosanna, Blessed is the King of Israel that cõmeth in the name of the Lord.

14 And Iesus found a d yong asse, and sate thereon as it is written, 15 *Feare not, daughter of Sion: behold, thy king commeth sitting on an asses colt.

16 But his disciples understood not these things at the first: but when Iesus was glorified, thẽ remembred they, that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things vnto him.

17 The people therefore that was with him, bare witnesse that hee called Lazarus out of the graue, and raysed him from the dead.

18 Therefore met him the people also, because they heard that hee had done this miracle.

19 And the Pharises sayde among themselues, Perceiue ye howe yee preuaile nothing? Beholde, the ‖ worlde goeth after him.

20 ¶ Now there were certaine ◦ Greeks among them that came vp to worshippe at the feast.

21 And they came to Philip, which was of Bethsaida in Galile, & desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Iesus.

22 Philip came and told Andrewe: and againe Andrewe and Philip told Iesus.

23 And Iesus answered them, saying, The houre is come, that the Sonne of man must be f glorified.

24 Verily, verily I say vnto you, except the wheate corne fall into the ground and die, it bideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruite.

26 *If any man serue mee, let him follow me: for where I am, there shall also my seruant bee: and if any man serue mee, him will my Father honour.

27 Nowe is my soule troubled: and what shall I say? Father, saue mee from this houre: but therefore came I vnto this houre.

28 Father, glorifie thy Name. Then came there a voyce from heauen, saying, I haue both glorified it, and will glorifie it againe.

29 Then sayde the people that stoode by and heard, that it was a thunder: others said, An Angell spake to him.

30 Iesus answered, and sayde, This voyce came not because of mee, but for your sakes.

31 Nowe is the i iudgement of this worlde: nowe shall the prince of this worlde bee cast out.

32 *And k I, if I were lift vp from the earth, will draw l all men vnto me.

33 Nowe this sayd hee, signifying what death he should die.

34 The people answered him, We haue heard out of the *Lawe, that the Christ bideth for euer: and how sayest thou, that the Sonne of man must bee lift vp? who is that Sonne of man?

35 Then Iesus sayd vnto them, Yet a litle while is *the light with you: walke while ye haue light, lest the darkenesse come vpon you: for he that walketh in the darke, knoweth not whither he goeth. Chap.1.9.

36 While yee haue light, beleeue in the light, that ye may be as children of the light. These things spake Iesus, and departed, and hid himselfe from them.

37 ¶ And though hee had done so many miracles before them, yet beleeued they not on him:

38 That the saying of Esayas the Prophet might be fulfilled, that he sayd, *Lord, who beleeued our report? And to whome is the m arme of the Lord reuealed? Isa.53.1.rom.10.16.

39 Therefore could they not beleeue, because that Esaias saith againe,

2 And when [b] supper was done (& that the deuil had now put in the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simons sonne, to betray him)

3 Jesus knowing that ỹ Father had giuen all things into his handes, and that hee was come from God, and went to God,

4 He riseth from supper and layeth aside his vpper garment, and tooke a towell, and girded himselfe.

5 After that, he powred water into a basin, & began to wash the disciples feete, and to wipe them with the towell, wherewith he was girded.

6 Then came he to Simon Peter, who said to him, Lord, doest thou wash my feete?

7 Jesus answered and sayde vnto him, What I doe, thou knowest not now: but thou shalt know it hereafter.

8 Peter sayd vnto him, Thou shalt neuer wash my feete. Jesus answered him, If I [c] wash thee not, thou shalt haue no part with me.

9 Simon Peter sayde vnto him, Lorde, not my feete onely, but also the handes and the head.

10 Jesus sayde to him, Hee that is washed, needeth not, saue to [d] wash his feete, but is cleane euery whit: and ye are [*] cleane, but not all.

11 For he knew who should betray him: therefore said he, Ye are not all cleane.

12 ¶ So after he had washed their feete, and had taken his garments, and was set downe againe, he said vnto them, Know yee what I haue done to you?

13 Ye call me Master, and Lorde, and ye say well: for so am I.

14 If I then your Lord, & Master, haue washed your feete, yee also ought to wash [e] one anothers feete.

15 For I haue giuen you an example, that ye should doe, euen as I haue done to you.

16 Verily, verily I say vnto you, * The seruant is not greater then his master, neither the ambassadour greater then hee that sent him.

17 If yee know these things, blessed are ye, if ye doe them.

18 ¶ I speake not of you all: I knowe whome I haue chosen: but it is that the Scripture might be fulfilled, * Hee that eateth bread with mee, hath [f] lift vp his heele against me.

19 From henceforth tell I you before it come, that when it is come to passe, yee might beleeue that I am [g] he.

20 * Verely, verely I say vnto you, If I send any, hee that receiueth him, receiueth me, and he that receiueth mee, receiueth him that sent me.

21 When Jesus had said these things, he was [h] troubled in the spirite, and [i] testified, and sayd, Verely, verily I say vnto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 * Then the disciples looked one on an other, doubting of whom he spake.

23 Now there was one of his disciples, which leaned on Jesus [k] bosome, whom Jesus loued.

24 To him beckened therefore Simon Peter, that hee should aske who it was of whom he spake.

25 * He then, as he leaned on Jesus breast, sayd vnto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Jesus answered, He it is, to whom I shal giue a sop, when I haue dipped it: and he wet a soppe, and gaue it to Judas Iscariot, Simons sonne.

27 And after the soppe, [l] Satan entred into him. Then sayd Jesus vnto him, That thou doest, doe quickly.

28 But none of them that were at table, knewe, for what cause he spake it vnto him.

29 For some of them thought because Judas had the bagge, that Jesus had sayde vnto him, Buy those things that wee haue need of against the feast: or that hee should giue some thing to the poore.

30 Assoone then as hee had receiued the soppe, hee went immediatly out, and it was night.

31 ¶ When he was gone out, Jesus said, [m] Now is the Sonne of man glorified, and God is glorified in him.

32 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorifie him in himselfe, & shall straightway glorifie him.

33 Litle children, yet a little while am I with you: yee shall seeke me, but as I sayde vnto the * Iewes, Whither I goe, can yee not come: also to you say I now, 34 * [n] A new commandement giue I vnto you, that yee loue one another: as I haue loued you, that ye also loue one another.

35 By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye haue loue one to another.

36 Simon Peter sayd vnto him, Lorde, whither goest thou? Jesus answered him, Whither I goe, thou canst not follow mee now: but thou [o] shalt follow me afterwards.

37 Peter sayd vnto him, Lorde, why can I not follow thee now? * I will lay downe my life for thy sake.

38 Jesus answered him, Wilt thou lay downe thy life for my sake? Verily, verily I say vnto thee, The Cocke shall not crow, till thou haue denied me thrise.

19 Yet a little while, and the worlde shall see me no more, but ye shall see mee: because I liue, ye shall liue also.

21 He that hath my commaundements, and keepeth them, is he that loueth me: and he that loueth mee, [n] shalbe loued of my Father: and I will loue him, and will shewe mine owne selfe to him.

22 Iudas sayd vnto him (not [o] Iscariot) Lord, what is the cause that thou wilt shew thy selfe vnto vs, and not vnto the world?

23 Iesus answered, and sayde vnto him, If any man loue mee, hee will [p] keepe my worde, and my Father will loue him, and we will come vnto him, and will dwell with him.

24 Hee that loueth mee not, keepeth not my wordes, and the worde which yee heare is not [q] mine, but the Fathers which sent mee.

25 These things haue I spoken vnto you, being present with you.

26 But the Comforter, which is the holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my Name, hee shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, which I haue tolde you.

6 The sweet consolation, & mutual loue betweene Christ & his members vnder the parable of the vine. 18 Of their common afflictions and persecutions. 26 The office of the holy Ghost, and the Apostles.

I Am the true vine, and my Father is an husbandman.

2 * Euery branch that beareth not fruit in me, hee taketh away: and euery one that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit. Matth.15.13.

3 * Now are ye cleane through the word which I haue spoken vnto you. Chap.13.10.

4 Abide in me, and I in you: as the branch can not beare fruit of it selfe, except it abide in the vine, no more can yee [a] except ye abide in me.

5 I am the vine: ye are the branches: he that abideth in mee, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me can ye do nothing.

6 If a man abide not in mee, hee is cast forth as a branch and withereth: and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they burne.

7 If ye abide in mee, and my [b] wordes abide in you, aske [c] what ye will, and it shalbe done to you.

8 Herein is my Father glorified, that ye beare much fruit, and bee made my disciples.

9 As the Father hath loued mee, so haue I loued you: continue in [d] my loue.

THese things haue I sayd vnto you, that ye should not be a offended.

2 They shall ‡ excommunicate you: yea, the time shall come, that whosoeuer killeth you, will thinke that he doeth God seruice.

3 And these things will they doe vnto you, because they haue not knowen the Father, nor me.

4 But these things haue I told you, that when the houre shal come, ye might remember, that I told you them. And these things b sayde I not vnto you from the beginning, because I was with you.

5 But now I goe my way to him that sent me, & none of you asketh me, c Whither goest thou?

6 But because I haue sayd these things vnto you, your hearts are full of sorrow.

7 Yet I tell you the trueth, It is expedient for you that I goe away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come vnto you: but if I depart, I will send him vnto you.

8 And when he is come, he wil d reproue the world of sinne, and of righteousnesse, and of iudgement:

9 Of e sinne, because they beleeue not in me:

10 Of f righteousnesse, because I goe to my Father, and ye shall see me no more.

11 Of g iudgement, because the prince of this world is iudged.

12 I haue yet h many things to say vnto you, but yee cannot beare them now.

13 Howbeit, when hee is come which is the Spirite of trueth, he will leade you into all trueth: for hee shall not speake of himselfe, but whatsoeuer he shall heare, shall hee speake, and hee will shew you the things i to come.

14 He shal glorifie me: for he shal receiue of mine, and shall shew it vnto you.

15 All things that the Father hath, are mine: therefore sayd I, that he shall take of mine, and shew it vnto you.

16 k A little while, and ye shall not see me: and againe, a little while, and ye shall see me: for I l goe to my Father.

17 Then said some of his disciples among themselues, What is this that he sayth vnto vs, A little while, and ye shall not see me, and againe, a little while, and ye shall see me, and, For I goe to my Father?

18 They sayd therefore, What is this that he sayth, A little while? we knowe not what he sayth.

19 Now Iesus knewe that they would aske him, and sayd vnto them, Do ye enquire among your selues, of that I sayd, A little while, and yee shall not see me: and againe a little while, and ye shall see me?

20 Verely, verely I say vnto you, that ye shall weepe and lament, and the world shall reioyce: & ye shal sorow, but your sorrow shal be turned to ioy.

4 I haue d glorified thee on the earth: I haue finished the worke which thou gauest me to doe.

d As well by doctrine as miracles.

5 And nowe glorifie mee, thou Father, with thine owne selfe, with the glory which I had with thee before the world was.

6 I haue declared thy Name vnto the men which thou gauest me out of the world: e thine they were, and thou gauest them me, and they haue kept thy word.

7 Now they know that all things whatsoeuer thou hast giuen me, are of thee.

i But are separated by the spirit of regeneration.

15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou keepe them from euill.

16 They are not of the world, as I am not of the worlo.

17 k Sanctifie them with thy trueth: thy word is trueth.

k Or, consecrate them to thy selfe.

18 As thou didst send me into the world, so haue I sent them into the world.

19 And for their sakes sanctifie I my selfe, that they also may be l sanctified through the trueth.

k Renew them with thine heauenly grace, that they onely may seeke thy will.

l Which thing declareth that Christs holinesse is ours.

20 I pray not for these alone, but for them also which shall beleeue in me through their word, 21 That they all may be one, as thou, O Father, art in mee, and I in thee: euen that they may be also one in vs, that the m world may beleeue that thou hast sent me.

m That the infidels may by experience be conuicted to confesse my glory.

22 And the glory that thou gauest mee, I n haue giuen them, that they may be one, as we are one, n I haue shewed them the example and patterne of perfit felicity. Chap. 12.26.

23 I in them, and thou in mee, that they may be made perfit in one, & that the world may know that thou hast sent mee, and hast loued them, as thou hast loued me.

24 * Father, I wil that they which thou hast giuen me, bee o with mee euen where I am, that they may behold my glory, which thou hast giuen me: for thou louedst mee before the foundation of the world.

o That they may profit, and grow vp in such sort, that in the end they may enioy the eternall glory with me.

25 O righteous Father, the world also hath not knowen thee, but I haue knowen thee, and these haue knowen that thou hast sent me.

26 And I haue declared vnto them thy Name, and will declare it, that the loue wherewith thou hast loued mee, may bee in them, and I in them.

p For without him we cannot comprehend the loue wherewith God loueth vs.

CHAP. XVIII.

3 Christ is betrayed. 6 The wordes of his mouth smite the officers to the ground. 10 Peter smiteth off Malchus eare. 13 Iesus is brought before Annas and Caiaphas. 25 Where Peter denieth him. 36 He telleth Pilate what his kingdome is.

WHen Iesus had spoken these things, hee went forth with his disciples ouer the a brooke * Cedron, where was a garden, into the which hee entred, and his disciples.

a Which was a deepe valley through y which a streame ran after a great raine. 1. King. 15.13. matt. 26.36. mar. 14.32. luk. 22.39

2 And Iudas which betrayed him, knew also the place: for Iesus oft times resorted thither with his disciples.

3 *Iudas then after hee had receiued a b band of men & officers of the high Priests, & of the Pharisees, came thither with lanterns, and torches, and weapons.

b The which he had obteined of the gouernour of the Temple.

4 Then Iesus knowing all things that should come vnto him, went forth and sayd vnto them, Whom seeke ye?

5 They answered him, Iesus of Nazaret. Iesus sayd vnto them, I am hee. Nowe Iudas also which betrayed him, stood with them.

6 Assoone then as he had sayd vnto them, I am hee, they went backwards, and fell to the ground.

7 Then hee asked them againe, Whom seeke ye? And they sayd, Iesus of Nazaret.

8 Iesus answered, I sayd vnto you, that I am he: therefore if yee seeke mee, let these goe their way.

9 This was that the word might bee fulfilled which he spake, *c Of them which thou gauest me, haue I lost none.

Chap.17.12.

c He both spareth their bodies and also saueth their soules.

10 Then Simon Peter hauing a sword, drew it, and smote the high Priests seruant, and cut off his right eare. Now the seruants name was Malchus.

11 Then sayd Iesus vnto Peter, Put vp thy sword into the sheath: shall I not drinke of the cup which my Father hath giuen mee?

12 Then the band and the captaine, and the officers of the Iewes tooke Iesus, and bound him,

13 And led him away to* d Annas first (for hee was father in lawe to Caiaphas, which was the hie Priest e that same yeere)

Luke 3.2.

d Who sent Christ vnto Caiaphas the high Priest bound.

e Although this office was for terme of life by Gods ordinance, yet the ambition and dissention of the Iewes caused the Romans from time to time to change it, either for briberie or fauour.

14 *And Caiaphas was hee that gaue counsell to the Iewes, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 ¶ *Now Simon Peter followed Iesus and another disciple, and that disciple was knowen of the hie Priest: therefore hee went in with Iesus into the hall of the high Priest.

16 But Peter stoode at the doore without. Then went out the other disciple, which was knowen vnto the hie Priest, and spake to her that kept the doore, and brought in Peter.

17 Then sayde the mayde that kept the doore vnto Peter, Art not thou also one of this mans disciples? he sayd, I am not.

Chap.11.50. Matth.26.58. mar.14.54. luke 22.54.

18 And the seruants and officers stoode there, which had made a fire of coales: for it was colde, and they warmed themselues. And Peter also stoode among them, and warmed himselfe.

19 ¶ (The high Priest then asked Iesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

f That is, frankly and plainely.

20 Iesus answered him, I spake f openly to the worlde: I euer taught in the Synagogue and in the Temple, whither the Iewes resort continually, and in secret haue I sayd nothing.

21 Why askest thou me? aske them which heard me what I sayd vnto them: beholde, they know what I sayd.

22 When he had spoken these things, one of the officers which stoode by, smote Iesus with his rod, saying, Answerest thou the hie Priest so?

23 Iesus answered him, If I haue euill spoken, beare witnesse of the euill: but if I haue well spoken, why smitest thou me?

24 ¶ *Now Annas had g sent him bound vnto Caiaphas the hie Priest.

Matth.26.57. marke 14.53. luke 22.54.

25 * And Simon Peter stoode and warmed himselfe, and they sayd vnto him, Art not thou also of his disciples? Hee denied it, and sayd, I am not.

26 One of the seruants of the hie Priest, his cousin, whose eare Peter smote off, sayd, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27 Peter then denied againe, and immediatly the cocke crew.

28 ¶ * Then led they Iesus from Caiaphas into the common hall. Nowe it was morning, and they themselues went not into the common hall, lest they should be h defiled, but that they might eate the Passeouer.

Act.10.28. and 11.3.

29 Pilate then went out vnto them, and sayd, What accusation bring ye against this man?

30 They answered, and sayd vnto him, If he were not an euill doer, we would not haue deliuered him vnto thee.

31 Then sayde Pilate vnto them, Take h yee him, and iudge him after your owne Law. Then the Iewes sayd vnto him, It is not i lawfull for vs to put any man to death.

h He spake this disdainefully, because they were so bent against all right and equity.

i As if they should say, Thou wilt not suffer vs to doe it: for he knew that it was not permitted to them by the Romans to punish with death.

32 It was that the word of Iesus* might be fulfilled which he spake, signifying what death he should die.

Matth.20.19.

33 * So Pilate entred into the common hall againe, and called Iesus, and sayd vnto him, Art thou the King of the Iewes?

Matth.27.11. marke 15.2. luke 23.3.

34 Iesus answered him, Sayest thou that of thy selfe, or did other tell it thee of me?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Iew? Thine owne nation, and the high Priestes haue deliuered thee vnto mee. What hast thou done?

36 Iesus answered, My kingdome is not of this k worlde: if my kingdome were of this world, my seruaunts would surely fight, that I should not be deliuered to the Iewes: but nowe is my kingdome not from hence.

k It standeth not in strength of men nor in worldly defence.

37 Pilate then sayd vnto him, Art thou a King then? Iesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king: for this cause am I borne, and for this cause came I into the worlde, that I should beare witnes vnto the truth: euery one that is of the truth, heareth my voice.

l This was a mocking and disdainefull question.

38 Pilate sayde vnto him, l What is truth? And when he had layd that, he went out againe vnto the Iewes, and sayd vnto them, I finde in him no cause at all.

Matth.27.15. marke 15.6. luke 23.17.

39 * But you haue a m custome, that I should deliuer you one loose at the Passeouer: will yee then that I loose vnto you the King of the Iewes?

m This was one of their blinde abuses: for the Lawe of God gaue no libertie to quit a wicked transgresser. Acts 3.14.

40 * Then cried they all againe, saying, Not him, but Barabbas: now this Barabbas was a murtherer.

*Matth.*27.27. *mar.*15.16,17.

THen * Pilate tooke Iesus and [a] scourged him.

a He thought to haue pacified the fury of the Iewes by some indifferent correction.

2 And the souldiers platted a crowne of thornes, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple garment,

3 And sayd, Haile, King of the Iewes. And they smote him with their rods.

4 Then Pilate went foorth againe, and sayd vnto them, Behold, I bring him foorth to you, that yee may know, that I finde no fault in him at all.

b He spake in mockerie, because Christ called himselfe King.

5 Then came Iesus foorth wearing a crowne of thornes, and a purple garment. And Pilate sayd vnto them, [b] Beholde the man.

6 Then when the high Priests and officers saw him, they cried, saying, Crucifie, crucifie him. Pilate sayd vnto them, Take ye him and crucifie him: for I finde no fault in him.

c Christ was in deed the Sonne of God, & therefore might iustly call himselfe so without breach of the Lawe: wherefore their coloured accusation was falsly applied.

7 The Iewes answered him, We haue a lawe, and by our lawe hee ought to die, because hee made himselfe the [c] Sonne of God.

8 ¶ When Pilate then heard that word, he was the more afrayd, 9 And went againe into the common hall, and said vnto Iesus, Whence art thou? But Iesus gaue him none answere.

d Hereby hee sheweth him, that he ought not to abuse his office and authoritie.

10 Then sayd Pilate vnto him, Speakest thou not vnto mee? Knowest thou not that I haue power to crucifie thee, and haue power to loose thee?

11 Iesus answered, Thou couldest haue no [d] power at all against mee, except it were giuen thee from aboue: therefore hee that deliuered mee vnto thee hath the greater sinne.

e A place somewhat high and raised vp.
f Which was mid-day.

12 From thencefoorth Pilate sought to loose him, but the Iewes cried, saying, If thou deliuer him, thou art not Cesars friend: for whosoeuer maketh himselfe a King, speaketh against Cesar.

13 ¶ When Pilate heard that worde, hee brought Iesus foorth, and sate downe in the iudgement seat in a place called the [e] Pauement, and in Hebrewe, Gabbatha.

14 And it was the preparation of the Passeouer, and about the [f] sixt houre: and hee sayde vnto the Iewes, Beholde your King.

15 But they cried, Away with him, away with him, crucifie him. Pilate sayde vnto them, Shall I crucifie your King? The high Priests answered, Wee haue no King but Cesar.

16 Then deliuered hee him vnto them to be crucified. * And they tooke Iesus, and led him away.

*Matth.*27.32. marke 15.21. luke 23.26.

17 And he bare his crosse, and came into a place named of dead mens skulles, which is called in Hebrew, [g] Golgotha:

g Which was the place of execution.

18 Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Iesus in the midst.

19 ¶ And Pilate wrote also a title, and put it on the crosse, and it was written, IESVS OF NAZARET THE KING OF THE IEWES.

20 This title then read many of the Iewes: for the place where Iesus was crucified was nere to the city: and it was written in [h] Hebrew, Greeke, and Latine.

h Because all nations might vnderstand it.

21 Then sayde the high Priestes of the Iewes to Pilate, Writte not, the King of the Iewes, but that he sayd, I am King of the Iewes.

22 Pilate answered, What I haue written, I haue written.

23 ¶ Then the * souldiers, when they had crucified Iesus, tooke his garments, and made foure parts, to euery souldier a part, and his coat: and the coat was without seame, wouen from the toppe throughout.

*Matth.*27.35. marke 15.24. luke 23.34.

24 Therefore they sayde one to another, Let vs not diuide it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be. This was that the [i] scripture might be fulfilled, which sayth, * They parted my garments among them, and on my coat did cast lots. So the souldiers did these things in deed.

i That which was prefigured in Dauid, was accomplished in Iesus Christ. *Psal.*22,18.

25 ¶ Then stoode by the crosse of Iesus his mother, and his mothers sister, Marie the wife of ‖ Cleopas, and Marie Magdalene.

‖ Or, Clopas.

26 And when Iesus saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom hee loued, he sayd vnto his mother, Woman, beholde thy sonne.

Psal 69.22.

27 Then sayd he to the disciple, Beholde thy mother: and from that houre the disciple tooke her home vnto him.

k Or, fattened it vpon an hyssope

28 ¶ After, when Iesus knewe that all things were performed, that the * Scripture might be fulfilled, he sayd, I thirst.

l It may appeare that the crosse was not hie, seeing a man might reach Christes mouth with an hyssope stalke, which as appeareth, 1. Kings 4.33. was the lowest among herbs, as the cedar was highest among trees.

29 And there was set a vessell full of vineger: and they filled a spunge with vineger, and [k] put it about [l] an hyssope stalke, and put it to his mouth.

30 Now when Iesus had receiued of the vineger, he sayd, [m] It is finished, and bowed his head, and gaue vp the ghost.

m Mans saluation is perfected by the onely sacrifice of Christ: and all the ceremonies of the Law are ended.

31 The Iewes then (because it was the [n] Preparation, that the bodies should not remaine vpon the crosse on the Sabbath day: for that Sabbath was an [o] hie day) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken downe.

n Because the day of the Passeouer fell on the Sabbath day.

32 Then came the souldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other, which was crucified with Iesus.

33 But when they came to Iesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs.

o Which declareth that he was dead in deed, as he rose againe from death to life.

34 But one of the souldiers with a speare [p] pierced his side, and foorthwith came there out blood and water.

Exod. 12.46. *numb.*9.12. *Zech.*12,10.

35 And hee that saw it, bare record, and his record is true: and he knoweth that hee sayth true, that ye might beleeue it.

36 For these things were done, that the * Scripture should be fulfilled, Not a bone of him shall be broken.

37 And againe another Scripture sayth, * They shall see him whome they haue thrust thrust through.

Matth.27.57. mark.15.42.43. luke 23.50.51. 38 *And after these things Joseph of Arimathea, (who was a Disciple of Jesus, but secretly for feare of the Jewes) besought Pilate that he might take down the body of Jesus. And Pilate gaue him licence. He came then and tooke Jesus body.

p That is to say, before Christes death, but now he declareth him selfe manifestly. Chap.2.3.

39 And there came *also Nicodemus (which first came to Jesus by night) and broughtof myrrhe and aloes mingled together about an hundreth pound.

q This honourable buriall was as a preparation and entrie vnto the resurrection.

40 q Then tooke they the body of Jesus, and wrapped it in linnen clothes with the Odours, as the maner of the Jewes is to burie.

41 And in that place where Jesus was crucified, was a garden, and in the garden a newe sepulchre, wherein was neuer man yet layd.

42 There then layde they Jesus, because of the Jewes Preparation day, for the sepulchre was neere.

1 Marie Magdalene commeth to the sepulchre 3 So do Peter and Iohn. 12 The two Angels appeare. 27 Christ appeareth to Marie Magdalene, 19 And to all his disciples. 25 The incredulitie of Thomas. 28 His confession.

Mar.16.1. luke.24.1.

NOwe * the first day of the weeke came Marie Magdalene, earely when it was yet a darke, vnto the sepulchre, and sawe the stone taken away from the tombe.

a She departed from home before day, and came thither about the sunne rising, Mar.16.2.

2 Then shee ranne, and came to Simon Peter, and to the other Disciple, whome Jesus loued, and sayde vnto them, They haue taken away the Lorde out of the sepulchre, and wee knowe not where they haue layde him.

3 Peter therefore went foorth, and the other Disciple, and they came vnto the sepulchre.

4 So they ran both together, but the other Disciple did outrunne Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And he stouped downe, and sawe the linnen clothes lying: yet went he not in.

6 Then came Simon Peter following him, and went into the Sepulchre, and sawe the linnen clothes lie,

‖Or, napkin.

7 And the ‖ kerchiefe that was vpon his head, not lying with the linnen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by it selfe.

b That is, Iohn which wrote this Gospel.

8 Then went in also the b other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he sawe it, and c beleeued.

c He beleeued that Christes body was taken away, according as Mary reported.

9 For as yet they knewe not the Scripture, that he must rise againe from the dead.

10 And the Disciples went away againe vnto their ‖ owne home.

‖Or, to their companie. Matth.28.1. mark.16.5.

11 C*But Marie stoode without at the sepulchre weeping: and as shee wept, shee bowed herselfe into the sepulchre, 12 And sawe two angels in white, sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feete, where the body of Jesus had layen.

13 And they sayd vnto her, Woman, Why weepest thou? She sayde vnto them, They haue taken away my Lord, and I know not where they haue layd him.

14 When she had thus sayde, shee turned her selfe backe, and saw Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus.

15 Jesus saith vnto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whome seekest thou? Shee supposing that he had bene the gardiner, sayd vnto him, Sir, if thou hast borne him hence, tell me where thou hast layd him, and I will take him away.

16 Jesus saith vnto her, Mary, Shee turned her selfe, and sayde vnto him, Rabboni, which is to say, Master.

17 Jesus sayth vnto her, Touch mee not: for I am not yet d ascended to my Father, but go to my e brethren, and say vnto them, I ascend vnto my Father, and to your Father, and to my God, and your f God.

d Because she was too much addicted to the corporall presence, Christ rescheth her to lift vp her minde by faith into heauen, where onely after his Ascension he remaineth, and where we sit with him at the right hand of the father.

e That is, the disciples: for he was the first borne among many brethren, Psal.22.22,23. rom.8.29. colosſ.1.18.

f He is our father and our God, because Jesus Christ is our brother. Mar.16.14. luke 24.36 1 cor.15.5

18 Marie Magdalene came and tolde the Disciples, that shee had seene the Lorde, and that he had spoken these things vnto her.

19 C*The same day then at night, which was the first day of the weeke, and when the g doores were shut where the Disciples were assembled for feare of the Jewes, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and sayd to them, h Peace be vnto you.

g So that no man opened him the doores, but by his diuine power he causeth them to open of their owne accord, as of Peter is read, Acts 5.19. and 12.10.

20 But when he had so said, he shewed vnto them his handes, and his side. Then were the Disciples glad, when they had seene the Lord.

h Or, all prosperitie: which maner of greeting the Iewes vsed.

21 Then sayde Jesus vnto them againe, Peace be vnto you: as my Father sent me, so send I you.

22 And when he had sayd that, he i breathed on them, and sayde vnto them, Receiue the holy Ghost.

i To giue them greater power and vertue to execute that weightie charge that he would commit vnto them. Matth.18.18.

23 *Whosoeuers sinnes ye remit, they are remitted vnto them: and whosoeuers sinnes ye retaine, they are retained.

24 C But Thomas one of the twelue, called Dydymus, was not with them when Jesus came.

25 The other disciples therefore said vnto him, we haue seene the Lord: but he said vnto them, Except I see in his handes the print of the nayles, and put my finger into the ‖ print of the nayles, and put mine hand into his side I will not beleeue it.

26 C And eight dayes after, againe his Disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Then came Jesus whe the doores were shut, and stood in the mids, and sayd, Peace be vnto you.

27 After, saide hee to Thomas, Put thy finger here, and see my hands, and put forth thine hand and put it into my side, and be not faithlesse but faithfull.

28 Then Thomas answered, and sayde vnto him, Thou art my k Lord, and my God.

29 Jesus said vnto him, Thomas, because thou hast seene me, thou beleeuest: blessed are they that haue l not seene, and haue beleeued.

l Or, seene.

30 C*And many other signes also did Jesus in the presence of his Disciples, which are not written in this booke.

31 But these things are written, that yee might beleeue, that Jesus is the Christ the Sonne of GOD, and that in beleeuing yee might haue life through his Name.

CHAP. XXI.

8 Christ appeareth to his disciples againe. 15 He commaundeth Peter earnestly to feed his sheepe. 18 He forewarneth him of his death. 25 Of Christes manifold miracles.

AFter these things, Iesus shewed himselfe againe to his disciples at the ‖ sea of Tiberias: and thus shewed he himselfe.

‖ Or, lake of Genesareth.

2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas which is called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galile, and the sonnes of Zebedeus, and two other of his disciples.

3 Simon Peter said vnto them, I goe a fishing. They sayd vnto him, We also will goe with thee. They went their way, and entred into a ship straight way, and that night caught they nothing.

4 But when ỹ morning was now come, Iesus stood on the shore: neuertheles the disciples knew not that it was Iesus.

‖ Or, children.

5 Iesus then said vnto them, ‖ Sirs, haue ye any meat? They answered him, No.

6 Then he said vnto them, Cast out the net on the right side of the ship, and yee shall finde. So they [a] cast out and they were not able at all to drawe it for the multitude of fishes.

7 Therefore said the disciple whom Iesus loued vnto Peter, It is the Lord. When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girded his [b] coate to him (for he was naked) and cast himselfe into the sea.

8 But the other disciples came by shippe (for they were not farre from land, but about two hundreth cubites) and they drew the net with fishes.

9 As soone then as they were come to land, they saw hote coales, & fish layd thereon and bread.

10 Iesus sayd vnto them, Bring of the fishes, which ye haue now caught.

11 Simon Peter stepped forth and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundreth fiftie and three: and albeit there were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 Iesus said vnto them, Come, and dine. And none of the disciples durst aske him, Who art thou, seeing they knew that he was the Lord.

13 Iesus then came, and tooke bread, and gaue them, and fish likewise.

14 This is now the third time that Iesus shewed himselfe to his disciples, after that he was risen againe from the dead.

15 ¶ So when they had dined, Iesus sayd to Simon Peter, Simon the sonne of Iona, [c] louest thou me more then these? He said vnto him, Yea Lord, thou knowest that I loue thee. Hee sayde vnto him, Feede my lambes.

16 He said to him againe the second time, Simon the sonne of Iona, louest thou mee? He sayd vnto him, Yea Lord, thou knowest that I loue thee. He said vnto him, Feed my sheepe.

17 He sayd vnto him the [d] third time, Simon the sonne of Iona, louest thou me? Peter was sory because he said to him the third time, Louest thou me: and sayde vnto him, Lord, thou knowest all things: thou knowest that I loue thee. Iesus said vnto him, Feed my sheepe.

18 Verily, verily I say vnto thee, When thou wast yong, thou girdedst thy selfe and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt bee olde, thou shalt stretch forth thine hands, and another shal [e] gird thee, and lead thee whither thou wouldest not.

19 And this spake he, signifying by what death hee should glorifie God. And when hee had sayd this, he sayd to him, Folow me.

20 Then Peter turned about, and sawe the disciple whom Iesus loued, following, which had also * leaned on his breast at supper, and had said, Lord, which is he that betraieth thee?

21 When Peter therefore sawe him, hee sayde to Iesus, Lorde, what shall this man doe?

22 Iesus sayd vnto him, If I will that he tarie till I come, what is it to thee? follow thou me.

23 Then went this word abroad among the brethren, that this disciple should not die. Yet Iesus sayd not to him, He shall not die: but if I will that he tarie till I come, what is it to thee?

24 This is that disciple which testifieth of these things and wrote these things, and we know that his testimonie is true.

25 * Nowe there are also many other things which Iesus did, the which if they should be written every one, [f] I suppose the world could not containe the bookes that should be written, Amen.

a Albeit they knew him not, yet they folowed his counsell, because they had all night taken paines in vaine.

b It was some linnen garment which fishers vsed to weare, which being trussed vnto him, couered his nether parts, and also letted not his swimming.

c The Minister cannot wel teach his congregation, except he loue Christ effectually, which loue is not in them that feed not the flocke.

d Because Peter should be established in his office of an Apostle, Christ causeth him by these three times confessing, to wipe away the shame of his three times denying.

e In stead of a girdle, thou shalt be tied with bands & coards: and whereas now thou goest at libertie, then thou shalt be drawen to punishment, when thy flesh shall after a sort resist.

written by Luke the Euangelist.

THE ARGVMENT.

CHrist after his ascension performed his promise to his Apostles, and sent them the holy Ghost, declaring thereby, that hee was not onely mindfull of his Church, but would bee the head and maintainer thereof for euer. Wherein also his mightie power appeareth, who notwithstanding that Satan and the world resisted neuer so much agaynst this noble worke, yet by a few simple men of no reputation, replenished all the world with the sound of his Gospell. And here in the beginning of the Church, and in the increase thereof, wee may plainely perceiue the practise and malice which Satan continually vseth to suppresse and ouerthrowe the Gospell: he raiseth conspiracies, tumults, commotions, persecutions, slaunders, and all kinde of crueltie. Againe wee shall here behold the prouidence of God, who ouerthroweth his enemies enterprises, deliuereth his Church from the rage of tyrants, strengtheneth and encourageth his most valiantly and constantly to follow their captaine Christ, leauing as it were by this history a perpetuall memory to the Church, that the crosse is so ioyned with the Gospel, that they are fellowes inseparable, and that the end of one affliction, is but the beginning of another. Yet neuertheleſſe God turneth the troubles, perſecutions, impriſonings and tentations of his to a good iſſue, giuing them as it were, in ſorow, ioy: in bonds freedome: in priſon, deliuerance: in trouble, quietneſſe: in death, life. Finally, this booke containeth many excellent Sermons of the Apoſtles and diſciples, as touching the death, reſurrection, and aſcenſion of Christ. The mercy of God. Of the grace and remiſſion of ſinne through Ieſus Christ. Of the bleſſed immortalitie. An exhortation to the miniſters of Christes flocke. Of repentance, and feare of God, with other principall points of our faith: ſo that this onely hiſtory in a maner may be ſufficient to inſtruct a man in all true doctrine and Religion.

CHAP. I.

7 The words of Christ and his Angels to the Apoſtles. 9 His aſcenſion. 14 VVherein the Apoſtles are occupied till the holy Ghoſt be ſent. 26 And of the election of Matthias.

THE former treatiſe, O Theophilus, of all that Ieſus began to [a] do, and teach,

2 Until the day, that hee was taken vp, after that he through the holy Ghoſt, had giuen [b] commandements vnto the [c] Apoſtles, whom he had choſen:

3 To whom alſo hee preſented himſelfe aliue after that he had ſuffered, by many infallible tokens, being ſeene of them by the ſpace of fourtie dayes, and ſpeaking of thoſe things which appertaine to the [d] kingdome of God.

4 And when hee had [e] gathered them together, he commanded them that they ſhould not depart from Ieruſalem, but to waite for the promiſe of the father, *which, ſaid he, yee haue heard of me.

5 *For Iohn in deed baptized with water, but ye ſhall bee baptized with the [f] holy Ghoſt within theſe few dayes.

6 When they therefore were come together, they aſked of him, ſaying, Lorde, wilt thou [g] at this time reſtore the kingdome to Iſrael?

7 And he ſaid vnto them, It is not for you to know the [h] times, or the ſeaſons, which the Father hath put in his owne power,

8 But yee ſhall receiue power of the holy Ghoſt, when he ſhal come on you: and ye ſhal bee [i] witneſſes vnto mee both in Ieruſalem, and in all Iudea, and in Samaria, and vnto the [k] vttermoſt part of the earth.

9 *And when he had ſpoken theſe things, while they beheld, hee was [l] taken vp: for a cloud tooke him vp out of their ſight.

10 And while they looked ſtedfaſtly toward heauen, as hee went, beholde, [m] two men ſtood by them in white apparell, 11 Which alſo ſaide, Yee men of Galile, why ſtand yee [n] gazing into heauen? This Ieſus which is taken vp from you into heauen, ſhall [o] ſo come, as ye haue ſeene him goe into heauen.

12 ¶ Then returned they vnto Ieruſalem from the mount that is called the mount of Oliues, which is neere to Ieruſalem, containing a [p] Sabbath dayes iourney.

13 And when they were come in, they went vp into an vpper chamber, where abode both Peter, and Iames, and Iohn, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartlemew and Matthewe, Iames the ſonne of Alphæus, and Simon Zelotes, and Iudas Iames brother.

14 Theſe all continued with one [q] accord in [r] prayer and ſupplication with the ‖ women, and Mary the mother of Ieſus, and with his brethren.

15 ¶ And in thoſe dayes Peter ſtoode vp in the middes of the diſciples, and ſayne, (nowe the number of ‖ names that were in one place, were about an hundreth and twentie)

16 Ye men and brethren, this [s] Scripture muſt needes haue bene fulfilled, which the *holy Ghoſt by the mouth of Dauid ſpake before of Iudas, which was *guide to them that tooke Ieſus.

17 For hee was numbred with vs, and had obtained ‖ fellowſhip in this miniſtration.

18 Hee therefore hath purchaſed a fielde with the [t] reward of iniquitie: and when he *had throwen downe himſelfe headlong, he haſt aſunder in the mids, and all his bowels guſhed out.

19 And it is knowen vnto all the inhabitants of Ieruſalem, inſomuch that that field is called in their owne language, Aceldama, that is, The field of blood.

20 For it is written in the booke of Pſalmes, *Let his habitation be voyde, and let no man dwell therein: *alſo, Let another take his ‖ charge.

21 Wherefore, of theſe men which haue companied with vs, all the time that the Lord Ieſus was ‡ conuerſant among vs, 22 *Beginning from the Baptiſme of Iohn, vnto the day that hee was taken vp from vs, muſt one of them be made a witnes with vs of his [u] reſurrection.

23 And they preſented two, Joſeph called Barſabas, whoſe ſurname was Juſtus, and Matthias.

24 And they prayed, ſaying, Thou Lorde which knoweſt the hearts of all men, ſhewe whether of theſe two [x] thou haſt choſen, that he that ſhould take in hand that excellent office of an Apoſtle, might be choſen by the authoritie of God.

postles.

CHAP. II.

3 The Apostles hauing receiued the holy Ghost, make their hearers astonished. 14 When Peter had stopped the mouthes of the mockers, hee sheweth by the visible graces of the holy Spirite, that Christ is come. 41 He baptizeth a great number that were conuerted. 42 The godly exercise, charitie, and diuers vertues of the faithfull.

a The holy Ghost was sent when much people was assembled in Ierusalem, at the feast, Exo. 23. 16. Leuit. 23. 16. Deut. 16. 9. because the thing might not onely be knowen there, but also through the world.

AND when the a day of Pentecost was come, they were b all with one accord in one place.
2 And * suddenly there came a sound from heauen, as of a rushing and mightie c winde, and it filled al the house where they sate.
3 And there appeared vnto them clouen d tongues, like e fire, and it sate vpon each of them.
4 And they were all filled with the holy Ghost, and beganne to speake with other tongues, as the spirit gaue them ‖ vtterance.
5 And there were dwelling at Ierusalem Iewes, men that feared God, of euery nation vnder heauen.
6 Now when this was f noised, the multitude came together, and were astonied, because that euery man heard them speake his owne language.
7 And they wondered all, and marueil-led, saying among themselues, Behold, are not all these which speake, of Galile?
8 How then heare wee euery man our owne g language, wherein we were borne?
9 Parthians, and Medes, and Ela-mites, and the inhabitants of Mesopotamia, and of Iudea, and of Cappadocia, of Pontus, and Asia,
10 And of Phrygia, and Pamphylia, of Egypt, and of the parts of Lybia, which is beside Cyrene, and ‖ strangers of Rome, and h Iewes, and i Proselytes, 11 Cretes, and Arabians: we heard them speake in our owne tongues the wonderfull workes of God.
12 They were all then amazed, and doubted, saying one to another, What may this bee?
13 And others k mocked, and sayd, They are full of ‖ new wine.
14 ¶ But Peter standing with the eleuen, lift vp his voyce, and said vnto them, Ye men of Iudea, and ye all that inhabite Ieru-salem, bee this knowen vnto you, and hearken vnto my words.
15 For these are not drunken, as yee suppose, since it is but the l third houre of the day.
16 But this is that, which was spoken
by the l Prophet * Ioel,
17 And it shall be in the last dayes, sayeth God, I will powre out of my Spirit vpon all m flesh, and your sonnes, and your daughters shall prophesie, and your yong men shall see visions, and your n olde men shall dreame dreames.
18 And on my seruantes, and on mine handmaides I will o powre out of my Spi-rite in those dayes, and they shall prophesie.
19 And I will shewe wonders in heauen aboue, and tokens in the earth beneath, blood, and fire, and the vapour of smoke.
20 * The p Sunne shall bee turned into darkenesse, and the Moone into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lorde come.
21 And it shall be, * that whosoeuer shall call on the q Name of the Lord, shall bee saued.
22 Ye men of Israel, heare these words, Iesus of Nazaret, a man approoued of God among you with great workes, and wonders, and signes, which God did by him in the middes of you, as yee your selues also know:
23 Him, I say, haue ye taken by the hands of r the wicked, being deliuered by the s de-terminate counsell, and ‖ foreknowledge of God, and haue crucified and slaine:
24 Whom God hath raised vp, and loosed the t sorowes of death, because it was vn-possible that he should be holden of it.
25 For Dauid sayeth concerning him, * I beheld the Lord alwayes before mee: for hee is at my u right hand, that I should not bee shaken.
26 Therefore did mine heart reioyce, and my tongue was glad, and moreouer also my flesh shall rest in x hope, 27 Because thou wilt not leaue my ‖ soule in graue, neither wilt suffer thine holy one to ‖ see corruption.
28 Thou hast shewed mee the y wayes of life, and shalt make mee full of ioy with thy countenance.
29 Men & brethren, I may boldly speake vnto you of the Patriarke Dauid, * that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre remaineth with vs vnto this day.
30 Therefore, seeing he was a z Prophet, and knewe that God had * sworne with an othe to him, that of the fruite of his loynes hee would raise vp Christ concerning the flesh to set him vpon his throne, 31 Hee knowing this before, spake of the resurrection of Christ, that * his ‖ soule should not be left in a graue, neither his flesh should ‖ see corruption.
32 This Iesus hath God raised vp, whereof we all are witnesses.

33 Since then that he by the [b] right hand of God hath bene exalted, and hath [c] receiued of his Father the promiſe of the holy Ghoſt, he hath ſhed forth this which yee now ſee and heare.

34 For Dauid is not aſcended into heauen, but hee ſaieth, * The Lord ſayd to my Lord, [d] Sit at my right hand, 35 Vntill I [e] make thine enemies thy footeſtoole.

36 Therefore, let all the houſe of Iſrael know for a ſurety that God hath [f] made him both Lord and Chriſt, this Ieſus, I ſay, whom ye haue crucified.

37 Nowe when they heard it, they were pricked in their hearts, and ſaid vnto Peter and the other Apoſtles, Men and brethren, what ſhall we doe?

38 Then Peter ſayd vnto them, Amend your liues, and be baptized euery one of you in the name of Ieſus Chriſt for the remiſſion of ſinnes: and ye ſhall receiue the [h] gift of the holy Ghoſt.

39 For the promiſe [i] is made vnto you, and to your children, and to all that are afarre off, euen as many as the Lorde our God ſhall call.

40 And with many other words he || beſought, and exhorted them, ſaying, Saue your ſelues from this froward generation.

41 Then they that gladly receiued his word, were baptized: & the ſame day, there were added to the Church about three thouſand || ſoules.

42 And they continued in the Apoſtles doctrine and [k] fellowſhip, and [l] breaking of bread, and prayers.

43 ¶ And feare came vpon euery ſoule: and many wonders and ſignes were done by the Apoſtles.

44 And all that beleeued were in one place, and had all things * common.

45 And they ſold their poſſeſſions & [m] goods, and parted them to al men, as euery one had need.

46 And they continued daily with one accord in the Temple, * and [n] breaking bread || at home, did eate their meat together with gladneſſe and ſingleneſſe of heart, 47 Praiſing God, and had fauour with all the people: and the Lord added to the Church [o] from day to day, ſuch as ſhould bee ſaued.

7 The lame is reſtored to his feete, 12 Peter preacheth Chriſt vnto the people.

NOw Peter and Iohn went vp together into the Temple, at the [a] ninth houre of prayer.

[a] Which is with vs, three a clocke after noone, which was their euening ſacrifice, at which the Apoſtles were preſent to teach that the ſhadowes of the Law were aboliſhed by that Lambe that tooke away the ſinnes of the world.

2 And a certaine man which was a creeple from his mothers wombe was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the Temple called Beautifull, to aſke [b] almes of them that entred into the Temple.

3 Who ſeeing Peter and Iohn, that they would enter into the Temple, deſired to receiue an almes.

4 And Peter earneſtly beholding him with Iohn, ſayd, Looke on vs.

5 And he gaue heed vnto them, truſting to receiue ſome thing of them.

6 Then ſaid Peter, Siluer and gold haue I none, but ſuch as I [c] haue, that giue I thee: In the [d] Name of Ieſus Chriſt of Nazaret, riſe vp, and walke.

7 And hee tooke him by the right hand, and lift him vp, and immediatly his feet and ankle bones receiued ſtrength.

8 And he leaped vp, ſtood, and walked, and entred with them into the Temple, walking and leaping, and praiſing God.

9 And all the people ſaw him walke, and praiſing God,

10 And they knew him that it was hee which ſate for the almes at the Beautifull gate of the Temple, and they were amazed, and ſore aſtonied at that which was come vnto him.

11 ¶ And as the creeple which was healed, held Peter and Iohn, all the people ran amazed vnto them in the porch which is called Solomons.

12 So when Peter ſawe it, he anſwered vnto the people, Yee men of Iſrael, why marualle yee at this? or why looke yee ſo ſtedfaſtly on vs, as though by our owne [e] power or godlineſſe, we had made this man goe?

13 The God of Abraham, and Iſaac, and Iacob, * the God of our Fathers hath glorified his Sonne Ieſus, whom yee betrayed, and denied in the preſence of Pilate, when hee had iudged him to bee deliuered.

14 * But yee denied the holy one and the iuſt, and deſired a [f] murtherer to bee giuen you, 15 And killed the Lord of life, whom God hath raiſed from the dead, whereof wee are witneſſes.

16 And his [g] Name hath made this man ſound, whom yee ſee, and knowe, through faith in * his || Name: and the faith which is by him, hath giuen to him this diſpoſition of his whole body in the preſence of you all.

17 And now, brethren, I know [h] that through ignorance yee did it, as did alſo your [i] gouernours.

18 But thoſe things which God before had ſhewed by the mouth of all his Prophets, that Chriſt ſhould ſuffer, he hath thus fulfilled.

19 Amend your liues therefore, and turne, that your ſinnes may be put away, when the time of refreſhing [k] ſhall come from the preſence of the Lord.

20 And he ſhal ſend Ieſus Chriſt, which before was preached vnto you.

23 For it shal be, that euery person which shall not heare the Prophet, shall be destroyed out of the people.

24 Also all the Prophets from Samuel, and thencefoorth as many as haue spoken, haue like wise foretold of these dayes.

25 Ye are the o children of the Prophets, and of the couenant, which God hath made vnto our fathers, saying to Abraham, * Euen in thy seed shall all the p kinreds of the earth be q blessed.

CHAP. IIII.

3 Peter and Iohn deliuered out of prison preach the Gospel boldly. 10 They confesse plainely the Name of Christ. 16 They are commanded to preach no more in that Name. 24 They pray for the good successe of the Gospel. 32 The increase, vnitie, and charitie of the Church.

AND as they spake vnto the people, the Priests and the a Captaine of the temple, and the Sadducees came vpon them,

2 Taking it grieuously that they taught the people, and preached in Iesus Name the b resurrection from the dead.

3 And they layd hands on them, and put them in hold, vntill the next day: for it was now euentide.

4 Howbeit, many of them which heard the word beleeued, & the number of the men was about c fiue thousand.

5 ¶ And it came to passe on the morow, that their rulers and Elders, and Scribes were gathered together at Ierusalem,

6 And Annas the chiefe Priest, & Caiaphas, and Iohn, & Alexander, and as many as were of the kinred of the hie Priests.

7 And when they had set them before them, they asked, By what power, or d in what Name haue ye done this?

8 Then Peter full of the e holy Ghost, sayd vnto them, Ye rulers of the people, and Elders of Israel, 9 For asmuch as wee this day are examined of the f good deede done to the impotent man, to wit, by what meanes he is made whole.

10 Be it knowen vnto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the Name of Iesus Christ of Nazaret, whom ye haue crucified, whom God raised againe from the dead, euen by him doeth this man stand here before you whole.

11 * This is the stone cast aside of you g builders, which is become the head of the h corner.

12 Neither is there saluation in any other: for among men there is giuen none other name i vnder heauen, whereby we must be saued.

13 Nowe when they saw the boldnesse of Peter and Iohn, and vnderstood that they were vnlearned men, & without knowledge, they marueiled, and knew them, that they had bene with Iesus:

14 And beholding also the man which was healed, standing with them, they had nothing to say against it.

15 Then they commanded them to goe aside out of the Councill, and k conferred among themselues, 16 Saying, What shall we doe to these men? For surely a manifest signe is done by them, and it is openly knowen to all them that dwel in Ierusalem: and we cannot denie it.

17 But that it bee noysed no further among the people, let vs threaten and charge them that they speake hencefoorth to no man in this l Name.

18 So they called them, and commanded them, that in m no wise they should speake or teach in the name of Iesus.

19 But Peter and Iohn answered vnto them, and sayd, Whether it bee right in the sight of God, to obey you rather then God, iudge ye.

20 For we cannot but speake the things which we haue n seene and heard.

21 So they o threatened them, & let them goe, and found nothing how to punish them, because of the people: for al men praised God for that which was done.

22 For the man was aboue fourtie yeere olde, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

23 Then assoone as they were let goe, they came to their p fellowes, and shewed all that the hie Priests and Elders had said vnto them.

assembled together, and they were all ᶻ filled with the holy Ghost, & they spake the worde of God ᵃ boldly.

32 And the multitude of them that beleeued, were of one heart, & of one ᵇ soule: neither any of them saide, that any thing of that which he possessed, was his ᶜ owne, but they had all things ᵈ common.

33 And with great power gaue the Apostles witnesse of the resurrection of the Lord Iesus: and great grace was vpon them all.

ᵃ Which signified their sacrilege, distrust, and hypocrisie.

b Who mooued thy heart to sell thy possession? whereas thou turnest part to another vse, as if God did not see thy dissimulation.

c His sinne therefore was so much greater in that he committed it willingly.

d Then no man was compelled to sell his possessions, nor to put his money to the common vse.

e Because ỹ God so disposed it.

f And to mocke him as if he should not haue knowen your craftie fetch, which declareth that they do not only pronounce the sentence of damnation vpon themselues, but also prouoke the wrath of God, because they doe proue, as it were purposely, whether God be righteous and Almightie.

BVt a certaine man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, solde a possession,

2 And ᵃ kept away part of the price, his wife also being of counsel, and brought a certaine part, and laid it downe at the Apostles feete.

3 Then saide Peter, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart, that thou shouldest lie vnto the holy ᵇ Ghost, & keepe away part of the price of the possession?

4 Whiles it remained, ᶜ appertained it not vnto thee? and after it was solde, was it not in thine owne ᵈ power? howe is it that thou hast conceiued this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied vnto men, but vnto God.

5 Nowe when Ananias heard these words, he fell downe, and gaue vp the ghost. Then great feare came on all them that heard these things.

6 And the yong men rose vp, and tooke him vp, and caried him out, and buried him.

7 And it ᵉ came to passe about the space of three houres after, that his wife came in, ignorant of that which was done.

8 And Peter said vnto her, Tell me, solde ye the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Peter saide vnto her, Why haue yee agreed together, to ᶠ tempt the Spirite of the Lord? behold, the feete of them which haue buried thine husband, are at the doore, and shall cary thee out.

10 Then shee fell downe straightway at his feete, & yeelded vp the ghost: & the yong men came in, and found her dead, and caried her out, and buried her by her husband.

11 And great feare came on al ỹ Church, and on as many as heard these things.

12 Thus by the handes of the Apostles were many signes and wonders shewed among the people (and they were all with one accord in Solomons porch.

13 And of the others durst no man ioyne himselfe to them; neuertheless the people ᵍ magnified them.

14 Also the number of them that beleeued in the Lord, both of men and women, grewe more and more)

15 In so much that they brought the sicke into the streets, and laide them on beds, and couches, that at the least way the shadowe of Peter, when hee came by, might shadowe some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities rounde about vnto Ierusalem, bringing sicke folkes, and them which were vexed with vncleane spirits, who were all healed.

17 ¶ Then the chiefe Priest rose vp, and all they that were with him (which was the sect of the ʰ Sadduces) and were full of ⁱ indignation, 18 And layd handes on the Apostles, and put them in the common prison.

19 But the Angel of the Lorde by night opened the prison doores, and brought them forth, and said, 20 Goe your way and stand in the Temple, and speake to the people all the wordes ᵏ of this life.

21 So when they heard it, they entred into the Temple early in the morning, and taught. And the chiefe Priest came, and they that were with him, and called the Councell together, and all the Elders of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison, to cause them to be brought.

22 But when the officers came, & founde them not in the prison, they returned and tolde it,

23 Saying, Certainely wee founde the prison shut as sure as was possible, and the keepers ᵐ standing without before the doores: but when we had opened, wee found no man within.

24 Then when the chiefe Priest, and the captaine of the Temple, and the hie Priests heard these things, they doubted of them, whereunto this would grow.

25 Then came one and shewed them, saying, Beholde, the men that yee put in prison, are standing in the Temple, and teache the people.

26 Then went the captaine with the officers, and brought them without violence (for they feared the people, least they should haue bene stoned)

27 And when they had ˡ they set them before the Councell. The chiefe Priest asked them.

g Because of their owne euil consciences which made them to tremble: for they that were not assured of Gods mercies in Christ, were astonished at these strange iudgements.

h That is, they gaue them great praise.

i Which then were the chiefe among them.

k They were ful of blinde zeale, emulation and iclousie, in defence of their superstition.

l That is, of the liuely doctrine, whereby the way to life is declared.

m So that there was no fraud nor deceit, nor negligence: but it liuely setteth foorth the power of God and his prouidence for his.

28 Saying, Did not wee straitly commaund you, that yee should not teach in this Name? and beholde, ye haue filled o Ierusalem with your doctrine, and ye would bring this mans p blood vpon vs.

29 Then Peter and the Apostles answered, and said, We ought rather to obey God then q men.

30 The * God of our fathers hath raysed vp Iesus, whom yee slew, and hanged on a tree.

31 Him hath God lift vp with his right hande, to be a prince and a r Sauiour, to giue repentance to Israel, and forgiuenesse of sinnes.

32 And wee are his witnesses concerning these things which we say: yea, and the holy Ghost, whom God hath giuen to them that obey him.

33 Nowe when they heard it, they brast for anger, and consulted to slay them.

34 Then stood there vp in the Councel a certaine Pharise named Gamaliel, a doctor of the lawe, honoured of all the people, and commanded to put the Apostles forth a little space, 35 And saide vnto them, Men of Israel, take heede to your selues, what yee intend to doe touching these men.

36 For before these times, rose vp s Theudas boasting himselfe, to whom resorted a number of men, about a foure hundreth, who was slaine: and they all which obeyed him, were scattered and brought to nought.

37 After this man, rose vp t Iudas of Galile, in the dayes of the tribute, and drew away much people after him: hee also perished, and all that obeyed him, were scattered abroad.

38 And nowe I say vnto you, Refraine your selues from these men, & let them alone: for if this counsell, or this worke bee of men, it will come to nought:

39 But if it be of * God, yee cannot destroy it, lest yee bee founde euen fighters against God.

40 And to him they agreed, and called the Apostles: and when they had beaten them, they commaunded that they should not speake in the Name of Iesus, and let them go.

41 So they departed from the Councill, reioycing that they were counted worthy to suffer rebuke for his Name.

42 And dayly in the Temple, and from house to house they ceased not to teach, and preach Iesus Christ.

17 Then layd they their hands on them, and they receiued the holy Ghost.

18 And when Simon sawe that through laying on of the Apostles hands ỹ holy ghost was giuen, he offred them money, 19 Saying, Giue me also this power, that on whomsoeuer I lay the hands, he may receiue the holy Ghost.

20 Then layd Peter vnto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou thinkest that the gift of God may bee obtained with money.

21 Thou hast neither part nor f elowship in this businesse: for thine heart is not right in the sight of God.

26 Then the Angel of the Lorde spake vnto Philip, saying, Arise and goe toward the South vnto the way that goeth downe from Ierusalem vnto Gaza, which is n waste.

27 And he arose, & went on: and behold, a certaine o Eunuch of Ethiopia, Candaces the Queene of the Ethiopians chiefe Gouernour, who had the rule of al her treasure, and came to Ierusalem to worship:

28 And as he returned sitting in his charet, he read Esaias the Prophet.

29 Then the Spirit said vnto Philip, Go neere, and ioyne thy selfe to yonder charet.

30 And Philip ran thither & heard him read the Prophet Esaias, and sayd, But vnderstandest thou what thou readest?

34 Then the Eunuch answered Philip, and sayd, I pray thee of whom speaketh the Prophet this? of himselfe, or of some other man?

35 Then Philip t opened his mouth, and began at the same Scripture, and preached vnto him Iesus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came vnto a certaine water, and the Eunuch said, See, here is water: what doeth let mee to be baptized?

37 And Philip sayd vnto him, If thou beleeuest with u all thine heart, thou mayest. Then he answered, and said, I beleeue that Iesus Christ is the Sonne of God.

38 Then hee commaunded the charet to stand still: and they went downe both into the water, both Philip and the Eunuch, and he baptized him.

39 And assoone as they were come vp out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the Eunuch x saw him no more: so he went on his way reioycing.

2 And desired of him letters to Damascus to the Synagogues, that if he found any that were of that b way (either men or women) hee might bring them bound vnto Ierusalem.

3 Now as he iourneyed, it came to passe, that as hee was come neere to Damascus, * suddenly there shined round about him a light from heauen.

4 And he fell to the earth, and heard a voyce, saying to him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord sayd, I am Iesus whom thou persecutest: it is hard for thee to kicke against c pricks.

6 Hee then both trembling and astonied, sayd, Lord, what wilt thou that I doe? And the Lord sayd vnto him, Arise and goe into the citie, and it shall bee told thee what thou shalt doe.

7 The men also which iourneyed with him, stood amazed, hearing d his voyce, but e seeing no man.

8 And Saul arose from the ground, and opened his eyes, but f saw no man. Then led they him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus, 9 Where hee was three dayes without sight, and neither g ate nor dranke.

10 And there was a certaine disciple at Damascus named Ananias, and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he sayd, Behold, I am here, Lord.

11 Then the Lord sayd vnto him, Arise, and goe into the streete which is called Streight, and seeke in the house of Iudas after one called Saul of Tarsus: for behold, f Thou art not worthy to be of the number of the faithful.

g He was so ruinished with the vision, that he did meditate nothing but heauenly things, and therewith was satisfied.

behold, he prayeth.

12 (And he sawe in a vision a man named Ananias comming in to him, and putting his hands on him, that he might receiue his sight.)

13 Then Ananias answered, Lorde, I haue heard by many of this man, how much euill hee hath done to thy Saintes at Ierusalem, 14 Moreouer here hee hath authoritie of the hie Priestes, to bind all that call on thy Name.

15 Then the Lord sayd vnto him, goe thy way: for he is a [b] chosen vessell vnto me, to [i] beare my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel.

16 For I wil shew him, how many things he must suffer for my Names sake.

17 Then Ananias went his way, and entred into the house, and put his handes on him and sayd, Brother Saul, the Lord hath sent me (euen Iesus that appeared vnto thee in the way as thou camest) that thou mightest receiue thy sight and bee filled with the holy Ghost.

18 And immediately there fell from his eies as it had bene scales, and suddenly he receiued sight, and arose, and was baptised, 19 And receiued meate, and was strengthened. So was Saul certaine dayes with the disciples which were at Damascus.

20 And straightway hee preached Christ in the Synagogues, that he was the Sonne of God.

21 So that all that heard him, were amased, and sayd, Is not this hee that destroyed them which called on this Name in Ierusalem, and came hither for that intent, that hee should bring them bound vnto the hie Priests?

22 But Saul increased [p] more in strength, and confounded the Iewes which dwelt at Damascus, [k] confirming that this was the Christ.

23 And after [l] that many dayes were fulfilled, the Iewes tooke counsell together to kill him.

24 But their laying await was knowen of Saul: nowe they [*] [m] watched the gates day and night, that they might kil him.

25 The the disciples tooke him by night, and put him through the wall, and let him downe in a basket.

26 And when Saul was come to Ierusalem, hee assayed to ioyne himselfe with the disciples: but they were all afrayd of him, and beleeued not that hee was a disciple.

27 But Barnabas tooke him, [‡] brought him to the Apostles, and declared to them, how hee had seene the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken vnto him, and how hee had spoken boldly at Damascus in the name of Iesus.

28 And he [‡] was conuersant with [n] them at Ierusalem, 29 And spake boldly [*] in the Name of the Lorde Iesus, and spake and disputed with the [p] Grecians: but they went about to slay him.

30 But when the brethren knew it, they brought him to Cesarea, and sent him forth to [q] Tarsus.

31 Then had the Churches rest through all Iudea, and Galile, and Samaria, [r] were edified, and walked in the feare of the Lord, and were multiplied by the comfort of the holy Ghost.

32 And it came to passe, as Peter walked throughout all quarters, hee came also to the Saints which dwelt at Lydda.

33 And there he found a certaine man named Aeneas, which had kept his bed eight yeeres, and was licke of the palsie.

34 Then sayd Peter vnto him, Aeneas, Iesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise and [‖] make vp thy bed. And hee arose immediately.

35 And [s] all that dwelt at Lydda, [t] Saron saw him, and turned to the Lord.

36 There was also at Ioppa, a certaine woman a disciple named Tabitha (which by interpretation is called [u] Dorcas) shee was [‖] full of good workes and almes which shee did.

37 And it came to passe in those dayes, that she was sicke and died: and when they had [u] washed her, they layd her in an vpper chamber.

38 Now forasmuch as Lydda was neere to Ioppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent vnto him two men, desiring that hee would not delay to come vnto them.

39 Then Peter arose [‡] came with them: and when hee was come, they brought him into the vpper chamber, where all the widowes stood by him weeping, and shewing the coates [‡] garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them.

40 But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled downe, and prayed, and turned him to the body, and sayd, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes, and when she sawe Peter, sate vp.

41 Then he gaue her the hand and lift her vp, and called the [x] Saints and widowes, and restored her aliue.

42 And it was knowen throughout all Ioppa, and many beleeued in the Lord.

43 And it came to passe that he tarried many dayes in Ioppa with one Simon a [‖] tanner.

3 Cornelius admonished by the Angel, 7 Hee sendeth to Ioppa. 11 The vision that Peter sawe. 17 How he was sent to Cornelius. 44 The Gentiles also receiue the Spirit, and are baptized.

FUrthermore there was a certaine man in Cesarea called Cornelius, a captaine of the band called the Italian band,

2 A deuout man, and [a] one that feared God with all his houshold, which gaue much almes to the people, and prayed God continually.

3 He sawe in a vision euidently (about the ninth houre of the day) an Angel of God comming in to him, and saying vnto him, Cornelius.

4 But when he looked on him, he was afraid, a Who had forsaken all superstitions and gaue himselfe to the true seruice of God.

fraid, and sayd, What is it, Lord? And hee said vnto him, Thy prayers and thine almes are come [b] vp into remembrance before God.

b That is, God did accept them: whereof it followeth that he had faith: or els it is impossible to please God.

5 Now therefore sende men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter.

6 He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: [†] he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to doe.

† Hee shall speake words vnto thee whereby thou shalt be saued, and all thine house.

7 And when the Angel which spake vnto Cornelius, was departed, hee called two of his seruants, and a souldier that feared God, one of them that waited on him,

8 And told them all things, and sent them to Joppa.

9 On the morow as they went on their iourney, and drew neere vnto the citie, Peter went vp vpon the house to pray, about the [c] sixt houre.

c Which was midday.

10 Then wayed he an hungred, & would haue eaten: but while they made some thing ready, he fell into a trance.

11 And he saw heauen opened, & a certaine vessel come downe vnto him, as it had bene a great sheete, knit at the foure corners, & was let downe to the earth.

12 Wherein were [d] all maner of foure footed beasts of the earth, and wilde beasts, and creeping things, & foules of the heauen.

d As camels, horses, dogs, oxen, sheepe, swine, and such like, which man nourisheth for his vse.

13 And there came a voyce to him, Arise, Peter, kill, and eate.

14 But Peter sayd, Not so, Lord: for I haue neuer eaten any thing that is [‖] polluted or vncleane.

‖ Or, common.

15 And the voyce spake vnto him againe the second time, The things that God hath [e] purified, [f] pollute thou not.

e In taking away the difference betwixt vncleane beasts and cleane, he sheweth there is no difference betwixt the Iewes and Gentiles.

f Take it not for polluted, and impure.

16 This was so done thrise: and the vessell was drawen vp againe into heauen.

17 ¶ Now while Peter doubted in himselfe what this vision which hee had seene, meant, beholde, the men which were sent from Cornelius, had inquired for Simons house, and stoode at the gate, 18 And called, and asked whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.

19 And while Peter thought on the vision, the spirit sayd vnto him, Beholde, three men seeke thee.

20 Arise therefore, and get thee downe, and goe with them, and [g] doubt nothing: for I haue sent them.

g Then true obedience which proceedeth of faith ought to be without doubt or questioning.

21 ¶ Then Peter went downe to ỹ men, which were sent vnto him from Cornelius, and sayd, Beholde, I am he whom ye seeke: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they said, Cornelius the captaine, a iust man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the Iewes, was warned from heauen by an holy Angel, to send for thee into his house, and to heare thy words.

‖ Or, Peter.

23 Then called [‖] hee them in, and lodged them, and the next day Peter went foorth with them, and certaine brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

24 ¶ And the day after, they entred into Cesarea. Now Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsemen, and speciall friends.

25 And it came to passe, as Peter came in, that Cornelius met him, and fell downe at his feete, and [h] worshipped him.

h Shewed too much reuerence and farre passing decent order, as though Peter had bene God, 26 But Peter tooke him vp, saying, Stand vp: for euen I my selfe am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, hee came in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he sayd vnto them, Ye know that it is an vnlawfull thing for a man that is a Iewe, to company or come vnto one of an other nation: but God hath shewed me, that I should not call any man [‖] polluted, or vncleane.

‖ Or, common.

29 Therefore came I vnto you without saying nay, when I was sent for. I aske therefore, for what intent haue yee sent for me?

30 Then Cornelius sayd, Foure dayes agoe about this houre, I fasted, and at the ninth houre I prayed in mine house, and behold, a man stood before mee in bright clothing, 31 And sayde, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine almes are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter (he is lodged in the house of Simon a tanner by the Sea side) who when hee commeth, shall speake vnto thee.

33 Then sent I for thee immediatly, and thou hast well done to come. Now therefore are wee all here present before God, to heare all things that are commanded thee of God.

34 Then Peter opened his mouth, and sayd, Of a trueth I perceiue, that [*] God is no accepter of persons.

44 While Peter yet spake these wordes, the holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

45 So they of the circumcision which beleeued, were astonied, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was powred out the gift of the holy Ghost.

46 For they heard them speake with tongues, and magnifie God. Then answered Peter, 47 Can any man [a] forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which haue receiued the holy Ghost, as well as we?

48 So he commanded them to be baptized in the Name of the Lord‖. Then prayed they him to tary certaine dayes,

NOw the Apostles and the brethren that were in Iudea, heard that the Gentiles had also receiued the word of God.

2 And when Peter was come vp to Ierusalem, they of the circumcision [a] contended against him,

3 Saying, Thou wentest in to men vncircumcised, and hast eaten with them.

4 Then Peter began, and expounded the thing in order to [b] them, saying,

5 I was in the citie of Ioppa, praying, and in a trance I saw this vision, A certaine vessell comming downe as it had bene a great sheete, let downe from heauen by the foure corners, and it came to me.

6 Toward the which, when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and sawe foure footed beastes of the earth, and wilde beastes, and creeping things, and foules of the heauen.

7 Also I heard a voyce, saying vnto me, Arise, Peter: slay and eate.

8 And I said, God forbid, Lord: for nothing polluted or vncleane hath at any time entred into my mouth.

9 But the voyce answered me the second time from heauen, The things that God hath purified, pollute thou not.

10 And this was done three times, and all were taken vp againe into heauen.

11 Then behold, immediatly there were three men already come vnto the house where I was, sent from Cesarea vnto me.

12 And the Spirit said vnto mee, that I should goe with them without doubting: moreouer these sixe brethren came with mee, and we entred into the mans house.

13 And he shewed vs how he had seene an Angel in his house, which stood and said to him, Sende men to Ioppa, and call for Simon whose surname is Peter.

14 Hee shall speake woordes vnto thee, whereby both thou and all thine house shalbe saued.

15 And as I began to speake, the holy Ghost fell on them, [*] euen as vpon vs at the beginning.

16 Then I remembred the woorde of the Lorde, howe he sayde, *John baptized with water, but ye shalbe [c] baptized with the holy Ghost.

17 For as much then as God gaue them a like gift, as he did vnto vs, when wee beleeued in the Lorde Iesus Christ, who was I, that I could let God‖?

18 When they heard these things, [d] they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles graunted [e] repentance vnto life.

19 ¶ And they which were [*] scattered abroad because of the ‖ affliction that arose about Steuen, walked throughout till they came vnto Phenice and Cyprus, and Antiochia, preaching the word to no man, but vnto the Iewes onely.

20 Now some of them were men of Cyprus and of Cyrene, which when they were come into Antiochia, spake vnto the [f] Grecians, and preached the Lord Iesus.

21 And the [g] hand of the Lorde was with them, so that a great number beleeued and turned vnto the Lord.

22 Then tidings of those things came vnto the eares of the Church, which was in Ierusalem, and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should goe vnto [h] Antiochia.

23 Who when he was come and had seene the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted al, that with purpose of heart they would ‖ cleane vnto the Lord.

24 For hee was a good man, and full of the holy Ghost, and faith, and much people ioyned themselues vnto the Lord.

25 ¶ Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus to seeke Saul:

26 And when hee had founde him, hee brought him vnto Antiochia, and it came to passe, that a whole yeere they were conuersant with the Church, and taught much people, in so much, that the Disciples were first called [i] Christians in Antiochia.

27 In those dayes also came Prophetes from Ierusalem vnto Antiochia.

28 And there stoode vp one of them named Agabus, and signified by the [k] spirite, that there should bee great famine throughout all the worlde, which also came to passe vnder Claudius Cesar.

a Who was called Agrippa the sonne of Aristobulus: he was nephew vnto Herode the great, and brother of Herodias,

2 And hee killed Iames the [b] brother of Iohn with the sword.

3 And when he sawe that it [c] pleased the Iewes, hee proceeded further to take Peter also (then were the dayes of vnleauened bread.)

4 And when he had caught him, he put him in prison, and deliuered him, to [d] foure quaternions of souldiours to be kept, intending after the Passeouer to bring him foorth to the people.

5 So Peter was kept in prison, but earnest prayer was made of the Church vnto God for him.

6 And when Herod would haue brought him out vnto the people, the same night slept Peter bet weene two souldiers, bound with two chaines, & the keepers before the doore, kept the prison.

Chap.5.19.

7 [*] And behold, the Angel of the Lord came vpon them, and a light shined in the house, and he smote Peter on the side, & raised him vp, saying, Arise quickly. And his chaines fell off from his hands.

8 And the Angel sayd vnto him, Gird thy selfe, and binde on thy [e] sandales. And so hee did. Then hee sayd vnto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and followe me.

9 So Peter came out and followed him, and knew not that it was true, which was done by the Angel, but thought he had seene a vision.

10 Nowe when they were past the first and the second watch, they came vnto the yron gate that leadeth vnto the citie, which opened to them by it owne accord, and they went out, and passed through one streete, and by and by the Angel departed from him.

11 ¶ And when Peter was come to himselfe, hee sayd, Nowe I know for a trueth that the Lord hath sent his Angel, and hath deliuered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the [f] waiting for of the people of the Iewes.

12 And as he considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of Iohn, whose surname was Marke, where many were gathered together, and prayed.

13 And when Peter knocked at the entrie doore, a maid came forth to hearken, named Rhode.

14 But when she knew Peters voyce, she opened not the entrie doore for gladnesse, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the entrie.

15 But they sayd vnto her, Thou art mad. Yet shee affirmed it constantly, that it was so. Then sayd they, It is his [g] Angel.

16 But Peter continued knocking, and when they had opened it, and saw him, they were astonied.

17 And hee beckened vnto them with the hand to hold their peace, and told them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And hee sayd, Goe shewe these things vnto Iames and to the brethren: and he departed and went into [h] another place.

18 ¶ Nowe assoone as it was day, there was no small trouble among the souldiours, what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers and commanded them to be led to bee punished. And he went down from Iudea to Cesarea, and there abode.

20 Then Herod intended to make warre against them of Tyms and Sidon, but they came all with one accord vnto him, and [i] perswaded Blastus the kings chamberlain, and they desired peace, because their countrey was nourished by the kings land.

21 And vpon a day appointed, Herode arayed himselfe in royall apparell, and sate on the iudgement seat, and made an oration vnto them.

22 And the people gaue a shoute, saying, The voyce of God and not of man.

23 But immediately [k] the Angel of the Lord smote him, because hee [l] gaue not glory vnto God, so that he was eaten [l] of wormes, and gaue vp the ghost.

24 And the worde of God [m] grew, and multiplied.

25 So Barnabas & Saul returned from Ierusalem, when they had fulfilled their [n] office, and tooke with them Iohn, whose surname was Marke.

b There was an other so named which was the sonne of Alpheus.

c It came then of no zeale nor religion, but onely to flatter the people.

d The number being sixteene was diuided by foures to keepe diuers wardes.

e Read Marke 6.9.

f For they thought that Herod would haue put him to death, as he had purposed.

g For they did know by Gods word, that Angels were appointed to defend the faithfull, and also in those dayes they were accustomed to see such sights.

h Which was lesse suspect, by reason of the brethren.

i Both by flattering words, and also by bribery.

k Which he should haue done if he had punished the flatterers, of whose vanitie he complained when he was a dying, as Iosephus writeth.

l The vilenesse of the punishment declareth how God detesteth pride and tyrannie: his grandfather also was eaten of lice.

m The more that tyrants goe about to suppresse Gods worde, the more doeth it increase. n Which was to distribute the almes sent from Antiochia, Chap. 11.29.

CHAP. XIII.

2 Paul and Barnabas are called to preach among the Gentiles. 7 Of Sergius Paulus, and Elymas the sorcerer. 13 The departure of Marke. 14 Paul preacheth at Antiochia. 42 The faith of the Gentiles. 46 The Iewes reiected. 48 They that are ordained to life, beleeue. 52 The fruite of faith.

THere was also in the Church that was at Antiochia, certaine Prophets and teachers, as Barnabas, and Simeon called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and [a] Manahen, (which had bene brought vp with Herode the Tetrarch) and Saul.

2 Now as they [b] ministred to the Lord, and fasted, the holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul, for the worke whereunto I haue called them.

3 Then fasted they and prayed, and laied their hands on them, and let them goe.

4 And they, after they were [c] sent forth of the holy Ghost, came downe vnto Selecucia, and from thence they sailed to Cyprus.

5 And when they were at Salamis, they preached [d] word of God in the synagogues of the Iewes: & they had also Iohn to their minister.

6 So when they had gone throughout the yle vnto Paphus, they found a certaine sorcerer, a false prophet, being a Iew, named Barieins,

7 Which was with the Deputie Sergius Paulus, a prudent man. He called vnto him Barnabas and Saul, & desired to heare the word of God.

8 But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name name by interpretation) withstoode them, and sought to turne away the Deputie from the faith.

9 Then Saul (which also is called Paul) being full of the holy Ghost, set his eyes on him,

10 And sayd, O full of all subtiltie and all mischiefe, the childe of the deuill, and enemie of all righteousnesse, wilt thou not cease to peruert the streight [c] wayes of the Lord?

c Which are the doctrine of the Apostles, that onely leadeth vs to God.

11 Nowe therefore beholde, the hand of the Lorde is vpon thee, and thou shalt bee blind, and not see the sunne for a season. And immediatly there fell on him a mysle and a darkenesse, and he went about, seeking some to leade him by the hand.

12 Then the Deputie when he saw what was done, beleeued, and was astonied at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Now when Paul and they that were with him, were departed by ship from Paphus, they came to Perga, a citie of Pamphilia: then Iohn departed from them, and returned to Ierusalem.

d This was another Antiochia, then that which was in Syria.

14 But when they departed from Perga, they came to [d] Antiochia a citie of Pisidia, and went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath day, and sate downe.

15 And after the lecture of the Lawe and Prophets, the rulers of the Synagogue sent vnto them, saying, Ye men and brethren if ye haue any worde of [e] exhortation for the people, say on.

16 Then Paul stoode vp and beckened with the hand, and sayd, Men of Israel, and ye that feare God, hearken.

22 And after he had taken him away, he raised vp [q] Dauid to be their king, of whom hee witnessed saying, I haue found Dauid the sonne of Iesse, a man after mine owne heart, which will doe all things that I will.

23 Of this mans seede hath God [r] according to his promise raised vp to Israel the Sauiour Iesus:

24 When [s] Iohn had first preached before his comming the baptisme of repentance to all the people of Israel.

25 And when Iohn had fulfilled his [t] course, hee sayd, [u] whome ye thinke that I am, I am not hee: but beholde, there commeth one after mee, whose shoe of his feete I am not worthy to loose.

h When his office drew to an end, he sent his disciples to Christ. Matth. 1.7. Iohn 1,20.

26 Yeemen and brethren, children of the generation of Abraham, and whosoeuer among you feareth God, to you is the [x] worde of this saluation sent.

i That is, this message and tidings of saluation.

27 For the inhabitants of Ierusalem, and their rulers, because they [y] knewe him not, nor yet the wordes of the Prophetes, which are [z] reade euery Sabbath day, they haue fulfilled them in condemning him.

28 And though they found no cause of death in him, [a] yet desired they Pilate to kill him.

29 And when they had [b] fulfilled all things that were written of him, they tooke him downe from the tree, and put him in a sepulchre.

30 But God [c] raised him vp from the dead.

31 And hee was seene many dayes of them, which came vp with him from Galile to Ierusalem, which are his witnesses vnto the people.

32 And wee declare vnto you that touching the promise made vnto the fathers, 33 God hath fulfilled it vnto vs their children, in that hee [d] rayled vp Iesus, euen as it is written in the second Psalme, [e] Thou art my Sonne: this day haue I begotten thee.

34 Nowe as concerning that hee rayled him vp from the dead, no more to returne to the graue, he hath layd thus, [f] I will giue you the [g] holy things of Dauid which are faithfull.

35 Wherefore hee saith also in another place, [h] Thou wilt not suffer thine holy one to see corruption.

36 Howbeit, Dauid after hee had serued his time by the counsell of God, hee [i] slept, and was layd with his fathers, and saw corruption.

37 But he whom God rayled vp, saw no corruption.

38 Bee it knowen vnto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached vnto you the forgiuenesse of sinnes, 39 And from all things from which yee could not bee iustified by the lawe of Moses, by him euery one that beleeueth, is iustified.

40 Beware therefore, least that come vpon you, which is spoken of in the Prophets, 41 [k] Behold, ye [l] despisers, and wonder, and vanish away: for I worke a [m] worke in your dayes, a worke which yee shall not beleeue, if a man would declare it you.

42 ¶ And when they were come out of the Synagogue of the Iewes, the Gentiles besought, that they would preache these words to them the next Sabbath day.

43 Now when the Congregation was dissolued, many of the Iewes, and Proselytes that feared God, followed Paul and Barnabas, which spake to them, and exhorted them to continue in the grace of God.

44 And the next Sabbath day came almost the whole city together, to heare the word of God.

45 But when the Iewes saw the people, they were full of enuie, and spake against those things, which were spoken of Paul, contrarying them,and railing on them.

46 Then Paul and Barnabas spake boldly,and said,* It was necessary that the worde of God should first haue bene spoken vnto you: but seeing yee put it from you, and iudge your selues vnworthie of euerlasting life,loe,we turne to the Gentiles.

47 For so hath the Lorde commaunded vs,saying, * I haue made thee a light of the Gentiles,that thou shouldest be the saluation vnto the end of the world.

48 And when the Gentiles heard it,they were glad, and glorified the worde of the Lord: and as many as were t ordeined vnto eternall life,beleeued.

49 Thus the word of the Lord was published throughout the whole countrey.

50 But the Iewes stirred certaine u deuout and honourable women, and the chiefe men of the citie, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts.

51 But they * shooke off the dust of their feete against them, and came vnto Iconium.

52 And the disciples were filled with ioy, and with the holy Ghost.

CHAP. XIIII.

3 God giueth successe to his word. 6 Paul and Barnabas preach at Iconium and are persecuted. 13 At Lystra they would do sacrifice to Barnabas and Paul,which refuse it,and exhort the people to worship the true God. 19 Paul is stoned. 22 They confirme the disciples in faith and patience, 23 Appoint ministers, 26 And passing through many places,make report of their diligence at Antiochia.

AND it came to passe in Iconium, that they went both together into the Synagogue of the Iewes, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Iewes and of of the Grecians beleeued.

a Which would not obey the doctrine,neither suffer themselues to be perswaded to beleeue the trueth and to imbrace Christ.

2 But the a vnbeleeuing Iewes stirred vp, and corrupted the mindes of the Gentiles against the brethren.

3 So therefore they abode there a long time,and spake boldly in the Lorde, which gaue testimonie vnto the word of his grace, and caused signes and wonders to bee done by their hands.

4 But the people of the citie were diuided: and some were with the Iewes, and some with the Apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and of the Iewes with their rulers,to do them violence,and to stone them,

† In so much that all the people were moued at the doctrine. So both Paul and Barnabas remained at Lystra.

6 They were ware of it, and fled vnto Lystra,and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and vnto the region round about,

7 And there were preaching the Gospel†.

8 ¶ Now there sate a certaine man at Lystra, impotent in his feete, which was a creeple from his mothers wombe, who had neuer walked.

9 He heard Paul speake: who beholding him, and perceiuing that he had faith to bee healed, 10 Sayde with a loude voyce, † Stand vpright on thy feete. And he leaped vp,and walked.

11 Then when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted vp their voyces, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, Gods are come downe to vs in the likenesse of men.

12 And they called Barnabas, Iupiter, and Paul,Mercurius, because hee was the chiefe speaker.

13 Then Iupiters Priest,which was before their citie, brought bulles with b garlands vnto the c gates, and would haue sacrificed with the people.

14 But when the Apostles,Barnabas and Paul heard it,they d rent their clothes, and ranne in among the people,crying, 15 And saying,O men, why doe yee these things? Wee are euen men e subiect to the like passions that yee be, and preach vnto you, that yee should turne from these vaine idoles vnto the liuing God, * which made heauen and earth,and the sea,and all things that in them are.

16 Who in times past * suffered all the Gentiles to walke in their owne f wayes.

17 Neuertheless, hee left not himselfe without s witnesse, in that he did good,and gaue vs raine from heauen, and fruitefull seasons, filling our hearts with foode and h gladnesse.

18 And speaking these things, scarce refrained they the people, that they had not sacrificed vnto them.

19 Then there came certain Iewes from Antiochia and Iconium, which when they had perswaded the people,† * stoned Paul, and drew him out of the citie, supposing he had bene dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him,he arose vp, and came into the citie,and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

21 And after they had preached to that citie, and had taught many, they returned to Lystra, and to Iconium, and to Antiochia, 22 Confirming the disciples hearts, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, affirming that we must through many afflictions enter into the kingdome of God.

23 And when they had ordeined them Elders by i election in euery Church, and prayed,and fasted, they commended them to the Lord in whom they beleeued.

24 Thus they went throughout Pisidia, and came to Pamphylia.

25 And when they had preached † word in Perga,they came downe to Attalia, 26 And thence sailed to Antiochia,* from whence they had bene commended vnto the grace of God, to the worke which they had fulfilled.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the Church together, they rehearsed all the things that God had done k by them,and how hee had opened the doore of faith vnto the Gentiles.

CHAP. XV.

1 Variance about circumcision. 22 The Apostles send their determination to the Churches. 35 Paul and Barnabas preach at Antiochia, 39 And separate company because of Iohn Marke.

a As Cerinthus and others: so writeth Epiphanius against the Cerinthians · also the fame of the place whence they came, did much preuaile to perswade abroad, Gal. 5. 1, 2.

THen came downe a certaine from Iudea, and taught the brethren, saying, * Except ye be circumcised after the maner of Moses, ye cannot be saued.

2 And when there was great dissension and disputation by Paul and Barnabas against them, they ordeined that Paul and Barnabas, and certaine other of them should goe vp to Ierusalem vnto the Apostles and Elders about this question.

3 Thus being sent forth by the Church, they passed through Phenice, and Samaria, declaring the conuersion of the Gentiles: and they brought great ioy vnto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Ierusalem, they were receiued of the Church, and of the Apostles and Elders, and they declared what things God had done by them.

5 But sayd they, certaine of the sect of the b Pharises, which did beleeue, rose vp, saying, that it was needfull to circumcise them, and to commaund them to keepe the Law of Moses.

b Which were factious and giuen to dissention.

6 Then the Apostles and Elders came together to looke to this matter.

7 And when there had bene great disputation, Peter rose vp, and sayd vnto them, * Yee men and brethren, yee knowe that a good while agoe, among vs God chose out mee, that the Gentiles by my mouth should heare the word of the Gospell, and beleeue.

Chap. 10. 20. and 11. 13.

8 And God which knoweth the hearts, bare them witnesse, in giuing vnto them the holy Ghost, euen as he did vnto vs.

c As touching adoption and eternall life.

9 And hee put no c difference betweene vs, and them, after that by faith hee d had * purified their hearts.

d By faith God purifieth the heart. 1. Cor. 1. 2. chap. 10. 43.

10 Now therefore, why e tempt yee God, to * lay a yoke on the disciples necks, which neyther our fathers, nor wee were able to beare?

e They purposely tempt God, which lay greater charges on mens consciences, then they are able to beare. Matth. 23. 4.

11 But wee beleeue, through the f grace of the Lord Iesus Christ to bee saued, euen as they doe.

f And not by the Law: for it is a clog to the conscience, and we cannot be deliuered thereby. 2. Pet. 1. 1. Amos 9. 11.

12 Then all the multitude kept silence, and heard Barnabas and Paul, which told what signes and wonders God had done among the Gentiles by them.

13 And when they held their peace, Iames answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken vnto me.

14 * Simeon hath declared howe God first did visite the Gentiles, to take of them a people vnto his Name.

15 And to this agree the wordes of the Prophets, as it is written,

16 * After this I will returne, and will build againe the g Tabernacle of Dauid, which is fallen downe, and the ruines thereof will I build againe, and I will set it vp, g That is, the Church, whereof the Temple was a figure.

17 That the residue of men might seeke after the Lord, and all the h Gentiles vpon whom my Name is called, sayeth the Lord which doeth all these things.

h Which are gathered into one familie with the Iewes, to the intent they should acknowledge all one God, and one Sauiour Christ Iesus.

18 From the beginning of the world God knoweth all his workes.

19 Wherefore my sentence is, that wee trouble not them of the Gentiles that are turned to God,

20 But that we write vnto them, that they abstaine themselues from i filthinesse of idoles, and k fornication, and that that is strangled, and from blood. †

i For some thought it none offence to be present in the idoles temples, and there to banket: which S. Paul saith, is to drinke the cup of the deuils, 1. Cor. 10. 21.

k The heathen thought this no vice, but made it a common custome. As touching a strangled thing and blood they were not lawfull of themselues, and therefore were obserued but for a time.

† And whatsoeuer they would not should be done to themselues, that they would not doit to others.

21 For l Moses of old time hath in euery citie them that preach him, seeing hee is read in the Synagogues euery Sabbath day.

l Therefore the ceremonies commanded by God, could not so soone be abolished till the libertie of the Gospel were better knowen.

22 Then it seemed good to the Apostles and Elders with the whole Church to send chosen men of their owne company to Antiochia with Paul and Barnabas, to wit, Iudas whose surname was Barsabas, and Silas, which were chiefe men among the brethren, m Whom the holy Ghost hath mooued and directed to ordeine, and write these things, not as the authors of this doctrine, but as the ministers of Gods ordinance, Exod. 14. 31. iudg. 7. 20. hag. 1. 12.

23 And wrote letters by them after this maner, THE APOSTLES, and the Elders, and the brethren, vnto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antiochia, and in Syria, and in Cilicia, send greeting.

24 For as much as we haue heard, that certaine which departed from vs haue troubled you with wordes, and cumbred your mindes, saying, Ye must be circumcised and keepe the Law, to whom wee gaue no such commandement:

† And whatsoeuer they would not should be done to themselues, that they would not doit to others.

25 It seemed therefore good to vs, when we were come together with one accord, to send chosen men vnto you, with our beloued Barnabas and Paul, 26 Men that haue giuen vp their liues for the name of our Lord Iesus Christ.

27 Wee haue therefore sent Iudas and Silas, which shall also tell you the same things by mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the holy Ghost, and m to vs, to lay no more burthen vpon you, then these necessary things, 29 That is, that yee abstaine from things offred to idoles, and blood, and that that is strangled, ‖ from fornication: † from which if ye keepe your selues, ye shall do well. Fare ye well.

‖ Or, commixtion. n Hauing desired Iesus of the Church, the brethren prayed God to prosper their iourney. o Who for iust causes, changed his mind. † And 30 Now when they were departed, they came to Antiochia, and after that they had assembled the multitude, they deliuered the Epistle.

31 And when they had read it, they reioyced for the consolation.

32 And Iudas † Silas being Prophets, ‖ exhorted the brethren with many wordes, and strengthened them.

33 And after they had tarried there a space, they were let goe in p peace of the brethren vnto the Apostles.

34 Notwithstanding o Silas thought good to abide there still. † onely Iudas went.

35 Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antiochia, teaching and preaching with many other the word of the Lord.

36 ¶ But after certaine dayes, Paul said vnto Barnabas, Let vs returne, and visite our brethren in euery citie, where wee haue preached the word of the Lord; and see howe they doe.

† Would take John, &c.

37 And Barnabas † counselled to take with them John, called Marke.

38 But Paul thought it not meete to take him vnto their companie, which departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the worke.

p God suffereth the most perfit to fall, and yet turneth their infirmities to the setting forth of his glory, as this breach of company caused the word to be preached in moe places.

39 Then were they so stirred, that they p departed asunder one from the other, so that Barnabas tooke Marke, and sailed vnto Cyprus.

40 And Paul chose Silas and departed, being commended of the brethren vnto the grace of God.

41 And he went throw Syria and Cilicia, stablishing the Churches.

CHAP. XVI.

1 When Paul had circumcised Timothie, he tooke him with him. 7 The spirit calleth them from one country to another. 14 Lydia is conuerted. 28 Paul and Silas imprisoned, conuert the layler, 37 and are deliuered as Romanes.

e We ought not to credit visions, except we be assured thereof by the spirit of God.

8 Therefore they passed throwout Mysia, and came downe to d Troas,

10 And after hee had seene the vision, immediatly we prepared to goe into Macedonia, being e assured that the Lord had called vs to preach the Gospell vnto them.

11 Then went we forth from Troas, and with a streight course came to Samothracia, and the next day to f Neapolis, 12 ¶ And from thence to Philippi, which is the chiefe citie in the partes of Macedonia, and g whose inhabitants came from Rome to dwell there, and wee were in that citie abiding certaine dayes.

13 And on the Sabbath day, we went out of the citie, beside a riuer where they were wont to h pray: and we sate downe, and spake vnto the women, which were come together.

15 And when she was baptized and her houshold, shee besought vs, saying, If ye haue iudged me to be faithfull to the Lord, come into mine house and abide there: and she constrayned vs.

16 And it came to passe, that as we went to prayer, a certaine mayd hauing * a spirit i of diuination, met vs, which gate her masters much vantage with diuining.

25 Now at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sung a psalme vnto God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundation of the prison was shaken: and by and by all the doores opened, and euery mans bands were looted.

28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Doe thy selfe no harme: for we are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and leaped in, and came trembling, and fell downe before Paul and Silas, 30 And brought them out, and sayd, Sirs, what must I do to be saued?

31 And they said, Beleeue in the Lord Ie-sus Christ, and thou shalt be saued, and thine houshold.

32 And they preached vnto him the word of the Lorde, and to all that were in his house.

36 Then the keeper of the prison tolde these words vnto Paul, saying, The Gouernours haue sent to loose you: now therefore get you hence, and goe in peace.

37 Then said Paul vnto them, After that they haue beaten vs openly vncondemned, which are [n] Romanes, they haue cast vs into prison, and now would they put vs out priuily? nay verily: but let them come and bring vs out.

38 And the sergeants told these words vnto the Gouernours, who [o] feared when they heard that they were Romanes.

39 Then came they and prayed them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the citie.

1 Paul commeth to Thessalonica, 4 where some receiue him, & others persecute him. 11 To search the Scriptures. 17 He disputeth at Athens, and the fruite of his doctrine.

NOw as they passed thorow Amphipolis, and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a Synagogue of ỹ Iewes.

2 And Paul, as his maner was, went in vnto them, and three Sabbath dayes disputed with them by the Scriptures,

3 Opening & alledging that Christ must haue suffred, and risen againe from the dead: and this is Iesus Christ, whom, sayd hee, I preach to you.

4 And some of them beleeued, and ioyned in company with Paul and Silas: also of the Grecians that feared God, a great multitude, and of the chiefe women not a fewe.

5 But the Iewes which beleeued not, mooued with enuy, tooke vnto them certaine vagabonds and wicked fellowes, and when they had assembled the multitude, they made a tumult in the citie, & made assault against the house of Iason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 But when they found them not, they drew Iason and certaine brethren vnto the heads of the citie, crying, These are they which haue subuerted the state of the world, and here they are,

7 Whom Iason hath receiued, and these all doe against the decrees of Cesar, saying, that there is another [a] King, one Iesus.

8 Then they troubled the people, and the heads of the citie, when they heard these things.

9 Notwithstanding when they had receiued ‖ sufficient assurance of Iason and of the other, they let them goe.

10 And the brethren immediatly sent away Paul and Silas by night vnto Berea, which when they were come thither, entred into the Synagogue of the Iewes.

11 These were also [b] more noble men then they which were at Thessalonica, which receiued the word with all readines, and [c] searched the Scriptures daily, [d] whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them beleeued, and of honest women, which were Grecians, and men not a few.

13 ¶ But when the Iewes of Thessalonica knew, that the word of God was also preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and mooued the people.

14 But by and by the brethren sent away Paul to go as it were to the Sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.

15 And they that ‖ did conduct Paul, brought him vnto Athens: and when they had receiued a commandement vnto Silas and Timotheus that they should come to him at once, they departed.

16 ¶ Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the citie [e] subiect to idolatry.

17 Therefore hee disputed in the Synagogue with the Iewes, and with them that were religious, & in the market daily, [f] with whomsoeuer he met.

18 Then certeine Philosophers of the [g] Epicures, and of the [h] Stoikes, disputed with him, and some sayd, What will this ‖babbler say? Others sayd, He seemeth to be a setter foorth of strange gods (because hee preached vnto them Iesus, and the resurrection.)

19 And they tooke him, and brought him into [i] Mars street, saying, May wee not know what this new doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou bringest certeine strange things vnto our eares: wee would knowe therefore, what these things meane.

21 For all the Athenians and strangers which dwelt there, ‖ gaue themselues to nothing els, but either to tell or to heare some newes.

22 Then Paul stood in the middes of [i] Mars street, and sayd, Ye men of Athens, I perceiue that in all things yeare too superstitious.

a This was Claudius Cæsar, who then was Emperour.
b Thus he vsed where euer he came: but principally at Corinthus, because of the false apostles which preached without wages to win the peoples fauour,

AFter these things, Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinthus,

2 And found a certaine Iew, named * Aquila, borne in Pontus, lately come from Italy, and his wife Priscilla (because that a Claudius had commaunded all Iewes to depart from Rome) and he came vnto them.

3 And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them and b wrought (for their craft was to make c tents.)

4 And he disputed in the Synagogue euery Sabbath day, and exhorted the Iewes and the Grecians.

5 Nowe when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul d burned in spirit, testifying to the Iewes that Iesus was the Christ.

6 And when they resisted and blasphemed, he * shooke his rayment, and sayd vnto them, e Your blood be vpon your own head: I am cleane: from henceforth will I goe vnto the Gentiles.

8 And * Crispus the chiefe ruler of the Synagogue, beleeued in the Lord with all his household: and many of the Corinthians hearing it, beleeued and were baptized.

9 Then sayd the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Feare not, but speake, and hold not thy peace.

10 For f I am with thee, and no man shal lay handes on thee to hurt thee: for I haue much people in this citie.

11 So he continued there a yere and sixe moneths, g taught the word of God among them.

12 ¶ Now when Gallio was deputie of ‖ Achaia, the Iewes arose with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the iudgement seat,

6 The holy Ghost is giuen by Pauls hands. 9 The Iewes blasphemie his doctrine, which was confirmed by miracles. 13 The rashnesse, and punishment of the Coniurers, and the fruit that came thereof. 24 Demetrius raiseth sedition vnder pretence of Diana. 41 Yet God deliuereth his, and appeaseth it by the Towne clarke.

AND it came to passe, while Apollos was at Corinthus, that Paul when he passed through the vpper coastes, came to Ephesus, and found certaine disciples,

2 And sayd vnto them, Haue ye receiued the a holy Ghost since ye beleeued? And they sayde vnto him, Wee haue not so much as heard whether there be an holy Ghost.

3 And he sayd vnto them, b Vnto what were ye then baptized? And they said, Vnto Iohns baptisme.

4 Then said Paul, * Iohn verily baptized with the baptisme of repentance, saying vnto the people, that they should beleeue in him, which should come after him, that is, in Christ Iesus.

5 So when they heard it, they were c baptized in the Name of the Lord Iesus.

6 And Paul layd his hands vpon them, and the holy Ghost came on them, and they spake the tongues and prophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelue.

8 ¶ Moreouer, hee went into the Synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three moneths, disputing and exhorting to the things that appertaine to the kingdome of God.

9 But when certaine were hardened, and disobeyed, speaking euill of the way of God before the multitude, hee departed from them, and separated the disciples, and disputed dayly in the schoole of one d Tyrannus †.

10 And this was done by the space of two yeeres, so that all they which dwelt in Asia, heard the Word of the Lorde Iesus, both Iewes and Grecians.

11 And God wrought no small miracles by the hands of Paul,

12 So that from his body were brought vnto the sick, ‖kerchiefes e or handkerchiefs, and the diseases departed from them, and the euill spirits went out of them.

13 Then certaine of ỹ vagabond Iewes, ‖ exorcists, tooke in hand to name ouer them which had euill spirites, the Name of the Lord Iesus, saying, We f adiure you by Iesus whom Paul preacheth.

14 (And there were certaine sonnes of Sceua a Iew, the Priest, about seuen which did this)

15 And the euill spirit answered, and said, Iesus I acknowledge, and Paul I know: but who are ye?

16 And the man in whome the euill spirite was, ranne on them, and ouercame them, and preuailed against them, so that they fledde out of that house, naked, and wounded.

17 And this was knowen to all the Iewes and Grecians also, which dwelt at Ephesus, and feare came on them all, and the Name of the Lorde Iesus was magnified.

18 And many that beleeued, came and confessed, and g shewed their works.

19 Many also of them which vsed curious arts, brought their bookes, and burned them before all men, and they counted the price of them, and found it h fiftie thousand pieces of siluer.

20 So the Word of God grewe mightily, and preuailed.

21 ¶ Now when these things were accomplished, Paul purposed i by the Spirite to passe through Macedonia and Achaia, and to go to Ierusalem, saying, After I haue bene there, I must also see Rome.

22 So sent hee into Macedonia two of them that ministred vnto him, Timotheus and Erastus, but hee remained in Asia for a season.

1 Paul goeth into Macedonia and into Grecia. 7 He celebrateth the Lords Supper, and preacheth. 9 At Troas he raiseth vp Eutychus. 17 At Ephesus he calleth the Elders of the Church together, committeth the keeping of Gods flocke vnto them, warneth them of false teachers, maketh his prayer with them, and departeth by ship towards Ierusalem.

NOwe after the tumult was ceased, Paul called the Disciples vnto him, and embraced them, and departed to goe into Macedonia.

2 And when he had gone through those partes, and had exhorted them with many words, he came into Grecia.

3 And hauing tarried there three moneths because the Jewes layde waite for him, as he was about to saile into Syria, he purposed to returne through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Asia, Sopater of Berea, and of them of Thessalonica, Aristarchus, and Secundus, and Gaius of Derbe, and Timotheus, and of them of Asia, Tychicus, and Trophimus.

a He remained there these dayes, because he had better oportunitie to teach: also the abolishing of the Law was not yet knowen.

7 And b the first day of the weeke, the disciples being come together to c breake bread, Paul preached vnto them, ready to depart on the morrowe, and continued the preaching vnto midnight.

b Which we call Sunday. Of this place and also of the 1. Cor. 16 2. we gather that the Christians vsed to haue their solemne assemblies this day, laying aside the ceremonies of the Iewish Sabbath.

9 And there sate in a windowe a certeine yoong ‖ man named Eutychus, fallen into a deepe sleepe: and as Paul was long preaching, hee ouercome with sleepe, fell downe from the third loft, and was taken vp dead.

‖ Or, boy.

10 But Paul went downe, and layed himselfe vpon him, and imbraced him, saying, Trouble not your selues: for his life is in him.

11 So when Paul was come vp againe, and had broken bread, and eaten, hee commoned a long while till the dawning of the day, and so he departed.

12 And they brought the boy aliue, and they were not a little comforted.

13 ¶ Then wee went foorth to ship, and sailed vnto the citie d Assos, that wee might receiue Paul there: for so had he appointed, and would himselfe go afoot.

d Which was a citie of Mysia, called otherwise Apollonia, Plin. lib. 5 cap. 30.

14 Nowe when hee was come vnto vs to Assos, and we had receiued him, we came to Mitylenes.

15 And wee sailed thence, and came the next day ouer against Chios, and the next day wee arriued at Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium: the next day we came to Miletum.

16 For Paul had determined to saile by Ephesus, because hee would not spend the time in Asia: for hee hasted to be if he could possibly, at Ierusalem, at the day of ‖ Pentecost.

‖ Or, Whitsuntide.

17 ¶ Wherefore from Miletum he sent to Ephesus, ‡ called the Elders of the Church.

18 Who when they were come to him, he sayd vnto them, Yee know from the first day that I came into Asia, after what maner I haue bene with you at all seasons, 21 Witnessing both to the Iewes, and to the Grecians the [h] repentance toward God, and [i] faith toward our Lord Iesus Christ.

22 And now behold, I go[k] bound in the spirit vnto Ierusalem, and knowe not what things shall come vnto me there, 23 Saue that the holy Ghost [l] witnesseth in euery citie, saying, that bands and afflictions abide me †.
24 But I passe not at all, neither is my life deere vnto my selfe, so that I may fulfill my course with ioy, and the ministration which I haue receiued of the Lord Iesus, to testifie the Gospel of the grace of God.
25 And now, behold, I know that henceforth ye al, through whom I haue gone preaching the kingdome of God, shall see my face no more.
26 Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the [m] blood of all men.
27 For I haue kept nothing backe, but haue shewed you [n] all the counsell of God.
28 Take heed therefore vnto your selues, and to all the flocke, whereof the holy Ghost hath made you ouerseers, to feed the Church of God, which hee hath purchased with his [o] owne blood.
29 For I know this, that after my departing shall grieuous wolues enter in among you, not sparing the flocke.
30 Moreouer, of your owne selues shall men arise, speaking [p] peruerse things, to draw disciples after them.
31 Therefore watch and remember, that by the space of three yeeres I ceased not to warne euery one, both night and day with teares.
32 And nowe, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which [q] is able to build further, and to giue you an [r] inheritance, among al them which are sanctified.
33 I haue coueted no mans siluer, nor gold, nor apparell.
34 Yea, ye know, that these hands haue ministred vnto my [s] necessities, and to them that were with me.
35 I haue shewed you al things, how that so labouring, ye ought to support the weake, and to remember the words of the Lord Iesus, how that he sayd, [t] It is a blessed thing to giue, rather then to receiue.
36 And when he had thus spoken, hee kneeled downe, and prayed with them all.
37 Then they wept all abundantly, and fell on Pauls necke, and kissed him, 38 Being chiefly sory for the words which he spake, That they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him vnto the ship.

CHAP. XXI.

5 The common prayers of the faithfull. 9 Philips foure daughters prophetisses. 13 Pauls constancie to beare the crosse, as Agabus and others forsaken, although he was otherwise counselled by the brethren. 28 The great danger that he was in, and how he escaped.

AND as we launched forth, and were departed from them, wee came with a streight course vnto Coos, and the day following vnto the Rhodes, and from thence vnto Patara.
2 And we found a ship that went ouer vnto Phenice, & went aboard, and set forth.
3 And when we had discouered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed toward Syria, and arriued at Tyrus: for there the ship vnladed the burden.
4 And when we had found disciples, we tarried there seuen daies. And they told Paul [a] through the [b] Spirit, that he should not goe vp to Ierusalem.
5 But when the dayes were ended, we departed and went our way, and they all accompanied vs with their wiues and children, euen out of the citie: and we kneeling downe on the shore, prayed.
6 Then when we had embraced one another, wee tooke shippe, and they returned home.
7 And when wee had ended the course from Tyrus, we arriued at Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.
8 And the next day Paul and they that were with him, departed, & came vnto Cesarea: and we entred into the house of Philip the Euangelist, which was one of the seuen [c] Deacons, and abode with him.
9 Now he had foure daughters, virgins, which did prophesie.
10 And as we tarried there many dayes, there came a certeine Prophet from Iudea, named Agabus.
11 And when hee was come vnto vs, hee tooke Pauls girdle, and bound his owne hands and feet, and sayd, [d] Thus sayeth the holy Ghost, So shall the Iewes at Ierusalem [e] binde the man that oweth this girdle, and shall deliuer him into the hands of the Gentiles.
12 And when we had heard these things, both we & other of the same place besought him that he would not goe vp to Ierusalem.
13 Then Paul answered, and said, What doe yee weeping and breaking mine heart? For I am ready not to be bound onely, but also to die at Ierusalem for the Name of the Lord Iesus.
14 So when he would not be perswaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lorde be done.
15 And after those dayes wee trussed vp our fardels, and went vp to Ierusalem.
16 There went with vs also certeine of the disciples of Cesarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an olde disciple, with whom we should lodge.
17 And when wee were come to Ierusalem, the brethren receiued vs gladly.
18 And the next day Paul went in with vs vnto [f] James: and all the Elders were there assembled.
19 And when he had embraced them, he told by order all things, that GOD had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministration.
20 So when they heard it, they glorified a By the reuelation of Gods Spirit.

b The holy Spirit reueiled vnto them the persecutions that Paul should haue made against him, and the same Spirit also strengthened Paul to susteine them.
Chap. 6. 5.
c The office of Deaconship was but for a time, according as the congregation had need, or otherwise.
d God woulde haue his seruants bands knowen, to the intent that no man shoulde thinke that hee cast himselfe into wilfull danger.
e This was not to make Paul afrayd, but to encourage him against the brunt.
f Who was the chiefe or superintendent of the Church of Ierusalem.

fied the Lord, & sayd vnto him, Thou seest brother, how many thousand Iewes there are which beleeue, and they are all zealous of the law.

21 Now they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Iewes which are among the Gentiles, to forsake Moses, and sayest, that they ought not to circumcile their children, neither to liue after the g customes.

22 What is then to bee done? the multitude must needes come together: for they shall heare that thou art come.

23 Doe therefore this that wee say to thee. Wee haue h foure men, which haue made a vow.

24 Them take, and i purifie thy selfe with them, and contribute with them, that they may * shaue their heads: and all shall know, that those things, whereof they haue bene informed concerning thee, are nothing, but that thou thy selfe also walkest and keepest the law.

25 For as touching the Gentiles, which beleeue, wee haue written, and determined * that they obserue no such thing, but that they keepe themselues from things offered to idoles, and from blood, and from that that is strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul tooke the men, and the next day was purified with them, and entred into the Temple, * declaring the accomplishment of the dayes of the purification, vntill that an offering should be offered for euery one of them.

27 And when the seuen dayes were almost ended, the Iewes which were of Asia (when they saw him in the Temple) mooued all the people, and k layed handes on him,

28 Crying, Men of Israel, helpe: this is the man that teacheth all men euery where against the people, and the lawe, and this place: moreouer, he hath brought Grecians into the Temple, and hath l polluted this holy place.

29 For they had seene before Trophimus an Ephesian with him in the citie, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the Temple.

30 Then all the citie was mooued, & the people ran together: and they tooke Paul, and drew him out of the Temple, and forthwith the doores were shut.

31 But as they went about to kill him, tidings came vnto the chiefe Captaine of the band, that all Ierusalem was on an vprore.

32 Who immediately tooke souldiers, and m Centurions, and ranne n downe vnto them: and when they sawe the chiefe Captaine and the souldiers, they left beating of Paul.

33 Then the chiefe Captaine came neere and tooke him, and commanded him to bee bound with two chaines, and demanded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And one cryed this, another that, among the people. So when hee could not know the certainty for the tumult, hee commanded him to be led into the castle.

35 And when hee came vnto the grieces, it was so that he was borne of the souldiers, for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him.

37 And as Paul should haue bene led into the castle, hee sayd vnto the chiefe captaine, May I speake vnto thee? Who sayd, Canst thou speake Greeke?

38 Art not thou the * o Egyptian, who before these dayes raised a sedition, & led out into the wildernes foure thousand men that were murderers?

39 Then Paul sayd, Doubtlesse I am a man which am a Iew, and citizen of * Tarsus a famous citie in Cilicia, and I beseech thee, suffer me to speake vnto the people.

40 And when hee had giuen him licence, Paul stood on the grieces, & beckened with the hand vnto the people: & when there was made great silence, he spake vnto them in the Hebrew tongue, saying,

CHAP. XXII.

3 Paul rendereth an account of his life and doctrine. 25 He escapeth the whip by reason he was a citizen of Rome.

YE men, brethren, and fathers, heare my ‖ defence now towards you.

2 (And when they heard that he spake in the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence, and he sayd)

3 I am verily a man, which am a Iewe, borne in * Tarsus in Cilicia, but brought vp in this citie at the a feete of Gamaliel, and instructed according to the perfect maner of the Law of the fathers, and was zealous toward God, as ye all are this day.

4 *And I persecuted this ‖ way vnto the death, binding & deliuering into prison both men and women,

5 As also the chiefe Priest doth beare me witnesse, and all the state of the Elders: of * whom also I receiued letters vnto the b brethren, and went to Damascus to bring them which were there, bound vnto Ierusalem, that they might be punished.

6 ¶ And so it was, as I tourneyed and was come neere vnto Damascus about noone, that suddenly there shone from heauen a great light round about me.

7 So I fell vnto the earth, and heard a voice saying vnto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 Then I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he sayd to me, I am Iesus of Nazaret, whom thou persecutest.

9 Moreouer, they that were with mee, saw in deed a light, and were afrayed: but they heard not the voice of him that spake vnto me.

10 Then I sayd, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord sayd vnto me, Arise, and goe into Damascus: and there it shall be tolde thee of all things, which are appointed for thee to do.

11 So when I could not see for the glory of that light, I was led by the hand of them that were with me, and came into Damascus.

12 And one Ananias, a godly man, as pertaining to the Lawe, hauing good report of all the Iewes which dwelt there.

13 Came vnto me, and stood, & sayd vnto me, Brother Saul, receiue thy sight: & that same houre I looked vpon him.

14 And he sayd, The God of our fathers hath [c] appointed thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and shouldest see that [d] Iust one, and shouldest heare the voyce of his mouth.

15 For thou shalt bee his witnesse vnto all men, of the things which thou hast seene and heard.

16 Now therefore why tariest thou? Arise, & bee baptized, & wash away thy sinnes, in calling on the [e] Name of the Lord.

17 ¶ And it came to passe, that when I was come againe to Ierusalem, and prayed in the Temple, I was in a trance, 18 And saw him saying vnto me, Make haste, & get thee quickly out of Ierusalem: for they will not receiue thy witnesse concerning me.

19 Then I sayd, Lord, they know that I * prisoned, and beat in euery Synagogue them that beleeued in thee.

20 And when the blood of thy martyr Steuen was shed, I also * stood by, and consented vnto his death, and kept the clothes of them that slew him.

21 Then he sayd vnto me, Depart: for I will send thee farre hence vnto the Gentiles.

22 ¶ And they heard him vnto this word, but then they lift vp their voyces, and sayd, Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not meete that he should liue.

23 And as they cryed and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the ayre, 24 The chiefe Captaine commaunded him to be led into the Castle, and bade that hee should bee scourged and examined, that hee might know wherefore they cryed so on him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul sayd vnto the Centurion that stoode by, Is it lawfull for you to scourge one that is [f] a Romane, and not condemned?

26 Now when the Centurion heard it, he went and told the chiefe Captaine, saying, Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Romane.

27 Then the chiefe captaine came, & sayd to him, Tell me, Art thou a Romane? And he sayd, Yea.

28 And the chiefe Captaine answered, With a great summe obtained I this burgesship. Then Paul sayd, But I was [g] so borne.

29 Then straight way they departed from him which should haue examined him: and the chiefe captaine also was afraid, after hee knew that hee was a Romane, and that hee had bound him.

30 On the next day, because hee would haue knowen the certainty wherefore hee was accused of the Iewes, hee loosed him from his bondes, and commanded the hie Priests and all their Councill to come together: and hee brought Paul, and set him before them.

CHAP. XXIII.

3 The answere of Paul being smitten, and the ouerthrow of his enemies. 11 The Lord encourageth him. 23 And because the Iewes laid wait for him, he is sent to Cæsarea.

AND Paul beheld earnestly the Counsell, and sayd, Men and brethren, I haue in all good conscience serued God vntill this day.

2 Then the high Priest Ananias commanded them that stoode by, to smite him on the mouth.

3 Then sayd Paul to him, God [a] will smite thee thou whited wall: for thou sittest to iudge me according to the Law, and commandest thou mee to be smitten contrary to the Law?

4 And they that stood by, sayd, Reuilest thou Gods hie Priest?

5 Then sayd Paul, I [b] knew not, brethren, that he was the hie Priest: for it is written, * Thou shalt not speake euill of the ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceiued that the one part were of the Sadducees, and the other of the Pharises, he cried in the Councell, Men and brethren, * I am a Pharise, the sonne of a Pharise: I am accused of the hope and [c] resurrection of the dead.

7 And when he had sayd this, there was a dissension betweene the Pharises and the Sadducees, so that the multitude was diuided.

8 * For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither Angel nor spirit: but the Pharises confesse [d] both.

9 Then there was a great cry: and the Scribes of the Pharises part rose vp, and stroue, saying, Wee finde none euill in this man: but if a spirit or an Angel hath spoken to him, let vs not fight against God.

10 And when there was a great dissension, the chiefe captaine, fearing lest Paul should haue beene pulled in pieces of them, commanded the souldiers to goe downe, and to take him from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

11 ¶ Now the night following the Lord stood by him, and sayd, Be of good courage, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Ierusalem, so must thou beare witnesse also at Rome.

12 And when the day was come, certeine of the Iewes made an assembly, and bound themselues with an [e] othe, saying, that they would neither eate nor drinke, till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were moe then fortie, which had made this conspiracie.

14 And they came to the chiefe Priestes and Elders, and sayd, Wee haue bound our selues with a solemne othe, that we will eate nothing vntill we haue slaine Paul.

15 Now therefore, yee and the Councell, signifie to the chiefe captaine, that hee bring him forth vnto you to morrow, as though ye would knowe some thing more perfectly of him, and wee, or euer he come neere, will be ready to kill him.

16 But when Pauls sisters [f] sonne heard of a Paul doth not curse the hie Priest, but denounceth sharply the punishment of God which should light vpō him, who vnder pretence of maintaining the Law, doth trāsgresse it.

of their laying awaite, he went, and entred into the castle, and told Paul.

17 And Paul called one of the Centurions vnto him, and sayd, Bring this yong man vnto the chiefe captaine: for he hath a certaine thing to shew him.

18 So he tooke him, and brought him to the chiefe captaine, and sayd, Paul the prisoner called me vnto him, and prayed me to bring this yong man vnto thee, which hath some thing to say vnto thee.

19 Then the chiefe captaine tooke him by the hand, and went apart with him alone, and asked him, What hast thou to shew me?

20 And he said, The Iewes haue conspired to desire thee, that thou wouldest bring forth Paul to morow vnto the Councill, as though they would enquire some what of him more perfectly.

21 But let them not perswade thee: for there lie in waite for him of them more then forty men, which haue bound themselues with an oth, that they will neither eat nor drinke, till they haue killed him: and now are they ready, and waite for thy promise.

22 The chiefe captaine then let the yong man depart, and charged him to speake it to no man, that hee had ‡ shewed him these things.

‡ Greeke, that thou hast shewed these things to me.

23 And he called vnto him two certaine Centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred souldiers, that they may go to Cesarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and two hundreth with darts, at the third houre of the night, 24 And let them make ready an horse, that Paul being set on, may be brought safe vnto Felix the Gouernour.

g This letter was written partly in the fauour of Paul, that his aduersaries might not oppresse him.

25 And he wrote an ‖ Epistle in this manner:

26 Claudius Lysias vnto the most noble Gouernour Felix, sendeth greeting.

27 As this man was taken of the Iewes, and should haue bene killed of them, I came vpon them with the garison, & rescued him, ᵇ perceiuing that he was a Romane.

h The Captaine dissembleth to commend his owne diligence: for he did not know that Paul was a Romane before he had rescued him, and giuen him to be straitly examined, 28 And when I would haue knowen the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their Council.

29 There I perceiued that he was accused of questions of their Lawe, but had no crime worthy of death, or of bonds.

30 And when it was shewed me, how that the Iewes layd waite for the man, I sent him straightway to thee, and commanded his accusers to speake before thee the things that they had against him. Farewell.

31 Then the souldiers, as it was commanded them, tooke Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 And the next day, they left the horsemen to goe with him, and returned vnto the castle.

33 Nowe when they came to Cesarea, they deliuered the epistle to the gouernour, and presented Paul also vnto him.

34 So when the gouernour had read it, he asked of what ‖ prouince he was: and when he vnderstood that he was of Cilicia, i By this name the Romanes called euery country which they had subdued.

35 I will heare thee, sayd hee, when thine accusers also are come, and commanded him to be kept in Herods iudgement hall.

CHAP. XXIIII.

10 Paul being accused, answereth for his life and doctrine against his accusers. 25 Felix gropeth him, thinking to haue a bribe, 28 And after leaueth him in prison.

NOw after fiue dayes, Ananias the hie Priest came downe with the Elders, and with Tertullus a certaine Oratour, which appeared before the Gouernour against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that wee haue obtayned great quietnesse through thee, and that many worthy things are done vnto this nation through thy prouidence,

3 We acknowledge it wholly, and in all places, most ª noble Felix, with all thankes.

a For Felix by his diligence had taken Eleazarus the captaine of the murtherers, and put the Egyptian to flight which raised vp tumults in Iudea, for these the oratour praiseth him: otherwise he was both cruel and couetous, reade Iosephus lib. 20. Antiq. cap. 11. & 12. & lib. 2. de bello Iudaico cap. 12.

4 But that I be not tedious vnto thee, I pray thee, that thou wouldest heare vs of thy courtesie a few words.

5 Certainely wee haue found this man a pestilent fellow, and a moouer of sedition among all the Iewes throughout the worlde, and a chiefe maintener of the ᵇ sect of the ᶜ Nazarites:

b Or, heresie: for so the wicked termed the true Christian Religion.

c Which taught the people to mainteine their libertie against the Romanes: and though the accusers approued both the sect, and their doctrine, yet to get Paul punished, they seeme to condemne it.

6 And hath gone about to pollute the Temple: therefore we tooke him, and would haue iudged him according to our law:

7 But the ‖ chiefe captaine Lysias came vpon vs, and with great violence tooke him out of our hands,

8 Commanding his accusers to come to thee: of whom thou mayest (if thou wilt inquire) know all these things whereof we accuse him.

‖ Or, captaine of a thousand.

9 And the Iewes likewise affirmed, saying that it was so.

10 Then Paul, after that the gouernour had beckned vnto him that he should speake, answered, I doe the more gladly answere for my selfe, forasmuch as I knowe that thou hast bene of many yeeres a ᵈ iudge vnto this ᵉ nation, d Or, gouernour: for before this, he ruled Trachonitis, Batanea, and Gaulanites.

e So that thou art not ignorant of their fashions.

11 Seeing that thou mayest knowe, that there are but twelue dayes since I came vp ᶠ to worship in Ierusalem.

f Not that his purpose was to worship there, but the Iewes so found him by the counsell of others: for he thought to haue wonne the simple brethren, and to stoppe the enemies mouthes.

12 And they neither founde mee in the Temple disputing with any man, neither making vproare among the people, neither in the Synagogues, nor in the citie.

13 Neither can they proone the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confesse vnto thee, that after the way, which they call ᵍ heresie, so worship I the God of my fathers, beleeuing all things which are written in the Lawe and the Prophets, g As the Scribes and Pharises termed the Christians doctrine.

15 And haue hope towards God, that the resurrection of the dead which they themselues looke for also, shall be both of iust and vniust.

16 And herein I endeuor my selfe to haue

alway a cleare conscience toward God, and toward men.

17 Now after [h] many yeeres I came and brought [*] almes to my nation and offerings.

18 * At what time certaine Iewes of Asia found me purified in the Temple, 19 Neither with multitude, nor with tumult.

20 Who [i] ought to haue bene present before thee, and accuse me, if they had ought against me.

21 Or let these themselues say, if they haue found any vnrulie thing in me, while I stood in the Councell, 22 Except it be for this one voyce, that I cryed standing among them, * Of the resurrection of the dead am I accused of you this day.

23 Now when Felix heard these things, he deferred them, and sayd, When I shall more perfectly know the things which concerne this [‖] way, by the comming of Lysias the chiefe Captaine, I will decise your matter.

24 Then he commanded a Centurion to keepe Paul, and that hee should haue ease, and that hee should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister vnto him, or to come vnto him.

25 ¶ And after certaine dayes came Felix with his wife Drusilla, which was a [k] Iewesse, and hee called for Paul, and heard him of the faith in Christ.

26 And as he disputed of righteousnesse, and temperance, and of the iudgement to come, Felix [l] trembled, and answered, Goe thy way for this time, and when I haue conuenient time, I will call for thee.

27 Hee hoped also that money should haue bene giuen him of Paul, that hee might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.

28 When two yeeres were expired, Portius Festus came into Felix roome: and Felix willing to [‖] get fauour of the Iewes, left Paul bound.

h Meaning, that it was a long time since he had bene at Ierusalem, which was when he brought almes.

2 The Iewes accuse Paul before Festus. 8 Hee answereth for himselfe, 11 And appealeth vnto the Emperour. 14 His matter is rehearsed before Agrippa, 23 And he is brought forth.

WHen Festus was then come into the prouince, after three dayes hee went vp from Cesarea vnto Ierusalem.

2 Then the high Priest, and the chiefe of the Iewes appeared before him against Paul: and they besought him,

3 And [a] desired fauour against him, that hee would sende for him to Ierusalem: and they layd wait to kill him by the way.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cesarea, and that he himselfe would shortly depart thither.

5 Let them therefore, sayde hee, which among you are [b] able, come downe with vs: and if there bee any wickednesse in the man, let them accuse him.

6 ¶ Nowe when hee had tarried among them no more then tenne dayes, hee went downe to Cesarea, and the next day sate in the iudgement seate, and commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when hee was come, the Iewes which were come from Ierusalem stoode about him, and layd many and grieuous complaints against Paul, which they could not proue,

8 Forasmuch as hee answered [c] that hee had neither offended any thing against the law of the Iewes, neither against the Temple, nor against Cesar.

9 Yet Festus willing ‖ to get fauour of the Iewes, answered Paul, and sayd, Wilt thou goe vp to Ierusalem, & there be iudged of these things before me?

10 Then sayd Paul, I stand at [d] Cesars iudgement seate, where I ought to be [e] iudged: to the Iewes I haue done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 For if I haue done wrong, or committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there bee none of these things whereof they accuse mee, no man can deliuer me to them: I appeale vnto Cesar.

12 Then when Festus had spoken with [f] the Councell, he answered, Hast thou appealed vnto Cesar? vnto Cesar shalt thou goe.

13 ¶ And after certaine dayes, King Agrippa and [g] Bernice came downe to Cesarea to salute Festus.

14 And when they had remained there many dayes, Festus proposed Pauls cause vnto the King, saying, There is a certaine man left in prison by Felix.

15 Of whom when I came to Ierusalem, the hie Priestes & Elders of the Iewes informed me, and desired to haue iudgement against him.

16 To whom I answered, that it is not the maner of the Romanes for fauour to deliuer any man to death, before that hee which is accused, haue the accusers before him, and haue place to defende himselfe concerning the crime.

17 Therefore when they were come hither, without delay, the day following I sate on the iudgement seate, and commanded the man to be brought forth.

18 Against whom when the accusers stood vp, they brought no crime of such things as I supposed:

19 But had certaine questions against him of their owne [h] superstition, and of one Iesus which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be aliue.

20 And because I doubted of such maner of question, I asked him, whether hee would go to Ierusalem, and there be iudged of these things.

21 But because hee appealed to be reserued to the examination of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept, til I might send him to Cesar.

22 Then Agrippa saide vnto Festus, I would also heare the man my selfe. To morrow, sayd he, thou shalt heare him.

23 And on the morrowe when Agrippa was come and Bernice with great pompe, and were entred into the ‖ Common hall with the chiefe Captaines and chiefe men of the citie, at Festus commandement mandement Paul was brought foorth.

24 And Festus sayd, King Agrippa, and all men which are present with vs, yee see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Iewes haue called vpon me, both at Ierusalem, and here, crying, that hee ought not to liue any longer.

25 Yet haue I found nothing worthy of death, that hee hath committed: neuertheless, seeing that hee hath appealed to Augustus, I haue determined to send him.

i Flatterers first vsed to call tyrants by this name, and after it so grew into vse, that vertuous Princes refused it not, as appeareth by Plinies epistle to Traiane.

26 Of whome I haue no certaine thing to write vnto my i lord: wherefore I haue brought him foorth vnto you, and specially vnto thee, King Agrippa, that after examination had, I might haue somewhat to write.

27 For mee thinketh it vnreasonable to send a prisoner, and not to shewe the causes which are layd against him.

CHAP. XXVI.

1 The innocencie of Paul is approued by rehearsing his conuersation. 25 His modest answere against the iniurie of Festus.

THen Agrippa sayd vnto Paul, Thou art permitted to speake for thy selfe. So Paul stretched foorth the hand, and answered for himselfe.

2 I thinke my selfe happy, King Agrippa, because I shall answere this day before thee of all the things whereof I am accused of the Iewes:

3 Chiefly, because thou hast knowledge of all customes, and questions which are among the Iewes: wherefore, I beseech thee a to heare me patiently.

a For asmuch as he best vnderstood the religion, he ought to be more attentiue.

4 As touching my life from my childehood, and what it was from the beginning among mine owne nation at Ierusalem, know all the Iewes,

5 Which knew mee heretofore (if they would testifie) that after the most straite b sect of our religion, I liued a Pharisee.

b Paul speaketh of this sect according to the peoples estimation, who preferred it as most holy aboue all others: for their doctrine was least corrupt

6 And now I stand and am accused for the hope of the promise made of God vnto our fathers.

7 Whereunto our twelue tribes instantly seruing God day and night, hope to come: for the which hopes sake, O king Agrippa, I am accused of the Iewes.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible vnto you, that God should raise againe the dead?

9 I also verily thought in my selfe, that I ought to doe many contrary things against the Name of Iesus of Nazaret.

10 *Which thing I also did in Ierusalem: for many of the Saints I shut vp in prison, hauing receiued authority of the hie Priests, and when they were put to death, I c gaue my sentence.

Chap.8.3.

c That is, I approued their crueltie which they vsed against them.

11 And I punished them throughout all the Synagogues, and compelled them to blaspheme, and being more madde against them, I persecuted them, euen vnto strange cities.

12 At which time euen as I went to *Damascus with authoritie, and commission from the hie Priests,

Chap.9.2,3.

13 At midday, O King, I saw in the way a light from heauen, passing the brightnesse of the sunne, shine round about me, and them which went with me.

14 So when wee were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voyce speaking vnto mee, and saying in the Hebrue tongue, *Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou mee? It is hard for thee to kicke against pricks.

Chap.9.4.and 22.7.

15 Then I sayd, Who art thou, Lorde? And he sayd, I am Iesus, whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise and stand vp on thy feete: for I haue appeared vnto thee for this purpose, to appoint thee a minister and a witnesse, both of the things which thou hast seene, and of the things in the which I wil appeare vnto thee,

17 Deliuering thee from the d people, and from the Gentiles, vnto whom now I send thee, d Of the Iewes.

18 To e open their eyes, that they may turne from darkenesse to light, and from the power of Satan vnto God, that they may receiue forgiuenesse of sinnes, and inheritance among them, which are sanctified by faith in me.

e Although this properly appertaineth vnto God, yet he applieth this vnto his ministers vnto whom he giueth his holy Spirit.

19 Wherefore, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient vnto the heauenly vision, 20 *But shewed first vnto them of Damascus, and at Ierusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Iudea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent, and turne to God, and doe works woorthy amendment of life.

Chap.9 22,26. and 13,14,16.

21 For this cause the Iewes caught mee in the *Temple, and went about to kill me.

Chap.21.30.

22 Neuertheless, I obtained helpe of God, and continue vnto this day, witnessing both to small and to great, saying none other things, then those which the Prophets and Moses did say should come,

23 To wit, that Christ should suffer, and that hee should bee the first that should rise from the dead, and should shew light vnto the people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus answered for himselfe, Festus sayd with a loud voyce, Paul, thou art beside thy selfe: much learning doeth make thee mad.

25 But he sayd, I am not mad, O noble Festus, but I speake the words of truth and soberneste.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speake boldly: for I am perswaded that f none of these things are hid from him: for this thing was not done in a corner.

f He knew that the Law and the Prophets were of God, but he did not vnderstand the true applying of the same.

27 O King Agrippa, beleeuest thou the Prophets? I know that thou beleeuest.

28 Then Agrippa sayde vnto Paul, Almost thou perswadest me to become a Christian.

29 Then Paul sayde, I would to God, that not onely thou, but also all that heare me to day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And when hee had thus spoken, the King rose vp, and the gouernour, and Bernice, and they that sate with them.

31 And when they were gone apart, they talked betweene themselues, saying, This man doeth nothing woorthy of death, nor not of bondes.

32 Then sayde Agrippa vnto Festus, This man might haue bene loosed, if he had not appealed vnto Cesar.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Pauls dangerous voyage, and his company toward Rome. 44 How, and where they arriue.

NOw when it was concluded, that wee should sayle into Italie, they deliuered both Paul, and certaine other prisoners vnto a Centurion named Julius, of the band of Augustus.

2 And * wee entred into a ship of Adramyttium, purposing to sayle by the coastes of Asia, and launched foorth, and had Aristarchus of Macedonia, a Thessalonian, with vs. 2.Cor.11.25.

3 And the next day we arriued at Sidon: and Julius courteously intreated Paul, and gaue him libertie to goe vnto his friendes, that they might refresh him.

4 And from thence we launched, & sayled heard by * Cyprus, because the windes were contrary.

a From Sidon to Myra they should haue sayled North, and by West: but the windes cauled them to saile to Cyprus plaine North: thence to Cilicia North & by East, and so to Pamphylia and Myra plaine West.

5 Then sailed we ouer the sea by Cilicia, and Pamphylia, and came to Myra, a citie in Lycia.

6 And there the Centurion found a ship of Alexandria, sayling into Italie, and put vs therein.

7 And when we had sayled slowly many dayes, and scarse were come against Gnidum, because the winde suffered vs not, we sayled hard by ‖ Candie, neere to b Salmone, b Which was an high hill of Candie bowing to the seaward.

‖ Or, Creta.

8 And with much adoe sayled beyond it, and came vnto a certaine place called the Faire hauens, neere vnto the which was the citie Lasea.

9 So when much time was spent, and sayling was now ieopardous, because also the c Fast was now passed, Paul exhorted them, c This fast the Iewes obserued about the moneth of October in the feast of their expiation, Leuit. 23 37. So that Paul thought it better to winter there, then to sayle in the deepe of winter which was at hand.

10 And sayd vnto them, Syrs, I see that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not of the lading and ship onely, but also of our liues.

11 Neuertheless the Centurion beleeued rather the gouernour and the master of the ship, then those things which were spoken of Paul.

12 And because the hauen was not commodious to winter in, many tooke counsell to depart thence, if by any meanes they might attaine to Phenice, there to winter, which is an hauen of Candie, and lyeth toward the Southwest and by West, and Northwest and by West.

d That is, the Northeast wind or euery East wind that is furious and stormie.

13 And when the Southerne winde blew softly, they supposing to obtaine their purpose, loosed neerer, and sayled by Candie.

e This Ile was West and by South from Candie streight toward the gulfe Syrtes, which were certaine boyling sandes that swallowed vp all that they caught.

14 But anon after, there arose by it a stormie winde called d Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not resist the wind, we let her goe, and were carried away.

16 And wee ranne vnder a little Ile named e Clauda, and had much adoe to get the boate.

17 Which they tooke vp and vsed all helpe, vndergirding the shippe, fearing lest they should haue fallen into Syrtes, and they let downe the ‖ vessell, and so were caried.

‖ Or, boate.

18 The next day when wee were tossed with an exceeding tempest, they‖ lightened the ship.

‖ Or, cast out the wares.

19 And the third day wee cast out with our owne hands the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither sunne nor starres in many dayes appeared, and no small tempest lay vpon vs, all hope that we should be saued, was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence, Paul stood foorth in the middes of them, and sayd, Syrs, yee should haue hearkened to mee, and not haue loosed from Candie: so should ye haue f gained this hurt and losse.

f That is, yee should haue auoided the losse by auoiding the danger.

22 But now I exhort you to bee of good courage: for there shall bee no losse of any mans life among you, saue of the shippe onely.

g They coulde not then reproue him of rashnesse, seeing that this was the ordinance of God.

23 For there stoode by me this night the Angel of g God, whose I am, and whome I serue, h The graces & blessings which God giueth to his children, prosite many times the enemies, which are vnworthy to receiue the fruite thereof.

24 Saying, Feare not, Paul: for thou must be brought before Cesar: and loe, God hath giuen vnto h thee all that saile with thee.

25 Wherefore, Syrs, be of good courage: for I beleeue God, that it shall bee so as it hath bene tolde me.

i Faith is grounded vpon the word of God.

26 Howbeit, we must be cast into a certaine Iland.

27 And when the fourteenth night was come, as we were carried to and fro in the k Adriaticall sea about midnight, the shipmen deemed that some countrey approched vnto them, k This sea is Strabos time was taken for all that part, which was about the mountaines called Ceraunij, and so diuideth Italy from Dalmatia, and goeth vp to Venice.

28 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded againe, and found fiftene fathoms.

29 Then fearing least they should haue fallen into some rough places, they cast foure ancres out of the sterne, and wished that the day were come.

l Paul would vse such meanes as God had ordeined, least hee should seeme to haue tempted him.

30 Nowe as the mariners were about to flee out of the ship, and had let downe the boate into the sea vnder a colour as though they would haue cast ancres out of the forepart of the shippe, 31 Paul said vnto the Centurion, and the souldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be safe.

32 Then the souldiers cut off the ropes of the boate, and let it fall away.

m He meaneth an extraordinary abstinence, which came of the feare of death, and so tooke away their appetite.

33 And when it began to bee day, Paul exhorted them all to take meate, saying, This is the fourteenth day that yee haue tarryed, and continued m fasting, receiuing nothing.

n By this Hebrew phrase is meant that they should be in all points safe, and found, 1. Sam. 14 45 1. King. 1.52. Mat. 10.30.

34 Wherefore I exhort you to take meat: for this is for your safegarde: for there shall not n an haire fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when hee had thus spoken, hee tooke bread, and gaue thankes to God, in presence of them all, and brake it, and began to eate.

36 Then were they all of good courage, and they alſo tooke meate.

37 Now wee were in the ſhip in all two hundreth threeſcore and ſixteene ſoules.

38 And when they had eaten ynough, they lightened the ſhippe, and caſt out the wheate into the ſea.

39 And when it was day, they knew not the countrey, but they ſpied a certaine creeke with a banke, into the which they were minded (if it were poſſible) to thruſt in the ſhippe.

40 So when they had taken vp the ancres, they committed the ſhippe vnto the ſea, and looſed the rudder bonds, and hoyſed vp the maine ſaile to the winde, and drew to the ſhore.

41 And when they fell into a place, where two ſeas met, they thruſt in the ſhippe: and the fore-part ſtucke faſt, and could not bee moued, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waues.

o This declareth the great & barbarous ingratitude of the wicked, which can not be wonne by any benefits.

42 Then the ſouldiers counſell was o to kill the priſoners: leaſt any of them, when he had (womme out, ſhould flee away.

43 But the Centurion willing to ſaue Paul, ſtayed them from this counſell, and commaunded that they that could ſwimme, ſhould caſt themſelues firſt into the ſea, and goe out to land:

44 And the other ſome on boards, and ſome on certaine pieces of the ſhip: and ſo it came to paſſe, that they came all ſafe to land.

CHAP. XXVIII.

2 Paul with his company are gently intreated of the barbarous people. 5 The viper burteth him not. 8 He healeth Publius father and others, and being furniſhed by them of things neceſſarie, he fared toward Rome, 15 Where being receiued of the brethren, he declareth hu buſineſſe, 30 And there preacheth two yeeres.

AND when they were come ſafe, then they knewe that the yle was called a Melita.

a Now called Malta.

2 And the Barbarians ſhewed vs no litle kindneſſe: for they kindled a fire, and receiued vs euery one, becauſe of the preſent ſhowre, and becauſe of the cold.

3 And when Paul had gathered a number of ſtickes, and layed them on the ‖ fire, there came a viper out of the heate, and lept on his hand.

‖ Or, heape.

4 Now when the Barbarians ſawe the worme hang on his hande, they layde among themſelues, This man ſurely is a b murtherer, whom, though hee hath eſcaped the ſea, yet c vengeance hath not ſuffered to liue.

b Such is the peruerſe iudgement of men that they condemne ſuch as they ſee in any affliction.

c Whom they made a goddeſſe and called her Dice, or Nemeſis.

5 But hee ſhooke off the worme into the fire, and felt no harme.

6 Howbeit they waited when hee ſhould haue ſwollen, or fallen downe dead ſuddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and ſaw no inconuenience come to him, they changed their mindes, and ſayd, That hee was a d God.

d Behold the extremitie of theſe infidels, and how much they are bent to ſuperſtition: for after one rage and errour they fell into another.

7 In the ſame quarters, the chiefe man of the Ile (whoſe name was Publius) had poſſeſſions: the ſame receiued vs, and lodged vs three dayes courteouſly.

8 And ſo it was, that the father of Publius lay ſicke of the feuer, and of a bloody flixe: to whom Paul entred in, and when he prayed, he layed his handes on him, and healed him.

9 When this then was done, other alſo in the Ile, which had diſeaſes, came to him and were healed,

10 Which alſo did vs great honour: and when wee departed, they laded vs with things neceſſarie.

11 ¶ Now after three moneths wee departed in a ſhip of Alexandria, which had wintred in the Ile, whoſe badge was e Caſtor and Pollux.

e These the Painims fained to be Iupiters children and gods of the ſea.

12 And when wee arriued at Syracuſe, we taried there three dayes.

13 And from thence wee fet a compaſſe, and came to Rhegium: and after one day, the South winde blew, and we came the ſecond day to Puteoli, 14 Where wee found brethren, and were deſired to tary with them ſeuen dayes, and ſo we went toward Rome.

15 ¶ And from thence, when the brethren heard of vs, they came to meete vs at the Market of Appius, and at the f Three ‖ tauernes, whom when Paul ſaw, hee thanked God, and waxed bold.

f These places were diſtant from Rome a dayes iourney, or thereabout.

‖ Or, ſhops.

16 So when wee came to Rome, the Centurion deliuered the priſoners to the generall Captaine: but Paul was g ſuffered to dwel by himſelfe with a ſouldier that kept him.

g No doubt the captaine vnderſtood both by Feſtus letters, and alſo by the report of the vnder captaine, that Paul had committed no fault.

17 And the thirde day after, Paul called the chiefe of the Iewes together: and when they were come, he ſayd vnto them, Men and brethren, though I haue committed nothing againſt the people or Lawes of the fathers, yet was I deliuered priſoner from Ieruſalem into the hands of the Romanes.

18 Who when they had examined mee, would haue let me goe, becauſe there was no cauſe of death in me.

19 But when the Iewes ſpake contrary, I was conſtrayned to appeale vnto Ceſar, not becauſe I had ought to accuſe my nation of.

20 For this cauſe therefore haue I called for you, to ſee you, and to ſpeake with you: for the hope of h Iſraels ſake, I am bound with this chaine.

h That is, for Ieſus Chriſts cauſe, whom they had long looked for as he that ſhould be the redeemer of the world.

21 Then they ſayd vnto him, We neither receiued letters out of Iudea concerning thee, neither came any of the brethren that ſhewed or ſpake any euill of thee.

22 But wee will heare of thee what thou thinkeſt: for as concerning this ſect, wee knowe that euery where it is ſpoken againſt.

23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many vnto him into his lodging, to whom hee expounded and teſtified the i kingdome of God, and preached vnto them concerning Ieſus, both out of the Lawe of Moſes, and out of the Prophets, from morning to night.

i That this kingdome, which was ſpoken of by the Prophets, was offred vnto them by the comming of Chriſt.

24 And ſome were perſwaded with the things, which were ſpoken, and ſome beleeued not.

25 Therefore when they agreed not among themſelues themselues, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, to wit, Well spake the holy Ghost by Esaias the Prophet vnto our fathers, 26 Saying, k Go vnto this people, and say, By hearing yee shall heare, and shall not vnderstand, and seeing ye shall see, and not perceiue.

27 For the heart of this people is waxed fatte, and their eares are dull of hearing, and with their eyes haue they winked, least they should see with their eyes, and heare with their eares, and vnderstande with their hearts, and should returne that I might l heale them.

28 Be it knowen therefore vnto you, that this saluation of God is sent to the Gentiles, and they shall heare it.

29 And when hee had sayd these things, the Iewes departed, and had great reasoning among themselues.

30 And Paul remained two yeeres full in an house hired for himselfe, and receiued all that came in vnto him, 31 Preaching the kingdome of God, and teaching those things, which concerne the Lorde Iesus Christ, with all boldnesse of speech, without let.

k Hereby the hearts of the infidels ought to be mollified, and the weakelings confirmed that they be not offended by the stubburnesse of the wicked.

l The Word of God healeth when the vertue of the Spirit is ioyned with it: and it is preached generally, that all men might be inexcusable.

The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Romanes.

THE ARGVMENT.

THe great mercie of God is declared toward man in Christ Iesus, whose righteousnesse is made ours through faith. For when man by reason of his own corruption could not fulfill the Law, yea, committed most abominably, both against the Law of God, and nature, the infinite bountie of God, mindfull of his promise made to his seruant Abraham, the father of all beleeuers, ordeined that mans saluation should onely stand in the perfect obedience of his Sonne Iesus Christ: so that not onely the circumcised Iewes, but also the vncircumcised Gentiles should be saued by faith in him: euen as Abraham before he was circumcised, was counted iust only through faith, & yet afterward receiued circumcision, as a seale or badge of the [illegible]e righteousnesse by faith. And to the intent that none should thinke that the couenant which God made to him and his posteritie, was not performed: either because the Iewes receiued not Christ, (which was the blessed seed) or els beleeued not that hee was the true redeemer, because he did not onely, or at least more notably preferue the Iewes: the examples of Ismael, and Esau declare, that all are not Abrahams posteritie, which come of Abraham according to the flesh: but also the very strangers and Gentiles grafted in by faith, are made heires of the promise. The cause whereof is the onely will of God: forasmuch as of his free mercy he electeth some to be saued, and of his iust iudgement reiecteth others to be damned, as appeareth by the testimonies of the Scriptures. Yet to the intent that the Iewes should not be too much beaten downe, nor the Gentiles too much pusted vp, the example of Elias prooueth, that God hath yet his elect euen of the naturall posteritie of Abraham, though it appeareth not so to mans eye: and for that preferment that the Gentiles haue, it proceedeth of the liberall mercy of God, which he at length wil stretch toward the Iewes againe, and so gather the whole Israel (which is his Church) of them both. This ground-worke of faith and doctrine laied, instructions of Christian maners follow: teaching euery man to walke in soundnesse of conscience in his vocation, with all patience and humblenesse, reuerencing and obeying the magistrate, exercising charitie, putting off the olde man, and putting on Christ, bearing with the weake, and louing one another according to Christes example. Finally, S. Paul after his commendations to the brethren, exhorteth them to vnitie, and to flee false preachers and flatterers, and so concludeth with a prayer.

PAVL a seruant of Iesus Christ, a called to bee an Apostle, b put apart to preach the Gospel of God,

2 (Which he had promised afore by his c Prophets in the c holy Scriptures)

3 Concerning his Sonne Iesus Christ our Lorde (which was made of the d seed of Dauid according to the flesh,

4 And declared mightily to be the Sonne of God, touching the Spirit of e sanctification by the resurrection from the dead)

5 By whom wee haue receiued f grace and Apostleship (that obedience might bee giuen vnto the faith) in his Name among all the Gentiles,

6 Among whom ye be also the g called of Iesus Christ:

7 To all you that be at Rome beloued of God, called to be Saints: h Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

8 First I thanke my God through IESVS Christ for you all, because your faith is published throughout i the whole world.

9 For God is my witnes (whom I serue in my k spirit in the l Gospell of his Sonne) that without ceasing I make mention of you

10 Allwayes in my prayers, beseeching, that by some meanes one time or other I might haue a prosperous iourney by the will of God to come vnto you.

11 * For I long to see you, that I might bestowe vpon you some spirituall gift, to strengthen you, 12 That is, that I might bee comforted together with you, through our mutual faith, both yours and mine.

13 Now my brethren, I would that yee should not bee ignorant, how that I haue oftentimes purposed to come vnto you (but haue bene [m] let hitherto) that I might haue some [a] fruite also among you, as I haue among the other Gentiles.

14 I am debter both to the Grecians, and to the Barbarians, both to the wise men, and to the vnwise.

15 Therefore as much as in mee is, I am ready to preach the Gospel to you also that are at Rome.

16 For I am not [o] ashamed of the Gospel of Christ: for it is the * [p] power of God vnto saluation to euery one that beleeueth, to the Iewe first, and also to the ‖ Grecian.

17 For by it the [q] righteousnesse of [r] God is reueiled, from faith to faith: as it is written, * The iust shall liue by faith.

18 For the wrath of God is reueiled from heauen against all [s] vngodlinesse, and vnrighteousnesse of men, which withholde the trueth [t] in vnrighteousnesse, 19 For asmuch as that, which may bee knowen of God, is manifest in them: for God hath shewed it vnto them.

20 For the inuisible things of him, that is, his eternall power and Godhead, are seene by the creation of the world, being considered in his workes, to the intent that they should be without excuse:

21 * Because that when they knew God, they [u] glorified him not as God, neither were thankefull, but became vaine in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was full of darknesse.

22 When they professed themselues to be wise, they became fooles.

23 For they turned the glory of the incorruptible GOD to the similitude of the image of a corruptible man, and of birdes, and foure footed beastes, and of creeping things.

24 Wherefore also God gaue [x] them vp to their hearts lustes, vnto vncleannesse, to defile their owne bodies betweene themselues:

25 Which turned the trueth of God vnto a lie, and worshipped and serued the creature, ‖ forsaking the Creator, which is blessed for euer, Amen.

26 For this cause God gaue them vp vnto vile affections: for euen their women did 28 For as they regarded not to knowe God, euen so God deliuered them vp vnto a [z] reprobate mind, to doe those things which are not conuenient, 9 Tribulation and anguiſh ſhal be vpon the ſoule of euery man that doeth euill: of the Iew firſt, and alſo of the f Grecian.

10 But to euery man that doeth good, ſhalbe glory, and honour, and peace, to the Iew firſt, and alſo to the Grecian.

12 For as many as haue ſinned without the Law, ſhal periſh alſo h without the Law: and as many as haue ſinned in the Lawe, ſhall be iudged by the Lawe, 13 (* For the hearers of the Law are not righteous before God: but the doers of the Law ſhalbe iuſtified.
14 For when the Gentiles which haue not the Law, doe by nature the things conteined in the Law, they hauing not the Law, are a Law vnto themſelues, 15 Which ſhewe the effect of the Law written in their i hearts, their conſcience alſo bearing witnes, and their thoughts accuſing one another, or excuſing,) 16 At the day when God ſhall iudge the ſecrets of men by Iesus Chriſt, according to my Goſpel.
17 k Beholde, thou art called a Iew, and reſteſt in the Law, and * gloryeſt in God, 18 And knoweſt his will, and ‖allowest the things that are excellent, in that thou art inſtructed by the Law:
19 And perſwadeſt thy ſelfe that thou art a guide of the blinde, a light of them which are in darkeneſſe,
20 An inſtructer of them which lacke diſcretion, a teacher of the vnlearned, which haſt the l forme of knowledge, and of the trueth in the Law.
21 Thou therefore which teacheſt another, teacheſt thou not thy ſelfe? thou that preacheſt, A man ſhould not ſteale, doeſt thou ſteale?
22 Thou that ſayeſt, A man ſhould not commit adulterie, doeſt thou commit adulterie? thou that abhorreſt idoles, committeſt thou ſacrilege?
23 Thou that gloryeſt in the Lawe, throughe breaking the Lawe, diſhonoureſt thou God?
24 For the name of God is blaſphemed among the Gentiles through you, * as it is written.
25 For circumciſion verily is profitable, if thou doe the Law: but if thou be a tranſgreſſour of the Law, thy m circumciſion is made vncircumciſion.
26 Therefore if the vncircumciſion keepe the ordinances of the Law, ſhall not his vncircumciſion be counted for circumciſion?
27 And ſhall not vncircumciſion which is by nature (if it keepe the Lawe) ‖iudge thee, which by the n letter and circumciſion are a tranſgreſſour of the Law?
28 For hee is not a Iewe, which is one outwardly: neither is that circumciſion, which is outward in the fleſh:
29 But he is a Iew which is one within, and the * circumciſion is of the heart, in the o ſpirite, not in the letter, whoſe prayſe is not of men, but of God.

CHAP. III.

1 Having granted (some prerogatiue to the Iewes, because of Gods free and ſtable promiſe, 10 he proueth by the Scriptures, both Iewes and Gentiles to be ſinners, 21. 24 and to be iuſtified by grace through faith, and not by works, 31 and ſo the Lawe to be eſtabliſhed.

WHat is then the preferment of the Iew? or what is the profit of circumciſion?
2 Much euery maner of way: for chiefly, because vnto them were committed the ‖ oracles of God.
3 For what though ſome did not beleeue? ſhall their * vnbeliefe make the ‖ faith of God without effect?
4 God forbid: yea, let God be * true, and * euery man a lyar, as it is written, * That thou mighteſt be a iuſtified in thy wordes, and ouercome when thou art iudged.
5 Nowe if b our vnrighteouſneſſe commend the righteouſneſſe of God, what ſhall we ſay? Is God vnrighteous which puniſheth? (I ſpeake c as a man)
6 God forbid: els howe ſhall God iudge the world?
7 For if the veritie of God hath more abounded, through my lie, vnto his glory, why am I yet condemned as a ſinner?
8 And (as wee are blamed, and as ſome affirme that we ſay) why doe wee not euill, that good may come thereof? whoſe damnation is iuſt.
9 What then? d are we more excellent? No, in no wiſe: for wee haue already proued, that all, both Iewes and Gentiles are * vnder ſinne, 10 As it is written, * There is none righteous, no not one.
11 There is none that vnderſtandeth: there is none that ſeeketh God.
12 They haue all gone out of ẏ way: they haue bene made altogether vnprofitable: there is none that doth good, no not one.

Chap.1.17.

i The word signifieth them which are left behind in the race, and are not able to run to the marke, that is to euerlasting life, which here is called the glory of God.

k Or, fidelitie in performing his promise.

l The law of faith is the Gospel which offereth saluation with condition (if thou beleeuest) which condition also Christ freely giueth to vs. So the condition of the Law is (if thou doest all these things) the which onely Christ hath fulfilled for vs.

m Meaning, that they are all iustified by one meanes, and if they will haue any difference, it onely standeth in wordes: for in effect there is none.

n The doctrine of faith is the ornament of the Law: for it embraceth Christ, who by his death hath satisfied the Law: so that the Law which could not bring vs to saluation by reason of our owne corruption, is nowe made effectuall to vs by Christ Iesus.

21 But now is the * righteousnes of God made manifest without the Lawe, hauing witnesse of the Law and of the Prophets, 22 To wit, the righteousnesse of God by the faith of Iesus Christ, vnto all, and vpon all that beleeue.

23 For there is no difference: for all haue sinned, and are i depriued of the glory of God,

24 And are iustified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Iesus,

25 Whom God hath set foorth to be a reconciliation through faith in his blood, to declare his k righteousnesse, by the forgiuenesse of the sinnes that are passed, through the patience of God,

26 To shewe at this time his righteousnesse, that hee might be iust, and a iustifier of him which is of the faith of Iesus.

27 Where is then the reioycing? It is excluded. By what Law? of workes? Nay: but by the l Law of faith.

28 Therefore we conclude, that a man is iustified by faith without the workes of the Law.

29 God, is he the God of the Iewes onely, and not of the Gentiles also? Yes, euen of the Gentiles also.

30 For it is one God who shall iustifie circumcision m of faith and vncircumcision through faith.

31 Doe wee then make the Law of none effect through faith? God forbid: yea, n we establish the Law.

10 How was it then imputed? when hee was circumcised, or vncircumcised? not whē he was circumcised, but when he was vncircumcised.

11 *After he receiued the signe of circumcision, as the seale of the righteousnesse of the faith which he had, when he was vncircumcised, that he should be the father of all them that beleeue, not being circumcised, ỹ righteousnesse might be imputed to them also,

Gen.17.10.

12 And the father of circumcision, not vnto them onely which are of the circumcision, but vnto them also that walke in the g steps of the faith of our father Abraham, which he had when he was vncircumcised.

13 For the promise that he should bee the heire of the worlde was not giuen to Abraham, or to his seed, through the h Lawe, but through the righteousnesse of faith.

14 For if they which i are of the Law, be k heires, faith is made voyd, and the promise is made of none effect.

15 For the Lawe causeth l wrath: for where no Law is, there is no m transgression.

16 Therefore it is by faith, that it might come by grace, and the promise might bee sure to n all the seede, not to that onely which is of the Lawe: but also to that which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of vs all,

17 (As it is written, * I haue made thee a father of many nations) euen o before God whom hee beleeued, who quickneth the p dead, and calleth those things which bee not, as though they were.

18 Which Abraham aboue hope, beleeued vnder hope, that he should bee the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken to him, * So shall thy seed be.

19 And hee not weake in the faith, considered not his owne body, which was nowe dead, being almost an hundred yere old, neither q the deadnesse of Saras wombe.

20 Neither did hee doubt of the promise of God through vnbeliefe, but was strengthened in the faith, and gaue r glory to God, 21 Being fully assured that he which had promised, was also able to doe it.

22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousnesse.

23 Now it is not written for him onely, that it was imputed vnto him for righteousnesse, 24 But also s for vs, to whome it shall be imputed for righteousnesse, which beleeue in him that raised vp Iesus our Lord from the dead.

25 Who was deliuered to death for our sinnes, and t is risen againe for our iustification.

g This may not be vnderstood of the fruits of faith: (for thereof the Apostle doeth hereafter expressly intreat) but of the faith it selfe.

h In fulfilling ỹ works thereof.

i And thinke to performe the same by works.

k If it be requisite to fulfill the law for him that shalbe of Abrahams inheritāce, then it is in vaine to beleeue the promise: for it serueth to no vse.

l Through our default, and not of it selfe.

m That is, no breach of commandement.

n Which beleeue.

Gen.17.4.

o By a spiritual kinred, which God chiefly accepteth.

p Abraham begate the circumcised, euen by the vertue of faith, and not by the power of nature, which was extinguished: so the Gentiles which were nothing, are called by the power of God to be of the number of the faithfull.

Gen.15.5.

CHAP. IIII.

1. 17 How declareth that iustification is a free gift, euen by them themselues of whom the Iewes most boasted, as of Abraham and of Dauid, 15 And also by the office of the Law and faith.

a That is, by works.

b He might pretend some merite or worke worthy to be recōpensed.

c Meriteth by his works.

d That dependeth not on his works, neither thinketh to merite by them.

e Which maketh him that is wicked in himselfe, iust in Christ.

Psal.32.1.

f Vnder this excellent sacrament he comprehendeth the whole Law.

WHat shall we say then, that Abraham our father hath found a concerning the flesh?

2 For if Abraham were iustified by workes, he hath wherein to b reioyce, but not with God.

3 For what saith the Scripture? * Abraham beleeued God, and it was counted to him for righteousnesse.

4 Now to him that c worketh, the wages is not counted by fauour, but by debt:

5 But to him that d worketh not, but beleeueth in him that e iustifieth the vngodly, his faith is counted for righteousnesse.

6 Euen as Dauid declareth the blessednesse of the man, vnto whom God imputeth righteousnesse without works, saying,

7 * Blessed are they, whose iniquities are forgiuen, and whose sinnes are couered.

8 Blessed is the man, to whom the Lord imputeth not sinne.

9 Came this blessednesse then vpon the f circumcision onely, or vpon the vncircumcision also? For we say, that faith was imputed vnto Abraham for righteousnesse.

q But most strong and constant.

r In that shee was past child bearing.

s For his mercy and trueth.

t For our instruction: for wee shall be iustified by the same meanes.

u To accomplish, and make perfect our iustification.

CHAP. V.

1 He declareth the fruits of faith, 7 And by comparison setteth foorth the loue of God and obedience of Christ, which is the foundation and ground of the same,

THen being iustified by faith, wee haue [a] peace toward God through our Lorde Iesus Christ.

2 * By whom also wee haue accesse through faith vnto this grace, wherein wee stand, and reioyce vnder the hope of the glory of God.

3 Neither doe we so only, but also we * reioyce in tribulations, knowing that tribulation bringeth forth patience,

4 And patience experience, and experience hope,

5 And hope maketh not [b] ashamed, because the [c] loue of God is shead abroade in our hearts by the holy Ghost, which is giuen vnto vs.

6 For Christ, when wee were yet of no strength, at his time, died for the * vngodly.

7 Doubtlesse one will scarce die for a [d] righteous man: but yet for a [e] good man it may be that one dare die.

8 But God setteth out his loue toward vs, seeing that while wee were yet sinners, Christ died for vs.

9 Much more then, being nowe iustified by his blood, wee shall be saued from wrath through him.

10 For if when wee were [f] enemies wee were reconciled to God by the death of his Sonne, much more being reconciled, wee shall be saued by his life.

11 And not onely so, but wee also reioyce in God through our Lorde Iesus Christ, by whom wee haue nowe receiued the atonement.

12 Wherefore, as by one man sinne entred into the world, and death by sinne, and so death went ouer all men: for asmuch as all men haue sinned.

13 For vnto the time [g] of the Lawe was sinne in the worlde, but sinne is not imputed, while there is no Lawe.

14 But death raigned from Adam to Moses, euen ouer them also that sinned not [h] after the like maner of the transgression of [i] Adam, which was the figure of [k] him that was to come.

15 But yet the gift is not so, as is the offence: for if through the offence of one, many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man Iesus Christ, hath abounded vnto many.

16 Neither is the gift so, as that which entred in by one that sinned: for the fault came of one offence vnto condemnation: but the gift is [l] of many offences to iustification.

17 For if by the offence of one death raigned through one, much more shall they which receiue the aboundance of grace, and of the gift of [m] righteousnes, raigne in life through one, that is, Iesus Christ.

18 Likewise then, as by the offence of one the fault came on all men to condemnation, so by the iustifying of one, the benefite abounded towarde [n] all men to the iustification of life.

19 For as by one mans disobedience, many were made sinners: so by the obedience of one, shall many also bee made righteous.

20 Moreouer the [o] Law entred thereupon, that the offence should [p] abounde: neuertheless, where sinne abounded, there grace abounded much more:

21 That as sinne had raigned vnto death, so might grace also raigne by righteousnesse vnto eternall life, through Iesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VI.

Because no man should glorie in the flesh, but rather seeke to subdue it to the spirit, 3 How sheweth by the vertue and ende of Baptisme, 5 That regeneration is ioyned with iustification, and therefore exhorteth to godly life, 21 Setting before mens eyes the reward of sinne and righteousnesse.

WHat shall wee say then? Shall we continue still in sinne, that grace may abounde? God forbid.

2 How shall we that are [a] dead to sinne, liue yet therein?

3 Know ye not, that * all we which haue bene baptized into [b] Iesus Christ, haue bene baptized into his death?

4 * Wee are buried then with him by baptisme into his death, that like as Christ was raised vp from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we also should * walke in newnesse of life.

5 * For if wee be [c] grafted with him [d] to the similitude of his death, euen so shall wee be to the similitude of his resurrection,

6 Knowing this, that our olde man is crucified with him, that the [e] body of sinne might bee destroyed, that henceforth wee should not serue sinne.

7 For hee that is dead is [f] freed from sinne.

8 Wherefore, if we be dead with Christ, we beleeue that we shall also liue with him, 9 Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead, dieth no more: death hath no more dominion ouer him.

10 For in that he died, he died once [g] to sinne: but in that hee liueth, hee liueth to [h] God.

11 Likewise thinke yee also, that yee are [i] dead to sinne, but are aliue [k] to God in Iesus Christ our Lord.

12 Let not sinne reigne therefore in your mortall body, that yee should obey it in the [l] lusts thereof.

13 Neither giue yee your members as [§] weapons of vnrighteousnesse vnto sinne: but giue your selues vnto God, as they that are aliue from the dead, and giue your members as weapons of righteousnesse vnto God.

e The flesh wherein sinne sticketh fast.

f Because that being dead we cannot sinne.

g That he might destroy sinne in our flesh.

h And sitteth at the right hand of the Father.

i We may gather that wee are dead to sinne, when sinne begineth to die in vs: which is by the participation of Christes death, by whom also being quickened, we liue to God, that is, to righteousnesse.

k In that ye are led with the Spirit of God.

l The minde first ministreth euill motions, whereby mans will is entised: thence burst foorth the lusts, by them the body is prouoked, and the body by his actions doth solicit the minde: therefore he commandeth, at the least, that we rule our bodies.

§ Or, instruments, or, armour.

14 For sinne shall not haue dominion ouer you: for ye are not vnder the m Law, but vnder n grace.

15 What then? shall we sinne, because we are not vnder the Lawe, but vnder grace? God forbid.

16 * Know ye not that to whomsoeuer ye giue your selues as seruants to obey, his seruants ye are, to whom ye obey, whether it be of sinne vnto death, or of o obedience vnto righteousnes?

17 But God be thanked, that ye haue bene the seruants of sinne, but yee haue obeyed frō the heart vnto the forme of the doctrine, whereunto ye were p deliuered.

18 Being then made q free from sinne, yee are made the seruants of righteousnes.

19 I speake r after the maner of man, because of the infirmitie of your flesh: for as ye haue giuen your members seruants to vncleannesse and to iniquitie, to commit iniquitie, so now giue your members seruants vnto righteousnes in holinesse.

20 For when yee were the seruants of sinne, ye were freed from righteousnes.

21 What fruite had yee then in those things, whereof yee are now ashamed? For the ſ ende of those things is death.

22 But nowe being freed from sinne, and made seruants vnto God, yee haue your fruite in holinesse, and the ende, euerlasting life.

23 For the t wages of sinne is death: but the gift of God is eternall life through Iesus Christ our Lord,

6 But nowe wee are deliuered from the Lawe, being dead e vnto it, wherein wee were holden, that wee shoulde serue in newnesse of spirit, and not in the oldnesse of the letter.

7 f What shall wee say then? Is the Law sinne? God forbid. Nay, I knewe not sinne, but by the Law: for I had not knowen lust, except the Lawe had sayde, * Thou shalt not lust.

8 But sinne tooke an occasion by the commandement, and wrought in mee all maner of concupiscence: for without the law sinne is dead.

9 For I once h was aliue, without the lawe: but when the commandement came, sinne reuiued, 10 But I died: and the same commaundement which was ordeined vnto life, was found to be vnto me vnto death.

11 For sinne tooke occasion by the commandement, and deceiued mee, and thereby slew me.

12 Wherefore the Law is * holy, and the commaundement is holy, and iust, and good.

13 Was that then which is good, made death vnto mee? God forbid: but sinne, that it might i appeare sinne, wrought death in mee by that which is good, that sinne might be out of measure sinfull by the commandement.

14 For wee know that the Lawe k is spirituall, but I am carnall, solde vnder sinne.

15 For I allowe not that which I doe: for what I l would, that doe I not: but what I hate, that do I.

16 If I do then that which I would not, I consent to the Law, that it is good.

17 Nowe then, it is no moze I, that doe m it, but the sinne that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know that in me, that is, in my ‖ flesh dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with mee: but I finde no meanes to performe that which is good.

19 For I doe not the good thing, which I would, n but the euill, which I would not, that doe I.

20 Nowe if I doe that I would not, it is no moze I that do it, but the sinne that dwelleth in me.

21 I finde then by the Law, that when I would do good, euil is present with me.

22 For I delight in the Law of God, concerning the o inner man:

23 But I see another ‖ Lawe in my p members, rebelling against the Lawe of my minde, and leading mee captiue vnto the lawe of sinne, which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am, who shall deliuer mee from the q body of this death?

25 I thanke God through Iesus Christ our Lorde. Then I my selfe in my r minde serue the Lawe of God, but in my ſ flesh the lawe of sinne.

CHAP. VII.

1.7.12 The vse of the Lawe, 6.24 And howe Christ hath deliuered vs from it. 16 The infirmitie of the faithfull. 23 The dangerous fight betweene the flesh and the spirit.

KNow yee not, brethren, (for I speake to them that knowe the Lawe) that the a Law hath dominion ouer a man as long as he liueth?

2 * For the b woman which is in subiection to a man, is bound by the Lawe to the man, while hee liueth: but if the man bee dead, shee is deliuered from the lawe of the man.

3 So then, if while the man liueth, shee take another man, shee shall be called an c adulteresse: but if the man bee dead, shee is free from the Lawe, so that shee is not an adulteresse, though she take another man.

4 So yee, my brethren, are dead also to the Lawe by the body of Christ, that yee should be vnto another, euen vnto him that is raised vp from the dead, that wee shoulde bring forth fruit vnto God.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The assurance of the faithfull, and of the fruits of the holy Ghost in them. 3 The weakenes of the Lawe, and who accomplisheth it, 4 And wherefore. 5 Of what sort the faithfull ought to bee. 6 The fruits of the spirite in them. 17 Of hope. 18 Of patience vnder the crosse. 28 Of the mutuall loue betwixt God and his children, 29 Of his fore-knowledge.

NOwe then there is no [a] condemnation to them that are in Christ Iesus, which walke not [b] after the flesh, but after the Spirite.

2 For the [c] Lawe of the Spirite of life, which is in [d] Christ Iesus, hath freed me from the law of sinne and of death.

3 For (that that was impossible to the Lawe, in as much as it was ‖ weake, because of the flesh) God sending his owne Sonne, in the [e] similitude of sinfull flesh, and ‖ for sinne, condemned sinne in the flesh,

4 That the [f] righteousnesse of the Lawe might be fulfilled in vs, which walke not after the flesh, but after the spirit.

5 For they that are after the flesh sauour the [g] things of the flesh: but they that are after the Spirite, the things of the Spirit.

6 For the wisedome of the flesh is death: but the wisedome of the Spirite is life and peace,

7 Because the wisedome of the flesh is enmitie against God: for it is not subiect to the Law of God, neither in deed can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh, cannot please God.

9 Now yee are not in the flesh, but in the Spirite, ‖ because the Spirit of God dwelleth in you: but if any man hath not the Spirit of Christ, the same is not his.

10 And if Christ bee in you, the ‖ body is dead, because of sinne: but the [h] Spirit is life for righteousnesse sake.

11 But if the Spirit of him that raised vp Iesus from the dead, dwell in you, hee that raysed vp Christ from the dead, shall also quicken your mortall bodies, because that his Spirit dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore brethren, we are debters not to the flesh, to liue after the [i] flesh:

13 For if ye liue after the flesh, ye shal die: but if ye mortifie the deeds of the body by the Spirit, ye shall liue.

14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sonnes of God.

15 For yee haue not receiued the spirite of bondage to feare againe: but yee haue receiued the Spirit of [k] adoption, whereby wee cry *Abba, Father.

16 The same Spirite beareth witnesse with our spirite, that wee are the children of God.

17 If we be children, wee are also [m] heires, euen the heires of God, and heires annexed with Christ, if so bee that wee suffer with him, that wee may also bee glorified with him.

18 For I count that the afflictions of this present time, are not ‖ worthy of the glory, which shalbe shewed vnto vs.

19 For the feruent desire of the creature waiteth when the sonnes of God shall be reuelled,

20 Because the [n] creature is subiect to [o] vanitie, not of it owne will, but by reason of him, which hath subdued it vnder hope, 21 Because the creature also shall bee deliuered from the bondage of corruption vnto the glorious libertie of the sonnes of God.

22 For wee knowe that euery [p] creature groneth with vs also, and trauaileth in paine together vnto this present.

23 And not onely the creature, but we also which haue the [q] first fruites of the Spirite, euen wee doe sigh in our selues, waiting for the adoption, euen the * redemption of our [r] body.

24 For wee are saued by hope: but [s] hope that is seene, is not hope: for how can a man hope for that which he seeth?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, we doe with patience abide for it.

26 Likewise the Spirite also helpeth our infirmities: for wee knowe not what to pray as wee ought: but the Spirit it selfe maketh request for vs with sighes, which cannot bee expressed.

27 But hee that searcheth the heartes, knoweth what is the meaning of the Spirite: for hee [t] maketh request for the Saints, according to the will of God.

28 And wee know that all things worke together for the best vnto them that loue God, euen to them that are called of his purpose.

29 For those which he [u] knewe before, hee also predestinated to bee made like to the [x] image of his Sonne, that he might be the first borne among many brethren.

30 Moreouer, whom hee predestinated, them also hee called, and whom hee called, them also he iustified, and whom he iustified, them also he glorified.

31 What shall wee then say to these things? If God bee on our side, who can bee against vs?

32 Who spared not his owne Sonne, but gaue him for vs all to death, how shall he not with him giue vs all things also?

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of Gods chosen? It is God that * [x] iustifieth, 34 Who shall condemne? It is Christ, which is dead, yea or rather, which is risen againe, who is also at the right hand of God, and maketh request also for vs.

35 Who shall separate vs from the loue of [y] Christ? shall tribulation, or anguish, or persecution, or famine, or nakednesse, or perill, or sword?

36 As it is written, * For thy sake are we [z] killed

CHAP. X.

1 After that he had declared his zeale towards them, 3 Hee ſheweth the cauſe of the ruine of the Iewes. 4 The ende of the Lawe. 5 The difference betweene the iuſtice of the Lawe, and of faith. 17 Whereof faith commeth, and to whom it belongeth. 19 The reiection of the Iewes, and calling of the Gentiles.

BRethren, mine hearts desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saued.

2 For I beare them record, that they haue a the zeale of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they, being ignorant of the righteousnesse of God, and going about to stablish their owne righteousnesse, haue not submitted themselues to the righteousnesse of God.

4 * For Christ is the b ende of the Lawe for righteousnesse vnto euery one that beleeueth.

5 For Moses thus describeth the righteousnesse which is of the Lawe, * That the man which doeth these things, shall liue therby.

6 But the righteousnesse which is of faith, speaketh on this wise, c * Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heauen? (that is to bring Christ from aboue)

7 Or, who shall descend into the deepe? (that is to bring Christ againe from the dead)

8 But what sayeth it? * The word is neere thee, euen in thy mouth, and in thine heart, This is the d word of faith which we preach.

9 For if thou shalt confesse with thy mouth the Lord Iesus, and shalt beleeue in thine heart, that God raised him vp from the dead, thou shalt be saued.

10 For with the heart man beleeueth vnto righteousnesse, and with e the mouth man confesseth to saluation.

11 For the Scripture saieth, * Whosoeuer beleeueth in him, shall not be ashamed.

12 For there is no difference betweene the Iewe and the Grecian: for hee that is Lord ouer all, is rich vnto all, that call on him.

13 * For whosoeuer shall call vpon the Name of the Lord, shall be saued.

14 But howe shall they call on him, in whom they haue not beleeued? and how shall they beleeue in him, of whom they haue not heard? and how shall they heare without a preacher?

15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, * How beautifull are the ‖ feete of them which bring glad tidings of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But they haue not all obeyed the Gospel: for Esaias saieth, * Lord, who hath beleeued our f report?

17 Then faith is by hearing, and hearing g by the word of God.

18 But I demaund, Haue h they not heard? * No doubt their i sound went out through all the earth, and their words into the ends of the k world.

19 But I demand, Did not Israel know God? First Moses saieth, * I will prouoke you to enuie by a nation that is not my nation, and by a foolish nation I wil anger you.

20 * And Esaias is bold, and saith, I was found of them that sought me not, and haue bene made manifest to them that asked not after me.

CHAP. XI.

4 God hath his Church, although it be not seene to mans eye. 5 The grace shewed to the elect. 7 The iudgement of the reprobate. 8 God hath blinded the Iewes for a time, and reuealed himselfe to the Gentiles: 18 Whom he warneth to humble themselues. 29 The giftes of God without repentance. 33 The depth of Gods iudgements.

I Demaund then, Hath God cast away his people? God forbid: for I also am an Israelite, of the seede of Abraham, of the tribe of Beniamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people which hee a knewe before. Knowe yee not what the Scripture saith of Elias, how hee maketh request vnto God b against Israel, saying,

3 * Lord, they haue killed thy Prophets, and digged downe thine altars: and I am left alone, and they seeke my life?

4 But what saith the answere of God to him? * I haue reserued vnto my selfe c seuen thousand men, which haue not bowed the knee to Baal.

5 Euen so then at this present time is there a remnant through the ‖ election of grace.

6 And if it be of grace, it is no more of workes: or els were grace no more grace: but if it be of workes, it is no more grace: or else were worke no more worke.

7 What then? Israel hath not obteined that he sought: but the election hath obteined it, and the rest haue bene hardened,

8 According as it is written, * God hath giuen them the spirit of ‖ slumber: eyes that they should not see, and eares that they should not heare vnto this day.

9 And Dauid saith, * Let their d table be made a snare, and a nette, and a stumbling blocke, euen for a recompence vnto them.

10 Let their eyes be darkned that they see not, and e bow downe their backe alwayes.

11 I demaund then, Haue they stumbled, that they f should fall? God forbid: but through their fall saluation commeth vnto the Gentiles, to g prouoke them to followe them.

12 Wherefore if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the h riches of the Gentiles, how much more shall their abundance be?

13 For in that I speake to you Gentiles, in as much as I am the Apostle of the Gentiles, I magnifie mine office, d Christ by the mouth of the Prophet wisheth that which came vpon the Iewes, that is, that as birds are taken whereas they thinke to finde foode, so the law which the Iewes of a blinde zeale preferred to the Gospel, thinking to haue saluation by it, should turne to their destruction.

e Take from them thy grace and strength.

f Without hope to be restored.

g The Iewes to follow the Gentiles.

h In that the Gentiles haue the knowledge of the Gospel.

i That they might be iealous ouer Christ against the Gentiles, and so to be more feruent in loue toward Christ then the Gentiles.

17 And though some of the branches bee broken off, and thou being a wilde Oliue tree, wast graft in ‖ for them, and made partaker of the roote, and fatnesse of the n Oliue tree, 18 Boast not thy selfe against the branches: and if thou boast thy selfe, thou bearest not the roote, but the roote thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, The branches are broken off, that I might be graft in.

20 Well: through vnbeliefe they are broken off, and thou standest by faith: bee not high minded, but o feare.

21 For if God spared not the natural branches, take heede, lest he also spare not thee.

22 p Behold therefore the bountifulnes, and severity of God: toward them which haue fallen, severity: but toward thee, bountifulnes, if thou continue in his bountifulnes: or els thou shalt also be cut off.

23 And they also, if they abide not still in vnbeliefe, shal be graffed in: for God is able to graffe them in againe.

24 For if thou wast cut out of the Oliue tree, which was wilde by nature, and wast graffed contrary to nature in a right Oliue tree, howe much more shall they that are by nature, be grafted in their owne Oliue tree?

25 For I would not, brethren, that yee should bee ignorant of this secret, (lest yee should be arrogant in your selues) that partly q obstinacie is come to Israel, vntill the fulnesse of the Gentiles be come in.

CHAP. XII.

The conuersation, loue and workes of such as beleeue in Christ. 19 Not to seeke reuengeance.

I Beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye giue vp your bodies a a liuing sacrifice, holy, acceptable vnto God, which is your b reasonable seruing of God.

a In stead of dead beastes, liuely sacrifices in stead of the blood of beasts which was but a shadow, and pleased not God of it selfe, the acceptable sacrifice of the spirituall man, framed by faith to godlines and charitie.

b That is, true, lawfull and spirituall, 1.Pet.2.5. Ephes.5.17. 1.thes.4.1,3.

2 And fashion not your selues like vnto this world, but be ye changed by the renuing of your minde, that ye may * proue what is the c good will of God, and acceptable, and perfect.

c Whatsoeuer is not agreeable to Gods wil, is euil, displeasant and vnperfect.

3 For I say through the grace that is giuen vnto me, to euery one that is among you, that no man presume to vnderstand, aboue that which is meete to vnderstand, but that bee d vnderstand according to ‖ sobrietie, as God hath dealt to euery man the * measure of faith.

d Two things are required, if wee will iudge soberly of Gods gifts in vs: the one, that we doe not arrogate to our selues that which wee haue not: next, that we boast not of the gifts, but reuerently vse them to Gods honour.

4 For as wee haue many members in one body, and all members haue not one office,

5 So wee being many are one body in Christ, and euery one, one anothers members.

6 * Seeing then that we haue gifts that are diuers, according to the grace that is giuen vnto vs, whether wee haue e prophesie, let vs prophesie according to the proportion of s faith:

e That is, soberly, not neglecting Gods gifts, but vsing them to his glory. 1.Cor.12.11, ephes.4.7. 1 Pet.4.10.

Wisd.6.3.tit.3.1 1.pet.2.13,14.

1 Let *euery soule be subiect vnto the higher powers: for there is no power but of God: and the powers that be, are ordained of God.

2 Whosoeuer therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist, shal receiue to themselues a iudgement.

a Not only the punishment of the iudges, but also the vengeance of God.

3 For Princes are not to bee feared for good workes, but for euill. Wilt thou then be without feare of the power? doe well: so shalt thou haue praise of the same.

4 For hee is the minister of God for thy wealth: but if thou do euill, feare: for he beareth not the sword for nought: for hee is the minister of God ‡ to take vengeance on him that doeth euill.

5 Wherefore ye must be subiect, not because of wrath onely, but also for b conscience sake.

b For no priuate man can contemne that gouernment which God hath appointed, without the breach of his conscience: and here he speaketh of ciuill magistrates: so that Antichrist & his cannot wrest this place to establish their tyranny ouer the conscience.

6 For, for this cause ye pay also tribute: for they are Gods ministers, applying themselues for the same c thing.

c That is, to defend the good, and to punish the euill.

7 *Giue to all men therefore their duety: tribute, to whom ye owe tribute: custome, to whom custome: feare, to whom feare: honour, to whom ye owe honour.

Matth.22.21.

8 Owe nothing to any man, but to loue one another: for he that loueth another, hath fulfilled the d Law.

d He meaneth onely the second table.

9 For this, *Thou shalt not commit adulterie, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steale, Thou shalt not beare false witnesse, Thou shalt not couet: and if there be any other commandement, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, euen in this, *Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe.

Exo.20.14, deut.5.18. Leuit.19.18. matth.22.39. Gal.5.14.rom.13.8 1.Tim.1.5.

10 Loue doeth not euill to his neighbour: therefore is loue the *fulfilling of the Lawe.

11 And that, considering the season, that it is nowe time that wee should arise from sleepe: for now is our saluation e neerer then when we beleeued it.

e Before we beleeued, it had bin in vaine to tell vs these things: but now seeing our saluation is neere, let vs take heede that wee neglect not this occasion.

12 The night is past, and the day is at hand: let vs therefore cast away the works of darkenesse, and let vs put on the f armour of light.

f That is, honest maners & godly. Luke 21.34.

13 So that wee walke honestly, as in the day: not in *ll gluttonie and drunkennesse, neither in chambering and wantonnesse, nor in strife, and enuying:

‖Or, riot. Gal.5.16. 1.pet. 2.11.

14 *But put yee on the Lorde IESVS Christ, and take no thought for the flesh, to fulfill the lustes of it.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 The weake ought not to bee despised. 10 No man should offend anothers conscience. 15 But one to support another in charitie and faith.

1 Him that is weake in the a faith, receiue vnto you, but not b for controuersies of disputations.

a That is, the doctrine of the Gospel.

b Lest he should depart either more ignorant then he came, or els with a greater scruple of conscience.

2 One beleeueth that hee may eate of all things: and another, which is weake, eateth herbes.

3 Let not him that eateth, despise him that eateth not: and let not him which eateth not, iudge him that eateth: for God hath receiued him.

James 4.12.

4 *Who art thou that condemnest another mans seruant? hee standeth or falleth to his owne c master: yea, hee shall be established: for God is able to make him stand.

c It is the Lords matter, and not thine.

5 This man esteemeth one day aboue an other day, and another man counteth euery day alike: let euery man bee d fully perswaded in his mind.

d We must be assured in our conscience by Gods word in all things that wee doe: that if we be strong, we may know what is our liberty: and if we be weak, we may learne to profit dayly.

6 He that e obserueth the day, obserueth it to the f Lord: and he that obserueth not the day, obserueth it not to the Lord. Hee that eateth, eateth to the Lord: for hee giueth God thanks: and he that g eateth not, h eateth not to the Lorde, and giueth God thankes.

e That counteth one day more holy then another.

f Who iudgeth whether he doe well or no.

g Because hee thinketh the meates vncleane by the Law.

h Here we must note three things: first, that he speaketh of things which of themselues are indifferent, albeit in the Law they were not: next, that he reprooueth not the condemning of the acte, but of the persons: thirdly, that he meaneth not the stubborne and malicious, whom he calleth dogs & concision, but the weake and infirme, to whom God as yet hath not reuealed the perfite liberty.

7 For none of vs liueth i to himselfe, neither doth any die to himselfe.

i Both our life and death ought to profite our brother. 2.Cor.5.10. Isa.45.23.phil.2.10.

8 For whether we liue, we liue vnto the Lord: or whether wee die, wee die vnto the Lord: whether we liue therefore, or die, wee are the Lords.

9 For Christ therefore died, and rose againe, and reuiued, that hee might bee Lord both of the dead and the quicke.

10 But why doest thou iudge thy brother? or why doest thou despise thy brother? *for wee shall all appeare before the iudgement seate of Christ.

k This oth particularly apperteineth to God, who is the true life of himselfe, and giueth it to all others.

11 For it is written, *I k liue, saith the Lord, and euery knee shall bowe to mee, and all tongues shall l confesse vnto God.

l And acknowledge me for their God.

12 So then euery one of vs shall giue accounts of himselfe to God.

13 Let vs not therefore iudge one another any more: but vse your iudgement rather in this, that no man put an occasion to fall, or a stumbling blocke before his brother.

14 [m] I know, and am perswaded through the Lord Iesus, that there is nothing vncleane of it selfe: but vnto him that iudgeth any thing to be vncleane, to him it is vncleane.

15 But if thy brother bee grieued for the meat, now walkest thou not charitably: * destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Christ died.

16 Cause not your [n] commodity to be euil spoken of.

17 For the [o] kingdome of God is not meat nor drinke, but righteousnesse, and peace, and ioy in the holy Ghost.

18 For whosoeuer [p] in these things serueth Christ, is acceptable vnto God, and is approued of men.

19 Let vs then follow those things which concerne peace, and where with one may edifie another.

20 Destroy not the worke of God for meates sake: * all things in deede are pure: but it is euill for the man which eateth with offence.

21 * It is good neither to eate flesh, nor to drinke wine, nor any thing, wherein thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or made weake.

22 Hast thou [q] faith? haue it with thy selfe before God: blessed is hee that [r] condemneth not himselfe in that thing which he alloweth.

23 For he that doubteth, is condemned if he eate, because hee eateth not of faith: and whatsoeuer is not of [s] faith, is sinne.

m Hee preuenteth the obiection which the Christians might vse. 1.Cor.8.11.

n Which is the benefit of Christian libertie, by abusing whereof ye cause the weakelings to blaspheme the Gospel, which might seeme to them contrary to Gods will, and the doctrine of the law.

o God will not reigne ouer his by such obseruations.

p In peace and righteousnesse. Titus 1.15.

q Faith here is taken for a full perswasion of the Christian libertie in things indifferent, as the Apostle interpreteth in the 14. verse.

r Which hath none euil remorse of conscience in his doing.

s Meaning of a right conscience.

CHAP. XV.

1 Paul exhorteth them to support and loue one another by the example of Christ, 9 and by the onely mercy of God, which is the cause of saluation both of the one and the other. 14 He sheweth his zeale toward them and the Church, 30 and requireth the same of them.

WE which are strong, ought to beare the infirmities of the weake, and not to please our selues.

2 Therefore let euery man please his neighbour in that that is good to [a] edification.

3 For Christ also would not please himselfe, but as it is written, * The rebukes of them which rebuke thee, fell [b] on me.

4 For whatsoeuer things are written aforetime, are written for our learning, that wee through patience, and comfort of the Scriptures, might haue hope.

5 Now the God of [c] patience and consolation giue you that ye be * like minded one towards another, according to Christ Iesus, 6 That ye with one minde, and with one mouth may praise God, euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ.

7 Wherefore, receiue yee one another, as Christ also receiued vs to the [d] glorie of God.

8 Now I say, that Iesus Christ was a [e] minister of the circumcision, for the [f] truth of God, to confirme the promises made vnto the fathers.

9 And let the Gentiles praise God for his mercy, as it is written, * For this cause I will confesse thee among the Gentiles, and sing vnto thy Name.

10 And againe hee sayeth, * Reioyce, ye Gentiles with his people.

11 And againe, * Praise the Lord all yee Gentiles, and laud yee him all people together.

12 And againe Esaias saith, * There shal be a root of Iesse, and [g] he that shall rise to reigne ouer the [h] Gentiles, in him shall the Gentiles trust.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all ioy, and peace in beleeuing, that yee may abound in hope, through the power of the holy Ghost.

14 And I my selfe also am perswaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are ful of goodnesse, and filled with all knowledge, and are able to admonish one another.

15 Neuertheless brethren, I haue somewhat boldly after a sort written vnto you, as one that putteth you in remembrance, through the grace that is giuen mee of God,

16 That I should be the minister of Iesus Christ toward the Gentiles, ministring the Gospel of God, that the offering vp of the Gentiles might bee acceptable, being sanctified by the holy Ghost.

17 I haue therefore whereof I may reioyce in Christ Iesus in those things which pertaine to God.

18 For I dare not [k] speake of any thing which Christ hath not wrought by mee, to make the Gentiles obedient in worde and deed, 19 With the power of signes and woonders, by the power of the spirit of God: so that from Ierusalem, and round about vnto Illyricum, I haue caused to abound the Gospel of Christ.

20 Yea, so I enforced my selfe to preach the Gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should haue built on another mans foundation.

21 But as it is written, * To whom he was not spoken of, they shal see him, and they that heard not, shall vnderstand him.

22 Therefore also I haue bene * oft let to come vnto you.

23 But now seeing I haue no more place in these quarters, and also haue * bene desirous many yeeres agone to come vnto you,

24 When I shall take my iourney into Spaine, I will come to you: for I trust to 26 For it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia, to make a certaine distribution vnto the poore Saints which are at Ierusalem.

27 For it hath pleased them, and their debters are they: * for if the Gentiles be made partakers of their spirituall things, their [n] duetie is also to minister vnto them in carnall things.

28 When I haue therefore performed this, and haue [m] sealed them this [o] fruit, I will passe by you into Spaine.

I Commend vnto you Phebe our sister, which is a seruant of the Church of Cenchrea,

2 That ye receiue her in the Lord, as it becommeth Saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoeuer businesse she needeth of your aid: for she hath giuen holpitality vnto many, and to me also.

3 Greet * Priscilla and Aquila my fellow helpers in Christ Iesus.

4 (Which haue for my life layed downe their owne necke. Vnto whom not I only giue thanks, but also all the Churches of the Gentiles.)

5 Likewise greete the Church that is in their house. Salute my beloued Epenetus, which is the [a] first fruits of ‖ Achaia in Christ.

6 Greet Mary, which bestowed much labour on vs.

7 Salute Andronicus, and Iunia, my cousins and fellow prisoners, which are notable among the Apostles, and [b] were in Christ before me.

8 Greet Amplias my beloued in the Lord.

9 Salute Urbanus our fellow helper in Christ, and Stachys my beloued.

10 Salute Apelles approoued in Christ. Salute them which are of Aristobulus friends.

11 Salute Herodion my kinseman. Greet them which are of the friends of Narcissus, which are in the Lord.

12 Salute Tryphena and Tryphosa, which women labour in the Lord. Salute the beloued Persis, which woman hath laboured much in the Lord.

13 Salute Rufus chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine.

14 Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Hercurius, and the brethren which are with them.

15 Salute Philologus and Iulias, Nereas, and his sister, and Olympas, and all the Saints which are with them.

16 Salute one another with an * holy [c] kisse. The Churches of Christ salute you.

17 ¶ Nowe I beseech you brethren, marke them diligently which cause diuision and offences, contrary to the doctrine which ye haue learned, and * auoide them.

18 For they that are such, serue not the Lord Iesus Christ, but their owne [d] bellies, and with * faire speech and flattering deceiue the hearts of the simple.

19 For your obedience is come abroad among all: I am glad therefore of you: but yet I woulde haue you wise vnto that which is good, and simple concerning euill.

20 The God of peace shall tread Satan vnder your feet shortly. The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with you.

21 * Timotheus my companion, and Lucius, and Iason, and Sosipater my kinsemen, salute you.

22 I Tertius, which wrote out this Epistle, salute you in the Lord.

23 * Gaius mine hoste, and of the whole Church saluteth you. Erastus the ‖ Chamberlaine of [e] the city saluteth you, and Quartus a brother.

24 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

25 * To him nowe that is of power to establish you according to my Gospel, and preaching of Iesus Christ, * by the reuelation of the mystery, which was kept secret since the world began:

26 (But nowe is opened, and published among all nations by the Scriptures of the Prophets, at the commaundement of the euerlasting God for the obedience of faith)

¶ The first Epistle of Paul to the Corinthians.

THE ARGVMENT.

After that Saint Paul had preached at Corinthus a yeere and a halfe, hee was compelled by the wickednesse of the Iewes to saile into Syria. In whose absence false apostles entred into the Church, who being puffed vp with vaine glory, and affectate eloquence, sought to bring into contempt the simplicitie which Paul vsed in preaching the Gospel. By whose ambition such factions and schismes sprang vp in the Church, that from opinions in policies and ceremonies, they fell to false doctrine and heresies, calling into doubt the resurrection from the dead, one of the chiefest points of Christian Religion. Against these euils the Apostle proceedeth, preparing the Corinthians hearts, and eares with gentle salutations: but soone after he reproueth their contentions and debates, their arrogancie and pride, and exhorteth them to concorde and humilitie, setting before their eyes the spirituall vertue, and heauenly wisedome of the Gospel, which cannot be perswaded by worldly wit and eloquent reasons, but is reueiled by Gods Spirit, and so sealed in mens hearts. Therefore this saluation may not be attributed to the ministers, but onely to God, whose seruants they are, and haue receiued charge to edifie his Church: wherein Saint Paul behaued himselfe skilfully, building according to the foundation (which is Christ) and exhorteth others to make the ende proportionable to the beginning, taking diligent heede that they be not polluted with vaine doctrine, seeing they are the Temple of God. And as for those which doubted of his Apostleship, he sheweth them that he dependeth not on mans iudgement, albeit hee had declared by manifest signes that hee neuer sought his owne glory, neither yet howe hee might liue, but onely the glory of Christ: which thing at his comming he would declare more amply, to the shame of those vaineglorious braggers, who sought themselues onely, and therefore suffered most horrible vices vnreproued and vnpunished, as incest, contentions, pleadings before infidels, fornication, and such like, to the great slaunder of the Gospel. This done, hee answereth to certaine points of the Corinthians letter, as touching single life, duetie of marriage, of discord and dissention among the married, of virginitie, and second marriage. And because some thought it nothing to be present at idole seruice, seeing in their heart they worshipped the true God, hee warneth them to haue respect to their weake brethren, whose faith by that dissembling was hindered, and their consciences wounded, which thing, rather then hee would doe, hee would neuer vse that libertie which God had giuen him. But forasmuch as pride, and selfe-will was the cause of those great euils, hee admonisheth them by the example of the Iewes not to glory in these outward gifts, whose horrible punishment for the abuse of Gods creatures, ought to bee a warning to all men to followe Christ vprightly, without all pollution and offence of others. Then hee correcteth diuers abuses in their Church, as touching the behauiour of men, and women in the assemblies: of the Lordes Supper, the abuse of the spirituall giftes, which God hath giuen to mainteine loue and edifie the Church: as concerning the resurrection from the dead, without the which the Gospel seueth to no vse. Last of all hee exhorteth the Corinthians to relieue the poore brethren at Ierusalem, to preseuere in the loue of Christ, and well doing, sending his commendations, and wishing them peace.

CHAP. I.

a Hee praiseth the great graces of God shewed toward them, 10 Exhorting them to concord and humilitie. 19 Hee beateth downe all pride, and wisedome which is not grounded on God. 26 Shewing whom God hath chosen to confounde the wisedome of the worlde.

knit

knit together in one minde, & in one iudgement.

11 For it hath beene declared vnto mee, my brethren, of you by them that are of the house of i Cloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 Nowe this I say, that euery one of you sayeth, I am Pauls, and I am *Apollos, and I am Cephas, and I am Christes.

13 Is Christ diuided? was Paul crucified for you? either were ye baptized k into the name of Paul?

14 I thanke God, that I baptized none of you, but *Crispus, and l Gaius, 15 Least any should say, that I had baptized into mine owne name.

16 I baptized also the houshold of Stephanas: furthermore know I not, whether I baptized any other.

17 For Christ sent mee not to m baptize, but to preach the Gospel, not with * n wisedome of wordes, o least the crosse of Christ should be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the crosse is to them that perish, foolishnesse: but vnto vs, which are saued, it is the * power of God.

19 For it is written, * I will destroy the wisedome of the wise, and will cast away the vnderstanding of the prudent.

20 Where is the wise? where is the p Scribe? where is the q disputer of this worlde? hath not God made the wisedome of this world foolishnesse?

21 For seeing the world by wisdom knew not God in the wisedome of God, it pleased God by the foolishnesse of preaching to saue them that beleeue:

22 Seeing also that the Iewes require a * signe, and the Grecians seeke after wisedome.

23 But we preach Christ crucified: vnto the Iewes, euen a stumbling blocke, and vnto the Grecians, foolishnesse:

24 But vnto them which are called, both of the Iewes and Grecians, we preach Christ, the power of God, and the wisedome of God.

25 For the r foolishnesse of God is wiser then men, and the weakenesse of God is stronger then men.

26 For brethren, you see your calling, how that not many wise men s after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble are called.

27 But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise, and God hath chosen the weake things of the world, to confound the mighty things.

28 And vile things of the world, & things which are despised, hath God chosen, and things t which are not, to bring to nought things u that are,

29 That no x flesh should reioyce in his presence.

30 But yee are of him in Christ Iesus, who of God is made vnto vs * wisedome, and righteousnesse, and sanctification, and redemption, 31 That according as it is written, * He that reioyceth, y let him reioyce in the Lord.

6 And we speake wisedome among them that are c perfite: not the wisedome of this world, neither of the d princes of this world, which come to nought.

7 But wee speake the wisedome of God in a mysterie, euen the hid wisedome, which God had determined before the world, vnto our glory.

8 Which e none of the princes of this worlde hath knowen: for had they knowen it, they woulde not haue crucified the f Lord of glorie.

9 But as it is written, * The things which eye hath not seene, neither eare hath heard, neither came into mans heart, are which God hath prepared for them that loue him.

10 But God hath reuealed them vnto vs by his Spirit: for the Spirite g searcheth all things, yea, the deepe things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, saue the spirit of a man, which is in him? euen so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

CHAP. III.

3 Paul rebuketh the sectes and authours thereof. 7 No man ought to attribute his saluation to the ministers, but to God. 10 That they beware erronious doctrines. 11 Christ is the foundation of his Church. 16 The dignitie and office both of the ministers, and also of all the faithfull.

AND I could not speake vnto you, brethren, as vnto spirituall men, but as vnto carnall, euen as vnto * babes in Christ.

2 I gaue you milke to drinke, and not meate: for yee were not yet able to beare it, neither yet now are ye able.

3 For yee are yet carnall: for where as there is among you enuying, and strife, and diuisions, are ye not carnall, and walke as men?

4 For when one saith, I am Pauls, and another, I am Apollos, are ye not carnall?

5 Who is Paul then? and who is Apollos, but the ministers by whom ye beleeued, and as the Lord gaue to euery man?

6 I haue planted, Apollos watered, but God gaue the increase.

7 So then, neither is hee that planteth any thing, neither hee that watereth, but God that giueth the increase.

8 And he that planteth, and he that watereth are b one, * and euery man shall receiue his wages, according to his labour.

9 For wee together are Gods c labourers: yee are Gods husbandrie, and Gods building.

10 According to the grace of God giuen to me, as a skilfull master builder, I haue layde the foundation, and another buildeth thereon: but let euery man d take heede how he buildeth vpon it.

11 For other foundation can no man lay, then that which is layd, which is Iesus Christ.

12 And if any man builde on this foundation, gold, siluer, precious stones, timber, hay, or stubble, 13 Euery mans worke shall be made manifest: for the e day shall declare it, because it shall bee reuealed by the f fire: and the fire shal trie euery mans worke of what sort it is.

14 If any mans worke, that hee hath built vpon, abide, he shall receiue wages.

15 If any mans worke burne, hee shall g lose, but he h shall be i safe himselfe: neuertheless yet as it were by the fire.

16 * Know ye not that ye are the Temple of God, and that the Spirit of God k dwelleth in you?

17 If any man destroy the Temple of God, him shall God destroy: for the Temple of God is holy, which ye are.

18 Let no man deceiue himselfe. If any man among you seeme to bee wise in this world, let him bee a foole, that hee may bee wise.

19 For the wisedome of this worlde is foolishnesse with God: for it is written, * He catcheth the wise l in their owne craftinesse.

20 * And againe, The Lorde knoweth that the thoughts of the wise be vaine.

21 Therefore let no man l reioyce in men: for all things are yours.

22 Whether it bee Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death: whether they be things present, or things to come, euen all are yours, 23 And ye Christes, and Christ Gods.

a Being ingraffed in Christ by faith we begin to moue by his Spirit, & as we profit in faith, we grow vp to a ripe age. And here let him take heed that teacheth, lest for milke he giue poyson: for milke and strong meate in effect are one, but only differ in maner and forme.

b He chargeth them with two faults: the one, that they attributed too much to the ministers, and the other, that they preferred one minister to another.

CHAP. IIII.

1 After that he had described the office of a true Apostle, 3 Seeing they did not acknowledge him such one, 4 He appealeth to Gods iudgement, 7 Beating downe their glory which hindred them to praise that, which they dispraysed in him. 16 He sheweth what he requireth on their parte, and what they ought to looke for of him at his returne.

LEt a man so thinke of vs, as of the a ministers of Christ, and disposers of the secrets of God.

2 And as for the rest, it is required of the disposers, that euery man be found faithfull.

3 * As touching me, I passe very little to bee iudged of you, or ‡ mans iudgement: no, I iudge not b mine owne selfe.

4 For I c know me nothing by d my selfe, yet am I not thereby iustified: but hee that iudgeth me, is the Lord.

5 Therefore * iudge nothing before the time, vntill the Lord come, who will lighten things that are hid in darkenesse, and make the counsels of the hearts manifest: and then shall euery man haue prayse of God.

6 Now these things, brethren, I haue figuratiuely applyed vnto mine owne selfe and Apollos for your sakes, that yee might learne e by vs, that no man presume aboue that which is written, that one swell not against another for any mans cause.

7 For who f separateth thee? and what hast thou, that thou hast not receiued? if thou hast receiued it, why reioycest thou, as though thou haddest not receiued it?

a As it is a thing intolerable to contemne the true ministers of God, so it is greatly reprehensible to attribute more vnto them then is meete.

9 For I thinke that God hath set forth vs the * last Apostles, as men appointed to death: for we are made a gasing stocke vnto the world, and to the Angels, and to men.

10 We are [b] fooles for Christes sake, and ye are wise in Christ: we are weake, and ye strong: ye are honourable, and wee are despised.

11 Unto this houre we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and haue no certaine dwelling place, 12 *And labour, worcking with our owne hands: we are reuiled, and yet we blesse: wee are persecuted, and suffer it.

13 *We are euil spoken of, and we pray: we are made as the filth of the world, the offscowring of all things vnto this time.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloued children I admonish you.

15 For though ye haue ten thousand ‖ instructers in Christ, yet haue ye not many fathers: for in Christ Iesus I haue begotten you through the Gospel.

16 Wherefore, I pray you, bee yee followers of me.

17 For this cause haue I sent vnto you Timotheus, which is my beloued sonne, and faithfull in the Lord, which shall put you in [i] remembrance of my wayes in Christ as I teach euery where in euery Church.

18 Some are puffed vp as though I would not come to you.

19 But I wil come to you shortly, *if the Lord will, and will know, not the speach of them which are puffed vp, but the power.

12 For what haue I to doe to iudge them also, which are [l] without? doe yee not iudge them that are [m] within?

CHAP. VI.

1 Hee rebuketh them for going to lawe together before the heathen. 7 Christians ought rather to suffer. 12 Hee reproueth the abusing of Christian libertie, 15 And sheweth that wee ought to serue God purely both in body and in soule.

DAre any of you, hauing businesse against another, bee iudged vnder ‖ the * vniust, and not vnder the Saints?

2 *Doe yee not knowe, that the Saints shall iudge the worlde? If the worlde then shall be iudged by you, are yee vnworthie to iudge the smallest matters?

3 Knowe yee not that we shall iudge the [b] Angels? how much more things that pertaine to this life?

4 If then ye haue iudgements of things pertaining to this life, [c] set vp them which are [d] least esteemed in the Church.

5 I speake it to your shame. Is it so that there is not a wise man among you? no not one, that can iudge betweene his brethren?

6 But a brother goeth to lawe with a brother, and that vnder the infidels.

among you, because yee goe to law one with another: * why rather suffer ye not wrong? why rather susteine ye not harme?

8 * Nay, ye your selues * doe wrong, and doe harme, and that to your brethren.

9 Knowe yee not that the vnrighteous shall not inherite the kingdome of God? Be not deceiued: * neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor wantons, nor buggerers, 10 Nor theeues, nor couetous, nor drunkards, nor railers, nor extortioners shall inherite the kingdome of God.

11 And such were * some of you: but yee are washed, but ye are sanctified, but yee are iustified in the Name of the Lord Iesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

12 ¶ * All f things are lawfull vnto mee: but all things are not profitable. I may doe all things, but I will not bee brought vnder g the power of any thing.

13 Meates are ordeined for the belly, and the belly for meates: but God shall destroy both it, and them. Nowe the body is not for h fornication, but for the i Lord, and the Lord for the body.

14 And God hath also raised vp the Lord, * and shall raise vs vp by his power.

15 Knowe yee not that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an k harlot? God forbid.

16 Doe ye not know, that he which coupleth himselfe with an harlot, is one bodie? * for two, (saith he,) shall be one flesh.

17 But he that is ioyned vnto the Lorde, is one spirit.

18 Flee fornication: euery sinne that a man doeth, is without the body: but hee that committeth fornication, sinneth against his l owne body.

19 Knowe ye not, that * your body is the temple of the holy Ghost, which is in you, whome yee haue of God? and yee are not your owne.

20 * For ye are bought for a price: therefore glorifie God in your body, and in your spirite: for they are Gods.

3 * Let the husband giue vnto the wife m due beneuolence, and likewise also the wife vnto the husband.

4 The wife hath not the power of her owne body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not the power of his owne body, but the wife.

5 Defraude not one another, except it bee with consent for a time, that yee may giue your selues to fasting and prayer, and againe come together, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinencie.

6 But I speake this by permission, d not by commandement.

7 For I would that all men were euen as I my selfe am: but euery man hath his proper gift of God, one after this maner, and another after that.

8 Therefore I say vnto the vnmarried, and vnto the widowes, It is good for them if they abide euen as I doe.

9 But if they cannot abstaine, let them marrie: for it is better to marrie then to e burne.

10 And vnto the married I commaund, not I, but the Lorde, Let not the wife * depart from her husband.

11 But and if she f depart, let her remaine vnmarried, or bee reconciled vnto her husband, and let not the husband put n away his wife.

12 But to the remnant I speake, and not o the Lord, If any brother haue a wife, that beleeueth not, if she be content to dwell with him, let him not forsake her.

13 And the woman which hath an husband that beleeueth not, if hee be content to dwell with her, let her not forsake him.

14 For the vnbeleeuing husband is p sanctified by the wife, and the vnbeleeuing wife is sanctified by the husband, else were your children vncleane: but now are they q holy.

15 But if the vnbeleeuing depart, let him depart: a brother or a sister is not in subiection in r such things: but God hath called vs in peace.

16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt saue thine husband? Or what knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt saue thy wife?

17 But as God hath distributed to euery man, as the Lorde hath * called euery one, so let him walke: and so ordaine I in all Churches.

cation wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called being a seruant? p care not for it: but if yet thou mayest be free, vse it rather.

22 For he that is called in the q Lord being a seruant, is the Lords free man: likewise also he that is called being free, is Christs seruant.

23 *Ye are bought ‖ with a price: be not the seruants of men.

24 Brethren, let euery man, wherein hee was called, therein abide r with God.

25 Now concerning ‖ virgins, I haue no s commaundement of the Lorde: but I giue mine aduice, as one that hath obtained mercie of the Lord to be ‖ faithfull.

26 I suppose then t this to be good for the present u necessitie: I meane, that it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou bound vnto a wife? seeke not to be loosed: art thou loosed from a wife? seeke not a wife.

28 But if thou takest a wife, thou sinnest not: and if a virgine marrie, she sinneth not: neuertheless, such shall haue x trouble in the flesh: but I x spare you.

29 And this I say, brethren, because the time is short, ‖ hereafter that both they which haue wiues, bee as though they had none:

30 And they that y weepe, as though they wept not: and they that z reioyce, as though they reioyced not: and they that buy, as though they possessed not:

31 And they that vse this worlde, as though they vsed it not: for the a fashion of this world goeth away.

32 And I would haue you without care. The vnmarried careth for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord.

33 But he that is married, careth for the things of the b world, how he may please his wife ‡.

34 There is a difference also betweene a virgine and a wife: the vnmarried woman careth for the things of the Lorde, that shee may be c holy, both in body and in spirite: but shee that is married, careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

35 But this I speake for your owne commoditie, not to d tangle you in a snare, but that ye follow that, which is honest, and that yee may cleaue fast vnto the Lorde without separation.

36 But if any man thinke that it is vncomely for his virgine, if shee passe the flowre of her age, and e needs so require, let him do what he wil, he sinneth not: let them be married.

37 Neuertheless, he f that standeth firme in his heart, that hee hath no neede, but hath g power ouer his owne will, and hath so decreed in his heart, that hee will keepe his virgine, he doeth well.

38 So then hee that giueth her to marriage, doeth well, but he that giueth her not to marriage, doeth h better.

39 The wife is bound by the ‖ Lawe, as long as her husband * liueth: but if her husband be dead, she is at libertie to marry with whom she will, onely in the Lord.

40 But she is more blessed, if shee so abide, in my iudgement: * and I thinke that I haue also the spirit of God.

CHAP. VIII.

1 He rebuketh those that vse their liberty to the slander of other, in going to the idolatrous sacrifices, 9 And sheweth how men ought to behaue them toward such as be weake.

AND as touching things sacrificed vnto idoles, wee knowe that wee all haue * knowledge: knowledge puffeth vp, but loue edifieth.

2 Nowe, if any man thinke that hee knoweth any thing, hee knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 But if any man loue God, the same is ‖ knowen of him.

4 Concerning therefore meat sacrificed vnto idoles, wee know that an idole is b nothing in the worlde, and that there is none other God but one.

5 For though there bee that are called gods, whether in heauen, or in earth, (as there be many gods, and many c lords)

6 Yet vnto vs there is but one God, which is the Father, of whom are all things, and wee in him: and * one Lorde Iesus Christ, by whom are all things, and wee by him.

7 But euery man hath not knowledge: for some hauing d conscience of the idole, vntill this houre, eate as a thing sacrificed vnto the idole, and so their conscience being weake, is defiled.

8 But meate maketh vs not acceptable to God: for neither if wee eate, haue we the * more: neither if we eate not, haue wee the lesse.

9 But take heede least by any meanes this ‖ power of yours bee an occasion of falling to them that are weake.

10 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge, sit at table in the idoles temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weake, be ‡ f boldened to eate those things which are sacrificed to idoles?

11 And through thy knowledge shall the * g weake brother perish, for whome Christ died.

12 Nowe when ye sinne so against the brethren, and wound their weake conscience, ye sinne against Christ.

CHAP. IX.

He exhorteth them by his example to vse their libertie to the edification of other. 24. To runne on foorth in the course that they haue beginne.

AM I not an Apostle? am I not free? haue I not seene Iesus Christ our Lord? are ye not my worke in the Lord?

2 If I be not an Apostle vnto other, yet doubtlesse I am vnto you: for yee are the a seale of mine Apostleship in the Lord.

3 My defence to them that b examine me, is this,

4 Haue we not power to eate, c and to drinke?

5 Or haue we not power to d leade about a wife being a e sister, as well as the rest of the Apostles, and as the ‖brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?

6 Or I onely and Barnabas, haue not we power f not to worke?

7 Who goeth a warfare any time at his owne cost? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruite thereof? or who feedeth a flocke, and eateth not of the milke of the flocke?

8 Say I these things according to man? saith not the Law the same also?

9 For it is written in the Law of Moses, * Thou shalt not muzzell the mouth of the ore that treadeth out the corne: doeth God take g care for oxen?

10 Either sayeth he it not altogether for our sakes? For our sakes no doubt it is written, that he which eareth, should eare in hope: and that he that threshеth in hope, should be partaker of his hope.

11 * If we haue sowen vnto you spirituall things, is it a great thing if we reape your carnall things?

12 If others with you bee partakers of this h power, are not wee rather? neuertheless, we haue not vsed this power: but ‖suffer all things, that we should not hinder the Gospel of Christ.

13 Do ye not know, that they which minister about the * holy things, eate of the things of the Temple? and they which wait at the altar, are partakers i with the altar?

14 So also hath the Lorde ordained, that they which preach the Gospel, should liue of the Gospel.

15 But I haue vsed none of these things: neither wrote I these things, that it should be so done vnto me: for it were better for me to die, then that any man should make my k reioycing vaine.

16 For though I preach the Gospel, I haue nothing to reioyce of: for necessitie is layed vpon mee, and woe is vnto mee, if I preach not the Gospel.

17 For if I doe it willingly, I haue a reward: but if I doe it against my will, l notwithstanding, the dispensation is committed vnto me.

18 What is my reward then? verely that when I preach the Gospel, I make the Gospel of Christ m free, that I abuse not mine authoritie in the Gospel.

19 For though I be free from all men, yet haue I made my selfe seruant vnto all men, that I might winne the moe.

20 * And vnto the Iewes I become as a Iewe, that I may winne the Iewes: to them that are vnder the Lawe, as though I were vnder the n Lawe, that I may winne them that are vnder the Law:

21 To them that are without Lawe, as though I were without Law (when I am not without Law as pertaining to God, but am in the Lawe through Christ) that I may winne them that are without Law.

22 To the weake I become as weake, that I may winne the weake: I am made o all things to all men, that I might by all meanes saue some.

23 And this I doe for the Gospels sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

24 Know ye not, that they which runne in a race, runne all, yet one receiueth the price? so runne, that ye may obtaine.

25 And euery man that proueth masteries, p abstaineth from all things: and they doe it to obtaine a corruptible crowne: but we for an vncorruptible.

26 I therefore so runne, not as vncertainely: so fight I, not as one that beateth the aire.

27 But I beat downe my q body, and bring it into subiection, lest by any meanes after that I haue preached to other, I my selfe should be r reproued.

CHAP. XI.

He rebuketh the abuses which were crept into their Church, 4 As touching prayer, or prophesying, 18 And misusing the Lords Supper, 23 Bringing them againe to the first institution thereof.

BE * ye the followers of me, euen as I am of Christ.

2 Now, brethren, I commend you, that ye remember ‖ all my things, and keepe the ordinances, as I deliuered them to you.

3 But I will that ye know, that Christ is the * head of euery man: & the man is the womans head: and God is Christs head.

4 Euery man a praying, or ‖ prophesying hauing any thing on his head, b dishonoureth his head.

5 But euery woman that prayeth or c prophesieth bare headed, dishonoureth her head: for it is euen one very thing, as though she were shauen.

6 Therefore if the woman be not couered, let her also be shorne: and if it be shame for a woman to be ‖ shorne or shauen, let her be couered.

7 For a man ought not to couer his head: forasmuch as hee is the *d image and glorie of God: but the woman is the e glory of the man.

8 For the man is not of the woman, but the woman of the man.

9 * For the man was not created for the womans sake: but the woman for the mans sake.

10 Therefore ought the woman to haue f power on her head, because of the g Angels.

11 Neuertheles, neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man in the h Lord.

12 For as the woman is of the man, so is the man also by the woman: but all things are of God.

13 Iudge in your selues, Is it comely that a woman pray vnto God vncouered?

14 Doeth not nature it selfe teach you, that if a man haue long i haire, it is a shame vnto him?

15 But if a woman haue long haire, it is a praise

l For God hath a praise vnto her: for her haire is l giuen her for a couering.

16 But if any man lust to be contentious, wee haue no such custome, neither the Churches of God.

17 Now in this that I declare, I praise you not, that ye come together, not with profit, but with hurt.

18 For first of all, when ye come together in the Church, I heare that there are dissensions among you: and I beleeue it to be true m in some part.

19 For there must bee n heresies euen among you, that they which are approued among you, might be knowen.

20 When yee come together therefore into one place, this is not to eate the Lordes supper.

21 For euery man when they should eate, taketh his owne supper afore, and one is hungry, and another is drunken.

22 Haue yee not houses to eate and to drinke in? despise ye the Church of God, and shame them that haue not? what shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 For I haue receiued of the o Lord that which I also haue deliuered vnto you, to wit, that the Lord Iesus in the night that he was betrayed, tooke bread:

24 * And when he had giuen thankes, he brake it, and sayd, Take, eate: this is my body, which is p broken for you: this doe yee in remembrance of me.

25 After the same maner also he tooke the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the newe Testament in my blood: this doe as oft as yee drinke it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye shal eate this bread, and drinke this cup, ye shew the Lords death till he come.

27 Wherefore, whosoeuer shall eate this bread, and drinke the cup of the Lorde q vnworthily, shalbe guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 * Let a man therefore examine himselfe, and so let him eate of this bread, and drinke of this cup.

29 For hee that eateth and drinketh vnworthily, eateth and drinketh his owne damnation, because hee discerneth not r the Lords body.

30 For this cause many are weake, and sicke among you, and many s sleepe.

31 For if we would iudge our selues, wee should not be iudged.

32 But when we are iudged, we are chastened of the Lord, because we should not bee condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eate, tary one for another.

34 And if any man be hungry, let him eate at home, that ye come not together vnto condemnation. Other things will I set in order when I come.

l For God hath giuen to woman longer haire then vnto man, to the ende she should trusse it vp about her head, whereby she declareth that she must couer her head.

m Not that all were so, but the most part.

n Gods Church is not onely subiect to dissention as touching orders and maners, but also to heresies as touching doctrine.

CHAP. XII.

1 The diuersitie of the gifts of the holy Ghost ought to bee vsed to the edifying of Christes Church, 12 As the members of mans body serue to the vse one of another.

NOw concerning spirituall gifts, brethren, I would not haue you a ignorant.

2 Ye knowe that ye were Gentiles, and were caried away vnto the b dumbe idoles, as ye were c led.

3 Wherefore, I declare vnto you, that no man * speaking by the d Spirite of God, calleth * Iesus execrable: also no man can say that Iesus is the Lorde, but by the holy Ghost.

4 Now there are diuersities of gifts, but the same Spirit.

5 And there are diuersities of administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diuersities of operations, but God is the same, which worketh all in all.

7 But the manifestation of the Spirite is giuen to euery man, to e profite withall.

8 For to one is giuen by the Spirite the word of wisedome, and to another the worde of f knowledge by the same Spirit:

9 And to another is giuen g faith, by the same Spirit: and to another the gifts of healing, by the same Spirit:

10 And to another h the operations of great woorkes: and to another, i prophesie: and to another, k the discerning of spirites: and to another, diuersities of tongues, and to another, the interpretation of tongues.

11 * And all these things worketh euen the selfe same spirite, destributing to euery man seuerally as he will.

12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of the body, which is one, though they bee many, yet are but one body: euen so is Christ.

13 For by one Spirite are wee all baptized into l one body, whether wee bee Iewes or Grecians, whether wee bee bond, or free, and haue bene all made to drinke into one Spirit.

14 For the body also is not one member, but many.

15 If the foote would say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body, is it therfore not of the body?

16 And if the eare would say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body, is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath God disposed the members euery one of them in the body at his owne pleasure.

19 For if they were al one member, where were the body?

20 But nowe are there many members, yet but m one body.

21 And the eye cannot say vnto the hand, I haue no neede of thee: nor the head againe to the feete, I haue no need of you.

22 Yea, much rather those members of the body, which seeme to bee n more feeble, b Which could not heare your prayers.

c By Satans suggestion. Marke 9.39.

l That we might be one body with Christ, and the whole Church one Christ: of the which coniunction, baptisme and the Lords Supper are effectuall signes: for by baptisme wee are regenerate into one spirit, and by the Lords supper wee are incorporate into Christs body to bee gouerned by the same Spirit.

m And therefore whatsoeuer the diuersitie is, yet the profite ought to bee common, and serue to the edification of the Church.

23 And vpon those members of the body, which we thinke most vnhonest, put we more o honestie on: and our vncomely parts haue more comelinesse on.

24 For our comely parts neede it not: but God hath tempered the body together, and hath giuen the more honor to that part which lacked,

25 Least there should bee any diuision in the body: but that the members should p haue the same care one for another.

26 Therefore if one member suffer, all suffer with it: if one member bee had in honour, all the members reioyce with it.

27 Now yee are the body of Christ, and members q ‖ for your part.

CHAP. XIII.

Because loue is the fountaine and rule of edifying the Church, hee setteth foorth the nature, office and praise thereof.

THough I speake with the tongues of men and a Angels, and haue not loue, I am as sounding braſſe, or a tinckling cymball,

2 And though I had the gift of prophesie, and knew all secrets, and all knowledge, yea, if I had b all faith, so that I could remoue * mountaines, and had not loue, I were nothing.

3 And though I feede the poore with all my goods, and though I giue my body, that I bee burned, and haue not loue, it profiteth me nothing.

4 Loue suffereth long: it is bountifull: loue enuieth not: loue doeth not boast it selfe: it is not puffed vp:

5 It disdaineth not: it seeketh not her owne things: it is not prouoked to anger: it thinketh not euil:

6 It reioyceth not in iniquitie, but reioyceth in the truth:

7 It suffereth all things: it beleeueth c all things: it hopeth all things: it endureth d all things.

8 Loue doeth neuer fall away, though that prophesyings bee abolished, or the tongues cease, or knowledge vanish away.

9 For e we know in f part, and we proa If the Angels had tongues, and I had the vse thereof, and did not bestow them to profit my neighbour, it were nothing but vaine babling.

b Faith is here taken for the gift of doing miracles, which the wicked may haue, as Mat. 7. 22. and also for that faith (called historicall) which beleeueth the mighty power of Christ, but cannot apprehend Gods mercie through him: and this deuils haue, Iam. 2. 19. and therefore is separated from charitie, but the faith that iustifieth in effect cannot, as 1. Iohn 2. 9. Matth. 17. 20. luke 17. 6.

c Not that it suffereth it selfe to be abused, but iudgeth others by all loue and humanitie.

d Which may be without offence of Gods worde.

e Knowledge it selfe shall bee perfected in the world to come, and not abolished: but the maner of knowing and teaching shall cease, when wee shall bee before Gods presence, where wee shall neither neede schooles nor teachers.

phesie in part.

10 But when that which is perfect, is come, then that which is in part, shall bee abolished.

11 When I was a childe, I spake as a childe, I vnderstood as a childe, I thought as a childe: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For nowe wee see g through a glasse darkly: but then shal we see face to face. Now I know in part: but then shall I know euen as I am ‖ known.

13 And now abideth faith, hope and loue, euen these three: but the h chiefest of these is loue.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 Hee exhorteth to loue, commendeth the gift of tongues, and other spirituall gifts, 5 But chiefly prophecying. 34 Hee commandeth women to keepe silence in the Church, 40 And sheweth what good order ought to be obserued in the Church.

FOllow after loue, and couet spirituall gifts, a and rather that ye may a prophesie.

2 For hee that speaketh a strange tongue, speaketh not vnto men, but vnto God: for no man b heareth him: howbeit in the c spirit hee speaketh secret things.

3 But he that prophesieth, speaketh vnto men to edifying, and to exhortation, and to comfort.

4 He that speaketh strange language, edifieth d himselfe: but he that prophesieth, edifieth the Church.

5 I would that yee all spake strange languages, but rather that yee prophesied: for greater is hee that prophesieth, then hee that speaketh diuers tongues, except hee expound it, that the Church may receiue edification.

6 And now, brethren, if I come vnto you speaking diuers tongues, what shall I profite you, except I speake to you, either by e reuelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?

7 Moreouer, things without life which giue a sounde, whether it bee a ‖ pipe or an harpe, except they make a distinction in the soundes, how shall it bee knowen what is piped or harped?

8 And also if the trumpet giue an vncertaine sounde, who shall prepare himselfe to battell?

9 So likewise you, by the tongue, except ye vtter words that haue signification, howe shall it be vnderstood what is spoken? for ye shall speake in the f aire.

10 There are so many kindes of voyces (as it commeth to passe) in the worlde, and none of them is dumme.

11 Except I know then the power of the voyce, I shall bee vnto him that speaketh, g a Barbarian, and hee that speaketh, shall bee a Barbarian vnto me.

12 Euen so, forasmuch as yee couet spirituall gifts, seeke that yee may excell vnto the edifying of the Church.

13 Wherefore, let him that speaketh a strange tongue, pray, that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in a strange tongue, my spirite h prayeth: but mine vnderstanding is without i fruit.

15 What a That is, to expound the word of God to the edification of the Church.

b Vnderstandeth him.

c By the spirituall gift, which he hath receiued.

d For he profiteth none saue himselfe.

e The prophesie expoundeth that which God hath reuealed: and the doctrine teacheth that which he hath giuen vs to vnderstand. ‖ Or, sure.

f Your wordes shall be lost: for ye shall neither glorifie God thereby, nor profit man. ‖ Or, as the thing requireth.

g That is, they may be able to be vnderstood.

h He condemneth the Corinthians of barbarousnesse in that thing, whereby they thought to haue attained to the greatest praise of eloquence.

i And doeth his part.

k Not in respect of him that prayeth, but in respect of the Church, which is nothing edified thereby.

g The mysteries of God.

h Because it serueth both here and in the life to come: but faith and hope appertaine onely to this life.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, but I will pray with the understanding also: I will [l] sing with the spirit, but I will sing with the understanding also.

16 Else, when thou blessest with the spirit, howe shall hee that occupieth the roome of the unlearned, say, [m] Amen, at thy giuing of thanks, seeing he knoweth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verily giuest thankes well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thanke my God, I speake languages more then ye all.

19 Yet had I rather in the Church to speake [n] fiue words with mine understanding that I might also instruct others, then tenne thousand wordes in a strange tongue.

20 Brethren, be not [o] children in understanding, but as concerning malitiousnesse be children, but in understanding bee of a ripe age.

21 In the Law it is written, [*o] By men of other tongues, and by other languages will I speake vnto this people: yet so shall they not heare me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore strange tongues are for a [p] signe, not to them that beleeue, but to them that beleeue not: but prophesying serueth not for them that beleeue not, but for them which beleeue.

23 If therefore when the whole Church is come together in one, and all speake strange tongues, there come in they that are vnlearned, or they which beleeue not, will they not say, that ye are out of your wittes?

24 But if all prophesie, and there come in one that beleeueth not, or one vnlearned, [q] hee is rebuked of [r] all men, and is iudged of all.

25 And so are the secrets of his heart made manifest, and so he will fall downe on his face and worship God, and say plainely that God is in you indeede.

26 What is to be done then, brethren? when ye come together, according as euery one of you hath a Psalme, or hath doctrine, or hath a tongue, or hath reuelation, or hath interpretation, let all things be done vnto edifying.

27 If any man speake a strange tongue, let it be by two, or at the [s] most by three, and that by course, and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keepe silence in the Church, which speaketh languages, and let him speake to himselfe, and to God.

29 Let the Prophets speake, two, or three, and let the other iudge.

30 And if any thing be reuelled to another that sitteth by, let the first holde his peace.

31 For yee may all prophesie one by one, that all may learne, and all may haue comfort.

32 But the [t] spirits of the Prophets are [*subiect to the Prophets.

33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as wee see in all the Churches of the Saints.

34 [] Let your women keepe [x] silence in the Churches: for it is not permitted vnto them to speake: but they ought to be subiect, as also the [] Law sayeth.

35 And if they will learne any thing, let them aske their husbandes at home, for it is a shame for women to speake in the Church.

36 [y] Came the worde of God out from you? either came it vnto you onely?

37 If any man thinke himselfe to bee a Prophet, or [z] spirituall, let him acknowledge, that the things that I write vnto you, are the commandements of the Lord.

38 [a] And if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore brethren, couet to prophesie, and forbid not to speake languages.

40 Let all things bee done honestly and by order.

l Or, giue thanks by singing.

m One onely made the praiers, and the rest of the people followed in heart his words, and when he had prayed, they all said, Amen, signifying that they beleeued assuredly that God would graunt their requests.

n That is, most fewe. Matth. 18.3. Isa. 28.11. deut. 28.49. iere 5.15. Ezek. 3.6.

o He threatneth them most sharply, that God will punish the contempt of his word, and their counterfait ignorance, for as much as to speake with vnknowen tongues is a signe of Gods curse toward the wicked.

p Of Gods curse when they are not vnderstood.

q By hearing his secret faults ript vp, and his sinnes reproued by Gods word, he is compelled by his owne conscience to praise God.

r Which expound the word of God.

s Paul beareth as yet with their weakenesse, because also these were the gifts of God: but yet he sheweth that they should not passe this measure, that first one, after another, and at the vtmost the third should reade in a strange language, which was to declare Gods miracle in the gift of tongues: but chiefly he commandeth that nothing be done without interpretation.

t Or, learning, which Gods spirit mooueth them to vtter, u To the intent that others may iudge of him that hath spoken, if he haue paste the compasse of Gods word: wherefore Saint Iohn commandeth to try the spirits whether they be of God. 1. Tim. 2, 11.

x Because this disorder was in the Church, that women vsurped that which was peculiar to men, the Apostle here sheweth what is meet to be done, and what is not: and albeit hee mentioned this abuse afore, yet he referred it to this place to be reproued, because there he brought it in for another purpose. Gen. 3.16.

y Are ye the first or the last Christians, that ye neither submit your selues to the Churches of whom ye haue receiued the Gospel? no, haue respect to the others, to whom the Gospel doth likewise appertaine? z To haue vnderstanding of spirituall things. a If any man haue iudgement, let him acknowledge that I speake of the Spirit of God, and so let him obey: and if he haue no iudgement, let him acknowledge his ignorance, and trouble not the Church, but credite them that are learned.

CHAP. XV.

He proueth the resurrection of the dead, 3 And first that Christ is risen: 22 Then that we shal rise, 52 And the maner how.

MOreouer, [*] brethren, I declare vnto you the Gospel, which I preached vnto you, which ye haue also receiued, and wherein ye continue,

2 And whereby ye are saued, if ye keepe in memorie, after what maner I preached it vnto you, [a] except yee haue beleeued in vaine.

3 For first of all, I deliuered vnto you that which [b] I receiued, howe that Christ died for our sinnes, according to the [*] Scriptures,

4 And that he was buried, and that he arose the third day, according to the [*] Scriptures,

5 [*] And that hee was seene of Cephas, then of the [c] twelue.

7 After that hee was seene of James: then of all the Apostles.

8 [*] And last of all hee was seene also of me, as of one borne out of due time.

9 For I am [*] the least of the Apostles, which am not meete to bee called an Apostle, because I persecuted the Church of God.

10 [*] But by the [d] grace of God, I am that a If you beleeue to be saued by the Gospel, ye must beleeue also the resurrection of the dead, which is one of the principall points thereof, or els your belief is but vaine.

Gal. 1.11.

b He sheweth nothing ought to bee taught, which we haue not learned by Gods word, Isa. 53.5. 1. pet. 2.24. Ionas 2.1, 10. Iohn 20.19.

c Although Iudas wanted, yet they were so called still. Acts 9.4. rom. 6.3. Ephes. 3.8. Ephes. 3.7.

d For he was but the instrument and minister, and giueth the whole glorie to God.

I am: and his grace which is in mee, was not in vaine: but I laboured more abundantly then they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which is with me.

11 Wherefore whether it were I, or they, so we preach, and so haue ye beleeued.

12 ¶ Nowe if it be preached, that Christ is risen from the dead, how say some among you, that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 For if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen.

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching e vaine, and your f faith is also vaine.

15 And we are found also false witnesses of God: for we haue testified of God, that he hath raised vp Christ: whom he hath not raised vp, if so be the dead be not raised.

16 For if the dead be not raised, then is Christ not raised.

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is f vaine; ye are yet in your g sinnes.

18 And so they which are asleepe in Christ, are perished.

19 If in this life h only we haue hope in Christ, we are of all men the most miserable.

20 But nowe is Christ risen from the dead, & was made the * first i fruits of them that slept.

21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, euen so in k Christ shall l all be made aliue, 23 But euery man in his * owne order: the first fruits is Christ, afterward, they that are of Christ, at his comming shall rise againe.

24 Then shalbe the ende, when he hath m deliuered vp the kingdome to God, euen the Father, when he hath put downe al rule, and all authoritie and power.

25 For he must reigne * till hee hath put all his enemies vnder his feete.

26 The last enemy that shalbe destroyed, is death.

27 * For hee hath put downe all things vnder his feete. (And when he saith that all things are subdued to him, it is manifest that hee is excepted, which did put downe all things vnder him.)

28 And when all things shall be subdued vnto him, then shall the Sonne also himselfe bee subiect vnto him, that did subdue all things vnder him, that God may be n all in all.

29 Els, what shall they doe which are baptized o for dead? if the dead rise not at all, why are they then baptized for dead?

30 Why are wee also in ieopardie euery houre?

31 q By our reioycing which I haue in Christ Iesus our Lord, I die daily.

32 If I haue fought with beastes at Ephesus after the r maner of men, what aduantageth it me, if the dead be not raised vp? * let vs eate and drinke: for to morowe wee shall die.

33 Bee not deceiued: * euill speakings corrupt good maners.

34 Awake to liue righteously, and sinne not: for some haue not the knowledge of God. I speake this to your shame.

35 But some man will say, Howe are the dead raised vp? and with what body come they forth?

36 O foole, that which thou sowest, is not quickened, except it die.

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall bee, but bare corne, as it falleth, of wheate, or of some other.

38 But God giueth it a body at his pleasure, euen to euery seede his owne body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one s flesh of men, and another flesh of beastes, and another of fishes, and another of birdes.

40 There are also heauenly bodies, and earthly bodies: but the glory of the heauenly is one, and the glory of the earthly is another.

41 There is another glory of the t sunne, and another glory of the moone, and another glory of the starres: for one starre differeth from another starre in glory.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. The body is sowen in corruption, and is raised in incorruption.

43 It is sowen in u dishonour, and is raised in glory: it is sowen in weakenesse, and is raised in power.

44 It is sowen a naturall body, and is raised a x spirituall body: there is a naturall body, and there is a spirituall body.

45 As it is also written, The first man * Adam was made a liuing soule: and the last Adam was made a y quickening Spirit.

46 Howbeit that was not first made which is spirituall: but that which is naturall, and afterward that which is spirituall.

47 The first man is of the earth, earthly: the second man is the Lord z from heauen.

48 As is the earthly, such are they that are earthly: and as is the heauenly, such are they also that are heauenly.

49 And as we haue borne the a image of the earthly, so shall wee beare the image of the heauenly.

50 This say I, brethren, that b flesh and blood cannot inherite the kingdome of God, neither doeth corruption inherite incorruption.

51 Beholde, I shewe you a secret thing, We shall not all sleepe, but wee shall all be c changed, e Christes death is not effectuall, except he rise from death.

f For if Christ be swallowed vp of death, there remaineth no hope of life any more.

g A mortification and remission of sinnes depend on Christs death: so our quickening and restoring to life stand in his resurrection.

h You are not forgiuen nor sanctified.

¶ Or, onely for this liues sake. Col. 1.18. rem. 1.5.

i As by the offering of the first fruit the whole fruit is sanctified, so by Christ which is the first that is rayfed, all haue assurance of the resurrection.

k Who rose first from the dead to take possession in our flesh for vs his members.

l To wit, the faithfull. 1. Thes. 4.15.

m Christ as he is man and head of the Church, is said to be subiect to God: but in respect of the world, is king of heauen & earth. This kingdome standeth in gouerning the faithfull, & ouercomming the aduersaries, euen death the chiefest: which done, Christ being perfected with all his members, shall as he is man, and head of the Church, with his fellow heires deliuer his kingdom, and be subiect to God, with whom & the holy Ghost in Godhead he is equall. Psal. 110. 1. acts 2. 34, 35. heb. 1. 13. & 10. 13. Psal. 8. 6. heb. 2. 8.

n We shall be perfectly fulfilled with his glory and felicity.

o That is, as dead, and becausse they were but newly come to Christ, would be baptised before they died.

p Except these things be true of Christs kingdome, & his subiection, what shall become of them whom the Church daily baptizeth, for to destroy death in them, which is the end of Baptisme, & so they to rise againe?

q I take to witnesse all my sorowes wherein I may iustly reioyce in the Lord, that I haue sustained them among you.

r That is, hauing regard to this presente life, and not to Gods glory, and to life euerlasting. Isa. 22. 13. wisd. 2. 6.

* Menander in Thaide.

s There is one substance as touching the flesh both of man and beast, but the difference is as touching the qualitie.

t Euen as the Sunne and the Moone, being of one substance, differ in dignitie: so in the resurrection our bodies shall haue more excellent qualities then they haue now.

u For what is more vile to looke vnto, then the dead carkeis?

x Not changing the substance, but made partaker of the diuine nature. Gen. 2. 7.

y Christ bringeth vs from heauen the Spirit of life.

z This is attributed to Christ as concerning his diuinitie, not in respect of his humanitie, whose flesh hath this glory by y power of God who dwelleth in it.

a Both in substance and forme we are earthly.

b This naturall bodie as it is now, till it be made new by the Spirit of Christ.

c When the Lord commeth to iudgement, some of the Saints shall bee aliue, whom he will change euen as if they were dead, so that this change is in stead of death to them.

*Matth.*24.31. 1.*thes.*4.16. *Isa.*25.8. *reuel.*7.17.

52 In a moment, in the twinckling of an eye at the last * trumpet: for the trumpet shal blow, and the dead shall bee raised vp incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption: and this mortall must put on immortalitie.

54 So when this corruptible hath put on incorruption, and this mortall hath put on immortalitie, then shall be brought to passe the saying that is written, * Death is swalowed vp into victory.

55 † * O death, where is thy sting? O graue, where is thy victory?

*Hos.*13.14. *heb.*2.14.

56 The sting of death is sinne: and the [d] strength of sinne is the Law.

d Sinne first brought in death and giueth it power ouer vs, and the strength of sinne is the law, because it doth reueale the iudgement of God against vs: or els the chiefe cause of our destruction is in our selues.

57 * But thankes bee vnto God, which hath giuen vs victory through our Lord Iesus Christ.

58 Therefore my beloued brethren, be yee stedfast, vnmoueable, abundant alwayes in the worke of the Lorde, forasmuch as yee know that your labour is not in [e] vaine in the Lord.

1.Iohn 5.5. e The hope of resurrection causeth the faithfull to surmount all difficulties.

Hee putteth them in remembrance of the gathering for the poore brethren at Hierusalem. 13 We must perseuere in faith, in the loue of Christ and our neighbour. 15 After his commendations he wisheth to them all prosperitie.

a Which ye shal send by the[m] that owe the money.

2 [a] Euery first day of the weeke, let euery one of you put aside by himselfe, and lay vp as God hath prospered him, that then there be no gatherings when I come.

3 And when I am come, whomsoeuer ye shall allow [b] by letters, them will I send to bring your liberalitie vnto Ierusalem.

4 And if it be meete that I go also, they shall goe with me.

5 Now I will come vnto you, after I haue gone through Macedonia (for I will passe through Macedonia)

6 And it may bee that I will abide, yea, or winter with you, that ye may bring me on my way whithersoeuer I goe.

7 For I will not see you now in my passage: but I trust to abide a while with you, if the Lord permit.

8 And I will tarie at Ephesus vntill Pentecost.

9 For a great doore and [c] effectuall is opened vnto mee: but there are many aduersaries.

c Because God blessed his labour.

10 ¶ Nowe if Timotheus come, see that he be [d] without feare with you: for hee worketh the worke of the Lorde, euen as I doe.

d Willing that they should defend him against the aduersaries of Christ, because it is the Churches duetie to be carefull for the preseruation of their ministers.

11 Let no man therefore * despise him: but conuey him foorth [f] in peace, that he may come vnto me: for I looke for him with the brethren.

e As though hee were too yong to be a minister.

12 As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come vnto you with the brethren: but his minde was not at all to come at this time: howbeit he will come when he shall haue conuenient time.

f That is, safe and sound.

13 ¶ [g] Watch ye: stand fast in the faith: quite you like men, and be strong.

g Lest Satan steale vpon you at vnawares.

14 Let all your things be done in [h] loue.

h For they had euery man respect to himselfe contrary to loue.

15 Nowe, brethren, I beseech you (yee knowe the house of Stephanas, that it is the [i] first frutes of Achaia, and that they haue giuen themselues to minister vnto the Saints)

i That is, the first which embraced the Gospel.

16 That ye be [k] obedient euen vnto such, and to all that helpe with vs and labour.

k And reuerence them.

17 I am glad of the comming of Stephanas, and Fortunatus, and Achaicus: for they haue [l] supplied the want of you.

l The griefe that I tooke for your absence, was greatly assuaged by their presence.

18 For they haue comforted my ‖ spirite and yours: acknowledge therefore such men.

The first Epistle to the Corinthians, written from [n] Philippi, and sent by Stephanas, and Fortunatus, and Achaicus, and Timotheus.

n Or, as it is most probable, from Ephesus.

The second Epistle of Paul to the Corinthians.

THE ARGVMENT.

AS nothing can be written either so perfectly, or with so great affection and zeale, which is not vnprofitable to many, and resisted by some: so the first Epistle written by Saint Paul to the Corinthians, besides the puritie and perfection of the doctrine, sheweth a loue toward them farre passing all naturall affections: which did not onely not profite all, but hardened the hearts of many to remaine in their stubbornesse, and contemne the Apostles authority. By reason whereof S. Paul, being let with iust occasions to come vnto them, wrote this Epistle from Macedonia, minding to accomplish the worke which he had begun among them. First therefore he wisheth them well in the Lord, declaring that that albeit certaine wicked persons abused his afflictions to condemne thereby his authoritie, yet they were a necessary schoolings, and sent to him by God for their bettering. And whereas they blame his long abstence, it came of no inconstancie, but to beare with their inabilitie and imperfection, lest contrary to his fatherly affection, he should haue bene compelled to vse rigour and seueritie. And as touching his sharpe writing in the former Epistle, it came through their fault, as is now euident both in that, that he pardoneth the trespasser, seeing hee doeth repent: and also in that hee was vnquiet in his minde, till he was certified by Titus of their estate. But forasmuch as the false apostles went about to vndermine his authoritie, he confuteth their arrogant brags, and commendeth his office, and the diligent executing of the same: so that Satan must haue greatly blinded their eyes, which see not the brightnesse of the Gospel in his preaching: the effect whereof is newnesse of life, forsaking of our selues, cleauing to God, fleeing from idolatrie, embracing the true doctrine, and that sorrow which engendreth true repentance: to the which is ioyned mercy and compassion towards our brethren: also wisdome to put difference betwixt the simplicitie of the Gospel, and the arrogancie of the false preachers, who vnder pretence of preaching the trueth, sought onely to fill their bellies, whereas he contrariwise sought them, and not their goods, as those ambitious persons slandered him: wherefore at his comming he menaceth such as rebell against his authority, that hee will declare by liuely example that he is the faithfull ambassadour of Iesus Christ.

CHAP. I.

4 Hee declareth the great profite that commeth to the faithfull by their afflictions. 15. 17 And because they should not imputte to lightnesse, that hee deferred his comming contrary to his promisse, he proueth his constancie, both by the sinceritie of his preaching, and also by the immutable trueth of the Gospel. 21 Which trueth is grounded on Christ, and sealed in our hearts by the holy Ghost.

PAVL an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by ꝑ will of God, and our brother Timotheus, to the Church of God, which is at Corinthus with all the Saints which are in all a Achaia:

2 Grace bee with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 *b Blessed be God, euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort, 4 Which comforteth vs in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any affliction by the comfort wherewith wee our selues are comforted of God.

5 For as the c sufferings of Christ abound in vs, so our consolation abounded through Christ.

6 And whether wee be afflicted, it is for your consolation, and d saluation, which e is wrought in the enduring of the same sufferings, which we also suffer: or whether wee be comforted, it is for your consolation and saluation.

7 And our hope is stedfast concerning you, in as much as wee know that as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

8 For brethren, we would not haue you ignorant of our affliction, which came vnto vs in Asia, howe wee were pressed f out of measure passing strength, so that we altogether doubted, euen of life.

9 Yea, we g receiued the sentence of death in our selues, because wee should not trust in our selues, but in God, which raiseth the dead.

10 Who deliuered vs from so h great a death, and doeth deliuer vs: in whom wee trust, that yet hereafter he will deliuer vs, 11 *So that ye labour together in prayer for vs, that for the gift bestowed vpon vs for many, thankes may be giuen by many persons for vs.

12 i For our reioycing is this, the testimonie of our conscience, that in simplicitie and godly pureneſſe, and not in fleshly wisedome, k but by the grace of God wee haue had our conuersation in the world, and most of all to youwards.

13 For we l write none other things vnto you, then that ye read, or els that ye acknowledge, and I trust ye shall acknowledge vnto the end.

14 Euen as yee haue acknowledged vs partly, that wee are your m reioycing, euen as ye are n ours, in the o day of our Lord Iesus.

15 And in this confidence was I minded first to come vnto you, that yee might haue had a double grace, 16 And to passe by you into Macedonia, and to come againe out of Macedonia vnto you, and to bee led ꝑ you toward Iudea or you.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I vse lightnes? or mind I those things which I minde, p according to the flesh, that with mee should bee q Yea, yea, and Nay, nay?

18 Yea, r God is faithfull, that our word toward you, was not Yea, and Nay.

19 For the Sonne of God Iesus Christ who was preached among you by vs, that is, by mee, and Siluanus, and Timotheus, was not Yea, and Nay: but in him it was ſ Yea.

20 For all the promises of God in him are Yea, and are in him Amen, vnto the glory of God ꝑ vs.

21 And it is God which establisheth vs with you in Christ, and hath annointed vs, 22 Who hath also *sealed vs, & hath giuen the *earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

a Meaning the countrey where of Corinthus was the chiefe citie. *Ephes.*1.3. *1.pet.*1.3.

b Or, praise and glory be giuen.

c Which I suffer for Christ, or which Christ suffreth in me, Rom. 7.5, & 8 5.col. 1.24.

d For seeing him endure so much, they had occasiō to be confirmed in the Gospel.

e As God onely worketh all things in vs: so doth he also our saluation by his free mercy, and by such meanes as he hath here left in this life for vs to be exercised in.

f Hereby hee sheweth his own infirmitie, that it might appeare how wonderfully Gods graces wrought in him.

g I was vtterly resolued in my selfe to die many dangers of death, h So God to witnesse, that he preacheth the trueth.

i He rendreth a reason why they ought to pray vnto God for his recouery.

k Vsing that wisdome which God gaue me from heauen.

l Ye know part. ly my constancie both by my dwelling with you, and also by my writing vnto you: and I trust ye shall know me to bee the same to the very ende.

m In that wee haue taught you the Gospell so sincerely.

n Because wee haue wonne you to Christ.

o Which shall abolish all worldly glory p Which is rashly to promise and not to performe, q Now to affirme one thing, and then to denie it, which is a signe of inconstancie.

r Hee taketh ſ Hee preached nothing vnto them but onely Iesus Christ, who is and infallible trueth of the Father. t They are made and performed, and we are partakers onely by him, who is our Amen, in that he hath fulfilled them for vs. *Ephes.*1.13. and 4.3. *Ephes.*1.14 *chap.*5.5.

*Rom.*15.30.

23 Now I call God for a record vnto my soule, that to spare you, I came not as yet vnto Corinthus.

u In that I say I came not because I would spare you, I meane not that I haue authoritie to alter true religion, or to binde your consciences, but that I am Gods minister to confirme and comfort you.

24 Not that wee * haue dominion ouer your faith, but we are helpers of your ioy: for by x faith ye stand.

x And faith is not in subiection to man.

CHAP. II.

Hee sheweth hu loue towards them, 7 requiring likewise that they would bee fauourable to the incestuous adulterer, seeing he did repent. 14 Hee also reioyceth in God for the efficacie of hu doctrine, 17 confuting thereby such quarell pickers as vnder pretence of speaking against hu person, sought nothing but the ouerthrow of hu doctrine.

BVt I determined thus in my selfe, that I would not come againe to you in heauinesse.

a Which was giuen to Satan, but now doth repent.

2 For if I make you sory, who is he then that should make me glad, but y same which is made a sory by me?

b Which made you and him sory in my former epistle.

3 And I wrote b this same thing vnto you, lest when I came, I should take heauinesse of them, of whom I ought to reioyce: this confidence haue I in you all, that my ioy is the ioy of you all.

c After this adulterer did repent and amend, Paul did so vtterly cast off all sorow, that he denieth that in maner he was any whit sory.

4 For in great affliction, and anguish of heart I wrote vnto you with many teares: not that ye should be made sory, but that ye might perceiue the loue which I haue, specially vnto you.

d And to should increase his sorowe which I would diminish.

5 And if any haue caused sorow, the same hath not c made mee sory, but partly (lest I should d more charge him) you all.

6 It is sufficient vnto the same man, that he was rebuked of many.

e The adulterer, which entermeined his mother in law.

7 So that now contrariwise yee ought rather to forgiue him, and comfort him, lest the same e should be swallowed vp with ouermuch heauinesse.

8 Wherfore, I pray you, that you would f confirme your loue towards him.

f That at my intercession you would declare, by the publike consent of the Church, that you imbrace him againe as a brother, seeing he was excommunicate by the common consent.

9 For this cause also did I write, that I might know the proofe of you, whether yee would be obedient in all things.

10 To whom ye forgiue any thing, I forgiue also: for verily if I forgaue any thing, to whom I forgaue it, for your sakes forgaue I it in the g sight of Christ, g That is, truely, and from mine heart, euen as in the presence of Christ.

11 Lest Satan should h circumuent vs: for we are not ignorant of his enterprises.

h By our rigorous punishing, ‖Or, in my minde.

12 ¶ Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christs Gospel, and a doore was opened vnto me of the Lord, 13 I had no rest ‖ in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother, but tooke my leaue of them, and went away into Macedonia.

i From this place vnto the 6. chap. 11. he intreateth onely of the ministers, saue he sometime intermedleth that which appertaineth to the whole Church, as Chap. 3. 17. & 18. verses, and not onely to the ministers.

14 i Now thanks be vnto God, which alwaies maketh vs k to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the sauour of his knowledge by vs in euery place.

k In working mightily by vs, he maketh vs partakers of his victory and triumph.

15 For we are vnto God the sweet sauour of Christ, in them that are saued, & in them which perish.

16 To the one we are the l sauour of death vnto death, * and to the other the sauour of life, vnto life, and who is sufficient for these things?

l The preaching of the crosse bringeth death to the which onely consider Christes death as a common death, and be thereat offended, or els thinke in his death beholde

17 * For wee are not as many, m which make merchandise of the word of God: but as of sincerite, but as of God in the sight of God speake we in Christ.

m That is, which preach for gaine, & corrupt it to serue mens affections. ‖Or, through Christ, or of Christ.

CHAP. III.

1 He taketh for example the faith of the Corinthians for a probation of the truth whuh hee preached. 6 And to exalt his Apostleship against the brags of the false apostles, 7. 13 he maketh comparison betwixt the Law and the Gospel.

DO we begin to praise our selues againe? or need we as some other, Epistles of recommendation vnto you, or letters of recommendation from you?

a Meaning, himselfe, Timotheus, and Siluanus.

2 Ye are our epistle, written in our hearts, which is vnderstood and read of all men,

3 In that ye are manifest, to be the epistle of Christ b ministred by vs, and written, not with inke, but with the Spirit of the liuing God, not in c tables of stone, but in fleshly tables of the heart.

b Who were Gods pen.

c The hardnesse of mans heart, before he be regenerate, is as a stonie table, Ezek. 11. 19. and 36. 26. but being regenerate by the spirit of God, it is as soft as flesh, that the grace of the Gospel may be written in it, as in new tables, Ierem. 31. 31, 32, 33.

4 And such trust haue we through Christ to God:

5 Not that we are sufficient of our selues, to thinke any thing as of our selues: but our sufficiencie is of God,

6 Who also hath made vs able ministers of the newe Testament, not of the d letter, but of the e Spirit: for the letter killeth, but the f Spirit giueth life.

d Whose minister Moses was.

e Which Christ gaue.

7 If then the ministration g of death written with letters, and ingraued in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not beholde the face of Moses for the h glory of his countenance (which glory is done away)

f Meaning, the spirituall doctrine, which is in our hearts.

g Thus he nameth the Law, in comparison of the Gospel.

8 How shall not the ministration of the Spirit be more glorious?

9 For if the ministery of i condemnation was glorious, much more doth the ministration of k righteousnesse exceed in glory.

h After that God had spoken with him, and giuen him the Law.

i For the Lawe declareth all men to be vnder condemnation. k Meaning, of the Gospel, which declareth that Christ is made our righteousnesse.

10 For euen that which was glorified, was not glorified in this point, that is, as touching the exceeding glory.

11 For if that which should be abolished, was glorious, much more shall that which remaineth, be glorious.

12 Seeing then that wee haue such trust, we vse l great boldnesse of speech.

l In preaching the Gospel.

13 * And wee are not as Moses, which m put a vaile vpon his face, that the children of Israel should not looke vnto the ende

Exod. 34. 33. m Moses shewed the Law as it was couered with shadowes, so that the Iewes eyes were not lightened, but blinded, and so could not come to Christ, who was the end thereof: againe, the Gospel setteth foorth the glory of God cleerely, not couering our eyes, but driuing the darkenesse away from them.

n Christ is our mediatour and authour of the new Testament, whose doctrine is spirituall, and giueth life to the Law. Iohn 4.24.
o In Christ, who is God manifested in the flesh, we see God the Father as in a most cleere glasse.

of that which should be abolished.
14 Therefore their mindes are hardened: for vntill this day remaineth the same couering vntaken away in the reading of the olde testament, which vaile in Christ is put away.
15 But euen vnto this day, when Moses is read, the vaile is layd ouer their hearts.
16 Neuertheless, when their heart shall be turned to the Lord, the vaile shalbe taken away.
17 Now the n Lord is the * Spirit, and where o Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.
18 But we all beholde as in a mirrour the glory of the Lord with open face, and are changed into the same image, from glory to glory, as by the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Hee declareth his diligence and roundnesse in his office. 8 And that which his enemies tooke for his disauantage, to wit, the crosse and afflictions which hee endured, hee turneth to his great aduantage, 11.17 shewing what profit commeth thereby.

THerefore, seeing that we haue this ministery, as wee haue receiued mercy, a wee faint not:
2 But haue cast from vs the b cloakes of shame, and * walke not in craftinesse, neither handle we the word of God deceitfully: but in declaration of the trueth we approoue our selues to euery mans conscience in the sight of God.
3 If our Gospel be then hid, it is hid to them that are lost.
4 In whom the c god of this world hath blinded the minds, that is, of the infidels, that the light of the glorious Gospel of Christ, which is the d image of God, should not shine vnto them.
5 For wee preach not our e selues, but Christ Iesus the Lord, and our selues your seruants for Iesus sake.
6 For God that * commanded the light to shine out of darkenesse, is hee which hath shined in f our hearts, to giue the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Iesus Christ.
7 But we haue this b treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellencie of that power might be of God and not of vs.
8 We are afflicted on euery side, yet are we not in distresse: in pouertie, but not ouercome of pouertie.
9 We are persecuted, but not forsaken: cast downe, but we perish not.
10 Euery where wee beare about in our body the i dying of the Lord Iesus, that the life of Iesus might also be made manifest in our bodies.
11 For wee which line, are alwayes deliuered vnto death for Iesus sake, that the life also of Iesus might be made manifest in our mortall flesh.
12 So then k death worketh in vs, and life in you.
13 And because wee haue the same l spirit of faith, according as it is written, * I beleeued, and therefore haue I spoken, we also beleeue, and therefore speake, 14 Knowing that he which hath raised vp the Lord Iesus, shall m raise vs vp also by Iesus, and shall set vs with you.
15 For all things are for your sakes, that most plenteous grace by the thankesgiuing of n many, may redound to the praise of God.
16 Therefore wee faint not, but though our outward man p perish, yet the inward man is o renued dayly.
17 For our p light affliction which is but for a moment, causeth vnto vs a farre most excellent and an eternall weight of glory:
18 While wee looke not on the things which are seene, but on the things which are not seene: for the things which are seene, are temporall: but the things which are not seene, are eternall.

a For any trouble or afflictions.
b Meaning such shifts and pretences as become not them that haue such a great office in hand. Chap. 2.17.
c To wit, Satan, Iohn 12.31. and 14.30. eph. 6.12.
d In whom God doeth shew himselfe to be seene: and heere Christ is called so in respect of his office.
e As they which preach for gaine, or els which rather seeke to be seene & knowen, then to edifie. Gene. 1.3.
f Which are your seruants.
g That we hauing receiued light shoulde communicate the same with others, and therefore Christ calleth them the light of the world, Matth. 5.14.
h Albeit the ministers of the Gospel be contemptible as touching their person, yet the treasure which they cary is nothing woorse or inferiour.
i All the faithfull, and chiefly the Ministers must drinke of this cup, because the world hateth Christ: and also that the members should bee conformable to Christ their head, yet by the mightie power of Christ, who ouercame death, they are made conquerours.
k By our death you haue life: so that the fruit of our afflictions commeth to you.
l The same faith by the inspiration of the holy Ghost. Psal. 116.10.
m In deliuering vs from these dangers, which is as it were a restoring from death to life.
n That I being deliuered and restored to you againe, may not onely my selfe giue God thanks for his infinite benefit of deliuerance, but also you all, which are both partakers of mine affliction and comfort, may abundantly set forth his glory. ‖ Or, be corrupted.
o Groweth stronger.
p Which is so called in respect of the euerlasting life.

CHAP. V.

1 Paul proceedeth to declare the vtilitie that commeth by the crosse. 5 How wee ought to prepare our selues vnto it, 5 by whom, 9 and for what end. 14.19 He setteth forth the grace of Christ, 20 and the office of ministers, and all the faithfull.

FOr wee know that if a our earthly house of this tabernacle be destroyed, we haue a building giuen of God, that is, an house not made with hands, but eternall in the heauens.
2 For therfore we sigh, desiring to be clothed with our house, which is from heauen.
3 ‖ Because that if we be clothed, we shal not be found * naked.
4 For in deed we that are in this tabernacle, sigh and are burdened, ‖ because we would not be vnclothed, but would be clothed vpon, that mortalitie might be swallowed vp of life.
5 And hee that hath created vs for this thing, is God, who also hath giuen vnto vs the * earnest of the Spirit.
6 Therefore we are alwaybold, though we know that whiles we are ‖ at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord.
7 (For wee b walke by faith, and not by sight)
8 Neuertheless, wee are bolde, and loue rather to remoue out of the body, and to dwell with the Lord.
9 Wherefore also we couet, that both dwelling d at home, and remooning e from home, we may be acceptable to him.
10 * For wee must all appeare before the iudgement seate of Christ, that euery man may receiue the things which are done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be f good or euill.
11 Knowing therefore the g terrour of the g His fearefull iudgement.

h He proueth the dignitie of his ministery by the fruite and effect thereof, which is to bring men to Christ.
i By imbracing the same faith which we preach to others.
k As they, which more esteemed the outward shew of wisedom and eloquence, then true godlinesse.
l As the aduersaries said, which could not abide to heare them praised.
m Our follie serueth to Gods glory.
n Therefore whosoeuer giueth place to ambition or vainglory, is yet dead, and liueth not in Christ.
o As the onely faithfull doe in Christ.
p According to the estimation of the world: but as he is guided by the Spirit of God.
q We doe not esteeme, nor commend Christ himselfe nowe, as he was an excellent man: but as hee was the Sonne of God partaker of his glory, and in whom God dwelled corporally: and do you thinke that I will flatter my selfe or any man in setting forth his gifts? Yea, when I prayse my ministery, I commend the power of God: when I commend our worthy facts, I praise the mighty power of God set foorth by vs wormes & wretches. r Let him be regenerate, & renounce himself, els all the rest is nothing. *Isa.*43.19. *reuel.*21.5. s Therefore without Christ we cannot enioy the life euerlasting, nor come to God. t That is, a sacrifice for sinne. u By imputation when wee shall be clad with Christs iustice.

the Lord, we [k] perswade men, and wee [l] are made manifest vnto God, and I trust also that wee are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For wee praise not our selues againe vnto you, but giue you an occasion to reioyce of vs, that yee may haue to answere against them, which reioyce in the [k] face, and not in the heart.

13 For whether wee bee [l] out of our wit, we are it [m] to God: or whether we be in our right mind, we are it vnto you.

14 For the loue of Christ constraineth vs: because wee thus iudge, that if one bee dead for all, then were [n] all dead,

15 And hee died for all, that they [o] which liue, should not henceforth liue vnto themselues, but vnto him which died for them, and rose againe.

16 Wherefore, henceforth know wee no man [p] after the flesh, yea though wee had knowen Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth [q] know we him no more.

17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, let him be a [r] newe creature. * Olde things are passed away: behold, all things are become new.

18 And all things are of God, which hath reconciled vs vnto himselfe by Iesus Christ, and hath giuen vnto vs the ministery of reconciliation.

19 For God was [s] in Christ, and reconciled the world to himselfe, not imputing their sinnes vnto them, and hath committed to vs the word of reconciliation.

20 Nowe then are wee ambassadors for Christ: as though God did beseech you through vs, we pray you in Christs stead, that ye be reconciled to God.

21 For hee hath made him to bee [t] sinne for vs, which knewe no sinne, that wee should bee [u] made the righteousnesse of God in him.

CHAP. VI.

1 An exhortation to Christian life, 11 And to beare him like affection, as hee doeth them: 14 Also to keepe themselues from all pollution of idolatrie both in body and soule, and to haue none acquaintance with idolaters.

WE then as workers together beseech you, that ye receiue not the grace of God in vaine.

2 For hee sayth, * I haue heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of saluation haue I succoured thee: beholde nowe the [a] accepted time, beholde now the day of saluation.

thing, that our ministery should not bee [b] reprehended.

4 But in all things wee approoue our selues as * the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 In stripes, in prisons, in tumults, in labours,

6 By [c] watchings, by fastings, by puritie, by knowledge, by long suffering, by kindnesse, by the [d] holy Ghost, by [e] loue vnfained,

7 [f] By the word of trueth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousnesse on the right hand and on the left,

8 By honour and dishonour, by euill report, and good report, as deceiuers, and yet true:

9 As vnknowen, and yet knowen: as dying, and behold, wee liue: as chastened, and yet not killed:

10 As sorowing, and yet alway reioycing: as poore, and yet make many rich: as hauing nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 O Corinthians, our [g] mouth is open vnto you: our heart is made large.

12 Ye are not kept strait in vs, but ye are kept strait in your owne [h] bowels.

13 Nowe for the same recompense, I speake as to my children, [i] Bee you also enlarged.

14 [k] Be not vnequally yoked with the infidels: for * what fellowship hath righteousnesse with vnrighteousnesse? and what communion hath light with darkenesse?

15 And what concord hath Christ with [l] Belial? or what part hath the beleeuer with the infidel?

16 And what agreement hath the Temple of God with idols? * for ye are the Temple of the [l] liuing God: as God hath sayde, * I will dwel among them, and walke there: and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

17 * Wherefore, come out from among them, and separate your selues, sayeth the Lord: and touch none vncleane thing, and I will receiue you.

18 * And I will be a Father vnto you, and ye shall be my sonnes and daughters, sayeth the Lord Almighty.

CHAP. VII.

1 Hee exhorteth them by the promises of God to keepe themselues pure, 3. 7 assuring them of his loue, 8. 13 and doth not excuse his seueritie toward them, but reioyceth thereat, considering what profit came thereby. 10 Of two sorts of sorow.

SEeing then we haue these promises, deerely beloued, let vs [a] cleanse our selues from all filthines of the [b] flesh and spirit, and grow vp vnto full holinesse in the feare of God.

a Consider this well, yee that serue idoles with your bodies, and yet thinke your conscience pure toward God: God will one day smite you for your halting. b Of body and soule.

2 [c] Receiue

2 [c] Receiue vs: we haue done wrong to no man: wee haue consumed no man: wee haue [d] defrauded no man.

3 I speake it not to y our condemnation: for I haue sayd before, that yee are in our hearts to die and liue together.

4 I vse great boldnesse of speech toward you: I reioyce greatly in you: I am filled with comfort, and am exceeding ioyous in all our tribulation.

5 For when wee were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but wee were troubled on euery side, fightings [e] without, and terrours within.

6 But God, that comforteth the abiect, comforted vs at the comming of Titus:

7 And not by his comming onely, but also by the consolation wherewith hee was comforted of you, when hee tolde vs your great desire, your mourning, your feruent mind to me-ward, so that I reioyced [f] much more.

8 For though I made you sory with a letter, I repent not, though I did repent: for I perceiue that the same Epistle made you sory, though it were but for a season.

9 I now reioyce, not that ye were sory, but that ye sorowed to repentance: for ye sorowed godly, so that in nothing ye were hurt by vs.

10 * For godly sorow causeth repentance vnto saluation, not to be repented of: but the worldly sorow causeth death.

11 For beholde, this thing that yee haue bene [g] godly sory, what great care it hath wrought in you: yea, what [h] clearing of your selues: yea, what indignation: yea, what feare: yea, how great desire: yea, what a zeale: yea, what [i] punishment: in all things ye haue shewed your selues that yee are pure in this matter.

12 Wherefore, though I wrote vnto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, neither for his cause that had the iniurie, but that our care toward you in the sight of God might appeare vnto you.

13 Therefore wee were comforted, because yee were comforted: but rather wee reioyced much more for the ioy of Titus, because his ‖ spirite was refreshed by you all.

14 For if that I haue boasted any thing to him of you, I haue not beene ashamed: but as I haue spoken vnto you all things in trueth, euen so our boasting vnto Titus was true.

15 And his [k] inward affection is more abundant toward you, when he remembreth the obedience of you all, and how with feare and trembling ye receiued him.

16 I reioyce therfore that I may [l] put my confidence in you in all things.

[e] That we may teach you.
[d] By greedy couetousnes.
[e] He had neither rest in body nor Spirit: and it seemeth that he alludeth to that which is written, Deut. 32. 25. For the crosse to mans eye is common both to the godly and to the wicked, although to contrary ends.
[f] This ioy ouercame all my sorowes. 1. Per. 2. 19.
[g] Whose heart Gods Spirit doth touch, he is sory for his sinnes committed against so mercifull a Father, and these are the fruits of his repentance, as witnesse Dauids and Peters teares: others which are sory for their sinnes onely for feare of punishment and Gods vengeance, fall into desperation, as Cain, Saul, Ahitophel, and Iudas.
[h] In asking God forgiuenesse.
[i] For in iudging and chastising your selues, you preuented Gods anger.
‖ Or, heart.
[k] The Greeke word signifieth his bowels, whereby is meant most great loue & tender affections.
[l] Both in thinking and reporting well of you.

CHAP. VIII.

1 By the example of the Macedonians, 9 and Christ, he exhorteth them to continue in relieuing the poore Saints, commending their good beginning. 23 After he commendeth Titus, and his fellowes vnto them.

WE doe you also to wit, brethren, of the [a] grace of God bestowed vpon the Churches of Macedonia,

2 Because in great triall of affliction their ioy abounded, and their most extreme pouertie [b] abounded vnto their rich liberalitie.

3 For to their power (I beare record) yea, and beyond their power, they were willing,

4 And prayed vs with great instance that we would receiue the [c] grace, and fellowship * of the ministring which is toward the Saints.

5 And this they did, not as we looked for: but gaue their owne selues, first to the Lord, and after vnto vs by the will of God,

6 That we should exhort Titus, that as he had begun, so hee would also accomplish the same grace among you also.

7 Therefore, as yee abound in euery thing, in faith and word, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your loue towards vs, euen so see that ye abound in this grace also.

8 This say I not by commaundement, but because of the diligence of others: therefore proue I the naturalnesse of your loue.

9 For yee knowe the grace of our Lorde Iesus Christ, that hee being rich, for your sakes became poore, that ye through his pouertie might be made rich.

10 And I shewe my minde herein: for this is expedient for you which haue begun not to doe onely, but also to [d] will, a yeere agoe.

11 Nowe therefore perfourne to doe it also, that as there was a readinesse to will, euen so yee may perfourne it of that which yee haue.

12 For if there be first a willing minde, it is accepted according to that a man hath, & not according to that he hath not.

13 Neither is it, that other men should be eased and you grieued.

14 But vpon like condition, at this time your [e] abundance supplieth their lacke, that also their abundance may be for your lacke, that there may be [f] equality:

15 As it is written, * Hee that gathered much, had nothing ouer, and he that gathered little, had not the lesse.

16 And thankes bee vnto God, which hath put in the heart of Titus the same care for you.

17 Because he accepted the exhortation, yea, he was so carefull, that of his owne accord he went vnto you.

18 And wee haue sent also with him the brother, whose praise is [h] in the Gospel throughout all the Churches,

19 (And not so onely, but is also chosen of the Churches to bee a fellow in our iourney concerning this grace that is ministred by vs vnto the glorie of the same Lorde, and declaration of your prompt minde)

20 Auoiding this, that no man should blame vs in this abundance that is ministred by vs,

21 * Pounding for [i] honest things, not onely before the Lord, but also before men,

22 And

[a] This benefit of God appeared in two things, first, that the Macedonians being in so great afflictions were so prompt to helpe others: and next, that being in great pouerty, were very liberall towards others.
[b] So that a most abundant riuer of riches flowed out of their pouertie.
[c] So he calleth their liberalitie, either because they were the bestowers of Gods graces, or because they receiued them of God freely, and so they desired Paul to see to the distribution thereof. Chap. 9. 12.
[d] Euery man may doe good that hath abilitie thereunto: but to will, and haue a minde to doe good, commeth of perfect charitie.
[e] That as you helpe others in their need, so others shall relieue your want.
[f] That both you and others, as occasion shal serue, may relieue the godly according to their necessities. Exod. 16. 18.
[g] And willingly offered himselfe to gather your almes.
[h] In preaching the Gospel. Some vnderstand this to be spoken of Luke, others of Barnabas. Rom. 12. 17.
[i] His well doing is approoued before God and man.

22 And we haue sent with them our brother whom we haue oft times proued to be diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, for the great confidence, which I haue in you.

23 Whether any doe enquire of Titus, he is my fellow and helper to youward: or of our brethren, they are messengers of the Churches, and the [k] glory of Christ.

24 Wherefore shewe toward them, and before the Churches the proofe of your loue, and of the reioycing that wee haue of you.

k That is, by whom Christs glory is greatly aduanced.

CHAP. IX.

3 The cause of Titus and his companions comming to them. 6 He exhorteth to giue almes cheerefully. 7 Shewing what fruit will come thereof.

FOr as touching the ministring to the Saints, it is superfluous for mee to write vnto you.

2 For I know your readinesse of mind, whereof I boast my selfe of you vnto them of Macedonia, and say, that Achaia was prepared a yeere agoe, and your zeale hath prouoked many.

3 Nowe haue I sent the brethren, least our reioycing ouer you should bee in vaine in this behalfe, that yee (as I haue sayd) be readie:

4 Least if they of Macedonia come with me, and finde you vnprepared, we (I meene not to say, you) should be ashamed in this my confident boasting.

5 Wherefore, I thought it necessarie to exhort the brethren to come before vnto you, and to finish your benevolence appointed afore, that it might be ready, and come as of benevolence, and not as of sparing.

6 This yet remember, that he which soweth sparingly, shall reape also sparingly, and he that soweth liberally, shall reape also liberally.

7 As euery man wisheth in his heart, so let him giue, not * grudgingly, or of necessitie: * For God loueth a chearefull giuer.

8 And God is able to make all grace to abound toward you, that yee alwayes hauing [a] all sufficientcie in all things, may abound in euery [b] good worke,

9 *As it is written, [c] Hee hath sparsed abroad, and hath giuen to the poore: his benevolence remaineth for euer.

10 Also he that findeth seede to the sower, will minister likewise bread for foode, and multiply your seede, and increase the fruites of your benevolence, 11 That on al parts ye may be made rich vnto all liberalitie, which causeth through vs thankesgiuing vnto God.

12 For the ministration of this seruice not onely supplieth the necessities of the Saints, but also is abundant by the thankesgiuing of many vnto God,

13 (Which by the experiment of this ministration praysle God for your voluntary submission to the Gospel of Christ, and for you liberall distribution to them, and to all men)

14 And by [d] their prayer for you, desiring after you greatly for the abundant grace of God in you.

Prou.11.25. rom.12.8. Eccles.35.10.

a Least they should giue but little, distrusting to impouerish themselues thereby, he sheweth that God will so blesse their liberall hearts, that both they shall haue ynough for themselues, and also to helpe others withall.

b That ye may doe good and helpe others at all times.

Psal.112.9.

c Dauid speaketh of that man which feareth God, and loueth his neighbour.

d Besides that by their liberalitie God shall be praised, they also shalbe commended to God by their prayers whom they haue holpen, yea, and al men shal reuerence them, as being endued with an excellent gift of God.

[d] Or, greatly affectioned toward you.

15 Thankes therefore bee vnto God for his vnspeakeable gift.

CHAP. X.

Hee toucheth the false apostles and defendeth his authoritie, exhorting them to obedience, 11 And sheweth what his power is, 13 And how he vseth it.

NOw I Paul my selfe beseech you by the meekenesse and gentlenesse of Christ, which when I am present among you, am [a] base, but am bolde towarde you being absent:

2 And this I require you, that I neede not to bee bolde when I am present, with that same confidence, wherewith I thinke to bee bolde against some, which esteeme vs as though wee walked [b] according to the flesh.

3 Neuertheleese, though we walke in the flesh, yet we do not warre after the flesh,

4 (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God, to cast downe holdes)

5 Casting downe the imaginations, and euery high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captiuitie euery thought to the obedience of Christ,

6 And hauing ready the vengeance against all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

7 Looke yee on things after the appearance? If any man trust in himselfe that hee is Christes, let him consider this againe of himselfe, that as he is Christs, euen so are we Christes.

8 For though I shoulde boast somewhat more of our authoritie, which the Lorde hath giuen vs for edification, and not for your destruction, I should haue no shame.

9 This I say, that I may not seeme as it were to feare you with letters.

10 For the letters, [c] saith he, are sore and strong, but his bodily presence is weake, and his speech is of no value.

11 Let such one thinke this, that such as wee are in word by letters when wee are absent, such will wee be also in deede, when wee are present.

12 For we dare not make our selues of the number, or to compare our selues to them, which praise themselues: but they vnderstand not that they [d] measure themselues with themselues, and compare themselues with themselues.

13 But wee will not reioyce of things, which are not within our measure, * but according to the [e] measure of the line, whereof God hath distributed vnto vs a measure to attaine euen vnto you.

14 For wee stretch not our selues beyond our measure, as though wee had not attayned vnto you: for euen to you also haue wee come in preaching the Gospell of Christ,

15 Not boasting of things which are without our measure: that is, of other mens labours: and we hope, when your faith shall increase, to be magnified by you, according to our line abundantly, a These wordes his backbiters vsed, thinking thereby to diminish his authoritie, as vers 1 0.

16 And

b As though we boasted of our selues by a carnal affection.

c Meaning a certaine man among them, which thus spake of Paul.

d He that measureth any thing must haue some line or measure to mete by, and not to measure a thing by it selfe: so these boasters must measure themselues by their worthy actes: and if they will compare with others, let them shewe what countries, what cities, and people they haue wonne to the Lord: for who will praise that souldier, which onely at the table can finely talke of warres, and when he commeth to the brunt, is neither valiant nor expert? Ephes.4.7.

e That is, the gifts and vocation, which God had giuen him to winne others by,

1 God gaue the whole world to the Apostles to preach in, so that Paul here meaneth by the line, his portion of the countreys where he preached. Iere.9.24. 1.Cor,1.31.

16 And to preach the Gospel in those regions which are beyond you: not to reioyce in [f] another mans line, that is, in the things that are prepared already.

17 * But let him that reioyceth, reioyce in the Lord.

18 For hee that prayseth himselfe, is not allowed, but he whom the Lord prayseth.

CHAP. XI.

2 How declareth his affection toward them. 5 The excellencie of his ministerie. 9 And his diligence in the same. 13 The notches of the false Apostles. 16 The perverse iudgement of the Corinthians. 22 And his owne prayses.

a He calleth the praysing of himselfe dotage, to the which thing the arrogancie of the false Apostles compelled him, who sought nothing else, but to ouerthrow the Church by diminishing the authoritie of his ministerie.

WOuld to God yee could suffer a little my [a] foolishnesse, and in deed [b] ye suffer me.

b To speake in mine owne commendation.

2 For I am ielous ouer you, with godly iealousie: for I [c] haue prepared you for one husband, to present you as a pure virgine to Christ:

c The minister marieth Christ and his Church as husband and wife by the preaching of the Gospel. Gene.3.4.

3 But I feare least as the * serpent beguiled Eue through his subtiltie, so your mindes should be corrupt from the simplicitie that is in Christ.

d This is more perfect doctrine concerning Christ Iesus.

4 For if he that commeth preacheth an other [d] Iesus then him whom we haue preached: or if yee receiue another [e] spirite then that which ye haue receiued: either another Gospel, then that ye haue receiued, ye might well haue suffered him.

e More excellent gifts of the spirit by other mens preaching.

5 Verily I [f] suppose that I was not inferiour to the very chiefe Apostles.

f They did not preach Christ more purely then I did: for in this behalfe I was nothing inferiour to the chiefest Apostles

6 And though I bee [g] rude in speaking, yet I am not so in knowledge, but among you we haue bene made manifest to the vtmost, in all things.

g That is, vse no worldly eloquence.

7 Haue I committed an offence, because I abased my selfe, that ye might be exalted, and because I preached to you the Gospel of God freely?

8 I [h] robbed other Churches, and tooke wages of them to doe you seruice.

h Other Churches relieued me.

9 And when I was present with you and had neede, I was [i] not slouthfull to the hinderance of any man: for that which was lacking vnto mee, the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied, and in all things I kept and will keepe my selfe, that I shoulde not * bee grieuous to you.

i Hee did not onely labour with his handes for his liuing, but in his extreme pouertie preached diligently without burdening any man, or else waxing slouthfull to do his duetie to euery man. Chap.12.13. Acts 20.34.

10 [k] The trueth of Christ is in mee, that this reioycing shall not be shut vp against me in the regions of Achaia.

k Let not the trueth of Christ be thought to be in me, if I suffer my ioy to bee shut vp, which I haue conceiued of Grecia.

11 Wherefore? [l] because I loue you not? God knoweth.

l To slander my ministery, if I should receiue wages.

12 But what I doe, that will I doe: that I may cut away occasion from them which desire [m] occasion, that they might be founde like vnto vs in that wherein they reioyce.

13 For such false [n] apostles are deceitfull workers, and transforme themselues into the Apostles of Christ.

m By false apostles here is not meant such as teach false doctrine (which doubtlesse, they would haue growen vnto) but such as were vaine glorious, and did not their duety sincerely.

14 And no maruell: for Satan himselfe is transformed into an Angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing, though his ministers transforme themselues, as though they were the ministers of righteousnesse, whose ende shall bee according to their workes.

16 I say againe, let no man thinke, that I am foolish: or else take mee euen as a foole, that I also may boast my selfe a little.

17 That I speake, I speake it not after the [o] Lord: but as it were foolishly, in this my great boasting.

n In his heart he had respect to the Lord: but this fashion of boasting seemed according to man, whereunto they compelled him.

18 Seeing that many reioyce [p] after the flesh, I will reioyce also.

o In outward things.

19 For yee suffer fooles gladly, because that ye are wise.

20 For yee suffer euen if a man bring you into bondage, if a man deuoure you, if a man take your goods, if a man exalt himselfe, if a man smite you on the face.

p I note this dishonour, which they doe vnto you.

21 [q] I speake as concerning the reproch: as though that wee had bene [r] weake: but wherein any man is bolde (I speake foolishly) I am bold also.

q That is, abiect, vile, miserable, a craftesman, an idiot, and subiect to a thousand calamities, which things the false apostles obiected against him as most certaine testimonies of his vnworthinesse. Phil.3.5.

r Put case yee terme it so, yet is it true.

22 They are Ebrewes, * so am I: they are Israelites, so am I: they are the seede of Abraham, so am I:

23 They are the ministers of Christ, (I [s] speake as a foole) I am more: in labours more abundant: in stripes aboue measure: in prison more plenteously: in [t] death oft.

s In the present danger of death.

24 Of the Iewes [u] fiue times receiued I fourtie stripes [x] saue one.

t At fiue seuerall times, euery time thirty and nine. Deut.25.3.

25 * I was thrise * beaten with roddes: I was * once stoned: I suffered thrise [y] shipwracke: night and day haue I bene in the deepe sea.

his boasting vpon the Corinthians. 14 He sheweth what good will he beareth them, 20 And promiseth to come vnto them.

I Is not expedient for me no doubt, to reioyce: for I will come to visions and reuelations of the Lord.

2 * I knowe a man a in Christ aboue foureteene yeeres agone, (whether he were in the body, I cannot tell, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth) which was taken vp into the b third heauen.

3 And I knowe such a man (whether in the body or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth)

4 How that he was taken vp into Paradise, and heard c words which cannot be spoken, which are not possible for man to vtter.

5 Of such a man will I reioyce: of my selfe will I not reioyce, except it be of mine infirmities.

6 For though I would reioyce, I should not be a foole: for I will say the truth, but I refraine least any man should be thinke of me aboue that he seeth in me, or that he heareth of me.

7 And least I should bee exalted out of measure, through the aboundance of reuelations, there was giuen vnto d mee a pricke in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, because I should not be exalted out of measure.

8 For this thing I besought the Lorde e thrise, that it might depart from me.

9 And he said vnto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my power is made f perfect through weakenesse. Very gladly therefore will I reioyce rather in mine infirmities, that the power of Christ may dwell in me.

10 Therefore g I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproches, in necessities, in persecutions, in anguish for Christes sake: for when I am weake, then am I strong.

11 I was a foole to boast my selfe: yee haue compelled mee: for I ought to haue bene commended of you: for in nothing was I inferiour vnto the very chiefe Apostles, though I be nothing.

12 The signes of an Apostle were wrought among you with all patience, with signes, and wonders, and great workes.

13 For what is it wherein yee were inferiours vnto other churches, * except that I haue not beene a slouthfull to your hinderance? forgiue me this wrong.

14 Beholde, the h third time I am ready to come vnto you, and yet will I not bee slouthfull to your hinderance: for I seeke not yours, but i you: for the children ought not to lay vp for the fathers, but the fathers for the children.

15 And I will most gladly bestow and will bee bestowed for your soules: though the more I loue you, the lesse I am loued.

16 But bee it that I charged you not: k yet forasmuch as I was craftie, I tooke you with guile.

17 Did I pill you by any of them whom I sent vnto you?

18 I haue desired l Titus, and with him I haue sent a brother: did Titus pill you of any thing? walked wee not in the selfe same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

19 Againe, thinke yee that we excuse our selues vnto you? We speake before God in Christ. But we doe all things, dearely beloued, for your edifying.

20 For I feare, least when I come, I shall not finde you such as I would: and that I shall be found vnto you m such as ye would not, and least there be strife, enuying, wrath, contentions, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, and discord.

21 I feare least when I come againe, my God n abase me among you, and I shall bewaile many of them which haue sinned alreadie, and haue not repented of the vncleannesse, and fornication, & wantonnesse, which they haue committed.

2 b I tolde you before, and tell you before: as though I had beene present the second time, so write I now being absent, to them which heretofore haue sinned, and to all others, that if I come againe, I will not spare,

3 Seeing that yee seeke experience of Christ, that speaketh in me, which towarde you is not weake, but is mightie in you.

4 For though hee was crucified concerning his c infirmitie, yet liueth hee through the power of God. And we also doubt are weake in him: d but wee shall liue with him, through the power of God towarde you.

5 * Prooue your selues whether yee are in the faith: examine your selues: know yee not your owne selues, howe that Iesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?

6 But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.

7 Nowe I pray vnto God, that yee doe none euill, not that wee should seeme approued, but that yee should doe that which is honest: though we be as e reprobates.

The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Galatians.

THE ARGVMENT.

THe Galatians, after they had bene instructed by Saint Paul in the trueth of the Gospel, gaue place to false Apostles, who entring in, in his absence corrupted the pure doctrine of Christ, and taught that the ceremonies of the Lawe must bee necessarily obserued, which thing the Apostle so earnestly reasoneth against, that hee prooueth that the graunting thereof, is the ouerthrow of mans saluation purchased by Christ: for thereby the light of the Gospel is obscured: the conscience burdened: the testaments confounded: mans iustice established. And because the false teachers did pretend, as though they had bene sent of the chiefe Apostles, and that Paul had no authoritie, but spake of himselfe, hee prooueth both that hee is an Apostle ordeined by God, and also that hee is not inferiour to the rest of the Apostles. Which thing established, he proceedeth to his purpose, proouing that we are freely iustified before God without any workes or ceremonies: which notwithstanding in their time had their vse and commoditie: but now they are not onely vnprofitable figures, but also pernicious, because Christ the trueth and the end thereof is come: Wherefore men ought now to imbrace that libertie, which Christ hath purchased by his blood, and not to haue their consciences snared in the grennes of mans traditions: finally he sheweth wherein this libertie standeth, and what exercises appertaine thereunto.

CHAP. I.

6 Paul rebuketh their inconstancie which suffred themselues to bee seduced by the false Apostles, who preached that the obseruation of the ceremonies of the Lawe were necessarie to saluation, 8 And detesteth them that preach any otherwise then Christ purely. 13 He sheweth his owne conuersation, magnifieth his office and Apostleship, and declareth himselfe to bee equall with the chiefe Apostles.

PAul *an Apostle (not a of men, neither by b man, but by Iesus Christ, and God the Father, which hath raised him from the dead)

2 And all the brethren which are with mee, vnto the Churches of Galatia:

3 Grace bee with you, and peace from God the Father, and from our Lorde Iesus Christ,

4 Which gaue himselfe for our sinnes, that hee might deliuer vs *from this c present euil world, according to the will of God, euen our Father,

5 To whom bee glory for euer and euer, Amen.

6 I maruaile that yee are so soone remooued a way vnto another ‖ Gospell from him that hath called you in the d grace of Christ,

7 Which is not another Gospel, saue that there be some which trouble you, and intend to e pervert the Gospel of Christ.

8 But though that wee, or an f Angell from heauen preach vnto you otherwise then that which wee haue preached vnto you, let him be ‖ accursed.

9 As wee sayde before, so say I now againe, if any man preach vnto you otherwise then that yee haue receiued, let him be accursed.

10 For g now preach I mans doctrine, or Gods? or goe I about to please men? for if I should yet please men, I were not the seruant of Christ.

11 * Now I certifie you, brethren, that the Gospel which was preached of me, was not after h man.

12 For neither receiued I it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the i reuelation of Iesus Christ.

13 For yee haue heard of my conuersation in time past, in the Iewish religion, howe that * I persecuted the Church of God extremely, and wasted it, 14 And profited in the Iewish religion aboue many of my ‖ companions of mine own nation, and was much more zealous of the k traditions of my fathers.

CHAP. II.

Confirming his Apostleship to be of God, 3 How sheweth why Titus was not circumcised, 6 And that he is nothing inferior to other Apostles: 11 Yea, and that he hath reproued Peter the Apostle of the Iewes. 16 After he commeth to the principall scope, which is to proue that iustification onely commeth of the grace of God by faith in Iesus Christ, and not by the workes of the Law.

THen fourteene yeres after, I went vp againe to Ierusalem with Barnabas, and tooke with me Titus also,

2 And I went vp by reuelation, and [a] communicated with them of the Gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, * but particularly with them that were the chiefe, least by any meanes I should runne, or had runne ‡ in vaine:

3 But neither yet Titus which was with mee, though he were a Grecian, was [b] compelled to be circumcised,

4 For all the false brethren that crept in: who came in priuily to spie out our liberte, which wee haue in Christ Iesus, that they might bring vs into bondage.

5 To whom we [c] gaue not place by subiection for an houre, that the trueth of the Gospel might continue with you.

6 And of them which seemed to be great, I was not taught (what they [d] were in time passed, it maketh no matter to mee: * God accepteth no mans person) neuertheles, they that are the chiefe, [e] did communicate nothing with me.

7 But contrariwise, when they saw that the Gospel ouer the vncircumcision, was committed vnto mee, as the Gospel ouer the circumcision was vnto Peter:

8 (For hee that was mightie by Peter in the Apostleship ouer the Circumcision, was also mighty by mee toward the Gentiles)

9 And when Iames, and Cephas, and Iohn knew of the grace that was giuen vnto mee, which are counted to be pillars, they gaue to mee and to Barnabas the [f] right hands of fellowship, that wee should preach vnto the Gentiles, and they vnto the Circumcision, 10 * Warning only that we should remember the poore: which thing also I was diligent to doe.

11 ¶ And when Peter was come to Antiochia, I withstood him [g] to his face: for he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certaine came from Iames, he ate with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himselfe, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Iewes dissembled likewise with him, in so much that Barnabas was brought into their dissimulation also.

14 But when I sawe that they went not the ‡ right way to the trueth of the Gospel, I sayd vnto Peter before all men, If thou being a Iew, liuest as the Gentiles, and not like the Iewes, [h] why [i] constraynest thou the Gentiles to doe like the Iewes?

15 ¶ We which are Iewes by nature, and not [k] sinners of the Gentiles, 16 Knowe that a man is not iustified by the workes of the Lawe, but by the faith of Iesus Christ: euen wee I say, haue beleeued in Iesus Christ, that wee might be iustified by the faith of Christ, and not by the workes of the Lawe, because that by the workes of the Lawe, no ‖ flesh shall be iustified.

17 * If then while wee seeke to be made righteous by Christ, we our selues are found [k] sinners, is Christ therefore the minister of sinne? God [l] forbid.

18 For if I build againe the things that I haue destroyed, [m] I make my selfe a trespasser.

19 For I through the Lawe am dead to the Lawe, and that I might liue vnto God, I am [n] crucified with Christ.

20 Thus I liue, yet not I nowe, but Christ liueth in me: and in that that I now liue in the [p] flesh, I liue by the faith in the Sonne of God, who hath loued mee, and giuen himselfe for me.

21 I do not abiogate the [q] grace of God: for if righteousnesse bee by the Lawe, then Christ died ‖ without a cause.

of the Lawe, or by the hearing of c faith preached?

3 Are ye so foolish, that after ye haue begun in the spirit, yee would now d be made perfect by the e flesh?

4 Haue yee suffered so many things in vaine? if so be it be euen in vaine.

5 He therefore that ministreth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it through the workes of the Law, or by the hearing of faith preached?

6 Yea rather as Abraham beleeued God, and it was * imputed to him for righteousnesse.

7 Know ye therefore, that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

8 For the Scripture foreseeing, that God would iustifie the Gentiles through faith, preached before the Gospel vnto Abraham, saying, * In thee shall all the Gentiles be blessed.

9 So then they which bee of faith, are blessed with faithfull Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the f workes of the Lawe, are vnder the curse: for it is written, * Cursed is euery man that continueth not in all things, which are written in the booke of the Lawe, to doe them.

11 And that no man is iustified by the Law in the sight of God, it is euident: * for the iust shall liue by faith.

12 And the g Law is not of faith: but * the man that shall doe those things, shall liue in them.

13 Christ hath redeemed vs from the curse of the Lawe, when he was made a curse for vs (for it is written, * Cursed is euery one that hangeth on tree)

14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Christ Iesus, that wee might receiue the h promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I i speake as men doe, * Though it be but a mans couenant, when it is confirmed, yet no man doeth abrogate it, or k adderh any thing thereto.

16 Nowe to Abraham and his seede were the promises made. Hee sayeth not, And to the seedes, as speaking of many: but, And to thy seede, as of one, which l is Christ.

17 And this I say, that the Lawe which was foure hundreth and thirtie yeeres after, cannot disanull the couenant that was confirmed afore of God in respect of Christ, that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if the inheritance be of the Law, it is no more by the promise, but God gaue it vnto Abraham by promise.

19 Wherefore then serueth the Lawe? It was added because of the m transgressions, till the seede came vnto the which the promise was made: and it was ordayned by n Angels in the hande of a Mediatour.

20 Now a Mediatour is not a Mediatour of o one: but God is p one.

21 Is the Law then against the promise of God? God forbid: for if there had beene a Lawe giuen which could haue giuen life, surely righteousnesse should haue bene by the Law.

22 But the Scripture hath * concluded q all vnder sinne, that the promise by the faith of Iesus Christ should be giuen to them that beleeue.

23 But before r faith came, we were kept vnder the Lawe, and shut vp vnto the faith which should afterward be reuealed.

24 Wherefore the * Lawe was our schoolemaister to bring vs to Christ, that wee might be made righteous by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer vnder a schoolemaster.

26 For yee are all the sonnes of God by faith, in Christ Iesus.

10 Ye obserue [l] dayes, and moneths, and times, and yeeres.

11 I am in feare of you, least I haue bestowed on you labour in vaine.

12 Be ye as [m] I: for I am euen as you: brethren, I beseech you: ye haue not hurt [n] me at all.

13 And ye knowe, how through [o] infirmitie of the flesh I preached the Gospel vnto you at the first.

14 [p] And the triall of mee which was in my flesh, ye despised not, neither abhorred: but yee receiued me as an [q] Angell of God, yea, as Christ Iesus.

15 What was then your felicitie? For I beare you record that if it had bene possible, ye would haue plucked out your owne eyes, and haue giuen them to me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemie, because I tell you the trueth?

17 They are iclous ouer you [r] amisse: yea, they would exclude [s] you, that yee should altogether loue them.

18 But it is a good thing to loue earnestly alwayes in a good thing, and not onely when I am present with you.

19 [t] My litle children, of whom I trauaile in birth againe, vntill Christ be [u] formed in you.

20 And I would I were with you now, that I might change my voice: for I am in doubt of you.

21 Tell mee, yee that will be vnder the Law, doe ye not heare the Law?

22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sonnes, [x] one by a seruant, and [y] one by a free woman.

23 But he which was of the seruant, was borne after the flesh: and hee which was of the free woman, was borne by promise.

24 By the which things another thing is meant: for these mothers [z] are the two Testaments, the one which is [a] Agar of mount Sina, which gendreth vnto bondage, 25 (For Agar or Sina is a mountaine in [y] Arabia, and it answereth to Ierusalem which now is) and she is in bondage with her children.

26 But Ierusalem, which is [b] aboue, is free: which is the mother of vs all.

27 For it is written, [*] Reioyce thou [c] barren that bearest no children: breake foorth, and crie, thou that trauailest not: for the desolate hath many moe children, then shee which hath an husband.

28 * Therefore, brethren, we are after the maner of Isaac, children of the promise.

29 But as then he that was borne after the flesh, persecuted him that was borne after the spirit, euen so it is now.

30 But what saith the Scripture? * Put out the seruant and her sonne: for the sonne of the seruant shal not be heire with the sonne of the free woman.

31 Then brethren, we are not children of the seruant, but of the [a] free woman †.

CHAP. V.

1 He laboureth to draw them away from circumcision, 17 And sheweth them the battell betweene the spirit and the flesh, and the fruits of them both.

STand fast therefore in the libertie wherewith Christ hath made vs free, and be not intangled againe with the yoke of bondage.

2 * Behold, I Paul say vnto you, that if ye be [a] circumcised, Christ shall profite you nothing.

3 For I testifie againe to euery man, which is circumcised, that hee is bound to keepe the whole Law.

4 Ye are * abolished from Christ, whosoeuer are iustified by the Law, ye are fallen from grace.

5 For we through the Spirit [b] waite for the hope of righteousnesse through faith.

6 For in Iesus Christ neither circumcision auaileth any thing, neither vncircumcision, but faith which worketh by loue.

7 Ye did runne well: who did let you, that ye did not obey the [c] trueth?

8 It is not the perswasion of him that [d] calleth you.

9 * A little * leauen doeth leauen the whole lumpe.

10 I haue trust in you through the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise [e] minded: but he that troubleth you, shal beare his condemnation, whosoeuer he be.

11 And brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why doe I yet suffer persecution? Then is the [z] slaunder of the Crosse abolished.

12 Would to God they were euen cut off, which doe disquiet you.

13 For brethren, ye haue bene called vnto libertie: onely vse not your libertie as an occasion vnto the flesh, but by loue serue one another.

14 For [b] all the Lawe is fulfilled in one worde, which is this, * Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe.

15 If yee bite and deuoure one another, take heede least yee be consumed one of another.

16 Then I say, * Walke in the [i] Spirit, and ye shall not fulfill the lusts of the flesh.

17 For the [k] flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other, so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

13 For they themselues which are circumcised, keepe not the Law, but desire to haue you circumcised, that they might reioyce k in your flesh.

14 But God forbid that I should reioyce, but in the crosse of our Lorde Iesus Christ, whereby the l world is crucified vnto me, and I vnto the world.

The Epistle of Paul to the Ephesians.

THE ARGVMENT.

WHile Paul was prisoner at Rome, there entred in among the Ephesians false teachers, who corrupted the true doctrine which he had taught them, by reason whereof he wrote this Epistle to confirme them in that thing, which they had learned of him. And first after his salutation, hee assureth them of saluation, because they were thereunto predestinate by the free election of God, before they were borne, and sealed vp to this eternall life by the holy Ghost, giuen vnto them by the Gospell, the knowledge of the which mysterie hee prayeth God to confirme towarde them. And to the intent they should not glorie in themselues, hee sheweth them their extreme miserie, miserie wherein they were plunged before they knew Christ, as people without God, Gentiles to whom the promises were not made, and yet, by the free mercy of God in Christ Iesus, they were saued, and hee appointed to be their Apostle, as of all other Gentiles: therefore he desireth God to lighten the Ephesians hearts with the perfect vnderstanding of his Sonne, and exhorteth them likewise to be mindfull of so great benefits, neither to be mooued with the false apostles, which seeke to ouerthrow their faith, and tread vnder foote the Gospel, which was not preached to them, as by chance or fortune, but according to the eternall counsel of God: who by this meanes onely preserueth his Church. Therefore the Apostle commendeth his ministery, forasmuch as God thereby reigneth among men, and causeth it to bring foorth most plentifull fruites, as innocencie, holinesse, with all such offices appertaining to godlinesse. Last of all he declareth not onely in generall, what ought to bee the life of the Christians, but also sheweth particularly, what things concerne euery mans vocation.

CHAP. I.

After his salutation, 4 Hee sheweth that the chiefe cause of their saluation standeth in the free election of God through Christ. 16 He declareth his good will toward them, giuing thankes and praying God for their faith. 21 The maiestie of Christ.

PAVL an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the will of God, to the * Saints which are at Ephesus, and to the faithfull in Christ Iesus:

1.*Cor.*1.2. 2.*Cor.*1.3. 1.*pet.*1.3.

2 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 Blessed bee God euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which hath blessed vs with all a spirituall blessing in heauenly ‖ things in Christ, a As with the knowledge of God in Christ, with faith, hope, charity, & other gifts.

‖Or, places.

4 * As he hath b chosen vs in him, before the foundation of the world, that we c should be holy, & without blame before him in loue:

2.*Tim.*1.9.

b This election to life euerlasting, can neuer be changed: but in temporal offices which God hath appointed for a certaine space, when the terme is expired, he changeth his election, as we see in Saul and Iudas.

5 Who hath predestinate vs, to be d adopted through Iesus Christ vnto himselfe, according to the good pleasure of his will,

*Col.*1.22.

c When Christs iustice is imputed ours.

6 To the e praise of the glory of his grace, wherewith hee hath made vs accepted in his beloued,

7 By whom we haue redemption through his blood, euen the forgiuenesse of sinnes, according to his rich grace:

d Whereas wee were not the naturall children, he receiued vs by grace, and made vs his children.

8 Wherein hee hath bene abundant toward vs in all wisedom and vnderstanding,

9 And hath opened vnto vs the mysterie of his will according to his good pleasure, which he had purposed f in him, e The principall end of our election, is to praise & glorifie the grace of God.

10 That in the dispensation of the fulnes of the times, hee might gather together in one g all things, both which are in heauen and which are in earth, euen in Christ:

f That is, in Christ.

11 In whom also we are chosen when we were predestinate according to the purpose of him, which worketh all things after the counsel of his owne will,

12 That h wee which first trusted in Christ, should be vnto ỹ praise of his glory:

g By this he meaneth ỹ whole body of the Church which he diuideth into them which are in heauen, and them which are in earth: also the faithful which remaine in earth stand of the Iewes & Gentiles.

13 In whom also ye haue trusted after that ye heard the word of trueth, euen the Gospel of your saluation, wherein also after that yee beleeued, ye were sealed with the holy Spirit of promise, h To wit, the Iewes.

14 Which is ỹ earnest of our inheritance, i vntill the redemption of the possession, purchased vnto the prayse of his glory.

i Though we be redeemed from the bondage of sinne by the death of Christ, Rom.6.22. yet wee hope for this second redemption which shall be when we shal possesse our inheritance in the heauens, whereof we haue the holy Ghost for a gage, as Chap.4.30.

15 Therefore also, after that I heard of the faith, which yee haue in the Lord Iesus, and loue toward all the Saints,

16 I cease not to giue thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers,

17 That the GOD of our Lord Iesus Christ the Father of glory, might giue vnto you the Spirit of wisedome, and reuelation through the knowledge of k him, k Of Christ. *Col.*2.12.

18 That the eyes of your vnderstanding may be lightened, that ye may know what the hope is of his calling, and what the riches of his glorious inheritance is in the Saints,

19 And what is the exceeding greatnesse of his power toward vs, which beleeue, * according to the working of his mightie power,

*chap.*3.7.

20 Which hee wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and l set him at his right hand in the heauenly places, l Made him gouernour of all things both in heauen and in earth: so that Christs body is now onely there, or els it should not be a true body, and his ascension should be but a fantasticall thing, and onely imagined.

21 Farre aboue all principality, & power, and might, and domination, and euery name that is named, not in this world onely, but also in that that is to come,

*Psal.*8.6.

22 * And hath made all things subiect vnder his feete, and hath appointed him ouer all things to be the head to the Church,

*heb.*2.8.

23 Which is his body, euen the m fulnesse of him that filleth all in all things.

m This is the great loue of Christ toward his Church, that he counteth not himselfe perfect without vs which are his members: and therefore the Church is also called Christ, as 1.Cor.12.12,13.

CHAP. II.

5 To magnifie the grace of Christ, which is the onely cause of saluation, 11 He sheweth them what maner of people they were before their conuersion, 18 And what they are now in Christ.

AND * you hath hee quickned, that were dead in trespasses and sinnes,

*Col.*2.13.

2 Wherein in times past ye walked, according to the course of this world, and after the * prince that ruleth in the ayre, euen the spirit, that now worketh in the children of disobedience,

*Chap.*6.12.

a Meaning, Satan.

3 Among whom we also had our conuersation in time past, in the lustes of our flesh, in fulfilling the will of the flesh, and of the minde, and were by b nature the children of wrath as well as others.

b Not by creation, but by Adams transgression, & so by birth.

4 But God which is rich in mercie, through his great loue wherewith hee loued vs,

5 Euen when wee were dead by sinnes, hath quickned vs c together ‖ in Christ, by whose grace ye are saued, c Both Iew and Gentile.

‖Or, with Christ.

d We that are the members, are raised vp from death, and reigne with our head Christ in heauen by faith.

6 And hath d raised vs vp together, and made vs sit together in the heauenly places in Christ Iesus,

7 That hee might shewe in the ages to come, the exceeding riches of his grace, through his kindnesse toward vs in Christ Iesus.

8 For by grace are yee saued through faith, and that not of your selues: it is the gift of God, 9 Not of workes, lest any man should boast himselfe.

e Here he meaneth, as concerning grace, & not by nature.

10 For we are e his workmanship created in Christ Iesus vnto good woorkes, which God hath ordained that we should walke in them.

f He sheweth here that the further the Gentiles were off from the grace of God, the greater debters they are now to the same. 1. Sam. 17. 26. 1 Cor. 4. 4. Rom. 9. 4.

11 Wherefore f remember that yee being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, and called * vncircumcision of them, which are called circumcision in the flesh, made with hands,

12 That ye were, I say, at that time without Christ, and were aliants from the common wealth of Israel, and were * strangers from the g couenants of promise, and had no h hope, and were ‖ without God in the world.

g It was but one couenant, but because it was diuers times confirmed and established, therefore here he calleth them couenants.

h Where no promise is, there is no hope.

‖ Or, Atheists.

13 But nowe in Christ Iesus, ye which once were farre off, are made neere by the blood of Christ.

14 For he is our peace, which hath made of both one, and hath broken the i stop of the partition wall, i That is, the cause of the diuision that was betweene the Iewes and the Gentiles.

15 In abrogating through his k flesh the hatred, that is, the Lawe of commandements which standeth in ordinances, for to make of twaine one newe man in himselfe, so making peace, k For in Christ all things were accomplished, which were prefigured in the Law.

16 And that he might reconcile both vnto God in one l body by his ‖ crosse, and slay hatred thereby, l For of the Iewes and the Gentiles he made one flocke.

‖ Or, death. Rom. 5. 10.

17 And came, and preached peace to you which were afarre off, and to them that were neere.

18 * For through him wee both haue an entrance vnto the Father by one Spirit.

19 Now therefore yee are no more strangers and forreiners: but citizens with the Saints, and of the houshold of God,

20 And are built vpon the foundation of the Apostles & Prophets, Iesus Christ himselfe being the chiefe corner stone, 21 In whom all the building coupled together, groweth vnto an holy Temple in the Lord.

22 In whom ye also are built together to be the habitation of God by the Spirit.

CHAP. III.

1 He sheweth the cause of his imprisonment, 13 Desireth them not to faint because of his trouble, 14 And prayeth God to make them stedfast in his Spirit.

a Hereioeth in that he suffred imprisonment for the maintenance of Christs glory.

b Which was his vocatiō to preach vnto ỹ Gentiles.

FOr this cause, I Paul am the a prisoner of Iesus Christ for you Gentiles,

2 If ye haue heard of the b dispensation of the grace of God, which is giuen mee to youward,

3 That is, that God by reuelation hath shewed this mysterie vnto mee (as I wrote aboue in few words,

4 Whereby when yee read, yee may know mine vnderstanding in the mysterie of Christ)

5 Which in other ages was d not opened vnto the sonnes of men, as it is now reuealed vnto his holy Apostles and Prophets by the Spirit,

6 That the Gentiles should be inheriters also, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the Gospel,

7 Whereof I am made a minister by the gift of the grace of God giuen vnto mee * through the working of his power.

8 * Euen vnto me the least of all Saints is this grace giuen, that I should preach among the * Gentiles the vnsearchable riches of Christ,

9 And to make cleare vnto all men what the felowship of the * mysterie is, which from the beginning of the world hath bene hid in God, who hath created all things by Iesus Christ,

10 To the intent that now vnto e principalities and powers in heauenly places might be knowen by the Church the manifold wisdome of God, 11 According to the eternall purpose, which hee wrought in Christ Iesus our Lord.

12 By whom wee haue boldnesse and entrance with confidence, by faith in him.

13 Wherefore I desire that yee faint not at my tribulations for your sakes, which is your glory.

14 For this cause I bow my knees vnto the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, 15 (Of whom is named the whole f family in h heauen and in earth)

16 That hee might grant you according to the riches of his glory, that yee may bee strengthened by his spirit in the inner man,

17 That Christ may dwel in your i hearts by faith, that ye, being rooted and grounded in loue,

18 May bee able to comprehend with all Saints, what is the k breadth, and length, and depth, and height:

19 And to know the loue of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that yee may bee filled with all l fulnesse of God.

20 * Vnto him therefore that is able to doe exceeding abundantly aboue all that we aske or thinke, according to the power that worketh in m vs, c That is, in the first chap. of this Epistle, verse 9.

21 Bee prayse in the Church by Christ Iesus, throughout all generations for euer. Amen.

f The Church being gathered of so many kinds of people, is an example or a glasse for the Angels to behold the wisedome of God in, who hath turned their particular discords, into an vniuersall concord, and of the Synagogue of bondage, hath made the Church of freedome.

I * Therefore, being prisoner in the a Lord, I pray you that ye walke worthy of the vocation wherewnto ye are called, a For the Lords cause.

2 With all humblenesse of minde, and meekenesse, with long suffering, supporting one another through loue,

3 Endeuouring to keepe the vnity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

4 There is one [b] body, and one [c] Spirit, euen as ye are called in one hope of your vocation.

5 There is one Lord, one Faith, one Baptisme,

6 * One God and Father of all, which is [d] aboue all, & [e] through all, and in you all.

7 * But vnto euery one of vs is giuen grace, according to the measure of the [f] gift of Christ.

8 Wherefore he saieth, * When he ascended vp on high, he led captiuitie captiue, and gaue gifts vnto men.

9 (Now, in that he ascended, what is it but that hee had also descended first into the lowest parts of the earth?

10 He that descended, is euen the same that ascended, farre aboue all heauens, that he might fill [h] all things)

11 * He therefore gaue some to be Apostles, and some Prophets, and some Euangelists, and some Pastours, and Teachers,

12 For the [i] gathering together of the Saints, for the worke of the ministerie, [k] and for the edification of the body of Christ,

13 Till we all meet together (in the vnitie of faith and knowledge of the Sonne of God) vnto a [l] perfect man, & vnto the measure of the age of the fulnesse of Christ, 14 That we henceforth be no more children, wauering & caried about with euery wind of doctrine, by the deceit of men, and with craftinesse, whereby they lay in waite to deceiue.

15 But let vs follow the trueth in loue, and in all things grow vp into him, which is the [m] head, that is, Christ, 16 By whom all the body being coupled and knit together by euery ioynt, for the furniture thereof (according to the effectuall power, which is in the measure of euery part) receiueth increase of the body, vnto the edifying of it selfe in loue.

17 This I say therefore and testifie in the Lorde, that ye henceforth walke not as * other Gentiles walke, in vanitie of their [n] mind, 28 So ought men to loue their wiues, as their owne bodies: he that loueth his wife, loueth himselfe.

29 For no man euer yet hated his owne flesh, but nourisheth and cherisheth it, euen as the Lord doth the Church, 30 For we are members of his body, q of his flesh, and of his bones.

The Epiſtle of Paul to the Philippians.

THE ARGVMENT.

PAul being warned by the holy Ghoſt to goe to Macedonia, planted firſt a Church at Philippi a citie of the ſame countrey: but becauſe his charge was to preach the Goſpell vniuerſally to all the Gentiles, he trauailed from place to place, till at the length he was taken priſoner at Rome, whereof the Philippians being aduertiſed, ſent their miniſter Epaphroditus with reliefe vnto him: who declaring him the ſtate of the Church, cauſed him to write this Epiſtle, wherein he commended them that they ſtoode manfully againſt the falſe apoſtles, putting them in minde of his good will toward him, and exhorteth them that his impriſonment make them not to ſhrinke: for the Goſpell thereby was confirmed and not diminiſhed: eſpecially he deſireth them to flee ambition, and to imbrace modeſtie, promiſing to ſend Timotheus vnto them, who ſhould inſtruct them in matters more amply: yea, and that he himſelfe would alſo come vnto them, adding likewiſe the cauſe of their miniſters ſo long abode. And becauſe there were no greater enemies to the croſſe then the falſe apoſtles, hee confuteth their falſe doctrine, by prooving onely Chriſt to be the end of all true religion, with whom we haue all things, and without whom we haue nothing, ſo that his death is our life, and his reſurrection our iuſtification. After this follow certaine admonitions both particular and generall, with teſtification of his affection toward them, and thankefull accepting of their benevolence.

PAul and Timotheus the ſeruants of Jeſus Chriſt, to all the Saints in Chriſt Jeſus which are at Philippi, with the [a] Biſhops, and Deacons:

2 Grace bee with you, and peace from God our Father, and from our Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

3 * I thanke my God, hauing you in perfect memorie.

4 (Alwaies in all my prayers for all you, praying with gladneſſe)

5 Becauſe of the [b] fellowſhip which yee haue in the Goſpell, from the [c] firſt day vnto now.

6 And I am perſwaded of this ſame thing, that hee that hath begunne this good worke in you, will perfourme it vntill the [d] day of Jeſus Chriſt.

7 As it becommeth mee ſo to iudge of you all, becauſe I haue you in remembrance, [e] that both in my bonds, and in my defence and confirmation of the Goſpel, you all were partakers of my [f] grace.

8 For God is my record, how I long after you all from the very heart roote in Jeſus Chriſt.

9 And this I pray, that your loue may abound, yet more and more in knowledge, and in all iudgement,

10 That ye may diſcerne things that differ one from another, that yee may be pure, and [g] without offence, vntill the day of Chriſt, 11 Filled with the fruits of [h] righteouſneſſe, which are by Jeſus Chriſt vnto the glory and prayſe of God.

12 ¶ I would ye vnderſtood, brethren, that the things which haue come vnto mee, are turned rather to the furthering of the Goſpel,

13 So that my bonds in [i] Chriſt are famous throughout all the [k] iudgement hall, and in all other places, 14 In ſo much that many of the brethren in the Lord are boldened through my bonds, and dare more frankely ſpeake the [l] word.

15 Some preach Chriſt, euen through enuie and ſtrife, and ſome alſo of good will.

16 The one part preach Chriſt of contention and not [m] purely, ſuppoſing to adde more affliction to my bands:

17 But the others of loue, knowing that I am ſet for the defence of the Goſpel.

18 What then? yet Chriſt is preached all maner wayes, whether it be [n] vnder a pretence, or ſincerely: and I therein ioy: yea, and will ioy.

19 For I knowe that this ſhall turne to my ſaluation, through your prayer, and by the helpe of the Spirit of Jeſus Chriſt, 20 As I heartily looke for, and hope, that in nothing I ſhalbe aſhamed, but that with all conſtdence, as alwayes, ſo nowe Chriſt ſhall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life or by death.

21 For Chriſt is to me both in life, and in death aduantage.

4 Looke not euery man on his owne things, but euery man also on the things of other men.

5 Let the same mind be in you that was euen in Christ Iesus,

6 Who c being in the forme of God, thought it no d robbery to be equall to God:

7 *But he made himselfe of no reputation, and tooke on him the forme of a seruant, and was made like vnto men, and was found in f shape as a man.

8 *He humbled himselfe, and became obedient vnto the death, euen the death of the crosse.

9 Wherefore God hath also highly exalted him, and giuen him a Name aboue euery Name,

10 *That at the Name of Iesus should euery knee s bow, both of things in heauen, and things in earth, and things vnder the earth, 11 *And that euery tongue should confesse that Iesus Christ is the Lorde, vnto the glory of God the Father.

12 Wherefore my beloued, as yee haue alwayes obeyed mee, not as in my presence only, but now much more in mine absence, so h make an end of your owne saluation with i feare and trembling.

13 For it is God which worketh in you, both the will and the deed, euen of his k good pleasure.

14 Doe all things without *murmuring and reasonings,

15 That ye may be blamelesse, and pure, and the sonnes of God without rebuke in the middes of a naughty and crooked nation, among whom yee shine, as *lights in the world,

16 i Holding forth the m word of life, that I may reioyce in the day of Christ, that I haue not runne in vaine, neither haue laboured in vaine.

18 For the same cause also be ye glad, and reioyce with me.

19 And I trust in the Lord Iesus to send *Timotheus shortly vnto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.

20 For I haue no man like minded, who will faithfully care for your matters.

21 *For all p seeke their owne, and not that which is Iesus Christs.

22 But yee know the proofe of him, that as a sonne with the father, hee hath serued with me in the Gospel.

23 Him therefore I hope to send assoone as I know how it will goe with me, 24 And trust in the Lord, that I also my selfe shall come shortly.

25 But I supposed it necessary to send my brother Epaphroditus vnto you, my companion in labour, and fellow souldier, euen your messenger, and hee that ministred vnto me such things as I wanted.

26 For he longed after all you, and was full of heauinesse, because ye had heard, that he had bene sicke.

27 And no doubt he was sicke, very nere vnto death: but God had mercy on him, and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should haue sorow vpon sorow.

28 I sent him therefore the more diligently, that when yee should see him againe, yee might reioyce, and I might bee the lesse sorowfull.

29 Receiue him therefore in the Lorde with all gladnesse, and make much of such:

n That is, of the Gospel, which is the preaching of the crosse.

MOreouer, my brethren, reioyce in the Lord. It grieueth me not to write a the same things to you, and for you it is a sure thing.

2 Beware of b dogs: beware of euil workers: beware of the c concision.

3 For wee are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirite, and reioyce in Christ Iesus, and haue no confidence d in the flesh:

4 Though I might also haue confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that hee hath whereof hee might trust in the flesh, much more I:

5 Circumcised the eight day, of the kinred of Israel, of the tribe of Beniamin, * an Ebrewe of the Ebrewes, * by the ‖ lawe a Pharise.

6 Concerning zeale, I persecuted the Church: touching the righteousnes which is in the e law, I was vnrebukeable.

7 But the things that were vantage vnto mee, the same I counted losse for Christs sake.

8 Yea, doubtlesse I thinke all things but losse for the excellent knowledge sake of Christ Iesus my Lorde, for whom I haue counted all things losse, and doe iudge them to bee dongue, that I might winne Christ,

9 And might bee e found in him, that is, not hauing mine owne righteousnesse, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, euen the righteousnesse which is of God through faith,

10 That I may know him, and the vertue of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his afflictions, and be made conformable vnto his death,

11 If by any meanes I might attaine vnto the f resurrection of the dead:

12 g Not as though I had already attained vnto it, either were already perfect: but I follow, if that I may comprehend that for whose sake also I am h comprehended of Christ Iesus.

13 Brethren, I count not my selfe, that I haue attained to it, but one thing I doe: I forget that which is behind, and endeuour my selfe vnto that which is before,

14 And follow hard toward the i marke, for the price of the high calling of God in Christ Iesus.

15 Let vs therefore as many as k be l perfect, be thus minded: and if ye be otherwise minded, God shall reueale euen the m same vnto you.

16 Nerertheless in that whereunto wee are come, let vs proceede by one rule, * that we may minde one thing.

17 Brethren, be followers of me, and looke on them, which walke so, as yee haue vs for an ensample.

18 * For many walke, of whom I haue told you often, and now tell you weeping, that they are the enemies of the n Crosse of Christ, 19 Whose ‖ end is damnation, whose God is their belly, & whose o glory is to their shame, which minde earthly things.

20 But our p conuersation is in heauen, from whence also wee looke for the * Sauiour, euen the Lord Iesus Christ, 21 Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like vnto his glorious body, according to the working, whereby hee is able euen to subdue all things vnto himselfe.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He exhorteth them to be of honest conuersation, 15 And thanketh them, because of the prouision that they made for him being in prison, 21 And so concludeth with salutations.

THerefore, my brethren, beloued and longed for, my ioy and my crowne, so continue in the Lord, ye beloued.

2 I pray Euodias, and beseech Syntiche, that they be of one accord in the Lord.

3 Yea, and I beseech thee, faithfull yokefellow, helpe those women, which laboured with me in the Gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellow labourers, whose names are in the * a booke of life.

4 Reioyce in the Lord alway, againe I say, reioyce.

5 Let your patient mind be knowen vnto all men. The Lord is b at hand.

6 * Be nothing carefull, but in all things let your requests bee shewed vnto God in prayer, and supplication, with giuing of thankes.

7 And the peace of God which passeth all vnderstanding, shall c preserue your hearts and minds in Christ Iesus.

8 Furthermore, brethren, whatsoeuer things are true, whatsoeuer things are honest, whatsoeuer things are iust, whatsoeuer things are pure, whatsoeuer things pertaine to loue, whatsoeuer things are of good report, if there be any vertue, or if there be any praise, thinke on these things,

9 Which ye haue both learned and receiued, and heard, and seene in me: those things doe, and the God of peace shall bee with you.

10 Now I reioyce also in the l Lord greatly, that now at the last yee are d reuiued againe to care for me, wherein notwithstanding ye were careful, but ye lacked opportunitie.

11 I speake not because of e want: for I haue learned in whatsoeuer state I am, therwith to be content.

12 And I can bee abased, and I can abound: euery where in all things I am instructed both to be full, and to be hungry, and to abound, and to haue want.

13 I am able to doe all things through the helpe of f Christ, which strengtheneth me.

14 Notwithstanding ye haue well done, that ye did communicate to mine affliction.

The Epistle of Paul to the Colossians.

THE ARGVMENT.

IN this Epistle S. Paul putteth difference betweene the liuely, effectuall, and true Christ, and the fained, counterfait, and imagined Christ, whom the false apostles taught. And first, he confirmeth the doctrine, which Epaphras had preached, withing them the increase of faith, to esteeme the excellencie of Gods benefit toward them, teaching them also that saluation, and whatsoeuer good thing can bee desired, standeth onely in Christ, whom onely we embrace by the Gospel. But forasmuch as the false brethren would haue mixed the Law with the Gospel, hee toucheth those flatterers vehemently, and exhorteth the Colossians to stay onely on Christ, without whom all things are but meere vanitie. And as for circumcision, abstinence from meates, externall holinesse, worshipping of Angels as meanes whereby to come to Christ, hee vtterly condemneth, shewing what was the office and nature of ceremonies, which by Christ are abrogate: so that now the exercises of the Christians stand in mortification of the flesh, newnesse of life, with other like offices appertaining both generally and particularly to all the faithfull.

CHAP. I.

3 He giueth thanks vnto God for their faith, 7 Confirmeth the doctrine of Epaphras, 9 Prayeth for the increase of their faith. 13 Hee sheweth vnto them the true Christ, and discouereth the counterfeit Christ of the false apostles. 25 He approueth his authoritie and charge, 28 And of his faithfull executing of the same.

PAul an Apostle of IESVS Christ, by the will of God, and Timotheus our brother,

2 To them which are at ‖ Colosse, Saints and faithfull brethren in Christ: Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

‖ Which was a citie of Phrigia.

3 We giue thankes to God euen the Father of our Lorde Iesus Christ, alwayes praying for you:

4 Since we heard of your faith ♭ in Christ Iesus, and of your loue toward all Saints,

♭ For without Christ there is no faith to be saued by, but onely a vaine opinion.

The first Epistle of Paul to the Thessalonians.

THE ARGVMENT.

After that the Thessalonians had bene well instructed in the faith, persecution (which perpetually followeth the preaching of the Gospel) arose, against the which although they did constantly stand, yet S. Paul (as most carefull for them) sent Timothie to strengthen them, who soone after admonishing him of their estate, gaue occasion to the Apostle to consume them by diuers arguments to be constant in faith, and to suffer whatsoeuer God calleth them vnto for the testimony of the Gospel, exhorting them to declare by their godly liuing the puritie of their religion. And as the Church can neuer be so purged, that some cockle remaine not among the wheate, so there were among them wicked men which by mouuing vaine and curious questions to ouerthrow their faith, taught falsely, as touching the point of the resurrection from the dead: wherof he briefly instructeth them what to thinke, earnestly forbidding them to seeke curiously to know the times, willing them rather to watch, least the sudden comming of Christ come vpon them at vnawares: and so after certaine exhortations, and his commendations to the brethren, he endeth.

CHAP. I.

2 He thanketh God for them, that they are so stedfast in faith and good workes, 6 And receiue the Gospell with such earnestnesse, 7 That they are an example to all others.

5 For our [d] Gospell was not vnto you in worde onely, but also in power, and in the holy Ghost, and in much assurance, as ye know after what maner wee were among you for your sakes.

d The effectuall preaching of the Gospel is an euident token of our election.

6 And ye became followers of vs, and of the Lord, and receiued the word in much affliction, with [e] ioy of the holy Ghost, e To beleeue and to be fully perswaded to haue the gifts of the holy Ghost and ioyfully to suffer for Christs sake, are most certaine signes of our election.

7 So that ye were as ‖ ensamples to all that beleeue in Macedonia and Achaia.

‖ Or, patterns.

8 For from you sounded out the worde of the Lorde, not in Macedonia and in Achaia onely: but your [f] faith also which is toward God, spread abroad in all quarters, that wee needе not to speake any thing.

f To wit, all the faithfull.

9 For they [g] themselues shew of vs what maner of entring in we had vnto you, and howe ye turned to God from idoles, to serue the [h] liuing and true God, g For idoles are dead things and onely fained phantasies.

h Which he shal execute vpon the wicked.

10 And to looke for his Sonne from heauen, whom he raised from the dead, euen Iesus which deliuereth vs from the [i] wrath to come.

i For there is no Church which is not ioyned together in God, 2. Thess. 1. 3. Philip. 1. 3, 4.

CHAP. II.

1 To the intent they should not faint vnder the crosse, 2 He commendeth his diligence in preaching. 13 And theirs in obeying. 18 He excuseth his absence, that hee could not come and open his heart to them.

FOr ye your selues knowe, brethren, that our entrance in vnto you was not in [a] vaine, a Not in outward shew and in pompe, but in trauell and in the feare of God. Act. 16. 12, 23.

2 But euen after that wee had suffered before, and were shamefully intreated at *Philippi (as ye knowe) we were bold [b] in our God, to speake vnto you the Gospell of God with much striuing.

b By his helpe and grace.

3 For our exhortation was not by deceit, nor by vncleannesse, nor by guile.

4 But as we were allowed of God, that the Gospell should be committed vnto vs, so we speake, not as they that [c] please men, but God, which trieth our hearts.

c Which declareth a naughty conscience.

5 Neither yet did we euer vse flattering words, as ye know, nor coloured couetousnesse, God is record.

6 Neither sought we prayse of men, neither of you, nor of others,

7 When we might haue beene ‖ chargeable, as the Apostles of Christ: but wee were gentle among you, euen as a [d] nource cherisheth her children.

‖ Or, in authoritie

d He humbled himselfe to support all things without all respect of lucre: euen as the tender mother which nourceth her children, and thinketh no office too vile for her childrens sake. Acts 20. 34. 1. cor. 4. 12. 2. thes. 3. 8.

8 Thus being affectioned toward you, our good will was to haue dealt vnto you, not the Gospell of God onely, but also our owne soules, because ye were deare vnto vs.

9 For ye remember, brethren, * our labour and trauaile: for we laboured day and night, because we would not be chargeable vnto any of you, and preached vnto you the Gospell of God.

10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and iustly, and vnblameably we behaued our selues among you that beleeue.

11 As yee knowe how that we exhorted you, and comforted, and besought euery one of you (as a father his children)

12 That yee * would walke worthy of God, who hath called you vnto his kingdome and glory.

13 For this cause also thanke wee God without ceasing, that when yee receiued of vs the worde of the preaching of God, yee receiued it not as the word of men, but as it is in deede the word of God, which also worketh in you that beleeue.

14 For brethren, yee are become followers of the Churches of God, which in Iudea are in [e] Christ Iesus because yee haue also suffered the same things of your owne e In his Name and vnder his protection.

countrey men euen as they haue of ỹ Iewes, 15 Who both killed the Lord Ieſus and their owne Prophets, and haue perſecuted vs, and God they pleaſe not, and are contrary to all men,
16 And forbid vs to preach vnto the Gentiles, that they might be ſaued, to [h] fulfill their ſinnes allwayes: for the wrath of God is [i] come on them, to the vtmoſt.
17 For aſmuch, brethren, as wee were kept from you for a ſeaſon, concerning ſight, but not in the heart, we * enforced the more to ſee your face with great deſire.
18 Therefore we would haue come vnto you (I Paul, at leaſt once or twiſe) but Satan hindred vs.
19 For what is our hope or ioy, or crown of reioycing? are [k] not euen you it in the preſence of our Lorde Ieſus Chriſt at his comming?
20 Yes, ye are our glory and ioy.

CHAP. III.

2 Hee ſheweth how greatly he was affectioned toward them, both in that hee ſent Timotheus to them, 10 And alſo prayed for them.

WHerefore ſince we could no longer forbeare, we thought it good to remaine at Athens alone,
2 * And haue ſent Timotheus our brother and miniſter of God, and our labour fellow in the Goſpel of Chriſt, to ſtabliſh you, and to comfort you touching your faith,
3 That no man ſhould be moued with theſe afflictions: for ye your ſelues knowe, that we are appointed thereunto.
4 For verily when wee were with you, wee tolde you before that wee ſhould ſuffer tribulations, euen as it came to paſſe, and ye know it.
5 Euen for this cauſe, when [b] I could no longer forbeare, I ſent him that I might know of your faith, leaſt the [c] tempter had tempted you in any ſort, and that our labour had bene in vaine.
6 But nowe lately when Timotheus came from you vnto vs, and brought vs good tidings of your faith and loue, and that yee haue good remembrance of vs allwayes, deſiring to ſee vs, as we alſo doe you.
7 Therefore, brethren, we had conſolation in you, in all our affliction, and neceſſitie through your faith.
8 For nowe are wee [d] aliue, if ye [e] ſtand faſt in the Lord.
9 For what thankes can we recompenſe to GOD againe for you, for all the ioy wherewith we reioyce for your ſakes before our God,
10 Night and day * praying exceedingly that we might ſee your face, and might [f] accompliſh that which is lacking in your faith?
11 Nowe God himſelfe, euen our Father, and our Lord Ieſus Chriſt, guide our iourney vnto you,
12 And the Lord increaſe you, and make you abound in loue one towarde another, and toward all men, euen as wee doe toward you:
13 * To make your hearts ſtable, and vnblameable in holineſſe before God euen our Father, at the comming of our Lorde Ieſus Chriſt with all his Saints.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He exhorteth them to holineſſe, 6 Innocencie, 9 Loue, 11 Labour, 13 And moderation in lamenting for the dead, 17 Deſcribing the end of the reſurrection.

ANd furthermore wee beſeech you, brethren, and exhort you in the Lord Ieſus, that [a] ye increaſe more and more, as ye haue receiued of vs, how ye ought to walke, and to pleaſe God.
2 For ye know what [b] commandements we gaue you by the Lord Ieſus.
3 * For this is the will of God euen your ſanctification, [c] and that yee ſhould abſtaine from fornication,
4 That euery one of you ſhould knowe how to poſſeſſe his [d] veſſell in holineſſe and honour,
5 And not in the luſt of concupiſcence, euen as the Gentiles which know not God:
6 * That no man oppreſſe or defraude his brother in any matter: for the Lorde is auenger of all ſuch things, as we alſo haue told you before time, and teſtified.
7 * For God hath not called vs vnto vncleannеſſe, but vnto holineſſe.
8 He therefore that deſpiſeth [e] theſe things, deſpiſeth not man, but God who hath euen giuen * you his holy Spirit.
9 But as touching brotherly loue, yee neede not that I write vnto you: * for ye are taught of God to loue one another.
10 Yea, and that thing verily ye doe vnto all the brethren, which are throughout all Macedonia: but wee beſeech you brethren, that ye increaſe more and more,
11 * And that ye ſtudie to be quiet, and to meddle with your owne buſineſſe, and to worke with your [f] owne hands, as we commanded you,
12 That yee may behaue your ſelues honeſtly toward them that [g] are without, and that nothing be [h] lacking vnto you.
13 ¶ I would not brethren, haue you [g] ignorant concerning them which are aſleepe, that ye [i] ſorow not euen as other which haue no hope.
14 For if we beleeue that Ieſus is dead, and is riſen, euen ſo them which ſleepe in [k] Ieſus, will God [l] bring with him.
15 For this ſay wee vnto you by the [m] worde of the Lorde, that we which liue, and are remaining in the comming of the Lord, ſhall not preuent them which ſleepe.
16 For the Lorde himſelfe ſhall deſcend from heauen with a ſhowte, and with the voyce of the Archangell, * and with the trumpet of God: and the dead in Chriſt ſhall riſe firſt.

18 Wherefore, comfort your selues one another with these words.

CHAP. V.

1 Hee enformeth them of the day of iudgement and comming of the Lorde, 6 Exhorting them to watch, 12 And to regard such as preach Gods word among them.

BVt of the [a] times and seasons, brethren, ye haue no neede that I write vnto you.

2 For ye your selues know perfectly, that the [*] day of the Lord shall come, euen as a theefe in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace, and safetie, then shall come vpon them sudden destruction, as the [b] trauaile vpon a woman with childe, and they shall not escape.

4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkenesse, that that day should come on you, as it were a theefe.

5 Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, neither of darkenesse.

6 Therefore let vs not [c] sleepe as doe other, but let vs [d] watch and be sober.

7 For they that sleepe, sleep in the night, and they that be drunken, are drunken in the night.

8 But let vs which are of the [e] day be sober, putting on the brestplate of faith and loue, and the hope of saluation for an helmet.

9 For God hath not appointed vs vnto wrath, but to obtaine saluation by the meanes of our Lord Iesus Christ, 10 Which died for vs, that whether wee wake or [f] sleepe, wee should liue together with him.

11 Wherefore exhort one another, and edifie one another, euen as ye doe.

12 Now we beseech you, brethren, that ye know them, which labour among you, & are ouer you in the Lord, and [g] admonish you,

13 That ye haue them in singular loue for [h] their workes sake. Be at peace among your selues.

14 Wee desire you brethren, admonish them that are vnruly: comfort the feeble minded: beare with the weake: bee patient toward all men.

15 [*] See that none recompence euill for euill vnto any man: but euer followe that which is good, both toward your selues, and toward all men.

16 [i] Reioyce euermore.

17 [*] Pray continually.

18 In all things giue thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Iesus toward you.

19 Quench not the [k] Spirit.

20 Despise not [l] prophesying.

21 Trie all things, and keepe that which is good.

22 Abstaine from all appearance of euill.

23 Now the very God [*] of peace sanctifie you throughout: and I pray God that your [m] whole spirit and soule and bodie, may be kept blameless vnto the coming of our Lord Iesus Christ.

24 [*] Faithfull is hee which calleth you, which will also doe it.

25 Brethren, pray for vs.

26 Greete all the brethren with an holy kisse.

The second Epistle of Paul to the Thessalonians.

THE ARGVMENT.

LEast the Thessalonians should thinke that Paul neglected them, because hee went to other places rather then came to them, he writeth vnto them, and exhorteth them to patience & other fruits of faith, neither to be mooued with that vaine opinion of such as taught that the comming of Christ was at hand, forasmuch as before that day there should be a falling away from true religion, euen by a great part of the world, and that Antichrist should reigne in the Temple of God: finally commending himselfe to their prayers, and encouraging them to constancie, he willeth them to correct such sharpely, as liue idlely of other mens labours, whom, if they doe not obey his admonitions, he commandeth to excommunicate.

CHAP. I.

3 Hee thanketh God for their faith, loue, and patience. 11 He prayeth for the increase of the same, 12 And sheweth what fruit shall come thereof.

PAul and Siluanus, and Timothesalonians, which is in God our Father, and in the Lord Iesus Christ:

2 Grace bee with you, and peace from God our father, and from the Lorde Iesus Christ.

3 [*] Wee ought to thanke God alwayes for you, brethren, as it is meete, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the loue of euery one of you toward another aboundeth,

1. Thes. 1.3.

4 So that wee our ſelues reioice of you in the Churches of God, becauſe of your [a] patience, and faith in all your perſecutions and tribulations that ye ſuffer,

5 Which is a [b] token of the righteous [*] iudgement of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdome of God, for the which ye alſo ſuffer.

6 For it is a righteous thing with God, to recompenſe tribulation to them that trouble you,

7 And to you which are troubled, reſt with vs [*] when the Lord Ieſus ſhall ſhewe himſelfe from heauen with his [c] mighty Angels,

8 In flaming fire, rendring vengeance vnto them that do not know God, and which obey not vnto the Goſpel of our Lord Ieſus Chriſt,

9 Which ſhall bee punished with [d] euerlaſting perdition, from the preſence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power,

10 When he ſhall come to be glorified in his Saints, and to bee made marueilous in all them that beleeue (becauſe our teſtimonie toward you was beleeued) in that day.

11 Wherefore, wee alſo pray alwaies for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling, and fulfil [e] all the good pleaſure of his goodneſſe, and the [f] worke of faith with power, 12 That the Name of our Lorde Ieſus Chriſt may bee [g] glorified in you, and yee in him, according to the grace of our God, and of the Lord Ieſus Chriſt.

a Which proceedeth of your faith as a moſt notable fruit.
b The faithful by their afflictions ſee as in a cleere glaſſe, the end of Gods iuſt iudgement, when as they ſhall reigne with Chriſt which haue ſuffred with him, and the wicked ſhall feele his extreme wrath and vengeance. Iude 6. 1.Theſſ.4.16.
c By whom he declareth his might.
d As God is euerlaſting, ſo ſhall their puniſhment be euerlaſting: and as he is moſt mighty of power, ſo ſhall their puniſhment be moſt ſore.
e The free benevolence of Gods goodneſſe, comprehendeth his purpoſe, his predeſtination and vocation: the worke of faith conteineth our iuſtification, to the which God addeth glorification: and all theſe he worketh of his meere grace through Chriſt.
f Faith is Gods wonderful worke in vs. g As the head with the body.

CHAP. II.

3 Hee ſheweth them that the day of the Lorde ſhall not come, till the departing from the faith come firſt. 9 And the kingdome of Antichriſt, 15 And therefore hee exhorteth them not to be deceiued, but to ſtand ſtedfaſt in the things that hee hath taught them.

NOwe, wee beſeech you, brethren, by the comming of our Lord Ieſus Chriſt, and by our aſſembling vnto him,

2 That ye be not ſuddenly mooued from your minde, nor troubled, neither by [a] ſpirit, nor by [b] worde, nor by letter, as if were from vs, as though the day of Chriſt were at hand.

3 [*] Let no man deceiue you by any meanes: for that day ſhall not come, except there come a [c] departing firſt, and that that [d] man of ſinne be diſcloſed, even the ſonne of [e] perdition,

4 Which is an aduerſary, and exalteth himſelfe againſt all that is called God, or that is worſhipped: ſo that hee doeth ſit as God in the Temple of God, ſhewing himſelfe that he is God.

c A wonderfull departing of the moſt part from the faith.
d This wicked Antichriſt comprehendeth the whole ſucceſſion of the perſecuters of the Church, and all that abominable kingdom of Satan, whereof ſome were beares, ſome lions, other leopards, as Daniel deſcribeth them, and is called the man of ſinne, becauſe he ſetteth himſelfe vp againſt God.
e Who as he deſtroyeth others, ſo ſhall he be deſtroyed himſelfe.

5 Remember yee not, that when I was yet with you, I told you theſe things?

6 And now ye know what [f] withholdeth that he might be reuealed in his time.

7 For the myſtery of iniquitie doeth already [g] worke: onely hee which [h] nowe withholdeth, ſhall let, till he be taken out of the way.

8 And then ſhall the wicked man bee reuealed, [*] whom the Lorde ſhall conſume with the [i] Spirite of his mouth, and ſhall aboliſh with the brightneſſe of his comming,

11 And therefore God ſhall ſend them ſtrong delufion, that they ſhould beleeue lies,

12 That al they might be damned, which beleeued not the trueth, and had [m] pleaſure in vnrighteouſneſſe.

13 But wee ought to giue thanks alway to God for you, brethren [n] beloued of the Lord, becauſe that God hath [o] from the beginning choſen you to ſaluation, through ſanctification of the Spirit, and the faith of [p] trueth, 14 Whereunto he called you by [q] our Goſpel, to obtaine the glory of our Lord Ieſus Chriſt.

15 Therefore, brethren, ſtand faſt and keepe the [r] inſtructions, which yee haue beene taught, either [s] by word, or by our Epiſtle.

f Becauſe the falſe apoſtles had perſwaded after a ſort the Theſſalonians, that the day of the Lord was neere, and ſo the redemption of the Church, Paul teacheth them to looke for this horrible diſſipation before: and therefore rather to prepare themſelues to patience then to reſt and quietneſſe: for as yet there was a let, that is, that the Goſpel ſhould bee preached throughout all, Matt.24.14.

¶ The first Epistle of Paul to Timotheus.

THE ARGVMENT.

IN writing this Epistle, Paul seemeth not onely to haue respect to teach Timotheus, but chiefly to keepe other in awe, which would haue rebelled against him, because of his youth. And therefore he doth arme him against those ambitious questionists, which vnder pretence of zeale to the Law, disquieted the godly with foolish and vnprofitable questions, whereby they declared, that professing the Law, they knew not what was the chiefe end of the Law. And as for himselfe, he so confesseth his vnworthinesse, that he sheweth to what worthinesse the grace of God hath preferred him: and therefore he willeth prayers to be made for all degrees and sorts of men, because that God by offering his Gospel and Christ his Sonne to them all, is indifferent to euery sort of men, as his Apostleship, which is peculiar to the Gentiles witnesseth. And forasmuch as God hath left ministers as ordinarie meanes in his Church to bring men to saluation, he describeth what maner of men they ought to bee, to whom the mystery of the Sonne of God manifested in flesh is committed to be preached. After this he sheweth him what troubles the Church at all times shall sustaine, but specially in the latter dayes, when as vnder pretence of religion, men shall teach things contrary to the word of God. This done, he teacheth what widowes should be receiued or refused to ministers to the sicke: also what Elders ought to be chosen into office, exhorting him neither to be hastie in admitting nor in iudging any: also what is the duety of seruants, the nature of false teachers, of vaine speculations, of couetousnesse, of rich men, and aboue all things hee chargeth him to beware of false doctrine.

CHAP. I.

3 Hee exhorteth Timotheus to waite vpon his office, namely to see that nothing bee taught but Gods word, &c. 5 Declaring that faith, with a good conscience, charitie, and edification are the end thereof, 20 And admonishes of Hymeneus and Alexander.

PAVL an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the ‖ commaundement of God our Sauiour, and of our Lord Iesus Christ * our hope, a So called because he followed the simplicitie of the Gospel.

‖ Or, ordinance. Coloss.1.27. Actes 16.1.

3 As I besought thee to abide still in Ephesus, when I departed into Macedonia, so doe, that thou mayest commaund some, that they teach none other doctrine,

4 Neither that they giue heede to * fables and genealogies, * which are endlesse, which breede questions rather then godly edifying which is by faith.

Chap.4.17. tit.1.14. Chap.6.4.

5 For * the b ende of the ‖ commaundement is loue out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith vnfained.

6 From the which things some haue erred, and haue turned vnto vaine iangling,

7 They would be Doctors of the Lawe, and yet vnderstand not what they speake, neither whereof they affirme.

8 * And we know that the Law is good, if a man vse it lawfully,

9 Knowing this, that the Law is not giuen vnto a c righteous man, but vnto the lawlesse and disobedient, to the vngodly, and to d sinners, to the vnholy, and to the prophane, to murtherers of fathers and mothers, to manslayers,

Rom.13.10.

b Because these questionists preferred their curious fables to all other knowledge, and beautified them with the Law, as if they had bene the very Law of God, S. Paul sheweth that the end of Gods Law is loue, which cannot be without a good conscience, neither a good conscience without faith, nor faith without the word of God: so their doctrine which is an occasion of contention is worth nothing. ‖ Or, of the Lawe. Rom.7.12.

I Exhort therefore, that first of all supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giuing of thanks be made for all [a] men,

CHAP. III.

2 How he declareth what is the office of Ministers, 11 and as touching their families, 15 The dignitie of the Church. 16 And the principall point of the heauenly doctrine.

THis is a true saying, [*] If any man [a] desire the office of a [b] Bishop, hee desireth [c] a worthy worke.

2 A Bishop therefore must be vnreprouable, the husband of [d] one wife, watching, sober, modest, harborous, apt to teach,

3 Not giuen to wine, no striker, not giuen to filthy lucre, but gentle, no fighter, not couetous,

4 One that can rule his owne house honestly, hauing children vnder obedience with all honestie.

5 For if any cannot rule his owne house, how shall he [e] care for the Church of God?

6 Hee may not be a yong [f] scholler, least he being puffed vp fall into the [g] condemnation of the deuill.

7 Hee must also bee well reported of, euen of them which are [h] without, least hee fall into [i] rebuke, and the snare of the deuill.

10 And let them first be proued: then let them minister, if they be found blamelesse.

11 Likewise their l wiues must be honest, not euill speakers, but sober, and faithfull in all things.

12 Let the Deacons be the husbands of one wife, and such as can rule their children well, and their owne households.

13 For they that haue ministred well, get themselues a m good degree, and great n libertie in the faith, which is in Christ Iesus.

14 These things write I vnto thee, trusting to come vnto thee shortly.

15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayest yet know, how thou oughtest to behaue thy selfe in ỹ house of God, which is the Church of the liuing God, the o pillar and ground of truth.

16 And without controuersie, great is the mysterie of godlinesse, which is, God is manifested in the flesh, p iustified in the spirit, q seene of Angels, preached vnto the Gentiles, beleeued on in the world, and receiued vp in r glorie.

1 He teacheth him what doctrine hee ought to flee, 6.8. 11 And what to follow, 15 And wherein he ought to exercise himselfe continually.

NOw the Spirit speaketh euidently, that in the * latter times some shall depart from the faith, and shall giue heede vnto a spirits of errour, and doctrines of deuils,

2 Which speake lies through hypocrisie, and haue their b consciences burned with an hot yron,

3 Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstaine from meates which God hath created to be receiued with giuing thankes of them which beleeue and know the trueth.

4 For euery creature of God is good, and nothing ought to be refused, if it be receiued with thanksgiuing.

5 For it is c sanctified by the worde of God, and prayer.

6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Iesus Christ, which hast beene nourished vp in the words of faith, and of good doctrine, which thou hast continually followed.

7 * But cast away prophane, & old wiues fables, and exercise thy selfe vnto godlinesse.

8 For d bodily exercise profiteth little: but e godlinesse is profitable vnto all things, which hath the promise of the life present, and of that that is to come.

9 This is a true saying, & by all meanes worthy to be receiued.

10 For therefore we labour and are rebuked, because wee trust in the liuing God, which is the f Sauiour of all men, specially of those that beleeue.

11 These things command and teach.

12 Let no man despise thy youth, but be vnto them that beleeue, an ensample, in word, in conuersation, in loue, in g spirit, in faith, and in pureness.

13 Till I come, giue attendance to reading, to exhortation, and to doctrine.

5 And she that is a widow c indeed, and left alone, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.

6 But shee that liueth in pleasure, is d dead while she liueth.

7 These things therefore command, that they may be blamelesse.

THE ARGVMENT.

THe Apostle being now ready to confirme that doctrine with his blood, which he had professed and taught, encourageth Timotheus (and in him all the faithfull) in the faith of the Gospell, and in the the constant and sincere confession of the same: willing him not to shrinke for feare of afflictions, but patiently to attend the issue as doe husbandmen, which at length receiue the fruite of their labours, and cast off all feare and care, as souldiers doe which seeke onely to please their captaine: shewing him briefly the summe of the Gospel, which hee preached, commanding him to preach the same to others, diligently taking heede of contentious, curious disputations, and vaine questions, to the intent that his doctrine may altogether edifie. Considering that the examples of Hymeneus and Philetus, which subuerted the true doctrine of the resurrection were so horrible: and yet to the intent that no man should be offended at their fall, being men of authoritie and in estimation, hee sheweth that all that professe Christ are not his, and that the Church is subiect to this calamitie, that the euill must dwell among the good till Gods triall come: yet hee reserueth them whom hee hath elected, euen to the ende. And that Timotheus should not bee discouraged by the wicked, hee declareth what abominable men, and dangerous times shall followe, willing him to arme himselfe with the hope of the good issue that God will giue vnto his, and to exercise himselfe diligently in the Scriptures both against the aduersaries, and for the vtilitie of the Church, desiring him to come to him for certaine necessary affaires, and so with his and others salutations endeth.

CHAP. I.

6 Paul exhorteth Timotheus to stedfastnes and patience in persecution, and to continue in the doctrine that hee had taught him, 12 Whereof his bondes and afflictions were a gage. 16 A commendation of Onesiphorus.

PAul an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the will of God, [a] according to the promise of life, which is in Christ Iesus,

2 To Timotheus my beloued sonne: Grace, mercie and peace from God the Father, and from Iesus Christ our Lord.

3 I thanke God, * whom I serue from mine [b] elders with pure conscience, that without ceasing I haue remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day,

4 Desiring to see thee, mindfull of thy teares, that I may be filled with ioy:

5 When I call to remembrance the vnfained faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and in thy mother Eunice, and am assured that it dwelleth in thee also.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou [c] stirre vp the gift of God which is in thee, by the putting on of [d] mine hands.

7 For God hath not giuen to vs the Spirit of [e] feare, but of power, and of loue, and of a sound mind.

8 Bee not therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, neither of mee his prisoner: but be partaker of the afflictions of the Gospel, according to the power of God,

9 Who hath saued vs and called vs with an * holy calling, not according to our * workes, but according to his owne purpose and grace, which was giuen to vs through Christ Iesus before the * worlde was,

10 But is now made manifest by the [f] appearing of our Sauiour Iesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortalitie vnto light through the Gospel.

11 *Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and Apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

12 For the which cause I also suffer these things, but I am not ashamed: for I know whom I haue beleeued, and I am perswaded that hee is able to keepe that which I haue committed to him against that day.

13 Keepe the true paterne of the wholesome words, which thou hast heard of me in faith and loue which is in Christ Iesus.

14 That [h] woorthy thing, which was committed to thee, keepe through the holy Ghost, which dwelleth in vs.

15 This thou knowest, [i] all they which are in Asia, be turned from me: of which sort are Phygellus and Hermogenes.

16 The Lord giue mercie vnto the house of Onesiphorus: for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chaine.

17 But when he was at Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord grant vnto him that he may finde mercie with the Lord at that day, and in how many things he hath ministred vnto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

CHAP. II.

2 He exhorteth him to be constant in trouble, to suffer manly, and to abide fast in the wholesome doctrine of our Lord Iesus Christ, 11 shewing him the fidelitie of Gods councell touching the saluation of his, 19 and the marke thereof.

THou therefore, my sonne, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Iesus.

2 And what things thou hast heard of mee, [g] by many witnesses, the same deliuer to faithfull men, which shalbe able to [k] teach other also.

3 Thou therefore suffer affliction as a good souldier of Iesus Christ.

4 No man that warreth entangleth himselfe with [l] the affaires of this life, because he would please him that hath chosen him to be a souldier.

5 And if any man also striue for a masterie, he is not crowned, except he striue as hee ought to doe.

6 The husbandman [m] must labour before he receiue the fruits.

7 Consider what I say: and the Lorde giue thee vnderstanding in all things.

8 Remember that Iesus Christ, made [n] of the seed of Dauid, was raised againe from the dead according to my Gospel:

9 Wherein I suffer trouble as an euill doer, euen vnto bonds: but the word of God is not [o] bound.

10 Therefore a Being sent of God to preach that life which he had promised in Christ Iesus, Acts 22.3.

b Following the steps of mine ancestors, as Abraham, Isaac, Iacob and others of whom I am come, and of whom I receiued the true religion by succession.

c The gift of God is a certaine liuely flame kindled in our hearts, which Satan and the flesh labour to quench, and therefore wee must nourish it, and stirre it vp.

a So that the trueth of God may remaine perfect.

b As with his housholde, and other ordinary affaires.

c So that the paine must goe before the recompense.

d Notwithstanding mine imprisonment the word of God hath his race, & increaseth, 10 Therefore I suffer all things, for the * elects sake, that they might also obtaine the saluation which is in Christ Jesus, with eternall glory.

11 It is a true saying, For if we be * dead with him, we also shall liue with him.

12 If we suffer, we shall also reigne with him: * if we denie him, he also will denie vs.

13 If * wee beleeue not, yet abideth hee faithfull: he cannot denie himselfe.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, and protest before the Lord, that they striue not about wordes, which is to no profite, but to the peruerting of the hearers.

15 Studie to shewe thy selfe approoued vnto God, a workeman that needeth not to bee ashamed, f diuiding the worde of trueth aright.

16 * Stay prophane f vaine babblings: for they shall increase vnto more vngodlinesse.

17 And their word shall fret as a canker: of which sort is Hymeneus and Philetus, 18 Which as concerning the trueth haue erred, saying that the resurrection is past already, and do destroy the faith of certaine.

19 But the foundation of God remaineth sure, and hath this seale, g The Lord knoweth who are his, and, Let euery one that calleth on the Name of Christ, depart from iniquitie.

20 Notwithstanding in a h great house are not onely vessels of golde and of siluer, but also of wood and of earth, and some for honour, and some vnto dishonour.

21 If any man therefore purge himselfe from i these, he shall be a vessel vnto honour, sanctified and meete for the Lord, and prepared vnto euery good worke.

22 Flee also from the lustes of youth, and follow after righteousnesse, faith, loue, and peace, with them that * call on the Lord with pure heart.

23 * And put away fooolish, and k vnlearned questions, knowing that they ingender strife.

24 But the seruant of the Lord must not striue, but must be gentle toward al men, apt to teach, l suffering the euill men patiently,

25 Instructing them with meekenesse that are contrary m minded, prooming if God at any time will giue them repentance, that they may know the trueth, 26 And ‖ that they may come to amendment out of the snare of the deuill, which are taken of him at his will.

CHAP. III.

1 He prophesieth of the perilous times, 5 Setteth out hypocrites in their colours, 12 Sheweth the state of the Christians, 13 And how to auoide dangers, 16 Also what profite commeth of the Scriptures.

THis know also, that in the * last dayes shall come perilous times,

2 For a men shalbe louers of their owne selues, couetous, boasters, proud, cursed speakers, disobedient to parents, vnthankefull, vnholy,

3 Without naturall affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, intemperate, fierce, despisers of them which are good,

4 Traitours, headie, hie minded, louers of pleasures more then louers of God,

5 Hauing a shew of godlinesse, but haue denied the power thereof: turne away therefore from such.

6 For of this sort are they which b creepe into houses, and leade captiue simple women laden with sinnes, and ledde with diuers lusts,

7 Which women are euer learning, and are neuer able to come to the knowledge of the trueth.

8 * And as Iannes and Iambres withstoode Moses, so doe these also resist the trueth, men of c corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the faith.

9 But they shall prenaile no longer: for their madnesse shall be euident vnto all men, as theirs also was.

10 ¶ But thou hast fully knowen my doctrine, maner of liuing, d purpose, faith, long suffering, loue, patience, 11 Persecutions, and afflictions which came vnto me at * Antiochia, at e Iconium, and at Lystri, which persecutions I suffered: but from them all the Lorde deliuered mee.

12 Yea, and all that will liue godly in Christ Jesus, shall suffer persecution.

13 But the euill men and e deceiuers shall waxe worse and worse, deceiuing and being deceiued.

14 But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned, and art perswaded thereof, knowing of whom thou hast learned them:

15 And that thou hast knowen the holy Scriptures of a childe, which are able to make thee wise vnto saluation through the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

16 * For the whole Scripture is giuen by inspiration of God, and is profitable to teach, to improoue, to correct, and to instruct in righteousnesse, 17 That the f man of God may bee s absolute, being made perfect vnto all good workes.

CHAP. IIII.

The Epistle of Paul to Titus.

THE ARGVMENT.

WHen Titus was left in Creta to finish that doctrine which Paul had there begunne, Satan stirred vp certaine which went about not onely to ouerthrow the gouernment of the Church, but also to corrupt the doctrine: for some by ambition would haue thrust in themselues to bee pastours: others, vnder pretext of Moses Law brought in many trifles. Against these two sorts of men Paul armeth Titus: first teaching him what maner of ministers he ought to chuse, chiefly requiring that they be men of sound doctrine, to the intent they might resist the aduersaries, and among other things hee noteth the Iewes which put a certaine holinesse in meates and such outward ceremonies, teaching them which are the true exercises of a Christian life, and what things appertaine to euery mans vocation. Against the which if any man rebell or else doeth not obey, he willeth him to be auoyded.

THE

The Epistle of Paul to Philemon.

THE ARGVMENT.

ALbeit the excellencie of Pauls spirit wonderfully appeareth in other his Epistles, yet this Epistle is a great witnesse, and declaration of the same. For farre passing the baseneſſe of his matter, he flieth, as it were, vp to heauen, and speaketh with a diuine grace and maiestie. Onesimus, seruant to Philemon, both robbed his master, and fled away, whom Paul hauing woonne to Christ, sent againe to his master, earnestly begging his pardon, with most weighty arguments prooving the duety of one Christian to another, and so with salutations endeth.

4 Hee reioyceth to heare of the faith and loue of Philemon, 9 whom he desireth to forgiue his seruant Onesimus, and louingly to receiue him againe.

PAUL a prisoner of Jesus Christ, & our brother Timotheus, vnto Philemon our deare friend & fellow helper,
2 And to our deare sister Apphia, and to Archippus our fellow souldier, and to the Church that is in thine house:
3 Grace be with you, & peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.
4 I * giue thanks to my God, making mention alwayes of thee in my prayers,
5 (When I heare of thy loue and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus, & toward all Saints)
6 That the [a]fellowship of thy faith may be made fruitfull, and that whatsoeuer good thing is in you, [b] through Christ Jesus, may be knowen.
7 For we haue great ioy and consolation in thy loue, because by thee, brother, ỳ saints [c] hearts are comforted.
8 Wherefore, though I be very bolde in Christ to command thee that which is conuenient, 9 Yet for loues sake I rather beseech thee, though I be as I am, euen Paul aged, and euen now a prisoner for Jesus Christ.
10 I beseech thee for my sonne * Onesimus, whom I haue begotten in my bonds, 11 Which in time past was to thee vnprofitable, but now profitable both to thee and to me,
12 Whom I haue sent againe: thou therefore receiue him that is mine owne bowels,
13 Whom I would haue reteined with mee, that in thy stead hee might haue ministred vnto me in the bonds of the Gospell.
14 But without thy minde would I doe nothing, that thy benefit should not be as it were of necessitie, but willingly.
15 For it may be that he therefore [d] departed for a season, that thou shouldest receiue him for euer.
16 [e] Not now as a seruant but aboue a seruant, euen as a brother beloued, specially to me: how much more then vnto thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord?
17 If therefore thou count our things [f] common, receiue him as my selfe.
18 If hee hath hurt thee, or oweth thee ought, that put on mine accounts.
19 I Paul haue written this with mine owne hand: I will recompense it, albeit I doe not say to thee, that thou owest vnto me euen thine owne selfe.
20 Yea, brother, let me obtaine this pleasure of thee in the Lord: comfort my [g] bowels in the Lord.
21 Trusting in thine obedience, I wrote vnto thee, knowing that thou wilt doe euen more then I say.
22 Moreouer also prepare mee lodging: for I trust through your prayers I shall bee giuen vnto you.
23 There salute thee Epaphras my fellow prisoner [h] in Christ Jesus, 24 Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas, and Lucas, my fellow helpers.
25 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, Amen.

The Epistle to the Hebrewes.

THE ARGVMENT.

FOrasmuch as diuers, both of the Greeke writers and Latines witnesse, that the writer of this Epistle for iust causes would not haue his name knowen, it were curiositie of our part to labour much therein. For seeing the Spirit of God is the authour thereof, it diminisheth nothing the authoritie, although we know not with what penne he wrote. Whether it were Paul (as it is not like) or Luke, or Barnabas, or Clement, or some other, his chiefe purpose is to perswade vnto the Hebrewes (whereby he principally meaneth them that abode at Ierusalem, and vnder them all the rest of the Iewes) that Christ Iesus was not only the redeemer, but also that at his comming all ceremonies must haue an end: forasmuch as his doctrine was the conclusion of all the Prophesies, and therefore not onely Moses was inferiour to him, but also the Angels: for they all were seruants, and he the Lord: but so Lord, that he hath also taken our flesh, and is made our brother to assure vs of our saluation through himselfe: for he is that eternall Priest, whereof all the Leuiticall Priests were but shadowes, and therefore at his comming they ought to cease, and all sacrifices for sinne to be abolished, as he proueth from the 7. Chap. verse 11. vnto the 12. Chap. verse 18. Also he was that Prophet of whom all the Prophets in time past witnessed, as is declared from the 12 Chapter verse 18. to the 25. verse of the same Chapter: yea, and is the King to whom all things are subiect, as appeareth from that 25. verse to the beginning of the last Chapter. Wherefore, according to the examples of the olde fathers, we must constantly beleeue in him, him, that being sanctified by his iustice, taught by his wisedome, and governed by his power, we may stedfastly and couragiously persuere euen to the end, in hope of that ioy that is set before our eyes, occupying our selues in Christian exercises, that we may both be thankefull to God, and dutifull to our neighbour.

CHAP. I.

1 He sheweth the excellencie of Christ 4 aboue the Angels, 7 and of their office.

a God, who is euer constant, and mercifull to his Church, declared his will in time past, not all at once, or after one sort, but from time to time and in sundry sorts: but now last of all he hath fully declared all trueth to vs by his Sonne.

b So that now we may not credit any new reuelations after him.

c He intreateth heere of Christ, both as touching his person, which is very God, and very man, by whom all things are made, & also as touching his office, whereby he is King, Prophet, and Priest. *Wisd.*7.26. *col.*1.15.

i The administration of thy kingdome is iust.

k This is meant in that that the word is made flesh, & that the holy Ghost was powred on him without measure, that we may all receiue of him euery one according to his measure. *Psal.*102.25. *Psal.*110.1. *mat.*22.44. 1.*cor.*15.25, *chap.*10.12.

AT sundry times and in diuers maners a God spake in the old time to our fathers by the prophets:

2 In these b last dayes he hath spoken vnto vs by his Sonne, whom hee hath made heire of all things, c by whom also he made the worlds,

3 * Who being the brightnes of the glorie, and the d ingraued forme of his person, and bearing vp all things by his mightie word, hath by himselfe e purged our sinnes, and sitteth at the right hand of the Maiestie in the highest places,

4 And is made so much more excellent then the f Angels, inasmuch as hee hath obteined a more excellent name then they.

5 For vnto which of the Angels sayd he at any time, * Thou art my Sonne, g this day begate I thee? and againe, I * will be his Father, and he shalbe my Sonne?

6 And againe, when hee bringeth in his first begotten Sonne into the world, hee sayth, * And let all the Angels of God worship him.

7 And of the Angels hee sayth, * He maketh the h Spirits his messengers, and his ministers, a flame of fire.

8 But vnto the Sonne he sayth, * O God thy throne is for euer and euer: the i scepter of thy kingdome is a scepter of righteousnes.

9 Thou hast loued righteousnesse, & hated iniquitie. Wherefore God, euen thy God hath k anointed thee with the oyle of gladnesse aboue thy fellowes.

10 And, * Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast established the earth, and the heauens are the works of thine hands.

11 They shall perish, but thou doest remaine: and they all shall waxe olde as doth a garment.

12 And as a vesture shalt thou folde them vp, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy yeres shall not faile.

13 Vnto which also of the Angels said he at any time, * Sit at my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstoole?

14 Are they not all ministring Spirits, sent foorth to minister, for their sakes which shalbe heires of saluation?

CHAP. II.

1 Hee exhorteth vs to be obedient vnto the new Law which Christ hath giuen vs, 9 and not to be offended at the infirmity and lowe degree of Christ, 10 because it was necessarie that for our sakes hee should take such an humble state vpon him, that he might be like vnto his brethren.

WHerefore we ought diligently to giue heede to the things which wee haue heard, lest at any a time wee should let them slippe.

a We must diligently keepe in memory the doctrine which we haue learned, lest like vessels full of chaps we leake, and run out on euery part.

2 For if the b worde spoken by Angels was stedfast, and euery transgression and disobedience receiued a iust recompense of reward, b Which was the Law giuen to Moses by the hands of Angels, Gala.3.19, acts 7.53.

3 How shall we escape, if we neglect so c great saluation, which at the first began to be preached by the Lord, and afterward was confirmed vnto vs by d them that heard him, c As the Gospell is, which onely offereth saluation.

d That is, the Apostles. *Mar.*16.20.

4 * God bearing witnesse thereto, both with signes and woonders, and with diuers miracles and gifts of the holy Ghost, according to his owne will?

5 For he hath not put in subiection vnto the Angels the e world to come, whereof we speake.

e Which Isai calleth the new heauens, and the new earth, Chapt.65.17, whereof Christ is the Father, Isa. 9.6: that is, the head of vs his members.

6 But * one in a certaine place witnessed, saying, f What is man that thou shouldest be mindefull of him? or the sonne of man that thou wouldest consider him!

f He speaketh here chiefly of the faithfull, which are made through Christ, citizens of the world to come, where they shall enioy with their prince all these things which now they haue onely but in part.

7 Thou madest him a little inferiour to the Angels: thou crownedst him with g glorie and honour, and hast set him aboue the works of thine hands.

g In making him fellow heire with Christ. *Matt.*28.18. 1.*cor.*15.27. *phil.*2.8,9,10,11.

8 * Thou hast put all things in subiection vnder his feet. And in that hee hath put all things in subiection vnder him, hee left nothing that should not be subiect vnto him. h But we yet see not all things subdued vnto him.

h To them which obiect that they see not these things accomplished in man, the Apostle answereth that they are fulfilled in Christ our captaine, who leadeth his to the same glory with him.

9 But we see Iesus k crowned with glorie and honour, which was made a litle inferiour to the Angels, through the suffering of death, that by Gods grace hee might taste death for all men.

i To man, as he is of Christ.

k By his vertue which most manifestly appeareth in the Church.

10 For it became him, for whome are all things, and by whom are all things, seeing that hee brought many children vnto glorie, that he should consecrate the l prince of their saluation through m afflictions.

l Iesus Christ by humbling himselfe, and taking vpon him the forme of a seruant, which was our flesh & mortality, giueth vs assurance of our saluation.

m Therefore wee by afflictions are made like to the Sonne of God.

11 For hee that sanctifieth, and they which are sanctified, are all n of one: wherefore hee is not ashamed to call them brethren, n The head and the members are of one nature: so Christ which sanctifieth vs, and we that are sanctified, are all one by the vnion of our flesh. *Psal.*22.22.

12 Saying, * I will declare thy Name vnto my o brethren: in the middes of the Church will I sing praises to thee.

o This prooueth Christes humanity.

13 And againe, * I will put my p trust in him. And againe, q Beholde, here am I, and the children, which God hath given me.

14 Forasmuch then as the children were partakers of flesh and blood, hee also himselfe likewise tooke part with them, that hee might destroy * through death, him that had the power of death, that is the deuill,

15 And that he might deliuer all them, which for feare of c death were all their life time subiect to bondage.

16 For he in no sort tooke the f Angels, but he tooke the seede of Abrahám.

17 Wherefore c in all things it became him to be made like vnto his brethren, that he might be mercifull, and a faithfull high Priest in things concerning God, that hee might make reconciliation for the sinnes of the people.

18 For in that hee u suffered, and was tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

p Meaning, that Christ touching his humanitie put his trust in God.

Isa. 8.18.

q Isai speaketh this of himselfe and his disciples, but properly it is applyed to Christ the head of all ministers.

Hos. 13.14.

r And Gods anger.

f Not the nature of Angels but of man.

t Not onely as touching nature but also qualities, onely sinne except.

u Forasmuch as he is exercised in our miseries, we may be assured, that at all times in our tentations, he will succour vs.

CHAP. III.

1 Hee requireth them to be obedient vnto the word of Christ, 3 Who is more worthy then Moses. 12 The punishment of such as wil harden their hearts, and not beleeue, that they might haue eternall rest.

a Take heede to his wordes and receiue him.

b Of that doctrine which we beleeue, and ought to cõfesse.

Num. 12.7.

d Moses was but part of the house, that is, of the Church whereof the pastours are the liuely stones, but Christ builded it, and layd the stones: therefore he deserueth more praise.

e That is, Christ: for Christ is the foundation, and head of his Church: he is our brother, and Lord: he is the Sonne of God, and very God, working all things by his owne power.

f For in obeying the Sonne, wee are made the house of God. Psal. 95.7,8. chap. 4.7.

g As when ye prouoked Gods anger in Massa and Meriba, Exod. 17.7.

h Meaning by this othe, that they should not enter.

i As disobeying God, they in olde time were debarred from ỹ quietnes of the land of Canaan: so they which doe not obey Christ, shall not enter into the heauenly rest.

k Which is all that time, wherin God doth call vs: while he therefore speaketh, let vs heare.

l Which is by faith to imbrace and hold fast the true doctrine of Iesus Christ.

‖ Or, foundation of our assurance.

m To wit, ỹ Lord.

Num. 14.37.

‖ Or, bodies and members.

THerefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heauenly vocation, a consider the Apostle and high Priest of our b profession, Christ Iesus:

2 Who was faithfull to him that hath appointed c him, euen as * Moses was in all his house.

3 For this man is counted worthie of more glorie then Moses, in as much as hee which hath builded the house, d hath more honour then the house.

4 For euery house is builded of some man, and he that hath built all things is e God.

5 And Moses verily was faithfull in all his house, as a seruant, for a witnesse of the things which should be spoken after.

6 But Christ is as the Sonne, ouer his owne house, whose f house wee are, if wee holde fast the confidence, and the reioycing of the hope vnto the end.

7 Wherefore as the holy Ghost sayth, * To day if ye shal heare his voyce,

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the prouocation, according to the day of the tentation in the wildernesse,

9 Where your fathers tempted me, proued mee, and sawe my workes fortie yeeres long.

10 Wherefore I was grieued with that generation, and sayd, They erre euer in their heart, neither haue they knowen my wayes.

11 Therefore I sware in my wrath, h If they shall enter into my rest.

12 Take heede, brethren, lest at any time there bee in any of you an euill heart, and vnfaithfull, to depart away from the liuing God.

13 But exhort one another dayly, while it is called k To day, least any of you bee hardened through the deceitfulnesse of sinne.

14 For we are made partakers of Christ, if wee keepe sure vnto the l ende, the ‖ beginning, wherewith we are vpholden, 15 So long as it is sayd, To day if ye heare his voyce, harden not your hearts, as in the prouocation.

16 For some when they heard, prouoked m him to anger: howbeit, not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

17 But with whom was hee displeased fourtie yeeres? was hee not displeased with them that sinned, * whose ‖ carkeises fell in the wildernesse?

18 And to whom sware hee that they should not enter into his rest, but vnto them that obeyed not?

19 So we see that they could not enter in, because of vnbeliefe.

CHAP. IIII.

2 The word without faith is vnprofitable. 3 The Sabbath or rest of the Christians. 6 Punishment of vnbeleeuers. 12 The nature of the word of God.

LEt vs feare therefore, lest at any time by forsaking the promise of entring into his rest, any of you should seeme to bee depriued.

2 For vnto vs was the Gospel preached, as also vnto them: but the worde that they heard, profited not them, because it was not a mixed with faith in those that heard it.

3 For we which haue beleeued doe enter into rest, as he sayd to the other, * As I haue sworne in my wrath, If b they shall enter into my rest: although c the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For he spake in a certaine place of the seuenth day on this wise, * And God did rest the seuenth day from all his works.

5 And in this place againe, If they shall enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therinto, and they to whom it was first preached, entred not therein for vnbeliefs sake:

7 Againe hee appointed in d Dauid a certain day, by To day, after so long a time, saying, as it is sayd, * This day if ye heare his voice, harden not your hearts.

8 For if e Iesus had giuen them rest, then would hee not after this day haue spoken of another.

9 There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.

10 For hee that is entred into his rest, f hath also ceased from his owne workes, of Gods works, and so his rest, signifie our heauenly rest. Gen. 2.2. deut. 5.14.

a He compareth the preaching of the Gospell, as it were, to wine, whereof if we wil taste, that is, heare and vnderstand with profit, wee must temper or mixe it with faith.

Psal. 95.11.

b Although that God by his rest, after the creation of his works, signified the spirituall rest of the faithfull, yet he sware to giue rest in Chanaan, which was but a figure of the heauenly rest, and dured but for a time.

d That is, in the Psalmes. Chap. 3.7.

e Meaning Iosua.

c The perfection

f Hath cast off his appetites, mortified his flesh, renounced himselfe, and followeth God.

g For it mortally woundeth the rebellious, and in the elect it killeth the old man that they should liue vnto God.
h Where the affections are.
i Which conteineth will and reason.
k As that thing which is cleft asunder euen through the mids of the backe, and so is made open, that it may be seene throughout ‖ Or, concerning whom we speake.
l Therfore when we heare his word we must tremble, knowing thereby that God soundeth our hearts, as God did from his.

11 Let vs studie therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same ensample of disobedience.

12 For the worde of God is liuely, and mightie in operation, and sharper then any two edged sword, and g entreth through, euen vnto the dividing asunder of the h soule and the i spirite, and of the ioynts, and the marow, and is a discerner of the thoughts, and the intents of the heart.

13 Neither is there any creature, which is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and open k vnto his eyes, ‖ with whom we haue l to doe.

14 Seeing then that wee haue a great hie Priest, which is entred into heauen, euen Iesus the Sonne of God, let vs holde fast our profession.

15 For we haue not an hie Priest, which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities, but was in all things tempted in like sort, yet without sinne.

16 Let vs therefore goe boldly vnto the throne of grace, that we may receiue mercy, and find grace to helpe in time of neede.

CHAP. V.

5 He compareth Iesus Christ with the Leuiticall Priests, shewing wherein they either agree, or dissent. 11 Afterward he reprooueth the negligence of the Iewes.

a He sheweth that man can haue none accesse to God without an hie Priest, because that of him selfe he is prophane and sinfull.

e Who was both Priest and King.
f When he liued in this world.
g He meaneth that most earnest prayer which Christ prayed in the garden, where he sweat drops of blood.
h Being in perplexitie, and fearing the horrors of death.
i He digresseth till he come to the beginning of the 7. chap.

FOr euery high Priest is taken from a among men, and is a ordeined for men, in things pertayning to God, that hee may offer both b giftes and c sacrifices for sinnes,

2 Which is able sufficiently to haue compassion on them d that are ignorant, and that are out of the way, because that hee also is compassed with infirmitie,

3 And for the same cause he is bound to offer for sinnes, as well for his owne part, as for the peoples.

4 * And no man taketh this honour vnto himselfe, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

5 So likewise Christ tooke not to himselfe this honour, to be made the hie Priest, but hee that sayd vnto him, * Thou art my sonne, this day begate I thee, gaue it him.

6 As hee also in another place speaketh, * Thou art a Priest for euer after e the order of Melchi-sedec.

7 Which in the f dayes of his flesh did offer vp prayers and supplications, with s strong crying and teares vnto him, that was able to saue him from death, and was also heard h in that which he feared.

8 And though hee were the Sonne, yet learned hee obedience, by the things which he suffered.

9 And being consecrate, was made the author of eternall saluation vnto all them that obey him:

10 And is called of God an hie Priest after the order of Melchi-sedec.

11 i Of whom wee haue many things to say, which are hard to be vttered, because ye are dull of hearing.

12 For when as concerning the time yee ought to bee teachers, yet haue ye needeagaine that we teach you the first ‖principles of the worde of God: and are become such as haue neede of k milke, and not of strong meate.

13 For euery one that vseth milke, is inexpert in the l word of righteousnesse: for he is a babe.

14 But strong meate belongeth to them that are of age, which through long custome haue their wittes exercised to discerne both good and euill.

CHAP. VI.

1 He proceadeth in reprooving them, & exhorteth them not to faint, 12 But to be stedfast and patient, 18 for as much as God is sure in his promise.

THerefore leauing the doctrine of the a beginning of Christ, let vs bee led forward vnto perfection, not laying againe the foundation b of repentance from dead workes, and of faith toward God,

2 Of the doctrine of c baptismes, and laying on of hands, and of the resurrection from the dead, and of eternall iudgement.

3 And this will we doe d if God permit.

4 * For it is impossible that they which were once lightened, and haue tasted of the heauenly gift, and were made partakers of the holy Ghost,

5 And haue tasted of the good worde of God, & of the powers of the world to come,

6 If they fall away, should be renewed againe by repentance: seeing they e crucifie againe to themselues the Sonne of God, and make a mocke of him.

7 For the earth which drinketh in the raine that commeth oft vpon it, and bringeth foorth herbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, receiueth blessing of God.

8 But that which beareth thornes and briers, is reproued, and is nere vnto cursing, whole end is to be burned.

9 But beloued, we haue perswaded our selues better things of you, and such as accompany saluation, though we thus speake.

10 For God is not vnrighteous, that hee should forget your worke, and labour of loue which ye shewed toward his Name, in that yee haue ministred vnto the Saints, and yet minister.

11 And wee desire that euery one of you shewe the same diligence, to the f full assurance of hope vnto the end, 12 That yee be not slouthfull, but followers of s them, which through faith and patience inherit the promises.

13 For when God made the promise to Abraham, because hee had no greater to sweare by, he sware by himselfe, 14 Saying, * Surely I will abundantly blesse thee, and multiply thee marueilously.

15 And so after that hee had tarried patiently, he enioyed the promise.

16 For men verily sweare by him that is greater then themselues, and an oath for l Which is heauen, whither Christ is gone before to prepare vs place.

CHAP. VII.

1 Hee compareth the Priesthood of Christ vnto Melchi-sedec, 11 Also Christes Priesthood with the Leuites.

FOr this Melchi-sedec [a] was King of Salem, the Priest of the most high God, who met Abraham, as hee returned from the slaughter of the Kings, and blessed him:

2 To whome also Abraham gaue the tithe of all things, who first is by interpretation King of righteousnesse: after that, hee is also King of Salem, that is, King of peace,

3 Without [b] father, without mother, without kinred, and hath neither beginning of his dayes, neither ende of life: but is likened vnto the Sonne of God, and continueth a Priest for euer.

4 Nowe consider howe great this man was vnto whome euen the [c] Patriarch Abraham gaue the tithe of the spoyles.

5 For verily they which are the children of Leui, which receiue the office of the Priesthood, haue a [d] commandement to take according to the Law, tithes of the people (that is, of their brethren) though they [d] came out of the loynes of Abraham.

6 But hee whose kinred is not counted among them, [e] receiued tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises.

7 And without al contradiction, the lesse is blessed of the greater.

8 And here men that die, receiue tithes: but there he receiued them, of whom it is witnessed, that he [f] liueth.

9 And to say as the thing is, Leui also which receiueth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

10 For hee was yet in the loynes of his father Abraham, when Melchi-sedec mette him.

11 If therefore perfection had bene by the Priesthoode of the Leuites (for vnder it the Lawe was established to the people) what needed it furthermore, that another Priest shoulde rise after the order of Melchi-sedec, and not to bee called after the order of Aaron?

12 For if the Priesthood bee changed, then of necessitie must there bee a change of the [g] Lawe.

13 For hee of whom these things are spoken, pertaineth vnto another tribe, whereof no man serued at the altar.

14 For it is euident, that our Lord sprung out of Iuda, concerning the which tribe Moses spake nothing, touching the Priesthood.

15 And it is yet a more euident thing, because that after the similitude of Melchi-sedec, there is risen vp another Priest, 16 Which is not made Priest after the Lawe [h] of the carnall commandement, but after the power of the endlesse life.

17 For hee testifieth thus, * Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchi-sedec.

18 For the commandement that went afore, is disannulled, because [i] of the weaknesse thereof, and vnprofitablenesse.

19 For the Law made nothing perfit, but [j] the bringing in of a better hope made perfite, whereby we draw neere vnto God.

20 And forasmuch as it is not without an othe (for these are made Priestes without an othe:

21 But this, hee is made with an othe by him that sayde vnto him, * The Lorde hath sworne, and will not repent, Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchi-sedec)

22 By so much is Iesus made a suretie of a better [j] Testament.

23 And among them many were made Priestes, because they were not suffered to endure, by the reason of death.

24 But this man, because he endureth euer, hath an [k] euerlasting Priesthood.

25 Wherefore, hee is able also [l] perfectly to saue them that come vnto God by him, seeing hee euer liueth, to make intercession for them.

26 For such an hie Priest it became vs to haue, which is holy, harmelesse, vndefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher then the heauens:

27 Which needed not dayly as those hie Priestes to offer vp sacrifice, * first for his owne sinnes, & then for the peoples: for that did he [m] once, when he offered vp himselfe.

28 For the Lawe maketh men high Priestes, which haue infirmitie: but the word of the othe that was [n] since the Lawe, maketh the Sonne, who is consecrated for euermore.

Gen.14.18.
a So called because that Moses maketh no mention of his parents or kinsfolkes, but as he had bin suddenly sent of God into the world to be a figure of Christ our euerlasting Priest, and shortly taken out of the world againe: so Christ as touching his humanitie had no father, and concerning his diuinity, no mother.
b That is, the chiefe of fathers. *Num.*18.21. *deut.*18.1.2. *Ios.*14.4.
c The Leuites had commandement to receiue that which Abraham gaue freely to Melchi-sedec.
d We begotten of Abraham.
e The Leuites receiued tithes of their brethren, but Melchi sedec of Abraham the Patriarch: therefore his Priesthood is more excellent then the Leuiticall.
f Because there is no mention of his death.
g The Law and the Priesthood are both of one condition: so that both Aarons and Moses office pertaine to Christ, which is Priest and Lawmaker.
h Which stood in outward and corporall ceremonies.
*Psal.*110.4. *chap.*5.6.
i For the Law hath no vertue nor profite, till a man be come to Christ.

*Psal.*110.4. [j] Or, couenant.
k Therefore all others are blasphemous, that either make themselues his successors, or pretend any other sacrifice.
l The fruit of his Priesthood is to saue, and that fully and perfectly, not by supplying that that wanteth, but by taking away the Law, which is vnperfect by reason of our infirmities.
*Leuit.*16.6.
m And cannot without blaspheme be said to be offered againe, or els by any creature: for none could offer him, but himselfe.
n Not that it was first made after the Lawe was giuen: but because the declaration of that eternall othe was then reuealed to the world.

CHAP. VIII.

6 He proueth the abolishing aswell of the Leuiticall Priesthood, as of the old Couenant by the spirituall and euerlasting Priesthood of Christ, 8 And by the New couenant.

NOwe of the things which wee haue spoken, this is the summe, that wee haue such an hie Priest, that sitteth at the right hand of the throne of the Maiestie in heauens,

2 And is a minister of the [a] Sanctuary, and a That is, heauen.

b Which is the body of Christ.
c For else it should be corruptible.
d Hee proueth that Christs body is the true Tabernacle, and that he must needes be made man, to the intent that hee might haue a thing to offer, which was his body. Exod. 25.40. Act. 7.44.
e Seeing the offerings of the Leuites were but shadowes of heauenly things, as appeareth by the oracle to Moses, it followeth then that Christs heauenly Sanctuary, his tabernacle and office are farre more excellent.

and of the true [b] Tabernacle, which the Lord pight, and not [c] man.

3 For [d] euery high Priest is ordained to offer both gifts & sacrifices: wherfore it was of necessitie, that this man should haue somewhat also to offer.

4 For he were not a Priest, if he were on the earth, seeing there are Priests that according to the Law offer gifts,

5 Who serue vnto the paterne & shadow of heauenly things, as Moses was warned by God, when hee was about to finish the Tabernacle. *See, said hee, that thou make all things according to the [e] paterne shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But now our hie Priest hath obtained a more excellent office, in as much as hee is the ‖ Mediator of a better Testament, which is established vpon better promises.

7 For if that first Testament had bene faultlesse, no place should haue bene sought for the second.

8 For in rebuking them hee sayeth, *Behold, the dayes will [f] come, sayeth the Lord, when I shall make with the house of Israel, and with the house [g] of Iuda a newe Testament:

9 Not like the Testament that I made with their fathers, in the day that I tooke them by the hande, to leade them out of the lande of Egypt: for they [h] continued not in my Testament, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the Testament that I will make with the house of Israel, After those dayes, saith the Lorde, I will put my lawes in their minde, and in their heart I will write them, and I will bee their God, and they shall be my people:

11 And they shall not [i] teach euery man his neighbour, and euery man his brother, saying, Know the Lorde: for all shall knowe mee, from the least of them to the greatest of them.

12 For I will bee mercifull to their vnrighteousnesse, and I will remember their sinnes and their iniquities no more.

13 In that hee saith a newe Testament, hee hath abrogate the olde: nowe that which is disanulled and waxed olde, is ready to vanish away.

CHAP. IX.

1 Howe that the ceremonies and sacrifices of the Lawe are abolished 11 by the eternitie and perfection of Christes sacrifice.

THen the first ‖ Testament had also ordinances of religion, and a [a] worldly Sanctuarie.

2 For the first * Tabernacle was made, wherein was the candlesticke, and the table, and the shewbread, which Tabernacle is called the holy places.

3 And after the [b] second vaile was the Tabernacle, which is called the Holiest of all,

4 Which had the golden censer, and the Arke of the Testament ouerlayde round about with golde, wherein the golden potte which had Manna was, and * Aarons rod that had budded, and the * Tables of the Testament.

5 *And ouer the Arke were the glorious Cherubims, shadowing the ‖ Mercie seate: of which things we will not now speake particularly.

6 Nowe when these things were thus ordeined, the Priestes went alwayes into the first Tabernacle, and accomplished the seruice.

7 But into the seconde went the * high Priest alone, once euery yeere, not without blood which hee offered for himselfe, and for the ignorances of the people.

8 Whereby the holy Ghost this signified, that the [c] way into the Holiest of all was not yet opened, while as yet the first tabernacle was standing,

9 Which was a figure for the time present, wherein were offered giftes and sacrifices that could not make [d] holy, concerning the conscience, him that did the seruice,

10 Which only stood in meates & drinkes, and diuers washings, and [e] carnall rites, vntill the time of [f] reformation.

11 But Christ being come an hie Priest of good things to come, by a greater and a more perfect [g] Tabernacle, not made with hands, that is, not of this building, 12 Neither by the blood of goates and calues: but by his owne blood entred hee in once vnto the [h] holy place, [i] and obteined eternall redemption for vs.

13 *For if the [k] blood of bulles & of goats, and the ashes of an heifer, sprinkling them that are vncleane, sanctifieth as touching the purifying of the [l] flesh,

14 Howe much more shall the * blood of Christ, which through the eternall spirite offered himselfe without spot to God, purge your conscience from [m] dead works, [n] to serue the liuing God?

15 And for this cause is hee the Mediator of the newe Testament, that through [o] death which was for the redemption of the transgressions that were in the [p] former Testament, they which were called might receiue the promise of eternall inheritance.

16 For where a Testament is, there must be the death of him that made the Testament.

17 * For the [q] Testament is confirmed when men are dead: for it is yet of no force as long as he that made it, is aliue.

18 Wherefore, neither was the first ordeined without [r] blood.

k The Leuiticall Priest offered beastes blood, but Christ the true and eternall Priest offered his owne blood, which was most holy and pure: the Leuiticall Priest offered yeerely, and therefore did onely represent the true holinesse: but Christ by one onely sacrifice hath made holy for euer all them that beleeue. l Outwardly in the sight of man. 1. Peter 1.19. 1. Iohn 1.7. reuelation 1.5.

o He proueth that Christ must die, because the Couenant or Testament is of none effect without the death of the Testator.
p Without the death of beasts that were sacrificed, which signified that Christ would pacifie his Fathers wrath with his blood.

19 For when Moses had spoken euery precept to the people, according to the Law, hee tooke the blood of calues and of goates, with water and purple wooll and hyssope, and sprinckled both the booke, and all the people, Exod. 24. 8.

20 * Saying, This is the blood of the Testament, which God hath appointed vnto you.

21 Moreouer, hee sprinkled likewise the Tabernacle with blood also, and all the ministring vessels.

22 And almost al things are by the Law purged with blood, and without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was then necessary, that the similitudes of heauenly things should be purified with such things: but the heauenly things themselues are purified with better q sacrifices then are these.

q Albeit there is but one sacrifice, which is Christ himselfe once offered, yet because this true and eternall sacrifice is compared with al those which were figuratiue, and is more sufficient then all they, therefore he calleth it in the plurall number, Sacrifices.

24 For Christ is not entred into the holy places that are made with hands, which are ‖ Or, paterns. similitudes of the true Sanctuarie: but is entred into very heauen, to appeare now in the sight of God for vs, r Therefore to make any other offring or sacrifice for sinne after that Christs body was once offred, is blasphemie.

25 Not that he should offer himselfe r often, as the high Priest entred into the holy place euery yeere with other blood, 26 (For then must he haue often suffered since the foundation of the worlde) but now in the s end of the world hath hee appeared once to put away sinne, by the sacrifice of himselfe.

s Which is the latter daies when Christ came. Rom. 5. 8. 1. pet. 3. 18.

28 So * Christ was once offered to take away the sinnes of t many, & vnto them that looke for him, shal he appeare the second time u without sinne vnto saluation.

u That is, without a sacrifice for sinne: or sinne abolished.

CHAP. X.

b Which are eternall.

2 For would they not then haue ceased to haue bene offred, because that the offerers once purged, should haue had no more conscience of sinnes?

3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance againe of sinnes euery yeere,

4 For it is vnpossible that the blood of buls and goates should * take away sinnes.

5 Wherefore when hee c commeth into the world, he sayeth, * Sacrifice and offring thou wouldest not: but a d body hast thou ordained me.

Psal. 40. 6, 7.

9 Then sayd he, Loe, I come to doe thy will, O God, he taketh away f the first, that he may establish the g second.

f That is, sacrifices.

g Which is the will of God to stand content with Christs sacrifice.

10 By the which will we are sanctified, euen by the offering of the body of Iesus Christ once made.

Chap. 1. 13. Psal. 110. 1. 1. cor. 15. 25. chap. 1. 13.

11 And euery Priest appeareth daily ministring, and oft times offereth one maner of offring, which can neuer take away sinnes:

12 But this man after he had offered one sacrifice for sinnes, * sitteth for euer at the right hand of God, 13 And from henceforth tarieth * till his enemies be made his footestoole.

h That is, sanctified to God and made perfect. Iere. 31. 33, chap. 8. 8, 10. rom. 11. 27.

14 For with one offering hath h he consecrated for euer them that are sanctified.

15 For the holy Ghost also beareth vs record: for after that he had said before,

16 * This is the Testament that I will make vnto them, After those dayes, saith the Lord, I will put my lawes in their heart, and in their mindes I will write them, i Where there remaine no sinnes to be forgiuen, there is no more sacrifice: seeing therefore that onely Christes death hath washed away al sinnes, and doeth euer afresh when sinners doe repent, there can be none other sacrifice but that, and it can be no more reiterated.

17 And their sinnes and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now where i remission of these things is, there is no more k offring for sinne.

k For the offering of thankesgiuing, which is the onely sacrifice now of the Christians, is not for sinne: but a thankesgiuing and an offering vp of our selues and ours for the same.

19 Seeing therefore, brethren, that by the blood of Iesus we l may be bold to enter into the holy place, l We by Christ haue that libertie which the ancient fathers could not haue by the Law.

20 By the new, and m liuing way, which he hath prepared for vs, through the vaile, that is, his flesh:

m The blood of Christ is alwayes fresh and liuely before the Father to sprinkle and quicken vs.

21 And seeing we haue an high Priest, which is ouer the house of God, 22 Let vs draw neere with a true heart in assurance of faith, n sprinkled in our hearts from an euill conscience, and washed in our bodies with pure water.

n That is, hauing our hearts made pure.

23 Let vs keep the profession of our hope, without wauering (for hee is faithfull that promised)

24 And let vs consider one another, to prouoke vnto loue, and to good workes, 25 Not forsaking the fellowship that we haue among our selues, as the maner of some is: but let vs exhort one another, and that so much the more, because ye see that the o day draweth neere.

o Of Christs second comming. Chap. 6. 4.

21 And so terrible was the sight which appeared, that Moses said, I feare & quake)

22 But ye are come vnto the mount l Sion, and to the citie of the liuing God, the m celestiall Ierusalem, and to the company of innumerable * Angels,

23 And to the congregation of the first borne, which are written in heauen, and to God the iudge of all, and to the spirites of iust and perfect men,

24 And to Iesus the Mediatour of the new Testament, and to the blood of sprinckling that speaketh better things then that of * Abel.

25 See that ye despise not him that speaketh: for if they escaped not which refused him that spake on o earth: much more shall we not escape, if wee turne away from him, that speaketh from heauen.

26 Whose voyce then shooke the earth, and now hath declared, saying, * Yet once more will I shake, not the earth onely, but also heauen.

27 And this worde, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things which are shaken, as of things which are made with hands, that the things which are not shaken, may remaine.

28 Wherefore seeing we receiue a kingdome, which cannot be shaken, let vs haue grace whereby wee may so serue God, that we may please him with reuerence & feare.

29 For * euen our God is a p consuming fire.

CHAP. XIII.

1 He exhorteth vs to loue, 2 To hospitalitie, 3 To thinke vpon such as bee in aduersitie, 4 To maintaine wedlocke, 5 To eueyde couetousnes, 7 To make much of them that preach Gods worde, 9 To beware of strange learning, 13 To be content to suffer rebuke with Christ, 15 To be thankefull vnto God, 17 And obedient vnto our gouernours.

1 Let brotherly loue continue.

2 Be not forgetfull to lodge strangers: for thereby some haue * receiued Angels into their houses vnwares.

3 Remember them that are in bonds, as though yee were bound with them: and them that are in affliction, as if ye were also afflicted in the body.

4 a Marriage is honourable among all, and the bed vndefiled: but whoremongers and aduulterers God will iudge.

5 Let your conuersation be without couetousnesse, & be content with those things that yee haue: for b he hath sayd, * I will not faile thee, neither forsake thee:

6 So that we may boldly say, * The Lord is mine helper, neither will I feare what man can doe vnto me.

7 Remember them which haue the ouersight of you, which haue declared vnto you the worde of God: whose faith follow, considering what hath beene the ende of their conuersation.

8 Iesus Christ c yesterday, and to day, the same also is for euer.

9 Be not caried about with diuerse and strange d doctrines: for it is a good thing that the heart be stablished with grace, and not with e meates, which haue not profited them that haue beene occupied therein.

10 We haue an altar, whereof they haue no authoritie to eate, which serue in the tabernacle.

11 * For the bodies of those beasts whose blood is brought into the holy place by the hie Priest for sinne, are s burnt without the campe.

12 Therefore euen Iesus, that he might sanctifie the people with his owne blood, suffered without the gate.

13 Let vs goe forth therefore out of the campe, bearing his reproch.

14 * For here haue wee no continuing citie: but we seeke one to come.

15 Let vs therefore by him offer the sacrifice of praise alwayes to God, that is, the * fruite of the lippes, which confesse his Name.

16 * To do good, and to distribute, forget not: for with such sacrifices God is pleased.

17 Obey them that haue the ouersight of you, and submit your selues: for they watch for your soules, as they that must giue accounts, that they may doe it with ioy, and not with griefe: for that is vnprofitable for you.

18 Pray for vs: for we are assured that we haue a good conscience in all things, desiring to liue honestly.

19 And I desire you somewhat the more earnestly, that yee so doe, that I may be restored to you more quickly.

20 The God of peace that brought againe from the dead our Lorde Iesus, the great i shepheard of the sheepe through the blood of the euerlasting Couenant, 21 Make you perfect in all good workes, to doe his will, working in you that which is pleasant in his sight, through Iesus Christ, to whom be praise for euer and euer, Amen.

22 I beseech you also, brethren, suffer the wordes of exhortation: for I haue written vnto you in few words.

23 Know that our brother Timotheus is deliuered, with whom (if he come shortly) I will see you.

24 Salute all them that haue the ouersight of you, and all the Saints. They of Italy salute you.

25 Grace be with you all, Amen.

THE ARGVMENT.

IAmes the Apostle and sonne of Alpheus wrote this Epistle to the Iewes which were conuerted to Christ, but dispersed throughout diuers countreys, and therefore hee exhorteth them to patience and prayer, to imbrace the true worde of God, and not to be partiall, neither to boast of an idle faith, faith, but to declare a true faith by liuely fruites, to auoid ambition, to bridle the tongue, to rule the affections, to bee humble and loue their neighbours, to beware of swearing, to vtter their faults when they haue offended, to pray one for another, and to bring him which is out of the way, to the knowledge of Christ.

CHAP. I.

1 He exhorteth to reioyce in trouble, 6 To bee feruent in prayer with stedfast beliefe, 17 To looke for all good things from aboue, 21 To forsake all vice, and thankefully to receiue the word of God, 22 Not onely hearing it, and speaking of it, but to doe thereafter indeede. 27 What true religion is.

IAmes a seruant of God, and of the Lord Iesus Christ, to the twelue Tribes which are scattered abroad, saluation.

2 My brethren, count it exceeding ioy, when yee fall into diuers ‖tentations,

3 *Knowing that the [a] trying of your faith bringeth forth patience.

4 And let patience haue her [b] perfect worke, that yee may bee perfect and entire, lacking nothing.

5 If any of you lacke [c] wisedome, let him aske of God, which giueth to all men liberally, and reproacheth no man, and it shall bee giuen him.

6 *But let him aske in faith, and wauer not: for he that wauereth, is like a waue of the sea, tost of the wind and caried away.

7 Neither let that man thinke that hee shall receiue any thing of the Lord.

8 A [d] ‖wauering minded man is vnstable in all his wayes.

9 Let the brother of low degree reioice in that he is [e] exalted:

10 Againe hee that is rich, in that hee is made [f] lowe: for as the flower of the grasse shall he * vanish away.

11 For as when the sunne riseth with heat, then the grasse withereth, and his flower falleth away, and the beautie of the fashion of it perisheth: euen so shall the rich man fade away in all his ‖wayes.

12 *Blessed is the man that endureth tentation: for when he is tried, he shall receiue the crowne of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that loue him.

13 Let no man say when he is ‖tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot bee tempted with euill, neither tempteth he any man.

14 But euery man is tempted, when hee is drawen away by his owne concupiscence, and is entised.

15 Then when lust hath conceiued, it bringeth forth sinne, and sinne when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

16 Erre not, my deere brethren.

17 Euery good [h] giuing, & euery perfect gift is from aboue, & commeth downe from the Father of lights, with whome is no variablenesse: neither shadowing by turning.

18 Of his owne will begate he vs with the word of truth, that we should be as the first fruites of his creatures.

19 Wherefore my deare brethren, * let euery man be [k] swift to heare, slow to speak, and [l] slow to wrath.

20 For the wrath of man worketh not accomplish [m] the righteousnes of God.

21 Wherefore lay apart all filthinesse, and superfluitie of malicetousnes, and receiue with meekenes the word that is [n] grafted in you, which is able to saue your soules.

22 *And be ye doers of the word, and not hearers onely, deceiuing your owne selues.

23 For if any heare the word, and doe it not, he is like vnto a man, that beholdeth his naturall face in a [o] glasse.

24 For when hee hath considered himselfe, he goeth his way, and forgetteth immediatly what maner of one he was.

25 But who so looketh in the perfect Law of libertie, and continueth therein, hee not being a forgetfull hearer, but a doer of ỹ worke, shalbe blessed [p] in his deede.

26 If any man among you seemeth religious, and refraineth not his tongue, but deceiueth his owne heart, this mans religion is vaine.

27 Pure religion & vndefiled before God, euen the Father, is this, to visite the fatherlesse and widowes in their aduersitie, and to keepe himselfe vnspotted of the world.

CHAP. II.

1 Hee forbiddeth to haue any respect of persons, 5 But to regard the poore as well as the rich, 8 To be louing and mercifull, 14 And not to boast of faith, where no deedes are: 17 For it but a dead faith, where good workes follow not.

MY brethren, haue not the faith of our glorious Lord Iesus Christ [a] in ‖respect of persons.

2 For if there come into your company a man with a golde ring, and in goodly apparell, and there come in also a poore man in vile raiment,

3 And ye haue a respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say vnto him, Sit thou here in a good place, and say vnto the poore, Stand thou there, or sit here vnder my footestoole,

4 Are ye not partiall in your selues, and are become iudges of euill [b] thoughts?

5 Hearken my beloued brethren, hath not [c] God chosen the poore of this worlde, that they should be rich in faith, and heires of the kingdome which hee promised to them that loue him?

6 But ye haue despised the poore. Do not the rich oppresse you by tyrannie, and do not they draw you before the iudgement seates?

7 Doe not they blaspheme the [d] worthy Name after which ye be named?

8 But if ye fulfil the [e] royal law according to the Scripture, which sayeth, * Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe, ye doe well.

9 *But if yee regard the persons, ye commit sinne, and are rebuked of the Lawe, as transgressors.

10 For *whosoeuer shall keepe the whole

[e] Which is here takē prouerbially, for ỹ nie or broad way wherin there is no turnings, & euery man can go: so euery man is our neighbour, as well the poore as the rich.

[f] Or, contemptible to the world. Eccles.14.18.isa. 40.6.1.pet.1.24.

[g] He meaneth now of ỹ inward tentations, as of our disordred appetites, which cause vs to sinne.

[h] Seeing al good things come of God, we ought not to make him ỹ author of euil.

[i] He alludeth vnto the Sunne, which in his course and turning sometime is cleare and bright, sometime darke and cloudie: but Gods liberalitie is euer like it selfe, bright and continually shining.

[k] That is, prompt to learne.

Pro.17.27. ‖Or, afflictions. Rom.5.3. [a] Afflictions trie our faith, and ingender patience. 11 For he that sayd, * Thou shalt not commit adultery, sayd also, Thou shalt not kill. Nowe though thou doest none adultery, yet if thou killest, thou art a transgressour of the Law.

f By the mercy of God which deliuereth vs from the curse of the Lawe.

12 So speake yee, and so doe, as they that shall be iudged by the f Law of liberty.

g And feareth it not.

13 For there shalbe iudgement merciles to him that sheweth no mercie, and mercie reioyceth against iudgement.

h S. Paul to the Romanes and Galatians, disputeth against them, which attributed iustification to works: and here S. Iames reasoneth against them which vterly condemne workes: therfore Paul sheweth the causes of our iustification, and Iames the effects: there it is declared how we are iustified: here howe wee are knowen to be iustified: there works are excluded as not the cause of our iustification: here they are approoued as effects proceeding therof: there they are denied to goe before them that shall be iustified: and here they are sayd to follow them that are iustified.

14 What auaileth it, my brethren, though a man saith he hath h faith, when he hath no workes? can the faith saue him?

Luke 3.11. 1 ioh 3.17.

15 For if a brother or a sister bee * naked and destitute of daily foode, i In thine owne opinion.

16 And one of you say vnto them, Depart in peace: warme your selues, and fill your bellies, notwithstanding yee giue them not those things which are needeful to the bodie, what helpeth it?

17 Euen so the faith, if it haue no workes, is dead in it selfe.

18 But some man might say, Thou hast the faith, and I haue works: shewe me thy faith out of thy ‖ k workes, and I will shewe thee my faith by my works.

‖Or, without workes.

19 Thou beleeuest that there is one God: thou doest well: the deuils also beleeue it, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou vnderstand, O thou vaine man, that the faith which is without works, is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father iustified through workes, when hee offered Isaac his sonne vpon the altar?

22 Seest thou not that the faith l wrought with his workes? and through the workes was the faith made m perfite.

23 And the Scripture was fulfilled which sayth, * Abraham beleeued God, and it was imputed vnto him for righteousnesse: and he was called the friend of God.

24 Ye see then how that of works a man is n iustified, and not o of faith only.

25 Likewise also was not * p Rahab the harlot iustified through works, when she had receiued the messengers, and sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, euen so the faith without workes is dead.

k Here deedes are considered as ioyned with true faith. l So that faith was not idle. m The more his faith was declared by his obedience and good works, the more was it knowen to men to be perfect, as the goodnesse of a tree is knowen by her good fruite, otherwise no man can haue perfection in this world: for euery man must pray for remission of his sinnes, and increase of faith. Gen.15.6. rom.4.3. gal. 3.6. n Is so knowen and declared to man. o Of that barren and dead faith whereof ye boast. Iosh.2.1. p Meaning hereby all them that were not Iewes, and were receiued to grace. q Wherefore we are iustified onely by that liuely faith, which doeth apprehend the mercy of God toward vs in Iesus Christ.

CHAP. III.

1 He forbiddeth al ambition to seeke honour about our brethren. 3 How describeth the propertie of the tongue. 15.16. And what difference there is betwixt the wisedom of God, and the wisedom of the world.

My brethren, be not * many maisters, knowing that we shal receiue the greater condemnation.

Or, stumble.

2 For in many things we ‖ b sinne all. If any man sinne not in c worde, he is a perfite man, and able to bridle all the body.

3 Beholde, wee put bits into the horses mouthes, that they should obey vs, and we turne about all their body.

4 Behold also the ships, which though they bee so great, and are driuen of fierce windes, yet are they turned about with a very small rudder, whithersoeuer the gouernour listeth.

5 Euen so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth of great things: beholde, howe great a ‖ thing a little fire kindleth.

‖Or, matter,

6 And the tongue is fire, yea, a d worlde of wickednesse: so is the tongue set among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and e setteth on fire the course of nature, and it is set on fire of hell.

7 For the whole nature of beasts, and of birds, and of creeping things, and things of the sea is tamed, and hath bene tamed of the nature of man.

8 But the tongue can no man tame. It is an vnruly euill, full of deadly poyson.

9 Therewith blesse we God euen the father, and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of one mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing: my brethren, these things ought not so to be.

11 Doeth a fountaine send foorth at one place sweete water and bitter?

12 Can the fig tree, my brethren, bring foorth oliues, either a vine figs? so can no fountaine make both salt water and sweete.

13 Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shewe by good conuersation his workes in meekenesse of wisedome.

14 But if yee haue bitter enuying, and strife in your hearts, reioice not, neither bee lyars against the truth.

15 This wisedome descendeth not from aboue, but is earthly, sensuall, and deuillish.

16 For where enuying and strife is, there is sedition, and all maner of euill workes.

17 But the wisedome that is from aboue, is first f pure, then peaceable, gentle, easie to bee intreated, full of mercie and good fruits, without g iudging, and without hypocrisie.

18 And the h fruite of righteousnesse is sowen in peace, of them that make peace.

a Vsurpe not through ambition, authority ouer your brethren.

b He that well considereth himselfe, shall not be rigorous toward his brethren. Eccles.14.1. and 19,16. and 25.8.

c He that is able to moderate his tongue, hath attained to an excellent vertue.

d An heape, and full measure of all iniquitie.

e The intemperancie of the tongue, is as a flame of hel fire.

f Without mixtion and dissimulation.

g And examining things with extreme rigour as hypocrites, who only iustifie themselues, and condemne all others.

h So that their life is according to their profession.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Hauing shewed the cause of all wrong and wickednesse, and also of all graces and goodnesse, 4 He exhorteth them to loue God, 7 And submit themselues to him, 11 Not speaking euill of their neighbours, 13 But patiently to depend on Gods prouidence.

From whence are warres and contentions a mongs you? are they not hence, euen of your lusts, that * fight in your members?

a For the law of the mēbers continually fighteth against the Law of the minde.

2 Ye lust, and haue not: ye enuy, & hate indignation, and cannot obtaine: yee fight and and warre, and get nothing, because ye aske not.

3 Ye aske and receiue not, because ye aske amisse, that yee might consume it on your lusts.

b He calleth adulterers here, after the maner of the Scriptures, them which prefer the pleasures of the world to the loue of God. 1. Iohn 2.15.

4 Ye adulterers & b adulteresses, know ye not that the amity of the world is the enimitie of God? * Whosoeuer therefore will be a friend of the world, maketh himselfe the enemy of God.

c The imagination of mans heart is wicked, Gen.6.5. and 8.21. Prou.3.34. 1.pet.5.5. Ephe.4.27.

5 Do ye thinke that the Scripture sayth in vaine, The c spirit that dwelleth in vs, lusteth after enuy?

d The Greeke word signifieth that heauinesse, which is ioyned with a certaine shamefastnesse, as appeareth in the countenance. 1. Pet.5.6.

6 But the Scripture offereth more grace, and therfore saith, * God resisteth the proud, and giueth grace to the humble.

e In vsurping the authoritie of iudging, which is due to the law.

7 * Submit your selues to God: resist the deuill, and he will flee from you.

f He sheweth that this seuere iudging of others is to depriue God of his authority. Rom.14.4.

8 Draw neere to God, and he will draw neere to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners, and purge your hearts, yee wauering minded.

g We ought to submit our selues to the prouidence of God, 9 Suffer afflictions, and d sorow ye, and weepe: let your laughter bee turned into mourning, and your ioy into heauinesse.

10 * Cast downe your selues before the Lord, and he will lift you vp.

Acts 18.21. 1.cor.4.19.

11 Speake not euill one of another, brethren. He that speaketh euill of his brother, or hee that condemneth his brother, speaketh euill of the Law, and e condemneth the Lawe: and if thou condemnest the Lawe, thou art not an obseruer of the Lawe, but a iudge.

h He answereth to them, which sayd they knew what was good, but they would not do it, 12 There is one f Lawgiuer, which is able to saue, and to destroy. * Who art thou that iudgest another man?

13 Goe to now yee that say, g To day or to morow wee will goe into such a citie, and continue there a yeere, and buy and sell, and get gaine,

14 (And yet yee cannot tell what shall be to morow. For what is your life? It is euen a vapour that appeareth for a litle time, and afterward vanisheth away)

15 For that ye ought to say, * If the Lord will, and, If wee liue, we will doe this or that.

16 But now ye reioyce in your boastings: all such reioycing is euill.

17 Therefore, h to him that knoweth how to doe well, and doeth it not, to him it is sinne.

CHAP. V.

2 He threateneth the wicked rich men, 7 exhorteth vnto patience, 12 to beware of swearing, 16 one to knowledge his faults to another, 20 and one to labour to bring another to the trueth.

a He menaceth them w the vengeance of God, which shall not only make them to weepe, but to houle & despaire.

GOe to now, yee rich men: weepe, and a howle for your miseries that shall come vpon you.

b And kindle the wrath of God against you,

2 Your riches are corrupt, and your garments are motheaten.

3 Your golde and siluer is cankred, and the rust of them shall be a b witnesse against you, and shall eate your flesh as it were fire. * Yee haue heaped vp treasure for the last dayes. Rom.2.5.

c To suffice to the end of the world.

4 Behold, the hire of the labourers, which haue reaped your fields (which is of you kept backe by fraud) crieth, and the cries of them which haue reaped, are entred into the eares of the Lord of hosts.

5 Ye haue liued in pleasure on the earth, and in wantonnesse. Ye haue nourished your hearts, as in a day of d slaughter.

d Which were the dayes of the sacrifices or feasts when they vsed to banket & feed more abundantly then other dayes.

6 Ye haue condemned & haue killed the iust, and he hath not resisted you.

e Which is when the corne is sowen, and a litle before it is mowen.

7 Bee patient therefore, brethren, vnto the comming of the Lorde. Beholde, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, vntill he receiue the e former and the latter raine.

f Be not grieued nor aske vengeance. Mat.5.34.

8 Be ye also patient therefore, and settle your hearts: for the comming of the Lorde draweth neere.

g That which must be affirmed, affirme it simply, and without othe likewise that which must bee denied: by this hee taketh not from the magistrate his authoritie, who may require an oth for the maintenance of iustice, iudgement, and trueth.

9 f Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the iudge standeth before the doore.

10 Take, my brethren, the Prophets for an ensample of suffering aduersitie, & of long patience, which haue spoken in the Name of the Lord.

11 Beholde, we count them blessed which endure. Yee haue heard of the patience of Iob, and haue knowen what ende the Lord made. For the Lord is very pitifull and mercifull.

Or, hypocrisie.

12 But before all things, my brethren, * swe are not, neither by heauen, nor by earth, nor by any other othe: but let your ‖ yea, be yea, and your nay, nay, lest ye fall into ‖ condemnation.

h The gift of healing was then in the Church. Marke 6.13.

13 Is any among you afflicted? Let him pray. Is any merry? let him sing.

i Which in those dayes was a signe of the gift of healing, but now the gift being taken away, the signe is to no vse.

14 Is any sicke among you? Let him call for the k Elders of the Church, and let them pray for him, and anoint him with * i oile in the l Name of the Lord.

k In calling on the Name of the Lord.

15 And the prayer of faith shall saue the sicke, and the Lorde shall raise him vp: and if hee haue committed sinne, it shall be forgiuen him.

l Open that which grieueth you, that a remedy may be found: and this is commanded both for him that complaineth, and for him that heareth, that ‡ one should shew his griefe to the other. 1. King. 17.1. eccles. 48.3. luke 4.25.

16 Acknowledge l your faultes one to an other, and pray one for another, that yee may bee healed: for the prayer of a righteous man auaileth much, if it bee feruent.

17 * Helias was a man subiect to like passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not raine, and it rained not on the earth for three yeeres and sixe moneths.

18 And he prayed againe, and the heauen gaue raine, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

19 Brethren, if any of you haue erred from the trueth, and some man hath conuerted him, 20 Let him know that he which hath conuerted the sinner from going astray out of his way, shall saue a soule from death, and shall hide a multitude of sinnes.

THE

The first Epistle generall of Peter.

THE ARGVMENT.

HE exhorteth the faithfull to denie themselues, and to contemne the world, that being deliuered from all earnall affections and impediments, they may more speedily attaine to the heauenly kingdome of Christ, whereunto we are called by the grace of God reuealed to vs in his Sonne, and haue already receiued it by faith, possessed it by hope, and are therein confirmed by holines of life. And to the intent this faith should not faint, seeing Christ contemned and reiected almost of the whole world, hee declareth that this is nothing els but the accomplishing of the Scriptures which testifie that hee should be the stumbling stone to the reprobate, and the sure foundation of saluation to the faithfull: therefore he exhorteth them courageously to goe forward, considering what they were, and to what dignitie God hath called them. After, he entreateth particular points, teaching subiects how to obey their gouernours, and seruants their masters, and how married folkes ought to behaue themselues. And because it is appointed for all that are godly to suffer persecutions, he sheweth them what good issue their afflictions shall haue, and contrariwise what punishment God reserueth for the wicked. Last of all, he teacheth how the ministers ought to behaue themselues, forbidding them to vsurpe authoritie ouer the Church: also that yoong men ought to be modest, and apt to learne, and so endeth with an exhortation.

CHAP. I.

2 He sheweth that through the abundant mercy of God we are elect and regenerate to a liuely hope, 7 and how faith may be tried, 10 that the saluation of Christ is no newes, but a thing prophesied of olde. 13 Hee exhorteth them to a godly conuersation, forasmuch as they are now borne anew by the word of God.

PETER an Apostle of Iesus Christ, to [a] the strangers that dwell here and there throwout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia,

2 Elect according to the [b] foreknowledge of God the Father vnto sanctification of the spirit, [c] through obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Iesus Christ: Grace and peace be multiplied vnto you.

3 [*] Blessed bee God euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten vs again vnto a [d] liuely hope by the resurrection of Iesus Christ from the dead,

4 To an inheritance immortall and vndefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserued in [e] heauen for you,

5 Which are kept by the power of God through faith vnto saluation, which is prepared to be shewed in the [f] last time:

6 Wherein ye reioyce, though now for a season (if needs require) ye are in heauinesse, through manifold tentations,

7 That the triall of your faith, being much more precious then golde that perisheth (though it be tried with fire) might be found vnto your praise, and honour, and glory, at the [h] appearing of Iesus Christ:

8 Whom ye haue not seene, and yet loue him, in whom now, though ye see him not, yet doe you beleeue, and reioyce with ioy vnspeakable and glorious,

9 Receiuing the ‖ end of your faith, euen the saluation of your soules.

10 Of the which saluation the Prophets haue enquired and searched, which prophesied of the grace that should come vnto you,

11 Searching when or what time the spirit which testified before of Christ which was in them, should declare the sufferings that should come vnto Christ, and the glorie that should follow.

12 Vnto whom it was reuealed, that [i] not vnto themselues, but vnto vs they should minister the things that are nowe shewed vnto you by them which [*] haue preached vnto you the Gospell by the holy Ghost sent downe from heauen, the which things the Angels desire to beholde.

13 Wherefore, [k] gird vp the [*] loines of your minde: be sober, and trust perfectly on the grace that is brought vnto you, by the [l] reuelation of Iesus Christ,

14 As obedient children, not fashioning your selues vnto the former [m] lustes of your ignorance:

15 But as hee which hath called you, is holy, so be ye holy in [] all maner of conuersation, 16 Because it is written, [] Be ye holy, for I am holy.

17 And if ye call him Father, which with out [*] respect of person iudgeth according to euery mans [n] worke, passe the time of your dwelling here in feare,

18 Knowing that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as siluer and golde, from your vaine conuersation, receiued by the traditions of the [o] fathers, 19 [*] But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lambe vndefiled, and without spot.

20 Which was [*] ordained before the foundation of the world, but was declared in the [p] last times for your sakes.

21 Which by his meanes doe beleeue in God that raised him from the dead, and gaue him glory, that your faith and hope might.

9 *Not rendring euill for euill, neither rebuke for rebuke: but contrariwise blesse, knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should be f heires of blessing.

10 *For if any man long after life, and to see good dayes, let him refraine his tongue from euill, and his lippes that they speake no guile,

11 *Let him eschewe euill and doe good: let him seeke peace and follow after it.

12 For the eyes of the Lorde are ouer the righteous, and his eares are open vnto their prayers: and the face of the Lorde is vpon them that doe euill.

13 And who is he that will harme you, if ye follow that which is good?

14 *Notwithstanding blessed are yee, if ye suffer for righteousnes sake. Yea, b feare not their feare, neither be troubled.

16 *And that with meekenesse and reuerence, hauing a good conscience, that when they speake euill of you as of euill doers, they may be ashamed, which blame your good conuersation in Christ.

17 For it is better (if the will of God be so) that ye suffer for well doing, then for euill doing.

18 *For Christ also hath once suffered for sinnes, the iust for the vniust, that he might bring vs to God, and was put to death concerning the flesh, but was quickened in the k spirit.

19 By the which he also went, and preached vnto the spirits that are in prison, 20 Which were in time passed disobedient, when once the long suffering of God abode in the dayes of *Noe, while the Arke was preparing, wherein fewe, that is, eight ‖ soules were saued in the water.

22 Which is *at the right hande of God, gone into heauen, to whome the Angels, and powers, and might are subiect.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He exhorteth men to cease from sinne, 2 To spend no more time in vice, 7 To bee sober and apt to pray, 8 To loue each other, 12 to bee patient in trouble, 15 To beware that no man suffer as an euill doer, 16 But as a Christian man, and so not to be ashamed.

FOrasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for vs in the flesh, arme your selues likewise with the same a minde, which is that he which hath suffered in the flesh, hath ceased from sinne.

2 That he henceforward should liue (as much time as remaineth in the ‖ flesh) not after the lustes of men, but after the will of God.

3 *For it is sufficient for vs that we haue spent the time past of the life, after the lust of the Gentiles, walking in wantonnesse, lusts, drunkennesse, in gluttony, drinkings, and in abominable idolatries.

4 Wherein it seemeth to them strange, that yee runne not with them vnto the same excesse of riot: therefore speake they euill of you.

5 Which shall giue accounts to him, that is ready to iudge quicke and dead.

6 For vnto this purpose was the Gospel preached also vnto the b dead, that they might bee condemned according to men, in the flesh, but might liue according to God, in the spirit.

7 Now the ende of all things is at hand. Be yee therefore sober, and watching in prayer.

8 But aboue all things haue feruent loue among you: * for c loue couereth the multitude of sinnes.

9 *Be ye harborous one to another without grudging.

10 *Let euery man, as hee hath receiued the gift, minister the same one to another, as good dispolers of the manifolde grace of God.

11 If any man speake, let him talke as the wordes of God. If any man minister, let him doe it as of the abilitie which God ministreth, that God in all things may be glorified through Iesus Christ, to whom is praise and dominion for euer and euer, Amen.

12 Dearely beloued, thinke it not strange concerning the fierie triall, which is among you, to proone you, as though some strange thing were come vnto you:

13 But reioyce, in as much as yee are partakers of Christes sufferings, that when his glory shall appeare, ye may be glad and reioyce.

14 *If yee be railed vpon for the Name of Christ, blessed are ye: for the spirit of glorie, and of God, resteth vpon you: which on their d part is euill spoken of: but on your part is glorified.

15 But let none of you suffer as a murtherer, or as a theefe, or an euill doer, or as a busie body in other mens matters.

16 But if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not bee ashamed: but let him glorifie God in this behalfe.

The second Epistle generall of Peter.

THE ARGVMENT.

THe effect of the Apostle here, is to exhort them which haue once professed the true faith of Christ, to stand to the same euen to the last breath: also that God by his effectuall grace towards men moueth them to holinesse of life, in punishing the hypocrites which abuse his Name, and increasing his gifts in the godly: wherefore by godly life, he being now almost at deaths doore, exhorteth them to approoue their vocation, not setting their affections on worldly things (as hee had oft written vnto them) but lifting their eyes toward heauen, as they be taught by the Gospel, whereof he is a cleere witnesse, chiefly in that hee heard with his owne eares that Christ was proclaimed from heauen to bee the Sonne of God, as likewise the Prophets testified. And least they should promise to themselues quietnes by professing the Gospel, hee warneth them both of troubles which they should sustaine by the false teachers, and also by the mockers and contemners of religion, whose maners & trade hee liuely setteth forth as in a table, aduertising the faithfull not onely to waite diligently for Christ, but also to behold presently the day of his comming, and to preserue themselues vnspotted against the same.

CHAP. I.

4 Forasmuch as the power of God hath giuen the all things pertaining vnto life, he exhorteth them to flee the corruption of worldly lustes, 10 To make their calling sure with good works, & fruits of faith. 14 He maketh mention of his owne death, 17 Declaring the Lord Iesus to be the true Sonne of God as he himselfe had seene vpon the mount.

SImon Peter a seruant, and an Apostle of Iesus Christ, to you which haue obtained like precious faith with vs by the a righteousnesse of our God and Sauiour Iesus Christ:

a In that he declared himselfe iust and faithful in accomplishing his promise by Christ.

2 Grace and peace be multiplied to you, by the knowledge of God and of Iesus our Lord,

3 According as his b godly power hath giuen vnto vs all things that pertaine vnto c life and godlines, d through the knowledge of him that hath called vs ‖ vnto glory and vertue.

b He speaketh of Christ as hee is God and Sauiour.

c That is, saluation.

d The summe of our saluation and religion is to be led by Christ to the Father, who calleth vs in the Sonne.

‖Or, through his glory.

4 Whereby most great, and precious promises are giuen vnto vs, ȳ by them ye should be partakers of the e godly nature, in that ye flee the corruption, which is in the world through lust.

e We are made partakers of the diuine nature, in that wee flee the corruption of the world, or as Paul writeth, are dead to sinne and are not in the flesh.

5 Therefore giue euen all diligence thereunto: ioyne moreouer f vertue with your faith: and with vertue, knowledge:

6 And

6 And with knowledge, temperance: and with temperance, patience: and with patience, godlinesse:

7 And with godlinesse, brotherly kindnesse: and with brotherly kindnesse, loue.

8 For if these things be among you, and abound, they will make you that ye neither shall be idle nor vnfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Iesus Christ.

9 For hee that hath not these things, is blind, and cannot see farre off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his olde sinnes.

10 Wherefore, brethren, giue rather diligence to make your calling & election h sure: for if ye doe these things, yee shall neuer i fall.

11 For by this meanes an entring shal be ministred vnto you abundantly into the euerlasting kingdome of our Lord and Sauiour Iesus Christ.

12 Wherefore, I will not be negligent to put you alwayes in remembrance of these things, though that ye haue knowledge, and be stablished in the present trueth.

13 For I thinke it meete as long as I am in this k tabernacle, to stirre you vp by putting you in remembrance, 14 Seeing I knowe that the time is at hand that I must lay downe this my tabernacle, euen as our Lord Iesus Christ hath * shewed me.

15 I will endeuour therefore alwaies, that ye also may be able to haue remembrance of these things after my departing.

16 For wee followed not * ‖ deceiuable fables, when wee opened vnto you the power, and comming of our Lord Iesus Christ, but with our eyes wee saw his maiestie:

17 For hee receiued of God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, * This is my beloued Sonne, in whom I am well pleased.

18 And this voice wee heard when it came from heauen, being with him in the l holy mount.

19 Wee haue also a more sure m worde of the Prophets, to the which ye do wel that ye take heede, as vnto a light that shineth in a darke place, vntill the n day dawne, and the o day starre arise in your hearts.

20 * So that yee first know this, that no prophesie in the Scripture is of p any priuate ‖ motion.

He propheſieth of falſe teachers, & ſheweth their puniſhment.

BVt there were false prophets also among the people, euen as there shall be false teachers among you: which priuily shall bring in damnable heresies, euen denying the Lord that hath bought them, and bring vpon themselues swift damnation.

2 And many shal follow their ‖ damnable ‖ Or, inſolent and wanton. waies, by whom the way of trueth shall bee euill spoken of,

3 And through couetousnesse shall they with fained wordes make a merchandise of you, whose iudgement long agone is not farre off, and their damnation slumbreth not.

4 For if God spared not the * Angels that had sinned, but cast them downe into hel, and deliuered them into chaines of darknesse, to be kept vnto damnation:

5 Neither hath spared the old world, but saued * Noe the eight person a preacher of righteousnesse, and brought in the flood vpon the world of the vngodly,

6 And * turned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrhe into ashes, condemned them and ouerthrew them, and made them an ensample vnto them that after should liue vngodly,

7 * And deliuered iust Loth vexed with the vncleanly conuersation of the wicked,

8 (For he being righteous, and dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soule from day to day with their vnlawfull deedes.)

9 The Lord knoweth to deliuer the godly out of tentation, and to reserue the vniust vnto the day of iudgement to bee punished:

10 And chiefly them that walke after the flesh, in the lust of vncleannesse, and despise the gouernement, which are presumptuous, and stand in their owne conceit, and feare not to speake euill of them that are in dignitie.

12 But these, as c brute beastes, led with sensualitie, & made to be taken, and destroyed, speake euill of those things which they know not, and shal perish through their own corruption,

13 And shall receiue the wages of vnrighteousnesse, as they which count it pleasure to liue deliciously for a season. Spots they are and blots, d delighting themselues in their deceiuings, in feasting with you,

14 Hauing eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease to sinne, beguiling vnstable soules: they haue hearts exercised with couetousnes, cursed children,

THis second Epistle I nowe write vnto you, beloued, wherewith a I stirre vp, and warne your pure mindes,

2 To call to remembrance the woordes, which were tolde before of the holy Prophets, and also the commaundement of vs the Apostles of the Lord and Sauiour.

3 * This first vnderstand, that there shall come in the last dayes, mockers, which will walke after their lusts,

4 And say, Where is the promise of his comming? for since the fathers died, all things continue alike from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they b willingly knowe not, that the heauens were of olde, and the earth that was of the water and by the water, by the woord of God.

6 Wherefore the c world that then was, perished, ouerflowed with the water.

7 But the heauens and earth, which are now, are kept by the same woord in store, and reserued vnto fire against the day of iudgement, & of the destruction of vngodly men.

a For wee fall quickly asleepe, and forget that which we are taught. 2. Tim. 4.1.2. tim. 3.1. iude 18.

b He meaneth them which had once professed Christian religion, but became afterward contemners & mockers, as Epicures and Atheists.

c As touching the beauty thereof, and things which were therein, except them which were in the Arke.

8 Dearely beloued, bee not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord, * as a thousand yeres, and a thousand yeres as one day.

9 The Lord is not slacke concerning his promise (as some men count slackenesse) but is patient towards vs, and * d would haue no man to perish, but would all men to come to repentance.

10 * But the day of the Lord will come as a thiefe in the night, in the which the heauens shall passe away with a noise, & the elements shall melt with heat, and the earth with the woorks that are therein, shalbe burnt vp.

11 Seeing therefore that all these things must be dissolued, what maner persons ought ye to be in holy conuersation and godlinesse, 12 Looking for, & hasting vnto the comming of the day of God, by the which the heauens being on fire, shall be dissolued, and the elements shall melt with heat?

13 But we looke for * new heauens, and a new earth, according to his promise, wherein dwelleth righteousnesse.

14 Wherefore, beloued, seeing that yee looke for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in e peace, without spot, and blamelesse.

15 * And suppose that the long suffering of our Lord is saluation, euen as our beloued brother Paul according to the wisedome giuen vnto him wrote to f you,

16 As one, that in all his Epistles speaketh of these things: amog the which some things are s hard to be vnderstood, which they that are vnlearned and vnstable ‖ peruert, as they doe also other Scriptures vnto their owne destruction.

17 Ye therefore, beloued, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest yee be also plucked away with the error of the wicked, and fall from your owne stedfastnesse.

18 But growe in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord & Sauiour Iesus Christ: to him be glory both nowe and for euermore. Amen.

f Albeit his epistles were written to peculiar Churches, yet they coteine a generall doctrine appertaining to al men.

The first Epistle generall of Iohn.

THE ARGVMENT.

AFter that S. Iohn had sufficiently declared, how that our whole saluation doth consist onely in Christ, lest that any man should thereby take a boldnesse to sinne, he sheweth that no man can beleeue in Christ, vnlesse he doth endeuour himselfe to keepe his commandements, which thing being done, he exhorteth them to beware of false prophets, whom he calleth Antichrists, and to trie the spirits. Last of all, he doth earnestly exhort them vnto brotherly loue, and to beware of deceiuers.

CHAP. I.

2 True witnesse of the euerlasting word of God. 7 The blood of Christ is the purgation of sin. 10 No man is without sinne.

a That is, Christ, God eternall.

b That is, Christ being man,

THat which was a from the beginning, which wee haue b heard, which we haue seene with our eyes, which we haue looked vpon, and our hands haue handled of the woord of life,

2 (For the life appeared, and wee haue seene it, and beare witnesse, and shew vnto you the eternall life, which was d with the Father, and appeared vnto vs)

3 That, I say, which wee haue seene and heard, declare wee vnto you, that yee may also e haue fellowship with vs, and that our ing ioyned together in Christ by faith, should be the c Which giueth life, and had it in himselfe, John 1.4.

d Before all beginning.

e The effect of the Gospell is, that all we be our fellowship also may be with the Father, and with his Sonne Iesus Christ.

4 And these things write wee vnto you, that your ioy may be full.

5 This then is the message, which wee haue heard of him, and declare vnto you, that God * is light, and in him is no darkenesse.

Iohn 8.12.

f The fruits of our faith must declare whether we be ioyned in God or no: for God being the very purity and light, will not haue fellowship with them which lie in sinne and darkenesse.

6 If we say that we haue fellowship with him, and walke in darkenesse, we lie, and do not truly:

g In an euil conscience, and without the feare of God.

7 But if we walke in the light as hee is in the light, wee haue fellowship [b] one with another, and the * blood of Iesus Christ his Sonne cleanseth vs from all sinne.

8 * If we say that we haue no sinne, we deceiue our selues, and trueth is not in vs.

9 If we acknowledge our sinnes, he is faithfull and iust, to forgiue vs our sinnes, and to cleanse vs from all vnrighteousnesse.

10 If wee say wee haue not sinned, wee make him a liar, and his ‖ word is not in vs.

h That is, Christ with vs, and we with our selues. Heb 9.14. 1.pet. 1.19. reuel. 1.5.

i If wee be not ashamed, earnestly and openly to acknowledge our selues before God to be sinners. ‖Or, doctrine.

CHAP. II.

1 Christ is our aduocate. 10 Of true loue, and how it is tried. 18 To beware of Antichrist.

MY babes, these things write I vnto you, that ye sinne not: and if any man sinne, we haue an * Aduocate with the Father, Iesus Christ the Iust, a Christ is not onely aduocate and atonement: for the office of intercession and redemption are ioyned together.

2 And hee is the reconciliation for our sinnes: and not for ours onely, but also for the sinnes of [b] the whole world.

b That is, of the which haue embraced the Gospel by faith in all ages, degrees and places: for there is no saluation without Christ.

3 And hereby we are sure that we [c] know him, if we keepe his commandements.

c That is, by faith, and so obey him: for knowledge cannot be without obedience.

4 He that sayth, I know him, and keepeth not his commandements, is a liar, and the trueth is not in him.

5 But hee that keepeth his word, in him is [d] the loue of God perfect in deed: hereby we know that we are in him.

d Whereby he loueth God: so that to loue God is to obey his word. ‖Or, doctrine.

6 Hee that sayeth hee remaineth in him, ought euen so to walke, as he hath walked.

7 Brethren, I write no new ‖ commandement vnto you: but an olde commandement which yee haue had from the [e] beginning: the [f] olde commaundement is the word, which ye haue heard from the beginning.

e When the law was giuen.

f Loue thy neighbor as thy selfe, is the olde commandement taught in the Law: but when Christ, saith, So loue one another as I haue loued you, he giueth a new commandement onely as touching the forme, but not as touching the nature or substance of the precept. Chap. 3.23.

8 Againe, a newe commaundement I write vnto you, that which is true in him, and also in you: for the darkenesse is past, and the true light now shineth.

9 He that saith that he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkenesse vntill this time.

10 * He that loueth his brother, abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of euil in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother, is in darkenesse, and walketh in darkenesse, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkenesse hath blinded his eyes.

12 [g] Little children, I write vnto you, because your sinnes are forgiuen you for [h] his Names sake.

g Hee nameth all the faithfull children, as he doth their spirituall Father, attributing to olde men knowledge of great things, to yoong men stiength, to children obedience and reuerence to their gouernours.

h For Christes sake.

13 I write vnto you, fathers, because ye haue knowen him that is from the beginning. I write vnto you yoong men, because ye haue ouercome the ‖ wicked.

‖Or, the deuill.

14 I write vnto you, babes, because yee haue knowen the Father. I haue written vnto you, fathers, because ye haue knowen him, that is from the beginning. I haue written vnto you, yoong men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye haue ouercome the ‖ wicked.

‖Or, the deuill.

15 Loue not the [i] worlde, neither the things that are in the worlde. If any man loue the * worlde, the loue of the Father is not in him.

i As it is aduersary to God, Iames 4.4.

16 For all that is in the world (as the lust of the * flesh, the [l] lust of the eyes, and the [m] pride of life) is not of the Father, but is of the world.

k To liue in pleasure.

l Wantonnesse.

m Ambition and pride.

17 And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof, but he that fulfilleth the will of God, abideth euer.

18 Babes, it is the last time, and as ye haue heard that Antichrist shall come, euen now are there many Antichrists, whereby we know that it is the last time.

n Which seemed to haue bene of our number, because for a time they occupied a place in the Church.

19 [n] They went out from vs, but they were not of vs: for if they had beene of vs, they would haue continued with vs. But this commeth to passe, that it might appeare, that they are not all of vs.

20 But ye haue an [o] ointment from him, that is [p] holy, & ye haue knowen all things.

o The grace of the holy Ghost, p Which is Christ.

21 I [q] haue not written vnto you, because ye know not the truth: but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the trueth.

q In this Epistle which I nowe write vnto you.

22 Who is a liar, but hee that denieth that Iesus is [r] Christ? he same is the Antichrist that denieth the Father and the Sonne.

r He that taketh away or diminisheth either of the natures in Christ, or bee that confoundeth or separateth them, els he that putteth not difference betweene the person of the Sonne, and also he that beleeueth not to haue remission of sinnes by his onely sacrifice, denieth Christ to be the true Messias.

23 Whosoeuer denieth the Sonne, the same [s] hath not the Father †.

s Then the infidels worship not the true God.

24 Let therefore abide in you that same which yee haue heard from the beginning. If that which ye haue heard from the beginning, shall remaine in you, ye also shall continue in the Sonne, and in the Father.

† But he that confesseth the Sonne, hath also [t] Father.

25 And this is the promise that hee hath promised vs, euen eternall life.

t Christ communicateth himselfe vnto you, and teacheth you by the holy Ghost and his ministers. ‖Or, in Christ.

26 These things haue I written vnto you, concerning them that deceiue you.

27 But the anointing which yee receiued of him, dwelleth in you: and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same [u] anointing teacheth you of al things, and it is true, and is not lying, and as it taught you, ye shal abide ‖ in him.

u By this name he meaneth the whole Church of Christ in generall.

28 And nowe, [x] little children, abide in him, that when he shall appeare, we may be bolde, and not be ashamed before him at his comming.

x little children, abide in him, that when he shall appeare, we may be bolde, and not be ashamed before him at his comming.

29 If yee knowe that hee is righteous, know ye that he which doth righteously, is borne of him.

CHAP. III.

1 The singular loue of God toward vs, 7 And how we againe ought to loue one another.

BEhold, what loue the father hath shewed on vs, that wee should be [a] called the sonnes of God: for this cause the worlde knoweth you not, because it knoweth not him.

2 Dearely beloued, nowe are wee the sonnes of God, but yet it doeth not appeare what we shall be: and we know that when [b] he shall appeare, we shall be [c] like him: for we shall see him as he is.

3 And euery man that hath this hope in him, purgeth himselfe, euen as he is pure.

4 Whosoeuer [d] committeth sinne, transgresseth also the Law: for sinne is the transgression of the Law.

5 And ye know that he appeared that he might [*] take away our sinnes, and in him is no sinne.

6 Whosoeuer abideth in him sinneth not: whosoeuer sinneth, hath not seene him, neither hath knowen him.

7 Little children, let no man deceiue you: he that doeth righteousnesse, is righteous, as he is righteous.

8 Hee that [*] committeth sinne, is of the deuill: for the deuil sinneth from the [e] beginning: for this purpose appeared the Sonne of God, that he might loose the workes of the deuill.

9 Whosoeuer is borne of God, sinneth not: for [f] his seede remaineth in him, neither can he [g] sinne, because hee is borne of God.

10 In this are the children of God knowen, and the children of the deuill: whosoeuer doeth not righteousnesse, is not of God, neither he that [h] loueth not his brother.

11 For this is the message, that yee heard from the beginning, that we should [*] loue one another.

12 Not as [*] Cain which was of the wicked, and slewe his brother: and wherefore slewe he him? because his owne workes were euill, and his brothers good.

13 Marueile not, my brethren, though the world hate you.

14 We know that wee are translated from death vnto life, because wee [i] loue the brethren: [k] Hee that loueth not his brother, abideth in death.

15 Whosoeuer hateth his brother, is a manslayer: and ye know that no manslayer hath eternall life abiding in him.

16 [*] Hereby haue we perceiued loue, that hee layde downe his life for vs: therefore we ought also to lay downe our liues for the brethren.

17 [*] And whosoeuer hath this worldes good, and seeth his brother haue neede, and shutteth vp his compassion from him, how dwelleth the loue of God in him?

18 My little children, let vs not loue in word, neither in tongue onely, but in [h] deede and in trueth.

19 For thereby wee knowe that wee are of the trueth, and shall before him assure our hearts.

20 For if our [l] heart condemne vs, God is greater then our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 Beloued, if our heart condemne vs not, then haue we boldnesse toward God.

22 [*] And whatsoeuer wee aske, wee receiue of him, because we keepe his commandements, and doe those things which are pleasing in his sight.

23 [*] This is then his commaundement, That wee beleeue in the Name of his sonne Iesus Christ, and loue one another, as hee gaue commandement.

24 [*] For hee that keepeth his commandements, dwelleth in him, and hee in him: and hereby wee knowe that hee abideth in vs, euen by the spirit which hee hath giuen vs.

1 Difference of spirits. 2 How the spirit of God may be knowen from the spirit of errour. 7 Of the loue of God and of our neighbours.

DEarely beloued, beleeue not euery spirit, but trie the [a] spirits whether they are of God: for many false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby shal ye know the spirit of God, Euery spirite that confesseth that Iesus [b] Christ is come in the flesh, is of God.

3 And euery spirite which confesseth not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God: but this is the spirit of Antichrist, of whome yee haue heard, howe that hee should come, and [c] now already he is in the world.

4 Little children, ye are of God, and haue ouercome them: for greater is hee that is in you, then [d] he that is in the world.

5 They are of the world, therefore speake they of the worlde, and the world heareth them.

6 We are of God, [*] hee that knoweth God, [e] heareth vs: hee that is not of God, heareth vs not. Hereby know we the spirit of trueth, and the spirit of errour.

7 Beloued, let vs loue one another: for loue commeth of God, and euery one that loueth, is borne of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loueth not, knoweth not God: For God is loue.

9 [*] In this [f] appeared the loue of God toward vs, because God sent his only begotten Sonne into the worlde, that we might liue through him

10 Herein is loue, not that we loued God, but that he loued vs, and sent his Sonne to be a reconciliation for our sinnes.

11 Beloued, if God so loued vs, we ought also to loue one another.

12 [*] No man hath seene God at any time. If we loue one another, God dwelleth in vs, and his loue is perfect in vs.

13 Hereby knowe wee that we dwell in him, and he in vs: because hee hath giuen vs of his Spirit.

14 And wee haue seene and doe testifie, that the Father sent the Sonne to bee the Sauiour of the world.

15 Whosoeuer [b] confesseth that Iesus is the Sonne of God, in him dwelleth God, and he in God.

18 There is no k feare in loue, but perfect loue casteth out feare: for feare hath paynefulnesse: and he that feareth, is not perfect in loue.

19 We loue him, because he loued vs first.

20 If any man say, I loue God, and hate his brother, hee is a lyar: for l how can hee that loueth not his brother whom hee hath seene, loue God whom he hath not seene?

WHosoeuer beleeueth that Iesus is the Christ, is a borne of God, and euery one that loueth him which begate, loueth him which is begotten of him.

4 For all that is borne of God ouercommeth the world: and this is the victory that ouercommeth the world, euen our faith.

5 * Who is it that ouercommeth the world, but hee which beleeueth that Iesus is the Sonne of God?

6 This is that Iesus Christ that came by d water e and blood, not by water onely, but by water and blood: and it is the f spirit, that beareth witnesse: for the spirit is g trueth.

7 For there are three, which beare record in heauen, the Father, the Word, and the holy Ghost: and these three are one.

8 And there are three, which beare witnesse in earth, the spirite, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.

9 If we receiue the witnesse of men, the witnesse of God is greater: for this is the witnesse of God, which hee testified of his Sonne.

10 * He that beleeueth in the Sonne of God, hath the witnesse † in himselfe: he that beleeueth not God, hath made him a lyar, because hee beleeued not the record, that God witnessed of his Sonne.

11 And this is the record, that God hath giuen vnto vs eternall life, and this life is in his Sonne.

12 He that hath the Sonne, hath life: and hee that hath not the Sonne of God, hath not life.

13 These things haue I written vnto you, that beleeue in the Name of the Sonne of God, that ye may knowe that ye haue eternall life, and that yee may beleeue in the Name of the Sonne of God.

14 And this is the assurance, that wee haue in him, * that if we aske any thing according to his will, he heareth vs.

15 And if wee knowe that hee heareth vs, whatsoeuer we aske, wee knowe that we haue the petitions that we haue desired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sinne a sinne, that is not vnto death, let him aske, and he shall giue him life for them that sinne not h vnto death. * There is a sinne i vnto death: I say not that thou shouldest pray for it.

17 All vnrighteousnesse is sinne, but there is a sinne not vnto death.

18 We know that whosoeuer is borne of God, k sinneth not: but he that is begotten of God l, keepeth himselfe, and the m wicked n toucheth him not.

19 We know that we are of God, and the whole world o lieth in wickednesse.

20 But wee knowe that the Sonne of God is * come, and hath giuen vs a minde to knowe him, which is true: and wee are in him that is true, that is, in his Sonne Iesus Christ: this same is very p God, and eternall life.

21 Babes, keepe your selues from q idols, Amen.

He writeth vnto a certaine Ladie, 4 Reioycing that her children walke in the trueth, 5 And exhorteth them vnto loue, 7 Warneth them to beware of such deceiuers as denie that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, 8 Prayeth them to continue in the doctrine of Christ, 10 And to haue nothing to do with them that bring not the true doctrine of Christ Iesus our Sauiour.

THe Elder to the ‖ elect Ladie, and her children, whome I loue in a the trueth: and not I onely, but also all that haue knowen the trueth,

2 For the truths sake which dwelleth in vs, and shalbe with vs for euer:

3 Grace be with you, mercie and peace from God the Father, and from the Lorde Iesus Christ the sonne of the Father, with b trueth and loue.

4 I reioyced greatly, that I found of thy children walking c in trueth, as we haue receiued a commandement of the Father.

5 And now beseech I thee Lady, (not as writing a new commaundement vnto thee, but that same which we had from the beginning) that we * loue one another.

6 And this is the loue, that wee should walke after his ‖ commandements. This commaundement is, that as yee haue heard from the beginning, ye should walke in it.

7 For many deceiuers are entred into the world, which confesse not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh. Hee that is such one, is a deceiuer and an Antichrist.

The generall Epistle of Iude.

THE ARGVMENT.

SAint Iude admonisheth all Churches generally to take heed of deceiuers, which goe about to drawe away the hearts of the simple people from the trueth of God, and willeth them to haue no societie with such, whom he setteth foorth in their liuely colours, shewing by diuers examples of the Scriptures what horrible vengeance is prepared for them: finally, he comforteth the faithfull, & exhorteth them to perseuere in the doctrine of the Apostles of Iesus Christ.

IUDE a seruant of Iesus Christ, & brother of Iames, to them which are called and sanctified a of God the Father, and b reserued to Iesus Christ:
2 Mercy vnto you, and peace, and loue be multiplied.
3 Beloued, when I gaue all diligence to write vnto you of the common saluation, it was needfull for me to write vnto you, to exhort you, that yee should earnestly c contend for the maintenance of the faith, which was d once giuen vnto the Saints.
4 For there are certeine men crept in, which were before of olde e ordeined to this condemnation: vngodly men they are which turne the grace of our God into wantonnesse, and * denie God the onely Lord, and our Lord Iesus Christ.
5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, forasmuch as ye once knewe this, how that the Lord, after that he had deliuered the people out of Egypt, * destroyed them afterward which f beleeued not.
6 The * Angels also which kept not their first estate, but left their owne habitation, he hath reserued in euerlasting chaines vnder darkenesse vnto the g iudgement of the great day.
7 As * Sodome and Gomorrhe, and the cities about them, which in like maner as they did, committed fornication, and followed h strange flesh, are set foorth for an ensample, and suffer the vengeance of eternall fire.

8 Likewise notwithstanding these i dreamers also defile the flesh, and despise gouernment, and speake euill of them that are in authoritie.

9 Yet k Michael the Archangel, when he stroue against the deuill, and disputed about the body of Moses, durst not blame him with cursed speaking, but said, l The Lord rebuke thee.

☙ The Reuelation of ‖ Iohn the Diuine.

‖ Or, declared to Iohn.

THE ARGVMENT.

IT is manifest, that the holy Ghost would, as it were, gather into this most excellent Booke a summe of those prophesies, which were written before, but should be fulfilled after the comming of Christ, adding also such things as should bee expedient, as well to forewarne vs of the dangers to come, as to admonish vs to beware some, and encourage vs against others. Herein therefore is liuely set foorth the diuinitie of Christ, and the testimonies of our redemption: what things the Spirit of God alloweth in the ministers, and what things he reproueth: the prouidence of God for his elect, and of their glory and consolation in the day of vengeance: howe that the hypocrites which sting like scorpions the members of Christ, shalbe destroyed. But the Lambe Christ shall defend them which beare witnesse to the trueth, who in despight of the beast and Satan will reigne ouer all. The liuely description of Antichrist is set foorth, whose time and power notwithstanding is limited: and albeit that he is permitted to rage against the elect, yet his power stretcheth no further then to the hurt of their bodies: and at length hee shall be destroyed by the wrath of God, when as the elect shall giue praise to God for the victorie: neuertheleſſe, for a season God will permit this Antichrist, and strumpet, vnder colour of faire speech and pleasant doctrine, to deceiue the world: wherefore he aduertiseth the godly (which are but a small portion) to auoid this harlots flatteries and brags, whose ruine without mercy they shal see, and with the heauenly companies sing continuall praises: for the Lambe is maried: the word of God hath gotten the victorie: Satan that a long time was vntied, is now cast with his ministers into the pit of fire to be tormented for euer, whereas contrariwise the faithfull (which are the holy citie of Ierusalem, and wife of the Lambe) shall enioy perpetuall glory. Reade diligently, iudge soberly, and call earnestly to God for the true vnderstanding hereof.

8 I * am [i] Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, euen the Almightie.

9 I Iohn euen your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Iesus Christ, was in the yle called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the witnessing of Iesus Christ.

10 And I was rauished in spirite on [k] the Lords day, and heard behind mee a great voyce, as it had bene of a trumpet, 11 Saying, I am [l] Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and that which thou seest, write in a booke, and sende it vnto the [m] seuen Churches which are in Asia, vnto Ephesus, and vnto Smyrna, and vnto Pergamus, and vnto Thyatira, and vnto Sardi, and vnto Philadelphia, and vnto Laodicea.

12 Then I turned backe to see the [n] voice that spake with mee: and when I was turned, I saw [o] seuen golden candlesticks, 13 And in the middes of the seuen candlesticks, one like vnto the [p] Sonne of man, clothed with a garment [q] downe to the feete, and girded [r] about the paps with a golden girdle.

14 His head, and haires were [s] white as white wooll, and as snowe, and his eyes were as a [t] flame of fire, 15 And his feete like vnto ‖ fine [u] brasse, burning as in a furnace: and his [x] voyce as the sound of many waters.

16 And hee had in his right hand seuen [y] starres: & out of his mouth went a [z] sharpe two edged sword: and his face shone as the sunne shineth in his strength.

17 And when I sawe him, I fell at his feete as * dead: then he layd his right [a] hand vpon me, saying vnto mee, Feare not: I am the * [b] first and the last,

18 And am aliue, but I was dead: and behold, I am aliue for euermore, Amen: and I haue the [c] keyes of hell and of death.

19 Write the things which thou hast seene, and the things which are, and the things which shall come [d] hereafter.

20 The mystery of the seuen starres which thou sawest, [e] in my right hand, and the seuen golden candlesticks, is this, The seuen starres are the [f] Angels of the seuen Churches: and the seuen candlesticks which thou sawest, are the seuen Churches.

He exhorteth fiue Churches 5 To repentance, 10 To perseuerance, patience and amendement, 5. 14.20.23 Aswell by threatnings, 7.10.17.26. As promise of reward.

2 I know thy workes, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not forbeare them which are euill, and hast examined them which say they are Apostles, and are not, and hast found them lyars.

3 And thou hast suffered, and hast patience, and for my names sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted.

4 Neuertheless, I haue somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first [e] loue.

5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, & doe the first works: or els I will come against thee shortly, and will remoone thy [f] candlestick out of his place, except thou amend.

f The office of the Pastor is compared to a candlestick or lampe, forasmuch as hee ought to shine before men.

6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the workes of the s Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

7 Let him that hath an eare, heare, what the Spirit sayth vnto the Churches. To him that ouercommeth, will I giue to eat of the tree of h life, which is in the middes of the Paradise of God.

8 ¶ And vnto the i Angel of the Church of the Smyrnians write, These thnigs saith he that is first, and last, which was dead, and is k aliue.

9 I know thy workes and l tribulation, and pouertie, (but thou art m rich) and I know the blasphemie of them, which say they are Iewes, and are n not, but are the Synagogue of Satan.

10 Feare none of those things, which thou shalt suffer: beholde, it shall come to passe, that the o deuill shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be p tryed, and yee shall haue tribulation q ten dayes: bee thou faithfull vnto the death, and I will giue thee the crowne of life.

11 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit sayeth to the Churches. He that ouercommeth, shal not be hurt of the r second death.

12 And to the Angel of the Church which is at Pergamus write, This sayeth hee which hath the sharpe t swoorde with two edges.

13 I knowe thy workes and where thou dwellest, euen where Satans u throne is, and thou keepest my Name, and hast not denyed my faith, x euen in those dayes when Antipas my faithfull martyr was slaine among you, where Satan dwelleth.

14 But I haue a fewe things against thee, because thou hast there them that maintaine the y doctrine of z Balaam, which taught Balac to put a stumbling blocke before the children of Israel, that they should eate of things sacrificed vnto idoles, and commit fornication.

15 Euen so hast thou them, that maintaine the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate.

16 Repent thy selfe, or else I will come vnto thee shortly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

17 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirite sayth vnto the Churches. To him that ouercommeth, will I giue to eate of the Manna that is a hid, and will giue him a b white stone, and in the stone a c new name written, which no man knoweth sauing he that receiueth it.

18 ¶ And vnto the Angel of the Church which is at Thyatira write, These things sayeth the Sonne of God, which hath his eyes like vnto a flame of fire, and his feete like ‖ fine brasse.

19 I know thy works and thy loue, and d seruice, and faith, and thy patience, and thy workes, and that they are moe at the last then at the first.

20 Notwithstanding, I haue a fewe things against thee, that thou sufferest the woman e Iezabel, which calleth her selfe a Prophetesse, to teach and to deceiue my seruants, to make them f commit fornication, and to eate meates sacrificed vnto idoles.

21 And I gaue her space to repent of her fornication, and she repented not.

22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit fornication with her, into great affliction, except they repent them of their workes.

23 And I will kill her g children with death: and all the Churches shall knowe that I am hee which h search the reines and hearts: and I will giue vnto euery one of you according vnto your workes.

24 And vnto you, I say, the rest of them of Thyatira, As many as haue not this learning, neither haue knowen the i deepenesse of Satan (as k they speake) I will put vpon you none other burden, 25 But that which ye haue already, hold fast till I come.

26 For hee that ouercommeth and keepeth my workes vnto the end, to him will I giue power ouer nations, 27 * And hee shall rule them with a rod of yron: and as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken.

28 Euen as I receiued of my Father, so will I giue him the morning starre.

29 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit sayth to the Churches.

g These were heretikes which held that wiues should be common, & as some thinke, were named of one called Nicolas, of whom is written, Act. 6.5. which was chosen among the Deacons.

h Meaning, the life euerlasting: thus by corporall benefits he rayseth them vp to consider spirituall blessings.

i This is thought to be Polycarpus, who was minister of Smyrna 86. yeeres, as he himselfe confessed before Herodes, when he was led to be burned for Christs cause.

k The eternall Diuinitie of Iesus Christ is here most plainely declared, with his manhood, and victorie ouer death, to assure his that they shall not be ouercome by death.

CHAP. III.

Hee exhorteth the Churches or ministers to the true profession of faith, and to watching, 12 VVith promise to them that persuere.

AND write vnto the Angel of the Church which is at Sardi, These things sayth hee that hath the seuen Spirits of God, and the seuen starres, I know thy workes: for thou hast a name that thou a liuest, but thou art dead.

a The minister liueth when he bringeth foorth good fruits, els he is dead.

2 Be awake and strengthen the things which remaine, that are readie to die: for I haue not found thy workes perfite before God.

3 Remember therefore, how thou hast receiued and heard, and holde fast, and repent. * If therefore thou wilt not watch, Chap. 16.15. 1. thes 5.2. 2. pet. 3.10.

4 Notwithſtanding thou haſt a fewe names yet in Sardi, which haue not [b] defiled their garments, and they ſhall walke with mee in white: for they are worthy.

5 He that ouercommeth, ſhall be clothed in white aray, and I will not put out his name out of the [m] booke of life, but I will confeſſe his name before my Father, and before his Angels.

6 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit ſaith vnto the Churches.

7 ¶ And write vnto the Angel of the Church which is of Philadelphia, Theſe things ſayeth hee that is Holy and True, which hath the [c] key of Dauid, which openeth and no man ſhutteth, and ſhutteth and no man openeth, 8 I know thy workes: behold, I haue ſet before thee an open [d] doore, and no man can ſhut it: for thou haſt a little ſtrength, and haſt kept my word, and haſt not denied my Name.

9 Beholde, I will make them of the Synagogue of Satan, which call themſelues Iewes and are not, but doe lie: behold, I ſay, I will make them that they ſhall come and [e] worſhip before thy feete, and ſhall know that I haue loued thee.

10 Becauſe thou haſt kept the worde of my patience, therefore I will deliuer thee from the houre of tentation, which will come vpon all the worlde, to trie them that dwell vpon the earth.

11 Beholde, I come ſhortly: holde that which thou haſt, that no man take thy [f] crowne.

12 Him that ouercommeth, will I make a pillar in the Temple of my God, and hee ſhall goe no more out: and I will write vpon him the Name of my God, and the Name of the citie of my God, which is the new Ieruſalem, which commeth downe out of heauen from my God, and I will write vpon him my new Name.

13 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit ſaith vnto the Churches.

14 And vnto the Angel of the Church of the Laodiceans write, Theſe things ſayth [g] Amen, the faithfull and true witneſſe, the [h] beginning of the creatures of God, 15 I know thy workes, that thou art neither colde nor hot: I would thou werest cold or hot.

16 Therefore, becauſe thou art lukewarme, and neither colde nor hot, it will come to paſſe, that I will ſpewe thee out of my mouth.

17 For thou ſayeſt, I am [i] rich and increaſed with goods, and haue [k] nede of nothing, and knoweſt not howe thou art wretched, and miſerable, and poore, and blinde, and naked.

18 I counſell thee to buy of me gold tried by the fire, that thou mayeſt bee made rich, and white raiment, that thou mayeſt bee clothed, and that thy filthy nakednesse doe not appeare: and [l] anoynt thine eyes with eye ſalue, that thou mayeſt ſee.

19 As many as I loue, I [*] rebuke and chaſten: bee [m] zealous therefore and amend.

20 Beholde, I ſtande at the doore, and knocke. If any man heare my voyce and open the doore, I will come in vnto him, and will ſup with him, and he with me.

21 To him that ouercommeth, will I graunt to ſit with mee in my [n] throne, euen as I ouercame, and ſit with my Father in his throne.

22 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit ſaith vnto the Churches.

CHAP. IIII.

1 The viſion of the Maieſtie of God. 3 He ſeeth the throne and one ſitting vpon it, 8 and 24. ſeates about it with 24. elders ſitting vpon them, and foure beaſts praying God day and night.

AFter this I looked, and beholde, a [a] doore was open in heauen, and the firſt voice which I heard, was as it were of a trumpet talking with mee, ſaying, Come vp hither, and I will ſhewe thee things which muſt be done hereafter.

2 And immediately I was rauiſhed in the ſpirit, and beholde, a throne was ſet in heauen, and one ſate vpon the throne.

3 And [b] hee that ſate, was to looke vpon like vnto a Iaſper ſtone, and a Sardine, and there was a rainebow round about the throne in ſight like vnto an Emerauld.

4 And round about the throne were foure and twentie ſeates, and vpon the ſeates I ſawe [c] foure and twentie Elders ſitting, clothed in white raiment, and had on their heads crownes of gold.

5 And out of the throne [d] proceeded [*] lightnings, and thundrings, and voyces, and there were ſeuen lampes of fire burning before the throne, which are the ſeuen ſpirits of God.

6 And before the throne there was [e] as a ſea of glaſſe like vnto criſtall: and in the [f] midſt of the throne, and round about the throne were foure [b] beaſtes full of eyes before and behinde.

7 And the firſt beaſt was like a lion, and the ſecond beaſt like a calfe, and the third beaſt had a face as a man, and the fourth beaſt was like a flying Eagle.

8 And the foure beaſtes had each one of them ſixe wings about him: and they were full of eyes within, and they ceaſed not day nor night, ſaying, [*] Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almightie, Which was, and Which is, and Which is to come.

9 And when thoſe beaſts gaue glory, and honour, and thanks to him that ſate on the throne, which liueth for euermore, and euer,

10 The foure and twentie Elders fell downe before him that ſate on the throne, & worſhipped him, that liueth for euermore, [g] and caſt their crownes before the throne, ſaying,

Chap. 5. 12.

11 Thou art * worthy, O Lorde, to receiue glory and honour, and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy willes sake they are, and haue bene created.

CHAP. V.

1 He seeth the Lambe opening the booke, 8. 14. And therefore the foure beastes, the 24 Elders, and the Angels praise the Lambe, and doe him worship, 9 For their redemption and other benefits.

AND I saw in the right hand of him that sate vpon the throne, a Booke written within, and on the backeside, sealed with b seuen seales.

2 And I sawe a strong Angel, which preached with a loud voyce, Who is worthy to open the Booke, and to loose the seales thereof?

3 And no man in heauen, nor in earth, neither vnder the earth was able to open the Booke, neither to looke thereon.

4 Then I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open, and to reade the Booke, neither to looke thereon.

5 And one of the Elders sayd vnto mee, Weepe not: beholde, the * Lion which is of the tribe of Iuda, the roote of Dauid, hath obteyned to open the Booke, and to loose the seuen seales thereof.

6 Then I beheld, and loe, in the middes of the throne, and of the foure beastes, and in the middes of the Elders, stood a c Lambe, as though hee had bene killed, which had d seuen hornes, and e seuen eyes, which are the seuen spirits of God, sent into all the world.

7 And he came and tooke the Booke out of the right hand of him that sate vpon the throne.

8 And when hee had taken the Booke, the foure beastes, and the foure and twentie Elders f fell downe before the Lambe, hauing euery one harpes and golden vials full of odours, which are the g prayers of the Saints.

9 And they sung a newe song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the Booke, and to open the seales thereof, because thou wast killed, and hast h redeemed vs to God by thy blood out of euery kinred, and tongue, and people, and nation,

10 And hast made vs vnto our GOD * Kings and Priests, and we shall i reigne on the earth.

11 Then I beheld, and I heard the voyce of many Angels round about the throne, and about the beastes and the Elders, and there were * thousand thoulands, 12 Saying with a loude voyce, Worthy is the * Lambe that was killed, to receiue power, and riches, and wisedome, and strength, and honour, and glorie, and prayse.

13 And all the creatures which are in heauen, and on the earth, and vnder the earth, and in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Prayse, and honour, and glorie, and power be vnto him, that sitteth vpon the throne, and vnto the Lambe for euermore.

14 And the foure beasts said, Amen, and the foure and twentie Elders fell downe, and worshipped him that liueth for euermore.

a A similitude taken of earthly princes, which iudge by bookes and writings: and here it doeth signifie all the counsels, and iudgements of God, which are onely knowen to Christ the sonne of Dauid, verse 5.

b That is, many. Gen. 49. 9.

c This vision confirmeth the power of our Lord Iesus which is the Lambe of God that taketh away the sinne of the word.

d That is, manifold power.

e Signifying the fulnesse of the spirit which Christ powreth vpon all.

f The Angels honour Christ: he is therefore God.

g This declareth how the prayers of the faithfull are agreeable vnto God, reade Reuel. 8. 4. and chap. 8. 3.

h Our Saiuour Iesus hath redeemed his Church by his bloodshedding, and gathered it of all nations. 1. Pet. 2. 9.

i Not corporally. Dan. 7. 10. Chap. 4. 11.

CHAP. VI.

The Lambe openeth the six seales, and many things follow the opening thereof, so that this conteineth a generall prophesie to the end of the world.

AFter, I beheld when the Lambe had opened one a of the seales, and I heard one of the foure beastes say, as it were the b noyse of thunder, Come and see.

2 Therefore I beheld, and loe, there was a c white horse, and he that d sate on him, had a bowe, and a crowne was giuen vnto him, and he went forth conquering, that he might ouercome.

3 And when hee had opened the seconde seale, I heard the seconde beast say, Come and see.

4 And there went out another horse, that was e red, and power was giuen to him that f sate thereon, to take peace from the earth, and that they shoulde kill one another, and there was giuen vnto him a great sword.

5 And when hee had opened the third seale, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. Then I beheld, and loe, g a blacke horse, and he that sate on him, had balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voyce in the middes of the foure beastes say, A h measure of wheate for a i peny, and three measures of barley for a peny, and oyle, and wine hurt thou not.

7 And when hee had opened the fourth seale, I heard the voyce of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

8 And I looked, and beholde, a k pale horse, and his name that sate on him was Death, and g Hell followed after him, and power was giuen vnto them ouer the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

9 And when hee had opened the l fift seale, I sawe vnder the altar m the soules of them that were killed for the worde of God, and for the testimonie which they maintained.

10 And they cryed with a lowde voyce, saying, How long, Lord, holy and true! doest not thou iudge and auenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And long white robes were giuen vnto euery one, and it was said vnto them, that they should rest for a little season, vntill their fellowe seruantes, and their brethren that should be killed euen as they were, were fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when hee had opened the fift seale, and loe, there was a great n earthquake, and the o sunne was as blacke as sackecloth of haire, and the p moone was like blood.

a The opening of the seale is the declaration of Gods will, and the executing of his iudgements.

b Signifying, that there were marueilous things to come.

c The white horse signifieth the preaching of the Gospell.

d He that rideth on the white horse, is Christ.

e Signifying the cruell warres that ensued when the Gospell was refused.

f Who was Satan,

g This signifieth an extreame famine and want of all things.

h The Greeke word signifieth that measure which was ordinarily giuen to seruants for their portion or stint of meate for one day.

i Which amounted about foure pence halfepeny.

k Whereby is meant sicknesse, plagues, pestilience, and death of man and beast.

l The continuall persecution of the Church noted by the fift seale.

m The soules of the Saints are vnder the altar, which is Christ, meaning that they are in his safe custodie in the heauens.

n Which signifieth the change of the newe doctrine, which is the greatest cause of motions, and troubles that come to the world.

o That is, the brightnesse of the Gospel.

p The traditions of men.

q The Church miserably defaced with idolatrie, and afflicted by tyrants,

13 And

13 And the ᵉ starres of heauen fell vnto the earth, as a figge tree casteth her greene figs, when it is shaken of a mightie winde.

14 And ᶠ heauen departed away, as a scrole when it is rolled, and euery mountaine and Ile were mooued out of their places.

15 And the Kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chiefe captaines, and the mightie men, and euery bond man, and euery free man, hid themselues in dennes, and among the rockes of the mountaines,

16 And sayd to the ᵍ mountaines & rocks, ʰⁿ Fall on vs, and hide vs from the presence of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lambe.

17 For the great day of his wrath is come, and who can stand?

1 Doctors and preachers that depart from the trueth.

ᵉ The kingdome of God is hid, and withdrawen from men, and appeareth not.

ᶠ Realmes, kingdomes and persons, that did seeme to be as stable in the faith as mountaines. Isa.2.19.hose.10.8.luke 23.39.

u Such men afterward, of what estate soeuer they bee, shall be desperate, and not able to susteine the weight of Gods wrath, but shall continually feare his iudgements.

CHAP. VII.

4.9 Hee seeth the seruants of God sealed in their foreheads out of all nations and people, 15 which though they suffer trouble, yet the Lambe feedeth them, leadeth them to the fountaines of liuing water, 17 and God shall wipe away all teares from their eyes.

AND after that, I saw foure angels stand on the foure corners of the earth, holding the foure ᵃ windes of the ᵇ earth, that the winds should not blow on the earth, neither on the ᶜ sea, neither on any ᵈ tree.

2 And I sawe another ‖ Angel come vp from the East, which had the seale of the liuing God, and he cried with a loud voice to the foure Angels to whom power was giuen to hurt the earth, and the sea,

3 Saying, ᵉ Hurt yee not the earth, neither the sea, neither the trees, till wee haue ᶠ sealed the seruants of our God in their foreheads.

4 And I heard the number of them, which were sealed, and there were sealed ᵍ an hundreth and foure and forty thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

5 Of the tribe of Iuda were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelue thousand.

6 Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Naphtali were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Manasses were sealed twelue thousand.

7 Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of ʰ Leui were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Issachar were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelue thousand.

8 Of the tribe of ⁱ Joseph were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelue thousand.

9 After these things I beheld, and loe, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kinreds, and people, and tongues, stoode before the throne, and before the Lambe, clothed with long ᵏ white robes, and ˡ palmes in their hands.

10 And they cryed with a loud voice, saying, ᵐ Saluation commeth of our God, that sitteth vpon the throne, and of the Lambe.

11 And all the Angels stood round about the throne, and about the Elders, & the foure beasts, and they fel before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, 12 Saying, Amen. Praise and glory, and wisdome, and thanks, and honour, and power, and might be vnto our God for euermore, Amen.

13 And one of the Elders spake, saying vnto mee, What are these which are arayed in long white robes? and whence came they?

14 And I sayd vnto him, Lorde, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they, which came out of great tribulation, and haue washed their long robes, and haue made their long robes white in the ⁿ blood of the Lambe.

15 Therefore are they in the presence of the throne of ᵒ God, and serue him day and ᵖ night in his Temple, and hee that sitteth on the throne, will dwell among them.

16 ᵠ They shall ʳ hunger no more, neither thirst any more, neither shall the sunne ˢ light on them, neither any heat.

17 For the ᵗ Lambe, which is in the ᵘ midst of the throne, shall gouerne them, and shall leade them vnto the ˣ liuely fountaines of waters, and ʸ God shal wipe away al teares from their eyes.

ᵃ The Spirit is compared to the winde, and the doctrine also: and though there be one spirit and one doctrine, yet foure are here named in respect of the diuersitie of the foure quarters of the earth where the Gospel is spread, and for the foure writers thereof, and the preachers of the same thorow the whole world.

ᵇ Meaning, the men of the earth.

ᶜ That is, the ylands.

ᵈ Signifying all men in generall, who can no more liue without this spirituall doctrine, then trees can blossome and beare, except the winde blowe vpon them. ‖ Or, Christ.

ᵉ God preuenteth the dangers and euils, which otherwise would ouerwhelme the elect.

ᶠ Those that are sealed by the Spirit of God, and marked with the blood of the Lambe, and lightned in faith by the word of God, so that they make open profession of the same, are exempted from euil.

ᵍ Though that this blindnesse bee brought into the world by the malice of Satan, yet the mercies of God reserue to himselfe an infinite number which shall bee saued, both of the Iewes and Gentiles through Christ.

ʰ He omitteth Dan, and putteth Leui in, whereby he meaneth the twelue tribes.

ⁱ That is, the tribe of Ephraim, which was Ioseph's sonne.

ᵏ In signe of purity.

ˡ In token of victory and felicitie.

ᵐ All that are saued, attribute their saluation vnto God onely and to his Christ, and to none other thing.

ⁿ There is no purity nor cleannesse, but by the blood of Christ only, which purgeth our sinnes, and so maketh vs white.

ᵒ That is, of the Maiestie of God the Father, the Sonne, and the holy Ghost.

ᵖ Meaning continually: for else in heauen there is no night. Isa.49.10.

ᵠ For all infirmitie and miserie shall be then taken away.

ʳ They shall haue no more griefe and paine, but full ioy and consolation.

ˢ Iesus Christ the mediatour and redeemer.

ᵗ Which is very God.

ᵘ Hee shall giue them life and conserue them in eternall felicitie. Isa.25.8.chap.21.4.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The seuenth seale is opened: there is silence in heauen. 6 The foure Angels blow the trumpets, and great plagues follow vpon the earth.

AND when hee had opened the ᵃ seuenth seale, there was ᵇ silence in heauen about halfe an houre.

2 And I sawe the seuen Angels, which stood ᶜ before God, and to them were giuen seuen trumpets.

3 Then another Angel came & stood before the altar hauing a golden censer, and ᵃ Vnder the sixt seale hee touched in generall the corruption of the doctrine: but vnder the seuenth he sheweth the great danger thereof, and what troubles, sectes, and heresies haue beene and shalbe brought into the Church thereby.

ᵇ That the bearers might be more attentiue.

ᶜ He sheweth the onely remedy in our afflictions, to wit, to appeare before the face of God by the meanes of Iesus Christ, who is the Angel, the sacrifice, and the Priest which presenteth our prayers, which remaine yet in earth, before the altar, and diuine Maiestie of God.

much odours was giuen vnto him, that hee should offer with the prayers of all Saints vpon the golden altar, which is before the throne.

4 And the smoke of the odours with the prayers of the Saints, went vp before God, out of the Angels hand.

5 And the Angel tooke the censer, and filled it with [d] fire of the altar, and cast it into the [e] earth, and [f] there were voyces, and thundrings, and lightnings, & earthquake.

6 Then the seuen Angels, which had the seuen trumpets, prepared themselues to blow the trumpets.

7 So the first Angel [g] blew the trumpet, and there was haile and fire, mingled with blood, and they were cast into the earth, and the third part of [h] trees was burnt, and all greene [i] grasse was burnt.

8 And the second Angel blew the trumpet, and as it were a great [k] mountaine, burning with fire was cast into the sea, and the third part of the sea became blood.

9 And the third part of the creatures, which were in the sea, and had life, died, and the third part of [l] ships were destroyed.

10 Then the third Angel blew the trumpet, and there fell [m] a great starre from heauen burning like a torch, and it fell into the third part of the riuers, and into the fountaines of waters.

11 And the name of the starre is called Wormewood: therfore the third part of the waters became wormewood, and many men died of the [n] waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth Angel blew the trumpet, and the third part of the [o] Sunne was smitten, and the third part of the [p] moone, and the third part of the [q] starres, so that the third part of them was [r] darkened: and the day was smitten, and the third part of it could not shine, and likewise the night.

13 And I beheld, and heard one Angel flying thorowe the middes of heauen, saying with a lowde voyce, [s] Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the soundes to come of the trumpet of the three Angels, which were yet to blowe the trumpets.

d He meaneth by fire the grace of God whereby we are purged and made cleane, Isa.6.6.

e Hee powreth the graces of the holy Ghost into the nearts of the faithfull.

f When this grace is declared, marueilous rebellions arise against it by reason of the wicked, which can neither abide to heare their sinnes touched, nor mercy offered.

g That is, proclaimeth warre against the Church, and troubles by false doctrine, and so admonisheth them to watch.

h That is, the most part of men were seduced.

i Euen the very elect were sore tried and proued.

k Diuers sects of heretikes were spread abroad in the world.

l Meaning, the shipmasters, and so them that had any gouernment.

m That is, some excellent minister of the Church, which shal corrupt the Scriptures.

n Which here signifie false and corrupt doctrine.

o That is, of Christ, who is the sonne of Iustice, meaning, that men by boasting of their works and merits, obscure Christ, and tread his death vnder feet.

p That is, of the Church.

q Of the ministers and teachers, which haue not taught as they ought to doe.

r These are plagues for the contempt of the Gospel.

s Horrible threatnings against the infidels amd rebellious persons.

CHAP. IX.

1 The fift and sixt Angel blow their trumpets: the starre falleth from heauen. 3 The locusts come out of the smoke. 12 The first woe is past. 14 The foure Angels that were bound, are loosed. 18 And the third part of men is killed.

AND the fift Angell blewe the trumpet, and I sawe [a] a starre which was fallen from heauen vnto the earth, and to him was giuen the [b] key of the bottomesse pit.

2 And hee opened the bottomelesse pitte, and there arose the smoke of the pit, as the [c] smoke of a great furnace, and the Sunne and the aire were darkened by the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke [d] Locusts vpon the earth, and vnto them was giuen [e] power, as the [f] scorpions of the earth haue power.

4 And it was commanded them, that they should not hurt the [g] grasse of the earth, neither any greene thing, neither any tree: but onely those [h] men which haue not the seale of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them was commanded that they should not [i] kill them, but that they should bee [k] vexed fiue moneths, and that their paine should bee as the paine that commeth of a [l] scorpion, when hee hath stung a man.

6 [*] Therefore in those dayes shall men [m] seeke death, and shall not finde it, and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 [*] And the forme of the locusts was like vnto [n] horses prepared vnto battell, and on their heades were as it were [o] crownes like vnto golde, and their faces [p] were like the faces of men.

8 And they had haire as the [q] haire of women, and their [r] teeth were as the teeth of lions.

9 And they had [s] habergions, like to habergions of yron: and the sound of their [t] wings was like the sound of charets when many horses runne vnto battell.

10 And they had tailes like vnto scorpions, and there were [u] stings in their tailes, and their power was to hurt men fiue moneths.

11 And they haue a king ouer them, which a That is, the bishops and ministers, which forsake the worde of God, and so fall out of heauen, and become angels of darkenesse.

b This authority chiefly is committed to the Pope, in signe whereof he beareth the keyes in his armes.

c Abundance of heresies and errours, which couer with darkenesse Christ and his Gospel.

d Locusts are false teachers, heretikes, and worldly subtile Prelates, with Monkes, Friers, Cardinals, Patriarks, Archbishops, Bishops, Doctours, Bachelers, and Masters, which forsake Christ, to maintaine false doctrine.

e False and deceiuable doctrine, which is pleasant to the flesh.

f That is, feerefully to persecute, and to sting with their taile as Scorpions doe: such is the fashion of the hypocrites.

g For the false prophets cannot destroy the elect, but such as are ordeined to perdition.

h That is, the infidels, whome Satan blindeth with the efficacie of errour, 2. Thess 2.11.

i Though the elect bee hurt, yet they cannot perish.

k The elect for a certaine space, and at times are in troubles: for the grashoppers endure but from Aprill to September, which is fiue moneths.

l For at the beginning the sting of their conscience seemeth as nothing, but except they soone seeke remedie, they perish. Isa.2.19. Hos.10.8. Luke 23.30. chap.6.16.

m Such is the terrour of the vnbeleeuing conscience, which hath no assurance of mercie, but feeleth the iudgement of God against it, when men imbrace errour, and refuse the true simplicitie of Gods worde, Wisd.16.9.

n Which signifieth that the Popes cleargie shall be proud, ambitious, bolde, stout, rash, rebellious, stubborne, cruell, leecherous, and authors of warre and destruction of the simple children of God.

o They pretend a certaine title of honour, which in deed belongeth nothing vnto them, as the Prelates by their crownes and strange apparell declare.

p That is, they pretend great gentlenesse and loue: they are wise, politique, subtile, eloquent, and in worldly craftinesse passe all in their doings.

q That is, effeminate, delicate, idle, trimming themselues to please their harlots.

r Signifying their oppression of the poore, and cruelty against Gods children.

s Which signifieth their hardnesse of heart, and obstination in their errours, with their assurance vnder the protection of worldly princes.

t For as though they had wings, so are they lifted vp aboue the common sort of men, and esteemed most holy, and doe all things with rage and fiercenesse.

u To infect and kill with their venemous doctrine.

x Which is Antichrist the Pope, king of hypocrites, and Satans Ambassadour.

y That is, destroyer: for Antichrist the sonne of perdition destroyeth mens soules with false doctrine, and the whole world with fire and sword.

z Which was the voyce of Christ, sitting on the right hand of the Father.

a Meaning, the enemies of the East countrey, which should afflict the Church of God, as did the Arabians, Saracens, Turks and Tartarians.

b This signifieth the great readinesse of the enemies.

c Which signifieth their false doctrine and hypocrisie.

d And therefore were iustly destroyed. Psal. 115.4, and 135.15.

is the x Angel of the bottomlesse pit, whose name in Hebrew, is y Abaddon, & in Greeke he is named Apollyon.

12 One woe is past, and behold, yet two woes come after this.

13 ¶ Then the sixt Angel blew the trumpet, & I heard a voice from the foure hornes of the golden altar, which is before God,

14 Saying to the sixt Angel, which had the trumpet, Loose the foure z Angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates.

15 And the foure Angels were losed, which were prepared at an a houre, at a day, at a moneth, and at a yeere, to slay the third part of men.

16 And the number of horsemen of warre were twentie thousand times ten thousand: for I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I saw the horses in a vision, and them that sate on them, having fiery habergions, and of Iacinth, and of brimstone, & the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions: & out of their mouthes went foorth fire and smoke, and brimstone.

18 Of these three was the third part of men killed, that is, of the fire, & of the smoke and of the brimstone which came out of their mouthes.

19 For their power is in their b mouthes, and in their tailes: for their tailes were like unto serpents, and had heads, wherewith they hurt.

20 And the remnant of the men which were not killed by these plagues, c repented not of the workes of their handes that they should not worship devils, & d idoles of gold, and of siluer, and of brasse, and of stone, and of wood, which neither can see, neither heare, nor goe.

21 Also they repented not of their murder, and of their sorcerie, neither of their fornication, nor of their theft.

CHAP. X.

1 The Angel hath the booke open. 6 He sweareth there shall be no more time. 9 He giueth the booke vnto Iohn, which eateth it vp.

AND I sawe another mightie a Angel come downe from heaven, clothed with a cloud, and the b rainebow vpon his head, and his face was as the c lunne, & his d feete as pillars of fire.

2 And he had in his hand a little e booke open, and he put his right foot vpon the sea, and his left on the earth,

3 And cried with a f loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, seuen g thunders vttered their voices.

4 And when the seuen thunders had vttered their voices, I was about to write: but I heard a voyce from heauen, saying vnto mee, * h Seale vp those things which the seuen thunders haue spoken, and write them not.

5 And the Angel which I saw stand vpon the sea, and vpon the earth, lift vp his hand to heauen,

6 And sware i by him that liueth for euermore, which created heauen, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, & the sea, and the things which therein are, that time should be no more.

7 But in the dayes of the voyce of the seuenth Angel, when hee shall begin to blow the trumpet, euen the k mysterie of God shal be finished, as hee hath declared to his seruants the Prophets.

8 And the voyce which I heard from heauen, spake vnto l me againe and sayd, Goe and take the little booke which is open in the hand of the m Angel, which standeth vpon the sea and vpon the earth.

9 So I went vnto the Angel, and sayd to him, Giue me the litle n booke. And he said vnto me, * Take it, and * eate it vp, and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth as sweete as hony.

10 Then I tooke the little booke out of the Angels hand, and ate it vp, and it was in my mouth as p sweete as hony: but when I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

11 And he said vnto me, Thou must prophesie q againe among the people and nations, and tongues, and to many kings.

e Which was Iesus Christ that came to comfort his Church against the furious assaults of Satan & Antichrist: so that in all their troubles, the faithfull are sure to finde consolation in him.

f Iesus Christ beareth the testimonie of Gods loue towards vs.

g It ouercame all the darkenesse of the Angell of the bottomlesse pit. d Straight, strong and pure from all corruptions. e Meaning the Gospel of Christ, which Antichrist cannot hide, seeing Christ bringeth it open in hand. f Which declareth that in despight of Antichrist the Gospel should be preached through the worlde: so that the enemies shall be astonied. g The whole graces of Gods Spirite bent themselues against Antichrist. Dan. 12.4. h Beleeue that is written: for there is no neede to write more for the vnderstanding of Gods children.

i That is, by God whom Christ by his diuinitie is equall.

k The faithfull shall vnderstand, and see this mysterie of the last iudgement, the damnation of Antichrist and infidels, and also the glory of the iust at the resurrection.

l As S. Iohn vnderstood this by reuelation, so is the same reuciled to the true preachers, to discouer the Pope and Antichrist.

m Meaning Christ.

n That is, the holy Scriptures which declareth that the Minister must receiue them at the hand of God, before he can preach them to others.

Ezek. 3.1. o Which signifieth that the ministers ought to receiue the word into their hearts, and to haue graue and deepe iudgement, and diligently to studie it, and with zeale to vtter it. p Signifying, that albeit that the minister haue consolation by the word of God, yet shall he haue sore & grieuous enemies, which shalbe troublesome vnto him. q Not onely meaning in his life time, but that this booke after his death should be as a preaching vnto all nations.

CHAP. XI.

1 The Temple is measured. 3 Two witnesses raised vp by the Lord, are murthered by the beast, 11 But after receiued to glory. 15 Christ is exalted, 16 and God praised by the xxiiii. Elders.

THen was giuen me a reede, like vnto a rod, and the Angel stood by, saying, Rise and a mete the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

2 But b the court which is without the Temple cast out, and mete it not: for it is giuen vnto the Gentiles, and the holy c citie shall they tread vnder foote d two and fourtie moneths.

3 But I will giue power vnto my e two witnesses, and they shall prophesie a a Which declareth that Christ Iesus will build his Church and not haue it destroyed: for he measureth out his spirituall Temple.

b The Iewish Temple was diuided into three parts: the body of the Temple which is called the court, wherinto euery man entred: the holy places where the Leuites were: and the holiest of all, whereinto the high Priest once a yeere entred: in respect wherefore of these two latter, the first is sayd to be cast out, because as a thing prophane it is neglected when the Temple is measured, and yet the aduersaries of Christ boast that they are in the Temple, and that none are of the Temple but they. c That is, the Church of God. d Meaning, a certaine time: for God hath limited the times of Antichrists tyranny. e By two witnesses he meaneth all the preachers that should build vp Gods Church, alluding to Zerubbabel and Iehoshua, which were chiefly appointed for this thing, and also to this saying, In the mouth of two witnesses standeth euery word.

f Signifying a certaine time: for when God giueth ſtrength to his miniſters, their perſecutions ſeeme as it were but for a day or two.
g In poore and ſimple apparell.
h Whereby are ſignified the excellent graces of them which beare witneſſe to the Gospel.
i Who hath dominion ouer the whole earth.
k By Gods word, whereby his miniſters diſcomfit the enemies, l They denounce Gods iudgement againſt the wicked, that they cannot enter into heauen.
m Which is to declare and procure Gods vengeance.
n That is, the Pope, which hath his power out of hell, and commeth thence.
o He ſheweth how the Pope gaineth the victorie, not by Gods word, but by cruell warre.
p Meaning, the whole iuriſdiction of the Pope which is compared to Sodome for their abominable ſinne, and to Egypt becauſe the true libertie to ſerue God is taken away from the faithfull, and Chriſt was condemned by Pilate, who repreſented the Romane power which ſhould be enemie to the godly.
q The infidels are tormented by hearing the trueth preached.
r Which ſhall be at the laſt reſurrection.
ſ For it ſeemed that Antichriſt had chaſed them out of the earth.
t Of the power of Antichriſt.
u When they ſhall vnderſtand by Gods worde the glory of his, and the puniſhment of his enemies, they ſhall fall from the Pope, and glorifie God.
x Albeit Satan by the Pope, Turke, and other inſtruments troubleth the world neuer ſo much, yet Chriſt ſhall reigne.
y Ieſus Chriſt.
z This declareth the office of the godly, which is to giue God thankes for the deliuerance of his, and to praiſe his iuſtice for puniſhing of his enimies.

f thouſand two hundreth & threeſcore dayes, clothed in s ſackcloth.

4 Theſe are two h olive trees, and two candleſticks, ſtanding before the God of the i earth.

5 And if any man will hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouthes, and deuoureth their enemies: for if any man would hurt them, k thus muſt he be killed.

6 Theſe haue power to ſhut l heauen, that it raine not in the dayes of their prophecying, and haue power ouer waters to turne them into m blood, & to ſmite the earth with all maner plagues, as often as they will.

7 And when they haue finiſhed their teſtimony, the n beaſt that commeth out of the bottomleſſe pit, ſhall make warre againſt them, and ſhall o ouercome them, and kill them.

8 And their corpſes ſhal lie in the ſtreetes of the great p citie, which ſpiritually is called Sodome and Egypt, where our Lord alſo was crucified.

9 And they of the people and kindreds, and tongues, & Gentiles ſhall ſee their corpſes three dayes and an halfe, & ſhal not ſuffer their carkeſſes to be put in graues.

10 And they that dwell vpon the earth, ſhall reioyce ouer them, & be glad, and ſhall ſend giftes one to another: for theſe two Prophets q vexed them that dwelt on the earth.

11 But after three dayes and an halfe, the ſpirite of life comming from God, ſhall enter into them, and they ſhall r ſtande vp vpon their feete: and great feare ſhall come vpon them which ſaw them.

12 And they ſhall heare a great voice frō heauen, ſaying vnto them, ſ Come vp hither. And they ſhall aſcend vp to heauē in a cloud, and their enemies ſhall ſee them.

13 And the ſame houre ſhall there bee a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the citie t ſhall fall, and in the earthquake ſhall be ſlaine in number ſeuen thouſand: and the remnant ſhall be afraide, u and giue glory to the God of heauen.

14 The ſecond woe is paſt, and beholde, the third woe will come anon.

15 And the ſeuenth Angel blew the trumpet, and there were great voices in heauen, ſaying, The x kingdomes of this worlde are our Lords, and his Chriſtes, and hee ſhall reigne for euermore.

16 Then the foure and twentie Elders, which ſate before God on their ſeates, fell vpon their faces, and worſhipped y God, 17 Saying, x We giue thee thanks, Lord God Almightie, which art, and which waſt, and which art to come: for thou haſt receiued thy great might, and haſt obteined thy kingdome.

18 And the Gentiles were angrie, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they ſhould be iudged, and that thou ſhouldeſt giue reward vnto thy ſeruants the Prophets, and to the Saints, and to them that feare thy Name, to ſmall and great, and ſhouldeſt deſtroy them, which deſtroy the earth.

19 Then the Temple of God was opened in heauen, and there was ſeene in his Temple the arke of his couenant: and there were a lightenings, and voyces, and thundrings, and earthquake, and much haile.

a Which ſignifie the deſtruction of the enemies.

CHAP. XII.

1 There appeareth in heauen a woman clothed with the ſunne. 7 Michael fighteth with the Dragon, which perſecuteth the woman. 11 The victorie gotten, to the comfort of the faithfull.

AND there appeared a great wonder in heauen: A a woman clothed with the ſunne, and the b moone was vnder her feete, and vpon her head a c crowne of twelue ſtarres.

2 And ſhe was with childe, and d cryed trauailing in birth, and was pained readie to be deliuered.

3 And there appeared another wonder in heauen: for behold, a great e red Dragon hauing f ſeuen heads, and ten hornes, and ſeuen crownes vpon his heads:

4 And his taile drew the g third part of the ſtarres of heauen, and caſt them to the earth. And the Dragon ſtoode before the woman, which was readie to be deliuered, to deuoure her childe when ſhe had brought it foorth.

5 So ſhe brought foorth a h man childe, which ſhould rule all nations with a i rod of yron: and her ſonne was taken vp vnto God and to his throne.

6 And the woman fled into k wildernes, where he hath a place prepared of God, that they ſhould feede her there a thouſand, two hundreth and threeſcore dayes.

7 And there was a battell in heauen, l Michael and his Angels fought againſt the Dragon, and the Dragon fought and his Angels.

8 But they preuailed not, neither was their place found any more in m heauen.

9 And the great Dragon that old ſerpent called the deuill and Satan, was caſt out, which deceiueth all the worlde: hee was and is redde with the blood of the faithfull.

a In this third viſion is declared how the Church, which is compaſſed about with Ieſus Chriſt the ſonne of righteouſnes, is perſecuted of Antichriſt. b The Church treadeth vnder foote whatſoeuer is mutable and inconſtant, with all corrupt affections and ſuch like.
c Which ſignifieth God and his word.
d The Church euer with a moſt feruent deſire longed that Chriſt ſhould be borne, and that the faithfull might be regenerate by his power.
e The deuill and all his power which burneth with fury, f For hee is the prince of this worlde, and almoſt hath the vniuerſall gouernement.
g By his flatteries and promiſes he gaineth many of the excellent miniſters and honourable perſons, and bringeth them to deſtruction.
h Which is Ieſus Chriſt the firſt borne among many brethren, who was borne of the Virgine Marie, as of a ſpeciall member of the Church. Pſalme 2. 9.
i The Church was remooued from among the Iewes to the Gentiles, which were as a barren wilderneſſe, and ſo it is perſecuted to and fro.
k Ieſus Chriſt and his members, as Apoſtles, Martyrs, and the reſt of the faithfull.
l For the Dragon was depriued of all dignitie, and had no more place in the Church.

even euen cast into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

10 Then I heard a loude voice, saying, Now is saluation in heauen, and strength, and the kingdome of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast downe, which accused them before our God day and night.

11 But they ouercame him by the blood of the Lambe, and by the word of their testimony, and they [m] loued not their liues vnto the death.

12 Therefore reioice, ye heauens, and yee that dwel in them. Wo to the [n] inhabitants of the earth, and of the sea: for the deuill is come downe vnto you, which hath great wrath, knowing that hee hath but a short time.

13 And when the dragon saw that hee was [o] cast vnto the earth, he persecuted the woman which had brought foorth the man childe.

14 But to the woman were giuen two wings of a great Eagle, that shee might flie into the wildernesse, into [p] her place where shee is nourished for a time, and times, and halfe a time, from the presence of the serpent.

15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth water after the woman like a flood, that he might cause her to bee carried away of the flood.

16 But the [q] earth holpe the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed vp the flood, which the dragon had cast out of his mouth.

17 Then the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went and made warre with the [r] remnant of her seede, which keepe the commandements of God, and haue the testimonie of Iesus Christ.

18 And I stood on the sea sand.

m They put their liues in danger so oft as neede required.
n Meaning them that are giuen to the world and fleshly lusts.
o And was ouercome of Christ, then he sought against his members.
p Which the Lord had appointed for her.
q God giueth meanes to his Church to escape the furie of Satan, making his creatures to serue to the support thereof.
r Satan was not able to destroy the head nor the body, and therefore theweth his rage against the members.

CHAP. XIII.

1. 8 The beast deceiueth the reprobate. 2. 4. 12 And is confirmed by another beast. 17 The preuiledge of the beasts marke.

AND I sawe a [a] beast rise out of the sea, hauing [b] seuen heads, and [c] ten hornes, and vpon his hornes were tenne crownes, and vpon his heads the name of blasphemie.

2 And the beast which I sawe, was like a [d] leopard, and his feete like a beares, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the [e] dragon gaue him his power, & his throne, and great authoritie.

3 And I sawe one of his [f] heads as it were wounded to death, but his [g] deadly wound was healed, and all the world wondered and followed the beast.

4 And they worshipped the dragon which gaue power vnto the beast, and they [h] worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like vnto the beast? who is able to warre with him?

5 And there was giuen vnto him a mouth, that spake great things and blasphemies, and power was giuen vnto him, to doe [i] two and fortie moneths.

6 And hee opened his mouth vnto blasphemie against God, to blaspheme his Name and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heauen.

7 And it was giuen vnto him to make warre with the Saints, and to [k] ouercome them, and power was giuen him ouer euery [l] kinred and tongue, and nation.

8 Therefore all that dwell vpon the earth, shall worship him, whose [m] names are not [n] written in the booke of life of the Lambe, which was slaine [o] from the beginning of the world.

9 If any man haue an eare, let him heare.

10 If any leade into captiuitie, hee shall goe [p] into captiuitie: if any kil with a sword, he must be killed by a sword: here is the patience, and the faith of the Saints.

11 And I beheld another beast comming vp out of the earth, which had two hornes like the Lambe, but he [q] spake like the dragon.

12 And hee did all that the first [r] beast could doe before him, and hee caused the earth, and them which dwell therein, to worship the first [s] beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And [t] he did great woonders, so that he made fire to come downe from heauen on the earth, in the sight of men,

14 And deceiued them that dwell on the earth by the signes, which were permitted to him to doe in the [x] sight of the beast, saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make the [y] image of the beast, which had the wound of a sword, and did liue.

15 And it was permitted to him to giue a [z] spirit vnto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should [a] speake, and shoulde cause that as many as would not [b] worship the image of the beast, should bee killed.

16 And he made all, both small and great, rich and poore, free and bond, to receiue a Here is the description of the Romane empire which standeth in cruelty and tyranny.

b Meaning Rome, because it was first gouerned by seuen Kings or Emperours after Nero, and also is compassed about with seuē mountaines.
d Which signifie many prouinces.
d By these beastes are signified the Macedonians, Persians and Caldeans, whom the Romanes ouercame. e That is, the deuil. f This may be vnderstood of Nero, who moued the first persecution against the Church, and after slew himselfe, so that the familie of the Cæsars ended in him. g For the Empire was established againe by Vespasian. h By receiuing the statures, ordinances, decrees, ceremonies, and religion of the Romane Empire.
i Antichristes time and power is limited.
k In their bodies, not in soule.
l He meaneth that vniuersall departing where of S. Paul speaketh to the Thessalonians.
m Antichrist hath no power ouer the elect. Chap. 3. 5.
n As God ordained from before al beginning, and all the sacrifices were as signes and sacraments of Christs death.
o They which led soules captiues goe themselues into captiuitie.
p As the kingdome of Christ is from heauen, & bringeth men thither: so the Popes kingdome is of the earth, & leadeth to perdition, and is begun and established by ambition, couetousnes, beastlinesse, craft, treason and tyranny.
q Which signifie the Priesthood & the kingdom, and therefore he giueth in his armes two keyes, and hath two swords carried before him. So Boniface the eight which first ordeined the Iubile, shewed himselfe one day in apparell as a Pope, and the next day in harnesse as the Emperour, and the two hornes in the Bishops mitre are signes thereof.
r He spake deuilish doctrine, accused Gods worde of imperfection, set vp mans traditions, and spake things contrary to God and his worde.
s For the Pope in ambition, crueltie, idolatrie and blasphemie did follow and imitate the ancient Romans.
t Brought them to idolatrie, and astonished them with the name of that holy Empire (as hee termeth it.)
u The man of sinne, according to the operation of Satan shall bee with all power, signes, and miracles of lies, 2. Thess 2. 9, 10.
x Before the whole Empire which representeth the first beast, and is the image thereof.
y For the first Empire Romane was as the paterne, and this second Empire is but an image and shadow thereof.
z For except the Pope confirme the authoritie of the king of Romanes, he is not esteemed worthy to be made Emperour.
a The same things which the Pope, or false prophets instruct him in.
b Receiue the ordinances and decrees of the seate of Rome, and to kisse the villains foot, if he were put thereunto.

a marke

c Whereby hee renounceth Christ: for as faith, the word, and the Sacraments are the Christians markes: so this Antichrist will accept none but such as wil approue his doctrine: so that it is not enough to confesse Christ, and to beleeue the Scriptures, but a man must subscribe to the Popes doctrine: moreouer their chrismatories, greasings, vowes, othes, and shauings are signes of this marke, in so much as no nation was accepted that had not many of these marked beastes. d He that is not sealed with Ant christs marke, cannot be suffered to liue among men. e Such as may be vnderstood by mans reason: for about 666. yeeres after this reuelation, the Pope or Antichrist began to be manifest in the world: for these characters χξϛ signifie 666. and this number is gathered of the small number, λατεινος, which in the whole make 666. and signifieth Lateinus, or Latin, which noteth the Pope or Antichrist, who vseth in all things the Latin tongue, and in respect thereof hee contemneth the Hebrewe and Greeke, wherein the word of God was first and best written: and because Italy in old time was called Latinum, the Italians are called Latini, so that heteby hee noteth of what countrey chiefly hee should come.

a marke in their right hand or in their foreheads.

17 And d that no man might buy or sell, saue he that had the marke, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

18 Here is wisedome. Let him that hath wit, count the number of the beast: for it is the number e of a man, and his number is sixe hundreth threescore and sixe.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 The notable company of the Lambe. 6 One Angel announceth the Gospel, 8 Another the fall of Babylon, 9 And the third warneth to flee from the beast. 13 Of their blessednesse which die in the Lord. 18 Of the Lords haruest.

a Iesus Christ rulethin his church to defend and cõfort it, though the beast rage neuer so much: and seeing Christ is present euer with his Church, there can be no vicar: for where there is a vicar, there is no Church. b Meaning, a great and ample Church. c Which was the marke of their election, to wit, their faith. d Signifying, that the nũber of the Church should be great, & that they should speak boldly, & aloud, and so glorifie the Lord.

THen I looked, and loe, a a Lambe stoode on mount Sion, and with him an b hundreth foztie and foure thousand, hauing his fathers c Name written in their foreheads.

2 And I heard a voyce from heauen, as the sound o many d waters, & as the sound of a great thunder: and I heard the voyce of harpers harping with their harpes,

3 And they sung as it were a newe song before the throne and before the foure beasts, and the Elders, and no e man could learne that song, but the hundreth foztie and foure thousande, which were bought from the earth.

4 These are they which are not f defiled with women, for they are virgins: these follow the Lambe s whithersoeuer hee goeth: these are bought from men, being the h first fruites vnto God, and to the Lambe.

5 And in their mouthes was found no guile: for they are without i spot before the throne of God.

6 ¶ Then I saw another k Angel flie in the middes of heauen, hauing an euerlasting Gospel, to preach vnto them that dwel on the earth, and to euery nation, and kinred, and tongue, and people,

7 Saying with a loud voyce, l Feare God, and giue glory to him: for the houre of his iudgement is come: and worship him that made * heauen and earth, and the sea, and the fountaines of waters.

8 And there followed another Angel, saying, * It is fallen, it is fallen, m Babylon the great citie: for shee made all nations to drinke of the wine of the n wrath of her fornication.

9 ¶ And the third Angel followed them, saying with a loud voyce, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receiue his marke in his forehead, or on his hand,

10 The same shall drinke of the wine of the wrath of God, yea, of the o pure wine, which is powred into the cup of his wrath, and hee shall bee tormented in fire and brimstone before the holy Angels, and before the Lambe.

11 And the smoke of their torment shall ascend euermore: and they shall haue no rest day nor night, which worship the beast and his image, & whosoeuer receiueth the print of his name.

12 Here is the patience of p Saints: here are they that keepe the commandements of God, and the faith of Iesus.

13 Then I heard a voice from heauen, saying vnto mee, Write, q Blessed are the dead, which hencefoorth die q in the r Lorde. Euen so saith the spirit: for they rest from their labours, and their works follow them.

14 ¶ And I looked, and behold, a white s cloud, and vpon the cloud one sitting like vnto the Sonne of man, hauing on his head a golden crowne, and in his hand a sharpe sickle.

15 And another Angell came out of the Temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sate on the cloud, * t Thrust in thy sickle, and reape: for the time is come to reape: for the haruest of the earth is ripe.

16 And hee that sate on the cloud, u thrust in his sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17 Then another Angell came out of the Temple which is in heauen, hauing also a sharpe sickle.

18 And another Angel came out from the x altar, which had power ouer fire, and cried with a loude crie to him that had the sharpe sickle, and sayd, Thrust in thy sharpe sickle, and gather the clusters of the vineyard of the earth: for her grapes are ripe.

19 And the Angel thrust in his sharpe sickle

e None can praise God but the elect whom he hath bought. f By whoredome: and vnder this vice hee comprehendeth all other: but this is chiefly meant of idolatrie, which is the spirituall whoredome. g For their whole delight is in the Lambe Iesus, and they loue none but him. h Which declareth that the faithfull ought to liue iustly and holily, that they may be the first fruits, and an excellent offering of the Lord. i Forasmuch as their sinnes are pardoned, and they are clad with the iustice of Christ. k By this Angel are meant the true ministers of Christ which preach the Gospel faithfully.

1 Seuen Angels haue the seuen last plagues. 3 The song of them that ouercome the beast. 7 The seuen vials full of Gods wrath.

a This is the fourth vision, which conteineth the doctrine of Gods iudgements for the destruction of the wicked and comfort of the godly.

AND I sawe another a signe in heauen, great and marueilous, b seuen Angels hauing the seuen last plagues: for by them is fulfilled the wrath of God.

b Meaning an infinite number of Gods ministers, which had infinite maners and sorts of punishments.

2 And I saw as it were a c glasse seamingled with fire, and them that had gotten victorie of the beast, and of his image, and of his marke, and of the number of his name, stand at the glasse sea, hauing the harpes of God, c Signifying, this brittle & inconstant world mixt with fire, that is, troubles and afflictions, but the Saints of God ouercome them all, and sing diuine songs vnto God, by whose power they get the victorie.

3 And they sang the song of Moses the * seruant of God, and the song of the Lambe, saying, Great & marueilous are thy workes, Lord God Almightie: iust and true are thy *‖ wayes, King of Saints.

6 And the seuen Angels came out of the temple, which had the seuen plagues, clothed in pure and d bright linnen, and hauing their e breasts girded with golden girdles.

d Which is to declare that Gods iudgements are cleare, iust and without spot.
e As ready to execute the vengeance of God.

7 And one of the f foure beasts gaue vnto the seuen Angels seuen golden vials full of the wrath of God, which liueth for euermore.

f By the foure beastes are meant all the creatures of God, which willingly serue him for the punishment of the infidels.

8 And the temple was full of the smoke of the glorie of God, and of his power, and no man was able to g enter into the Temple, til the seuen plagues of the seuen Angels were fulfilled.

g God giueth vs full entry into his Church by destroying his enemies: for the Saints cannot clearely knowe all Gods iudgements before the full end of all things.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The Angels powre out their vials ful of wrath, 6 And what plagues follow thereof. 15 Admonition to take heed and watch.

AND I heard a great voyce out of the Temple, saying to the seuen Angels, Goe your wayes, and powre out the seuen vials of the wrath of God vpon the earth.

a This was like the sixt plague of Egypt, which was sores and boiles, or pocks: and this reigneth commonly among Canons, Monkes, Friers, Nunnes, Priests, and such filthie vermine which beare the marke of the beast.

2 And the first went, and powred out his vial vpon the earth: and there fell a noysome and a grieuous a sore vpon the men, which had the marke of the beast, and vpon them which worshipped his image.

3 And the second Angel powred out his vial vpon the sea, and it became as the b blood of a c dead man: and euery liuing thing died in the sea.

b This is like to the first plague of Egypt, which signifieth all kinds of pestilences and contagious diseases.
c That is, corrupt and infect.

4 And the third Angel powred out his vial vpon the riuers and fountaines of waters, and they became d blood.

d The first plague of Egypt was like vnto this.

5 And I heard the Angel of the e waters say, Lorde, thou art iust, Which art, and Which wast, and holy, because thou hast iudged these things.

e He bringeth forth these two Angels: the one which is gouernour of the waters, and the other from vnder the altar, as witnesses and commenders of Gods iust iudgements.

6 For they shed the blood of the Saints, and Prophets, and therefore hast thou giuen them blood to drinke: for they are worthie.

f Forasmuch as thou destroyest the rebels, and preseruest thine.

7 And I heard another out of the Sanctuarie say, Euen so, Lorde God almightie, f true and righteous are thy iudgements.

8 And the fourth Angel powred out his vial on the Sunne, and it was giuen vnto him to torment men with g heate of fire, g Signifying famine, drought, and hote diseases, which proceede thereof.

9 And men boyled in great heate, and h blasphemed the Name of God, which hath power ouer these plagues, and they repented not, to giue him glory.

h The wicked were hard hearted, and stubburne when God punished them.

10 And the fifth Angel powred out his vial vpon the throne of the i beast, and his kingdome ware darke, and they k gnewe their tongues for sorrow, i This answereth to the ninth plague of Egypt, which signifieth that the Popes doctrine is an horrible plague of God, which keepeth men still in darke ignorance and errours.

11 And blasphemed the God of heauen for their paines, and for their sores, and repented not of their workes.

12 And the sixt Angell powred out his vial vpon the great riuer l Euphrates, and the water thereof dried vp, that the way of the Kings of the East shoulde bee prepared.

13 And I sawe three m vncleane spirites like frogges come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

14 For they are the spirites of a deuils, working miracles, to goe vnto the o Kings of the earth, and of the whole world, to gather them to the battell of that great day of God Almighty.

18 And there were voyces, and thunderings, and lightnings, and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were vpon the earth, euen so mighty an earthquake.

19 And the great s citie was diuided into three partes, and the t cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to giue vnto her the cup of the wine of the fiercenesse of his wrath.

20 And euery yle fledde away, and the mountaines were not found.

21 And there fell a great hayle, like talents, out of heauen vpon the men, and men blasphemed God, because of the plague of the hayle: for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

CHAP. XVII.

3 The description of the great whore. 8 Her sinnes & punishment. 14 The victory of the Lambe.

THen there came a one of the seuen Angels, which had the seuen vials, and talked with me, saying vnto me, Come, I will shew thee the damnation of the great b whore that sitteth vpon many c waters,

2 With whom haue committed fornication the kings of the earth, and the inhabitants of the earth are dronken with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he caried me away into the wildernesse in the Spirit, and I sawe a woman sit vpon a scarlet coloured d beast, full of names of e blaspheme, which had seuen heads, and ten hornes.

4 And the f woman was arayed in purple and scarlet, and gilded with golde, and precious stones, and pearles, and had a cup of gold in her hande, full of g abominations, and filthinesse of her fornication.

5 And in her forehead was a name written, h A mysterie, great Babylon, the mother of whoredomes, and abominations of the earth.

6 And I saw the woman dronken with the blood of Saints, and with the blood of the Martyrs of Iesus: and when I sawe her, I wondred with great maruaile.

7 Then the Angel said vnto me, Wherefore maruellest thou? I will shewe thee the mysterie of the woman, and of the beast that beareth her, which hath seuen heads, and ten hornes.

a Which was Christ Iesus who wil take vengeance on this Romish harlot.

b Antichrist is compared to an harlot, because he seduceth the world with vaine wordes, doctrines of lies, and outward appearance.

c Meaning diuers nations and countreys

d The beast signifieth the ancient Rome: the woman that sitteth thereon, the new Rome which is the Papistrie, whose cruelrie and bloodshedding is declared by scarlet.

e Full of idolatrie, superstition and contempt of the true God.

f This woman is the Antichrist, that is, the Pope with the whole body of his filthie creatures, as is expounded, Verse 18. whose beautie onely standeth in outward pompe and impudencie, and craft like a strumpet. g Of false doctrines and blasphemies. h Which none can know to auoid, but the elect.

8 The i beast that thou hast seene, was, and is not, and shall ascend out of the bottomlesse pit, and shall goe into perdition, and they that dwell on the earth, shall wonder (whose names are not written in the Booke of life from the foundation of the world) when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 Here is the minde that hath wisedome. The seuen heads are k seuen mountaines, whereon the woman sitteth: they are also l seuen Kings.

10 Fiue are fallen, and one is, and another is not yet come: and when hee commeth, he must continue a short space.

11 And the beast that was, and is not, is euen the m eight, and is one of the seuen, and shall goe into destruction.

12 And the ten hornes which thou sawest, are ten kings, which yet haue not receiued a kingdome, but shall receiue power, as kings at one houre with the beast.

13 n These haue one minde, and shall giue their power and authoritie vnto the beast.

14 These shall fight with the Lambe, and the Lambe shall o ouercome them: * for he is Lorde of lordes, and King of kings: and they that are on his side, called, and chosen, and faithfull.

15 And hee sayd vnto mee, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are people, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16 And the p tenne hornes which thou sawest vpon the beast, are they that shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eate her flesh, and burne her with fire.

17 For God hath q put in their hearts to fulfill his will, and to doe with one consent for to giue their kingdome vnto the beast, vntill the wordes of God be fulfilled.

18 And the woman which thou sawest, is the great citie, which reigneth ouer the kings of the earth.

i This is the Romane Empire, which being fallen into decay, the whore of Rome vsurped authoritie, and proceeded from the deuill: and thither shall returne.

k Which are about Rome.

l For after that the empire was decayed in Nero, Galba, Otho, Vitellius, Vespasian and Titus died in lesse then fourteene yeeres, and reigned as Kings: Domitian then reigned, and after him Coceius Nerua which was the seuenth.

m He meaneth Traiane the Emperour, who was a Spanyard and adopted by Nerua, but because hee persecuted the faithfull, he goeth also to perdition.

n He signifieth the horrible persecutions which haue bene vnder the empire of Rome, and in all other realmes subiect to the same. o And breake them to shiuers as a potters pot. 1.Tim.6.15. chap.19.16. p Diuers nations, as the Gothes, Vandales, Huanes, and other nations which were once subiect to Rome, shall rise against it, and destroy it. q That in stead of doing homage to Christ Iesus, they should be cast into a reprobate sense to serue Antichrist, and to dedicate themselues and theirs wholly vnto him.

CHAP. XVIII.

3. 9 The louers of the world are sorie for the fall of the whore of Babylon. 4 An admonition to the people of God to flee out of her dominion, 20 but they that bee of God, haue cause to reioyce for her destruction.

AND after these things, I saw another Angell come downe from heauen, hauing great power, so that the earth was lightned with his glory.

2 And he cried out mightily with a loud voice, saying, * It is fallen, it is fallen, Babylon the great citie, and is become the habitation of b deuils, and the holde of all foule spirits, and a cage of euery vncleane and hatefull bird.

Isa.21.9. iere.51. 8. chap.14.8.

a This description of the ouerthrowe of the great whore, is like to that whereby the prophets vse to declare the destruction of Babylon. b He describeth Rome to be the sinke of all abomination and deuilishnesse, and a kinde of hell.

e The greatest part of the world hath bene abused and seduced by this spirituall whoredome.

3 For ᵉall nations haue dronken of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the Kings of the earth haue committed fornication with her, & the merchants of the earth are waxed rich of the abundance of her pleasures.

4 And I heard another voice from heauen say, ᵈ Goe out of her, my people, that yee be not partakers in her sinnes, and that yee receiue not of her plagues.

5 For her sinnes are ᵉ come vp vnto heauen, & God hath remembred her iniquities.

6 ᶠ Reward her, euen as she hath rewarded you, and giue her double according to her workes: and in the cup that she hath filled to you, fill her the double.

7 Inasmuch as she glorified her selfe, and liued in pleasure, so much giue you to her torment and sorow: for she saith in her heart, ᵍ I sit being a Queene, and am no ʰ widow, and shall see no mourning.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come at one day, death, and sorow, and famine, and she shall be burnt with fire: for strong is the Lord God which will condemne her.

9 And the Kings of the earth shall bewaile her, and lament for her, which haue committed fornication, and liued in pleasure with her, when they shal see the smoke of her burning,

10 And shall stand a farre off for feare of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, the great citie Babylon, the mighty citie: for in one houre is thy iudgement come.

11 And the ⁱ merchants of the earth shall weepe and waile ouer her: for no man buyeth her ware any more.

12 The ware of gold & siluer, and of precious stone, and of pearles, and of fine linen, and of purple, & of silke, and of skarlet, and of all maner of Thine ᵏ wood, and of all vessels of yuory, and of all vessels of most precious wood, and of brasse, and of iron, and of marble,

13 And of cynamom, and odours, & ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oile, and fine floure, and wheate, and beasts, and sheepe, and horses, and ˡ charets, & seruants, and ᵐ soules of men.

14 (And the ⁿ apples that thy soule lusted after, are departed from thee, and all things which were fat and excellent, are departed from thee, & thou shalt find them no more)

15 The merchants of these things which were waxed rich, shall stand afarre off from her, for feare of her torment, weeping and wailing,

16 And saying, Alas, alas, the great citie, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and skarlet, and guilded with golde, and precious stone, and pearles.

17 For in one houre so great riches are come to desolation. And euery shipmaster, and all the people that occupie ships, and shipmen, and whosoeuer trauaile on the sea, shall stand afarre off, 18 And crie, when they see the smoke of her burning, saying, What citie was like vnto this great citie?

19 And they shal cast ᵒ dust on their heads, and crie weeping & wailing, and say, Alas, alas, the great citie, wherein were made rich al that had ships on the sea by her ‖ costlines: for in one houre she is made desolate.

20 ᴰ Reioyce ouer her, and ye holy Apostles and Prophets: for God hath ᵖ giuen your iudgement on her.

21 Then a mighty Angell tooke vp a stone, like a great milstone, and ᵠ cast it into the sea, saying, With such violence shall the great citie Babylon be cast, & shall be ʳ found no more.

22 And the voyce of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpetters shall bee heard no more in thee, and no crafts man, of whatsoeuer craft he be, shall be found any more in thee: and the sound of a milstone shall be heard no more in thee.

23 And the light of a candle shal shine no more in thee: & the voice of the bridegroome and of the bride shall bee heard no more in thee: for thy ˢ merchants were the great men of the earth: and with thine inchantments were deceiued all nations.

24 And in her was found the blood of the Prophets, and of the Saints, and of all that were slaine vpon the earth.

‖ Or, noble estate.

p And hath reuenged your cause in punishing her. Iere.51.63.

q It shall not be like to other cities which may bee builded againe, but it shall be destroyed without mercy.

r The Romish prelates and merchants of soules are as kings and princes: so that their couetousnes and pride must be punished: secondly their crafts & deceits: and thirdly their cruelty.

CHAP. XIX.

1 Praises are giuen vnto God for iudging the whore, and for auenging the blood of his seruants. 10 The Angell will not bee worshipped. 27 The foules and birds are called to the slaughter.

AND after these things I heard a great voice of a great multitude in heauen, saying, ᵃ Hallelu-iah, saluation, and glory, and honour, and power be to the Lord our God.

2 For ᵇ true and righteous are his iudgements: for hee hath condemned the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath auenged the blood of his seruants, shed by her hand.

3 And againe they said, Hallelu-iah: and her ᶜ smoke rose vp for euermore.

4 And the foure and twenty Elders, and the foure ᵈ beasts fell downe, and worshipped God that sate on the throne, saying, ᵉ Amen, Hallelu-iah.

5 Then a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his seruants, and ye that feare him, both small and great.

6 And I heard like a voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of strong thunderings, saying, Hallelu-iah: for our Lord God almighty hath reigned.

CHAP. XX.

2 Satan being bound for a certaine time, 7 And after let loose, vexeth the Church grieuously. 10. 14 And after the world is iudged, bee and his are cast into the lake of fire.

AND I saw an ᵃ Angel come downe from heauen, hauing the ᵇ key of the bottomlesse pit, and a great chaine in his hand.

2 And he tooke the dragon that old serpent, which is the deuill and Satan, and he bound him ᶜ a thousand yeeres,

3 And cast him into the bottomlesse pit, and he shut him vp, and sealed the doore vpon him, that hee should deceiue the people no more, till the ᵈ thousand yeeres were fulfilled: for after that he must be loosed for a little season.

4 And I saw ᵉ seates: and they sate vpon them, and iudgement was giuen vnto them, and I sawe the soules of them, that were beheaded for the witnesse of Iesus, and for the worde of God, and which did not worship the beast, neither his image, neither had taken his marke vpon their foreheads, or on their handes: and they liued, and reigned with Christ a ᶠ thousand yeere.

5 But the rest of the ᵍ dead men shal not liue againe, vntill the thousand yeeres be finished: this is the ʰ first resurrection.

6 Blessed and holy is he, that hath part in the first resurrection: for on such the ⁱ second death hath no power: but they ᵏ shall be the Priests of God and of Christ, and shal reigne with him a ˡ thousand yeere.

7 And when the thousand yeeres are ᵐ expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison,

8 And shall go out to deceiue the people, which are in the foure quarters of the earth: euen ⁿ Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battel, whose number is as the sand of the sea.

9 And they went vp into the plaine of the earth, which compassed the tents of the Saints about, and the beloued city: but fire came downe from God out of heauen, and deuoured them.

10 And the deuill that deceiued them, was cast into a lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet shall bee tormented euen day and night for euermore.

11 And I saw a great white throne, and ᵒ one that sate on it, from whose face fled away both the earth and heauen, and their place was no more found.

12 And I saw the dead, both great and small stand before God: and the ᵖ bookes a This Angel representeth the order of the Apostles, whose vocation and office was from heauen: or may signifie Christ, which should tread downe the serpents head.

b Hereby hee meaneth the Gospel whereby hell is shut vp to the faithfull, and Satan is chained that he cannot hurt them, yea and the ministers here by open it to the infidels, but through their impietie and stubburnnesse.

c That is, from Christs nativity vnto the time of Pope Sylvester the second: so long the pure doctrine should after a sort remain.

CHAP. XXI.

3.24 The blessed estate of the godly, 8.17 And the miserable condition of the wicked. 11 The description of the heauenly Ierusalem, and of the wife of the Lambe.

Isa.65.17. and 66.22.

AND I sawe * a newe heauen, and a newe earth: a for * the first heauen, and the first earth were b passed away, and there was no more sea.

a All things shal be renewed and restored into a most excellent & perfect estate, and therefore the day of the resurrection is called the day of restauration of all things, Act. 5.21. 2.Pet.3.13.

b For all things shalbe purged from their corruption, and the faithfull shall enter into heauen with their head Christ.

2 And I John sawe the c holy citie new Ierusalem come d downe from God out of heauen, prepared as a bride trimmed for her husband.

c The holy company of the elect.

d Meaning that God by his diuine maiestie will glorifie and renue his, and take them vnto him. Isa.25.8. chap.7.17.

3 And I heard a great voyce out of heauen, saying, Behold the Tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them: and they shall be his people, and God himselfe shalbe their God with them.

e All occasions of sorow shall be taken way: so that they shall haue perpetual ioy. Isa.43.19., 2.cor.5.17. Chap.1.8. and 22.13.

4 * And God shal wipe e away all teares from their eyes: and there shall be no more death, neither sorow, neither crying, neither shall there bee any more paine: for the first things are passed.

5 And he that sate vpon the throne, sayd, *Beholde, I make all things new: and hee sayd vnto me, Write: for these wordes are faithfull and true.

f That am the eternall life wil giue vnto mine

6 And hee sayd vnto me, It is done, * I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ende. I will giue to him that is a thirst, of the f well of the water of life freely.

7 He that ouercommeth, shall inherite all things, and I will be his God, and hee shall be my sonne.

8 But the fearefull, and vnbeleeuing, and the g abominable, and murtherers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all lyers shal haue their part in the lake, which burneth with fire & brimstone, which is the second death.

9 And there came vnto me one of the seuen Angels, which had the seuen viols ful of the seuen last plagues, and talked with mee, saying, Come: I will shewe thee the h bride, the Lambes wife.

10 And hee caried mee away in the spirit to a great and an hie mountaine, and hee shewed mee the great i citie, holy Ierusalem, k descending out of heauen from God,

11 Hauing the glory of God: and her shining was like vnto a stone most precious, as a stone Iasper stone, cleare as Crystall, 12 And had a great l wall and hie, and had twelue m gates, and at the gates twelue Angels, and the names written, which are the twelue tribes of the children of Israel.

13 On the East part there were three gates, and on the Northside three gates, on the Southside three gates, and on the West side three gates.

14 And the wall of the citie had twelue foundations, and in them the names of the Lambes twelue n Apostles.

15 And he that talked with me had a golden reed to measure the city withall, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the city lay foure square, and the length is as large as the breadth of it, and he measured the city with the reede, twelue thousand furlongs: and the length, and the breadth, and the height of it are equall.

17 And hee measured the wall thereof, an hundred, fourtie and foure cubites, by the measure of man, that is, of the Angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of Iasper: and the city was pure golde like vnto cleare glasse.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the citie was garnished with all maner of precious stones, the first foundation was Iasper: the seconde of Saphir: the thirde of a Chalcedonie: the fourth of an Emeraude:

20 The fift of a Sardonix: the sixt of a Sardius: the seuenth of a Chrysolite: the eight of a Beryl: the ninth of a Topaz: the tenth of a Chrysoprasus: the eleuenth of a Iacinth: the twelfth an Amethist.

21 And the twelue gates were twelue pearles, and euery gate is of one pearle, and the street of the citie is pure golde, as shining glasse.

22 And I sawe no Temple therein: for the Lorde God Almighty and the o Lambe are the Temple of it.

23 * And the Citie hath no neede of the Sunne, neither of the moone to shine in it: for the glory of God did light it: and the Lambe is the light of it.

24 *And the people which are saued, shal walke in the light of it: and the p Kings of the earth shall bring their glory and honour vnto it,

25 * And the gates of it shal not be shut by day: for there shalbe no night there.

26 And the glory and honour of the Gentiles shalbe brought vnto it.

27 And there shall enter into it none vncleane thing, neither whatsoeuer worketh abomination or lyes: but they which are written in the Lambes * Booke of life.

g They which feare man more then God. h They which mocke and iest at Religion. i Meaning the Church, which is married to Christ by faith. k By this description is declared the incomprehensible excellencie, which the heauenly company do enioy. l It is said to come downe from heauen, because all the benefits that the Church hath, they acknowledge to come of God through Christ.

m Euer greene and flourishing.

a Signifying that the faithfull shall be surely kept in heauen.

o That is, place ynough to enter: for els we know there is but one way, & one gate, euen Iesus Christ.

p For the Apostles were meanes whereby Iesus Christ the true foundation was reueiled to the world.

q This declareth that Christ is God inseparable with his Father. Isa.60.19. Isa.60.3,5.

t Here we see as in infinite other places, that kings and princes (contrary to that wicked opinion of the Anabaptists) are partakers of the heauenly glory, if they rule in the feare of the Lord. Isa.60.11. Phil.4.3 chap. 3 5. and 20,12.

CHAP. XXII.

1 The riuer of the water of life. 3 The fruitfulnesse and light of the citie of God. 6 The Lorde giueth euer his seruants warning of things to come. 9 The Angel will not bee worshipped. 18 To the worde of God may nothing bee added, nor diminished therefrom.

And

a He alludeth to the visible paradise, to set forth more sensibly the spirituall: and this agreeth with that which is written, Ezek. 47.1.

b Meaning, that Christ who is the life of his church, is common to all his, and not peculiar for any one sort of people.

c For there are al things pleasant and full of all contentation continually.

d Which sometime were vnpure as Gentiles, but now are purged and made whole by Christ. Isa. 16.19, 20.

e The light shall be vnchangeable, and shine for euer, Chap. 19.10.

f Now this is the second time that he suffered himselfe to be caried away with the excellencie of the person: which is to admonish vs of our infirmitie and readinesse to fall, except God strengthen vs miraculously with his Spirite.

g This is not then as the other prophesies which were commanded to be hid till the time appointed, as in Daniel 12.4. because that these things should be quickly accomplished, and did now beginne,

AND he shewed mee a pure [a] riuer of water of life, cleare as christall, proceeding out of the throne of GOD, and of the Lambe.

2 In the [b] middes of the streete of it, and of either side of the riuer, was the tree of life, which bare twelue maner of fruites, and gaue fruite euery [c] moneth: and the leaues of the tree serued to heale [d] the nations with.

3 And there shalbe no more curse, but the throne of God and of the Lambe shall bee in it, and his seruants shall serue him,

4 And they shall see his face, and his name shall be in their foreheads.

5 * And there shalbe no [e] night there, and they neede no candle, neither light of the Sunne: for the Lord God giueth them light, and they shall reigne for euermore.

6 And hee sayde vnto me, These words are faithfull and true: and the Lord God of the holy Prophets sent his Angel to shewe vnto his seruaunts the things which must shortly be fulfilled.

7 Beholde, I come shortly. Blessed is he that keepeth the wordes of the prophesie of this booke.

8 And I am John, which saw and heard these things: and when I had heard and seene, * I [f] fell downe to worship before the feete of the Angell, which shewed mee these things.

9 But hee sayd vnto me, See thou doe it not: for I am thy fellow seruant, and of thy brethren the Prophets, and of them which keepe the wordes of this booke: worshippe God.

10 And he sayd vnto me, [g] Seale not the wordes of the prophesie of this booke: for the time is at hand.

11 He that is vniust, let him be vniust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and hee that is righteous, let him bee righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

12 And beholde, I come shortly, and my reward is with mee, * to giue euery man according as his worke shall be.

13 I am * Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ende, the first, and the last.

14 Blessed are they, that do his commandements, that their right may be in the [h] tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city.

15 For without shall bee dogges and enchanters, and whoremongers, and murtherers, and idolaters, and whosoeuer loueth or maketh [i] lies.

16 I Jesus haue sent mine Angel, to testifie vnto you these things in the Churches: I am the roote and the [k] generation of Dauid, and the bright morning [l] starre.

17 And the Spirite and the Bride say, Come. And let him that heareth, say, [m] Come: And let him that is [n] a thirst, come: and *let whosoeuer [o] will, take of the water of life freely.

18 For I protest vnto euery man that heareth the wordes of the prophesie of this booke, * If any man shall adde vnto these things, God shal adde vnto him the plagues, that are written in this booke.

19 And if any man shall diminish of the wordes of the booke of this prophesie, God shall take away his part out of the booke of life, and out of the holy City, and from those things which are written in this booke.

20 He which testifieth these things, saith, [p] Surely, I come quickely. Amen. Euen so [q] come, Lord Jesus.

21 The grace of our Lorde Jesus Christ be with you all, Amen.

p Seeing the Lord is at hand, we ought to be constant and reioyce, but wee must beware wee esteeme not the length or shortnesse of the Lords comming by our owne imagination, 2. Pet. 3.9. q This declareth the earnest desire that the faithfull haue to bee deliuered out of these miseries, and to be ioyned with their head Christ Iesus.

Rom. 2.6. Isa. 41.4. & 44.6. chap. 1.8. & 21.6.

h They shall liue eternally with the Sonne of God.

i That maintaine false doctrine, and delight therein.

k That is, a true and natural man, and yet God equall with my Father.

l For Christ is the light that giueth light to euery one that commeth into this world.

m Let them be afraid of Gods horrible iudgements, and as soone as they heare the Lambe call, let them come.

n He that feeleth himselfe oppressed with afflictions, and desireth the heauenly graces and comfort. Isa 55.1.

¶THE PREFACE TO THE Christian Reader, touching the two Alphabets ensuing.

GOOD Christian Reader, because thou mayest enioy and reape the profite of these two Alphabets of directions vnto Common places hereafter following, which I haue in maner of a briefe Concordance, or large & ample Index, collected, digested, and caused to be imprinted for thy cõmoditie: I thought it not amisse to aduertise thee somewhat touching the principall contents, vse, and commoditie of them. Wherefore be it knowen vnto thee, that in the first of the said Alphabets, I haue together placed by themselues in a maner, all the strange names and wordes which are scatteringly to bee found here and there throughout the whole Bible, remayning written in the Hebrewe, Chaldean, Syrian, Greeke, or Latine languages: to the ende thou mayst by that meanes, learne to be conduced vnto so much of the interpretation, Historie, Common places, and knowledge of them, and euery of them, as I trust thou shalt thinke needefull. And for that in diuers translations these strange names & words are written diuersly, I haue, in respect thereof, only in this Alphabet, followed the Genena translation, as most allowed in that behalfe, and yet haue placed in the Margent thereof, how in writing, other Translations differ from the same: to the end not only such corruptions as are found for want of ỹ true Orthographie of them, may appeare vnto those that are skilful in those languages, to be amended, when time shall minister occasion (as some of them are already) but also the vnskilful Readers be not defrauded of such commodity, as might grow vnto them thereby, especially if they should haue occasion to looke for any word in the same Alphabet, after the same maner of writing, that they had seene or read it in other Copies, and not finde the same accordingly. Secondly, in the other of the said Alphabets, I haue likewise by themselues placed all, and as many proper and vsual English words, as are conteined in the same Bible, conducing to the finding out of the most fittest sentences, and best common places, tending to the prouing or verifying of any article and doctrine, concerning our Christian faith & religion, or belonging to any other godly or necessary instruction: so as if thou wouldest vnderstand what is to be learned in the Scriptures touching God or his power, his wisdome, or his loue, his mercie, or his trueth, his iustice, his promises, his plagues, or his punishments, &c. either else cõcerning Christ, or the holy Ghost, Angel, or Man, Nature, or Law, Sinne, or Grace, Faith, or Vnbeliefe, Predestination, or Reprobation, Iustification, Regeneration, Church or Sacraments, &c. or to be briefe, if thou wouldest vnderstand what is necessarily to bee learned in the same Scriptures, touching the estate, authoritie, office or duetie of Kings or Princes, Iudges or Magistrates, Bishops & Pastors, Elders or Ministers, Fathers and Mothers, Masters and Mistresses, Subiects, and Parishioners, Husbands & Wiues, Children and seruants, and how euery one, of what degree, estate, condition, or profession soeuer, he, she, or they be of, ought to behaue themselues towards God, and one towards another, and what is to be spoken and not spoken, and what is to be done and left vndone of them or any of them, by the rule of Gods word: thou art not voyd of competent knowledge or directions in this Alphabet to ayde thee. Thirdly, to further thee to finde out in these two Alphabets, any thing whereof I haue before made mention, thou art to resort Alphabetically vnto the first of them, with the name of any Man, Woman, Countrey, Citie, Place, Riuer, Idole, &c. in the same conteined: and also vnto the second of them, with the chiefe word of any sentence or cõmon place therein mentioned, which thou art most affected vnto, or desirest to be satisfied of: and by that meanes in euery of them shalt thou by Gods grace, without faile be conduced, and to thy great ease directed,and as it were, ledde by the hand, euen to the Booke,Chapter and Verſe, where the ſame,(or ſo much thereof, as for a godly,Chriſtian,and neceſſary knowledge ſhall bee thought requiſite) is to bee found out moſt readily: alwayes remembring, that whatſoeuer conuenient knowledge wanteth in theſe Alphabets, as touching the text whereunto it directeth thee, is there ſupplied by the Annotations, or quotations in the Margent. Moreouer,good Chriſtian Reader,thou haſt alſo to obſerue how that the firſt Figure, or Figures, which followe next after any Booke whereunto thou ſhalt bee guided, ſignifieth or ſignifie the Chapter,and the other the verſe or verſes of the ſame Chapter, where any of the foreſaid things is to be ſought for. Againe,where as thou ſhalt after a Chapter,and otherwhiles after ſome verſe or verſes of a Chapter,finde this marke or Starre * quoted,thou art to vnderſtand, how that the whole Chapter,or from the verſe of that Chapter where the ſame Starre is placed forward vnto the ende thereof,entreateth,or in ſome good reſpects chiefly belongeth, and may be applyed to the ſame Hiſtorie, matter, or common place thou ſeekeſt for,except there be any verſes following the ſame *, for then the common place is to be vnderſtoode, not to exceede thoſe verſes. Finally, whereas I haue ſometimes in theſe Alphabets partly ſet downe the ſenſe, & that which may properly be gathered of the text, which thou art directed vnto, & not the very words themſelues, and otherwhiles repeated one thing in diuers places,but yet to diuers ends: I truſt that wil not offend thee,ſith I haue ſo done for the vnlearneds ſake,becauſe the ſame could not,ne can be made too plaine for them,and therefore haue vſed not ſo great a curioſitie and abbreuiation in that behalfe,as perhaps ſome others would haue had me: & yet conſidering to what a great quantity theſe two Alphabets are growen vnto, (ouer that I thought they would) I haue bene forced to leaue out ſomewhat, that otherwiſe I would haue added vnto them, which hereafter by Gods grace I will ſupply: thus much touching the principall contentes,cõmodity,& vſe of the aforeſaid Alphabets, which with ſuch other doubts as may trouble thee,I miſtruſt not, but by well peruſing of the ſame,and practiſe (with the diuerſitie of letter,which is vſed in them) will ſoone appeare very eaſie, plaine, and apparant vnto thee, albeit I particularly touch not euery of them. Now therfore to conclude,if my ſimple trauaile and paines taken herein ſhalbe wel accepted of thee,I meane,of the more skilful and learned Readers to be poliſhed and amended of them (if they ſhall ſo deeme neceſſary and conuenient) to the better edification of the Church of God,whereof they are or ought to be ioynt members, helpers,and furtherers,ſo farre forth as their Talents wil ſtretch vnto,and that in the ſpirit of meekeneſſe, ſobrietie,and charitie: and of the leſſe learned or vnlearned Reader (vnto whom I confeſſe my ſelfe the greateſt debtour) as an aid and helpe to their godly ſtudies, and honeſt trade of life,and withal Chriſtianly to be conſtrued of al men,as a meanes and furtherance,and not an hinderance vnto any,I ſhall for my part thinke my ſelfe weil requited,and more then ſufficiently rewarded,in that I ſhall enioy my deſire,and that which I longed for. And ſo beſeeching Almightie God to giue vs his grace to be ſtudious of vnitie,and bringing forth ſuch fruites,as may declare our vndoubted election in Chriſt Ieſus, I take my leaue of thee,this xxij of December.

Anno Domini.
